| 20 | Q It's called what? |
| 21 | A It's called Political Beatdown. |
| 22 | Q Political Beatdown. |
| 23 | And your affiliation with politics is because of my |

| 25 | A No. |

| M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba) |  |
| :--- | :--- |
| $\mathbf{1}$ | Mr. Trump. The time period is a bit confusing. I 2386 |
| 2 | appreciate the point we're trying to make. It's a bit |
| 3 | belabored. I'm just noting my objection to how cumulative |
| 4 | this is getting. |
| 5 | $\quad$ MS. HABBA: All due respect, Your Honor, it's |
| 6 | because I'm not getting a yes-or-no answer to a very simple |
| 7 | question. |
| 8 | MR. KISE: Your Honor, I don't know -- now who is |
| 9 | giving the speeches? But yes, all we're trying to get at is |
| 10 | a simple answer to a simple question. He's already |
| 11 | testified that the majority, I think, it's not clear, that |
| 12 | the majority of his current income comes from his activities |
| 13 | associated with harassing, trashing, talking about everyone, |
| 14 | you know, President Trump. So he can affirm that if it was |
| 15 | -- the question was confined to his last year's tax return |
| 16 | did most of your income come from your activities associated |
| 17 | with harassing, trashing, talking about, podcasting about, |
| 18 | whatever it's called on the Internet, about President Trump. |
| 19 | That's it. It goes to motive, it goes to bias. |
| 20 | THE COURT: Maybe we can compromise here. |
| 21 | Ms. Habba, would you rather the question be last |
| 22 | year's tax return or would it be now? And then the rest of |
| 23 | it will basically be is it true that the majority of your |
| 24 | income, last year's tax return or not, is based on |
| 25 | commentary on Donald J. Trump? |

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba)

MS. HABBA: That's perfectly said, Your Honor. I'll adopt that question, if I may.

THE COURT: Do you want the tax return or now? MS. HABBA: Now.
THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand the question?
THE WITNESS: I understand the question. It's -the issue I have is when you say "is the majority." I speak about all politicians. It's not just Mr. Trump. I speak about Mark Meadows, I speak about everything that's going on. I speak about Israel. I speak about many things. THE COURT: Okay. Next question.
Q But your testimony was today that in every podcast no matter who you're speaking about, Mark Meadows, no matter if you're speaking about --

THE COURT: Wait. Before you establish that yes, he said every podcast these days he mentions Donald Trump. MS. HABBA: Okay, Your Honor.
THE COURT: And along with what Ms. Faherty was saying, I think we can move on at this point. He makes money off his comments, his prior relationship to Donald J. Trump.
Q And are you promoting your testimony here today, Mr. Cohen?
A Am I promoting it? I will retweet something. I will 25 say I am at the trial, but I am not tweeting as per the judge's directive not to about anything specific.
Q So is it your testimony that you have not promoted you being here in court today?

MS. FAHERTY: Objection. Promoted?
A I don't understand.
MS. HABBA: I'll pull up an exhibit.
Q Is it your testimony that you have not been promoting the fact that you're coming here to testify against Donald Trump for the Attorney General?
A I have tweeted about that, yes.
THE COURT: I'll allow that.
Q You tweeted about it and you discussed it on your podcast; correct?
A I have.
Q And during interviews on TV; correct?
A Correct.
Q And you've even stated that you intend on holding a press conference after your testimony today is finished, isn't that correct?
A I don't recall that.
MS. HABBA: Can we please pull up his tweet from October 15th?
Q Mr. Cohen, we've already established that your Twitter account is @MichaelCohen212; correct?
A Correct.

Q And do you see that on October 15, 2023 at 8:10 p.m. somebody stated -- just for their privacy I'm not going to read it in -- "I can't wait to see the reaction of all the haters of when you do testify... hold a press conference at the end of your last day, if you can." And there are two emojis there. And your response was: "I can and I will."

Do you see that, Mr. Cohen?
A I see that.
Q Are you going to speak to the --
THE COURT: Hold on one second.
MS. FAHERTY: Again, I'm going to launch my objection to what is clearly hearsay evidence. Ms. Habba --

THE COURT: Overruled. Let's move on.
MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
Your Honor, I'm just going to state that clearly she is trying to throw me off by continuously interrupting me. I would like to just continue or we're going to be here all day.

MS. FAHERTY: And I would just ask to strike the portion of the tweet that is put in front of this witness. That is not his. That is not here, cannot provide any testimony as to the statements asserted therein. Move to strike that from the record. It is hearsay, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, that is absurd. Mr. Cohen is giving a statement without the underlying statement which 1 is not for the truth of the matter asserted. He's responding to it. So if Ms. Habba would not have put in the bottom part, the objection would have been "it's incomplete, we don't know what Mr. Cohen is saying, I can and I will." This is completely admissible and it should be admitted without objection.

MS. HABBA: And it's for impeachment purposes, Your Honor.

MS. FAHERTY: Again, she read into the record the out-of-court statements of another person and as to Michael Cohen's statements that is on the screen, you have admitted it, you have overruled as to Michael Cohen's statement. I accept that ruling by the Court, but as to Ms. Habba reading into the record third party out-of-court statements, I ask that they be stricken from the record.

THE COURT: Well, you know, it's always funny you want to strike it from the record. It's only 200 people out there that have heard it.

Well, what if we agree, for whatever it's worth, that the only admissible aspects are starting with dot, dot, dot, hold a press conference, etc., I can and I will. I find that admissible. We will take out "I can't wait to see the reaction of all the haters when you do testify."

MS. FAHERTY: Over my objection, but I understand.
THE COURT: Okay. It's in evidence other than the 1 spoke to the press.

2 Q President Trump makes you relevant, doesn't he, Mr. Cohen?

A I think the circumstances make me relevant.
Q The circumstances that you used to work for the President of the United States who is the single most famous presidential candidate in this world, you speak about him every day because it makes you money, isn't that correct?

THE COURT: I thought we were moving on from this point.

MS. HABBA: Well, he's backtracking, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I didn't notice any backtracking.
MS. HABBA: I'll keep going.
MS. FAHERTY: Can we please stop with the characterizations, Your Honor, please?

THE COURT: I didn't find anything objectionable there.
Q Mr. Cohen --
THE COURT: Except I didn't notice any backtracking. Sorry. Let's just move ahead. The record says what it says.

MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Mr. Cohen, do you sell advertisement spots?
A Yes, there are advertisements in the podcast.
Q Do you sell the advertisement spots?

Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Habba)
Page 2393
1 A I don't sell them, no.
2 Q Do you make money from advertising?
3 A Good question. Yes.
4 Q And the more advertisements you sell, the more money you make; correct?

A That's how it works.
Q Is that a yes, Mr. Cohen?
A That's a yes.
Q Mr. Cohen, would you disagree with the fact that the only reason you are relevant in the public eye is because of President Trump?

A No.
Q You take every opportunity to criticize President Trump and discuss the latest Trump-related news, don't you?
A Along with CNN, MSNBC, Fox, ABC, CBS, NBC. He's relevant in the news and that's what my podcast discusses.
$Q$ You're right. President Trump is relevant in the news and President Trump makes money for the news, doesn't he, Mr. Cohen?

A I don't understand your question, "Mr. Trump makes money for the news?"

Q Well, you sell advertising, right?
A Forme.
Q Do news media sell --
THE WITNESS: I'm so sorry, Your Honor. I don't

| 1 | understand. I apologize. I'm confused by your question. |
| 2 | THE COURT: Let's start again. Withdrawn, |
| 3 | whatever. |
| 4 | MS. HABBA: Sure. Let's keep going and I'll |
| 5 | continue. |
| 6 | THE COURT: And move on to another topic as soon as |
| 7 | possible. |
| 8 | MS. HABBA: I can ask it in one simple question. |
| 9 | Q Mr. Cohen, you have financial incentive to criticize |
| 10 | President Trump; correct? Yes or no, please? |
| 11 | A $\quad$ Yes. |
| 12 | Q Thank you. |
| 13 | But Mr. Cohen, you never used to speak like that, did |
| 14 | you? |
| 15 | THE COURT: Sustained. I don't know what the |
| 16 | context is. Speak like that what? |
| 17 | MS. HABBA: I'll just ask the questions. |
| 18 | Q $\quad$ Mr. Cohen, do you remember in 2015 telling Politico: |
| 19 | "The fact is Mr. Trump has built a 10 billion plus empire, |
| 20 | employs thousands of people, has worked with many leaders around |
| 21 | the globe successfully and is considered one of the best |
| 22 | negotiators in history, these are all qualifications essential |
| 23 | to being a great president." Do you recall saying that? |
| 24 | A I think we already went through this. |
| 25 | Q Yes or no? Yes or no? |

A It's been asked and answered.
THE COURT: I don't think that particular quote was - it was?

MS. FAHERTY: I think so, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: Is the witness now objecting? This is a new level of low, even for Michael Cohen.

MS. FAHERTY: Again, if we could --
THE COURT: Sustained, sustained.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q Mr. Cohen, did you state on January 2017, "President Elect Trump has always stated how much he loves what he does. Anyone who spends more than four decades building a $$ 10$ billion empire would clearly be sentimental about relinquishing control," said Michael Cohen, executive VP of the Trump Organization. "However," you said, "President Elect Trump has also stated that there is nothing more important to him than fixing the mistakes made by the previous administration and making America great again."

Did you say that, Mr. Cohen?
A I believe those are my words.
Q Do you need me to refresh your recollection?
A No. I'm looking at what it is that you put up on the screen.

Q Is that a quote with your name on it, Mr. Cohen?
A Yes. And this is from 2015 again?
Q This is from January 3, 2017, CNN.
A 2017, yes.
Q Do you recognize that as your words?
A Yes, it seems like it could be my words.
MS. HABBA: I would like to move into evidence this quote.

I don't have the number, Peter. Do you have it?
987.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm just re-asserting the same objection I've had. In fact, I don't even know what this document is. There's not even a title. There's not even an author. I don't know who wrote it. There's been no foundation laid other than there was a statement that at some point was captured by someone in this article. If it is as to that one statement, no objections since Mr. Cohen has testified that those were his words. Otherwise, the objection remains as to the admission of this document.

THE COURT: You don't want -- you don't want the document in, but the words that have been read and he said, "Yes, I could have said that," whatever -- can we just --

MS. HABBA: I could lay the foundation and clear this up, if you'd like. I don't really -- I mean, it is for impeachment purposes, number one. I asked him if he said it. He said he didn't recollect, so I brought it up and now he recognizes that he brought -- he said it, so I'm moving it into evidence.

I'm not sure -- we're really going to be here all day, Ms. Faherty if this is what we are going to keep doing. It is a CNN article. Look at it. Here is the website. I don't even need the whole article in. I just asked Mr. Cohen if he said what he said and now he said, "yes."

THE COURT: So, then, we don't need the article.

M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA)

Q Thank you.
MS. HABBA: Can you, please, go to his quote.
Q Does this appear to be from the website from CNN?
A It appears to be, yes.
Q Okay. Do you recall saying, "I'm not so sure that that's true and l've worked for Mr. Trump for" "now for a long time," Cohen said. "I can tell you that Mr. Trump's memory is fantastic and I've never come in a situation where Mr. Trump has said something that is not accurate."

Is that in quotations, Mr. Cohen?
A That's in quote.
Q And you understand the press, don't you, Mr. Cohen?
A I do.
Q And if you don't speak on the record, the press can't put you in quotes and relate it to your name. Isn't that true, Mr. Cohen?
A For the most part, yes.
Q In fact, you used to record yourself speaking well about the president to the press sometimes, didn't you, Mr. Cohen?
A I don't understand your question.
Q How often did you speak to the press when you worked for President Trump?
A Every day.
Q So you know that they would never put that in quotes unless you said it was on the record, correct, or forgot to say that it wasn't? Isn't that how it works?

A Yes, that's how it works.
Q Is that your quote, Mr. Cohen?
A That would be my quote.
Q Okay. Thank you. I don't need it into evidence. So I'm not going to, but you know what. Actually, let's move it into evidence. We laid the foundation anyway. I'd like to move that into evidence, CNN article dated November 30, 2015.

MS. FAHERTY: Same objection and -- same objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
MS. HABBA: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 987.)
Q April 15, 2011, you interviewed with ABC News and said,
"It's very, very surreal. I've been admiring Donald Trump since I was in high school."
Do you remember saying that?
A You are going, again, have to refresh my memory.
Q Sure.
MS. HABBA: Pull it up, please.
Q Mr. Cohen?
A Yes.
Q Do you see the website on the top of this screen?

Page 2401

A Yes.
Q It says, "The wayback machine." You see ABC News on the top right?

A I do.
Q Okay.
MS. HABBA: Can you get out, please zoom out. Can you put in his quote and blow it up.
Q Do you see that, again, in quotations, it has the quote that I just read? It says, "Cohen told ABC News "and then it states, "I've been admiring Donald Trump since I was in high school. He said that when he was a young man, he read Trump's 1987 book, "The Art of the Deal" cover to cover twice." Isn't that correct?
A Yes.
Q Do you doubt that those are your words, Mr. Cohen?
A No.
Q Did you read "The Art of the Deal" twice when you were in high school?

A No.
Q So were you lying?
A No. I read it twice when I was in college.
Q Oh, okay. In college. I got it. So you read, "The Art of the Deal" twice in college, right?

A I just answered that.
Q But that was before you worked for President Trump,

correct?

A Correct.
Q Did you admire President Trump in college?
A I did.
Q Okay. Let's move on. Do you recall saying, "That's what people want to see, authenticity. I mean, who's smarter than Donald Trump. He's the greatest negotiator on the planet. He is presidential." You said that on Sean Hannity on August 4, 2015. Do you recall that?

A I recall that.
Q Do you recall that you also said on Sean Hannity on July 21, 2016, "I know Mr. Trump. I've stood by him shoulder to shoulder for the past decade. I've seen him in action. He knows how to build things. He knows how to fix things. He knows how to make them better. He knows people. He loves people. He said it himself. He's able to relate to the plumber, to the electrician, to the laborer because that's what his father Fred taught him and he learned values and that's something that a lot of politicians, specifically Hillary, does not have, is values."

Do you remember saying that to Sean Hannity?
A If you can show me. It sounds correct.
Q Sure?
A But I don't recall that that's exactly what I said.
Q Sure. We can show you.
M. COHEN - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HABBA)

Page 2403

MS. HABBA: Can you pull it up? Is it a video? We're having some technical issues.
A I'll tell you what. I'll acknowledge.
Q No, I don't want you to do that, Mr. Cohen.
A I will acknowledge that I did, so we can move this thing faster.
Q Did you say to Vanity Fair on September 26, 2017, "I'm the guy who protects the president and the family. I'm the guy who would take the bullet for the president." Did you say that?
A Yes.
Q Did you say to Hannity on March 20, 2017, "I think he's a wonderful man. I think he's going to be an amazing president. The family is just, you know, fantastic." Do you remember saying that?
A I don't remember saying that.
MR. HABBA: Do we have that one? Thank you.
Q Do you see this is Fox News article dated March 20, 2017?
A I will remain the personal attorney to Trump?
Q That's right. That's what the title is. That wasn't my question. The question is, is this dated March 20, 2017 from Fox News?
A That's what it says.
Q Great.
THE COURT: Please, no comments on the answer.

MS. HABBA: Sorry.
Can you blow up the portion, please. Thank you.
Q Can you read that to yourself, so I don't have to read it again.
(Witness reviewing document.)
Q Do you recall now saying what I read, "I think he's a wonderful man. I think he's going to be an amazing president. The family is just, you know, fantastic." Do you remember saying that now?

A I have said that.
Q Thank you.
Do you remember on April 15, 2011 in an interview with ABC News saying, "I think the world of him. I respect him as a businessman and I respect him as a boss." Do you remember saying that?

A Where are you reading from?
Q It's not here. I'm asking you.
A From where?
Q ABC News, April 15, 2011.
A Again, I'll need to see something to refresh my memory.
Q Sure. Let me ask you. I'm going to move this along.
Would it surprise you to hear that you said to Reuters on August 28, 2015, "Trump's lawyer, Michael Cohen, said Trump's record of success was proof positive of Mr. Trump's character and capabilities." Is that something you would say, Mr. Cohen?

Page 2405
A Yes.
Q Do you believe or have any reason not to believe that you said that to Reuters on August 28, 2015?

A I don't know. I'd have to see the document.
Q Okay. We can pull it up. This is an article from Reuters. You see that dated August 28, 2015 and the title is, "Best President ever. How Trump's love of hyperbole could backfire." Do you see this?
A Ido.
Q Can you, please, pull up his quote. "Trump's lawyer, Michael Cohen, said Trump's record of success was proof positive of Mr. Trump's character and capabilities." You see that? A I do.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, didn't we do this before? I thought I quoted from the below line, "For Trump, exaggerating has always been a frequent impulse, especially when the value of his trump brand is disputed." Can we move it along? I thought we did this already.

THE COURT: I believe we saw that, character and capabilities.

MS. HABBA: Did we see this one?
MS. FAHERTY: We saw that.
MS. HABBA: Okay. We'll move on.
THE COURT: Ms. Habba, how much longer will we hear this sort of -- these statements?

up the picture and you didn't want that up. I think they got it off her website, however, so we didn't necessarily agree, but -- and we did take it down, Your Honor, but we have so many different sides and I believe -- and I may be wrong on this, but I believe it was one of the political groups or one of the pacts that had it up or left it up, but I didn't knowingly do that.

THE COURT: Well, I'm more interested right now in -- to whom you were referring as you can see and as everyone can see, first of all, my principal law clerk is very close to me. In fact, Ms. Habba would refer to the notes back and forth and even the conversations, but you and $I$, we can see each other and we're close, but not as close clearly and there is a barrier between us. So wouldn't that be at best somewhat ambiguous as to whom you are referring? Have you also -- have you -- I know I'm doing a compound question here.

MR. KISE: I was going to say am I allowed to object to the question?

THE COURT: Sure, it's a hearing.
Don't you always refer to Michael Cohen as Michael Cohen?

THE WITNESS: No.
MR. KISE: Many things, even worse than that.
MS. HABBA: Yes, Your Honor. I can confirm that,

1 don't think any of us want to go that you presupposed some 2 ill motive on behalf of the only witness. I think that's a 3 dangerous place to go, not just for the sanction, but also 4 for the whole trial. I do think there is clear separation 5 between the two.

I mean, the President was talking about the witness on the stand. I mean, we can all agree we have different views about whether it's next to you or next to you with a barrier, but he's next to you. I also think that there is -- respectfully, I think there is considerable tension caused by at least -- and I'll let Mr. Robert speak to this. It is unusual in my experience to have a law secretary, a law clerk sit on the bench. I will say that. And so I think that may have created some of the confusion.

Ordinarily, in my experience, law clerks are in, you know, not sitting right next to the judge on the bench, but in the morning where we have a principal witness on the stand who has lied, lied, lied and as I said earlier this morning, I'm not going to go back into that speech, but that was the focal point of the examination today, that was the focal point of the animus today, that was the focal point of the questions today from the media today, so I just would ask you to reconsider.

I mean, certainly I don't want to have to file, frankly, yet another appeal and I just think if you want to,

| Proceedings | Page 2415 |

| 1 | much worse. |
| 2 | THE WITNESS: Much worse. |
| 3 | THE COURT: Would anybody else like to question the |
| 4 | witness, either from the defense or the Attorney General? |
| 5 | MR. KISE: No, Your Honor. |
| 6 | MS. HABBA: No, Your Honor. |
| 7 | THE COURT: The witness is excused. I have no |
| 8 | further questions. Thank you. |
| 9 | THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir. |
| 10 | (Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness |
| 11 | stand.) |
| 12 | THE COURT: Thank you. |
| 13 | As the trier of fact, I find that the witness is |
| 14 | not credible; that he was referring to my law clerk, who is |
| 15 | principal law clerk, who is sitting much closer to me, who |
| 16 | doesn't have a barrier, whom I believe has been accused by |
| 17 | the defendant of being partisan or Democrat or partisan |
| 18 | Democrat. I hereby fine you $10,000, which is on the low |
| 19 | side, to be paid within 30 days to the Lawyer's Fund for |
| 20 | Client Protection. |
| 21 | Would anybody like to say anything else? |
| 22 | MR. KISE: Your Honor, I would just object to that. |
| 23 | I mean, there is one witness on the stand, the only witness |
| 24 | on the stand. There is no evidence to the contrary other |
| 25 | than in your mind and I don't want to go to a place where I |

again, warn the defendant about the responsibilities, but I just don't think there is any clear record here.

And in order to impose sanctions generally the record needs to be very clear. And see, that's what just happened is kind of what is creating the issue is that like I'm talking to you and the notes are being passed to you about things and I think from a defendant standpoint, not from a lawyer standpoint, from a defendant standpoint, that creates an appearance that is uncomfortable and $I$ think that has created some of the confusion here.

But the President has testified that that's what he said. That's what I told you before. I think that's a fair interpretation of what's said and sanctions are not granted when there is gray. Sanctions are reserved for situations where it's a very clear situation. Last week, you exercised your discretion. I didn't object to that discretion in terms of what happened with the website. We explained it, I gave you as much detail as the Court asked for and we have since complied fully. "We" meaning the clients, have since complied fully with the order. So I would just ask that we don't create that -- another issue here because I think it has further ramifications for the overall proceeding, respectfully I do.

THE COURT: Just in response, I'll just say to me, totally separate from the trial. I mean, if you wanted to

| ---: | :--- |
| 1 | have ramifications you can have ramifications, but I don't. |
| 2 | Mr. Robert? |
| 3 | MR. ROBERT: So, Your Honor, I will speak from my |
| 4 | experience in New York State. It is incredibly unusual and, |
| 5 | quite frankly, in my experience, I've never seen a situation |
| 6 | where you're literally trying the case to two judges it |
| 7 | would appear whereas there are notes that are constantly |
| 8 | being passed, rulings that it would appear that the Court is |
| 9 | in consultation with the law secretary. I think it started |
| 10 | out less frequently. Now I would say it's almost with each |
| 11 | ruling. There is some concern on part of defendants as a |
| 12 | result of that. |
| 13 | I agree with Mr. Kise's statement about opposing |
| 14 | any imposition of sanctions in this case, but I do think |
| 15 | this is as good a time as any to express the defendant's |
| 16 | concern about what would appear to be the problem or the |
| 17 | challenge that we face and that we feel like we're trying |
| 18 | the case before two judges and sometimes you appear to be |
| 19 | leaning in one direction and then you'll either receive a |
| 20 | note or there will be an eye gesture or a roll of the face |
| 21 | and something changes and it is of significant concern to |
| 22 | us, not just during examination of witnesses by us, |
| 23 | examination by the Attorney General, but also in the general |
| 24 | presentation of our case here. So I just wanted to put that |
| 25 | on the record, sir. |

MS. HABBA: I'd just like to say as I said this morning, I'm going to reiterate something. I, myself, was a law clerk. I never sat next to the judge. The judge would actually never even allow me to come in front unless to watch oral argument, but all discussions about the case were when we were researching and deciding what the order can be. I've never experienced this and I've been practicing law for quite sometime now, unfortunately, for my age, but, Your Honor, all due respect, I agree with the sentiments.

I also think that we have to remember that you made your decision on this trial before we walked in regarding liability and we've been sitting here like he said -- and, frankly, I would like to add that I've been sitting here for longer than both my cocounsel. I've been doing this with you for now a few years from the Special Proceeding and now the trial and I have had issues, numerous issues, and if we're going to make a complete record with the treatment that I've received from Ms. Greenfield from the bench, it is inappropriate. I do not like having eyes rolled, I do not like being yelled at by law clerks who did not earn the robe

And, quite honestly, Your Honor, with this sanction, it only furthers my belief that the influence that

Ms. Habba?

1 THE COURT: Okay. and I think this is completely inappropriate.

is happening from the bench is completely inappropriate and should stop. Thank you.

MR. KISE: Can I just say one more thing, Judge? THE COURT: Sure.
MR. KISE: Thank you. I just want to go back to where I began because the record on the sanction relates to what happened outside. The testimony you received in the courtroom and neither of those present a clear picture of the supports and award of sanctions. It's clear that it's fully subject to interpretation. I think the speaker has to be taken at face value as to what he was talking about and the entirety of the conversation related to the testimony as it usually does when these press conferences occur. They usually relate to what just happened in the courtroom and what is happening in the courtroom is Michael Cohen. And so that's top of line. Whether you and $I$ or anyone else would agree "next to you" means next to you on the left or next to you on the right, you know, everyone has a different interpretation of it and because of that I would say that the President's interpretation is a fair interpretation.
It's what he meant. He's the speaker. There is nothing in the record that would refute that, so I just again would urge the Court to reconsider the judgment of sanctions because there is just not a clear record here.

If you are concerned about future violations or a violation then that is within your province to direct further the defendant or any of us for that matter, but I would say this record does not support any sanction and I would urge the Court to reconsider.

THE COURT: Let me address all the comments about my consultations, I'll call them. I make the final decisions. I value input from both of my law clerks. Every judge does things differently. I don't know whether there are other judges in this courtroom or city or country have their law clerks sit up on the bench. That's how I do things and I make the final decisions.

I guess I can't consult now, you know, and look terrible, wouldn't it? So I won't. I am reconsidering.

I don't think I said this before, but the idea that the statement would refer to the witness, you know, there is somebody sitting up there alongside of him, that was a partisan Democrat whatever, that doesn't make any sense to me.

MR. KISE: I mean, it -- again, in context, it certainly does, to me, given the circumstances and given the obvious animus, the admitted animus on the witness stand that Mr. Cohen has for my client. So, again, in context, I just think it has to be taken that way.

If Your Honor would like to -- I know you want to keep the schedule moving. If you want to take it under

| Proceedings |  |
| :--- | :--- |
| 1 | advisement further and reconsider, I'll just leave that to |
| 2 | you, but I just would ask that you take time and reconsider |
| 3 | this. Thank you. |
| 4 | $\quad$ THE COURT: I've been thinking about it obviously |
| 5 | for quite a while now. |
| 6 | Ms. Habba? |
| 7 | $\quad$ MS. HABBA: The only factual thing I would like to |
| 8 | add is the questions that have been out and I have obviously |
| 9 | standing there have been related to Michael Cohen's |
| 10 | testimony as well as to political matters. That has been |
| 11 | the scope of their questions. |
| 12 | Ms. Greenfield was never in the front of mind or |
| 13 | even asked about. So for what it's worth, Your Honor, I |
| 14 | have not heard that, nor would he be responding to that. It |
| 15 | just doesn't make sense. |
| 16 | THE COURT: I just need a little technical |
| 17 | assistance. I want to see the exact quote again. I'm |
| 18 | quoting in part, "with a person who is very partisan sitting |
| 19 | alongside of him, perhaps even much more partisan than he |
| 20 | is." I think the three attorneys that just spoke you've |
| 21 | made my whole point. That's what he's worried about, that |
| 22 | there is sitting alongside of me who is consulting with me. |
| 23 | MR. KISE: Respectfully, I disagree with that. The |
| 24 | person that's sitting next to you this morning is way more |
| 25 | partisan than -- well, I'm not saying -- I'm going to leave |

THE COURT: Can you hear him in the back?
Yes, I think so. The mic's picking up.
MR. ROBERT: And I'll speak louder.
So the housekeeping item was Defendant's
Exhibit 953, which was the December 12, 2018 transcript from Judge Pauly and the Defendant's Exhibit 961, which was the February 28, 2019 deposition transcript. Just want to make sure those are in evidence and if not, to move them in now just to make things run smoother and quicker this afternoon.

MS. FAHERTY: I think, Your Honor, I believe you admitted 953 over my objection and the transcript for 961 is the transcript for 961 . I don't have a basis to object here.

THE COURT: They're both in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I'll remind the witness he's still under oath.

Let's proceed with the questioning.
CROSS EXAMINATION
BY MR. ROBERT:
Q Good afternoon, Mr. Cohen.
A Good afternoon.

1 that alone, but the witness is the one that's obviously

2 partisan. That's been the whole point of the cross examination. That's been the whole point of the morning is that he's partisan. He's a liar, he's biased, he makes money off of -- again, you know, you heard my speech. That's really the focal point.

THE COURT: I think that -- I would disagree. The focal point was he's dishonest, not that he's some sort of partisan democrat.

MR. KISE: Well, that, too. I'll take that.
THE COURT: I've reconsidered. The ruling stands. You're fined $$ 10,000$. Don't do it again or it will be worse. Let's get the witness in.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, just a couple of housekeeping things as we're waiting for the witness.

THE COURT: Sure.
MR. ROBERT: I just want to make sure Defendant's Exhibit 953, which is the December 12, 2018 transcript and Defendant's Exhibit 961, which was the February 28, 2019 transcript are in evidence. I don't --

MR. KISE: Your microphone.
MR. ROBERT: Can you hear me?
MS. HABBA: Yes, but we can't hear him and I'm sitting right here.

MR. ROBERT: Is this better? Can you hear he now?

A Yes.

| 17 Pauly; correct? | 17 indictments, just for clarity's sake. |
| 18 A That's correct. | 18 Q So it was two indictments; one was for eight counts and |
| 19 Q And the second one was heard before Judge Carter; | 19 one was for one count. We understand each other? |
| 20 correct? | 20 A I understand. |
| 21 A Yes. | 21 MR. ROBERT: The witness and I get it, Ms. Faherty. |
| 22 Q And would you agree with me, sir, that when a person is | 22 Thank you. |
| 23 charged with a serious felony, it's serious? | 23 Q So it was a series of two indictments; correct, sir, |
| 24 THE COURT: That's a tautology. | 24 with nine counts? |
| 25 MR. ROBERT: It's like an Austin Powers question, | 25 A Yes. |
| 1 but I figured I'd try. | 1 Q And when you went to court one day it was determined |
| 2 Q It's an important event in a person's life when they're | 2 that you were going to plead guilty to those counts; correct? |
| 3 charged criminally; correct? | 3 A When I appeared in court? |
| 4 A Yes, it was. | 4 Q Yes. |
| 5 Q Other than finding out they have cancer, it may be one | 5 A Yes. |
| 6 of the serious things that happens to a person. Would you agree | 6 Q And you understood the importance when you were before |
| 7 with me, sir? | 7 Judge Pauly of pleading guilty; correct? |
| 8 A There are many things. | 8 A Yes. |
| $9 \quad \mathrm{Q}$ Yes or no? | 9 Q And this was not where you walked into court and five |
| 10 A I don't agree with you, no. | 10 minutes later you walked out; right? |
| 11 Q So, sir, being indicted criminally -- withdrawn. | 11 A Yes, it was. |
| 12 In your case was it serious that you were indicted | 12 Q So when you appeared on August 21, 2018 for your -- to |
| 13 criminally? | 13 plead guilty, you'd say that was a five-minute appearance? |
| 14 A Yes. | 14 A Maybe not five minutes, but it wasn't all day. |
| 15 Q You were facing jail; correct? | 15 Q I didn't ask you if it was all day. |
| 16 A Yes. | 16 A So yes, it was more than five minutes. |
| 17 Q Prison? | 17 Q It was very extensive; right? |
| 18 A Yes. | 18 A Define "extensive." |
| 19 Q You actually went to prison; right? | 19 THE COURT: Wait. Why don't you just ask him how |
| 20 A Correct. | 20 long it was. |
| 21 Q And as part of the process a person is arraigned; | 21 MR. ROBERT: I'm going to get there, Your Honor. |
| 22 correct? | 22 Q Sir, during the course of that appearance before Judge |
| 23 A Correct. | 23 Pauly, Judge Pauly made various statements to you, did he not? |
| 24 Q And as it comes a point in time when a person is asked | 24 A He did. |
| 25 whether they're guilty or not guilty? | 25 Q Including he said to you, quote, "Mr. Cohen, do you |

| M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert) |  |

| 1 | understand, sir, that you are now under oath and that if you |
| 2 | answer any of my questions falsely, your false or untrue answer |
| 3 | may later be used against you in another prosecution for perjury |
| 4 | or making a false statement." And you responded, "I do, Your |
| 5 | Honor." Do you remember that? |
| 6 | MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I just want to note my |
| 7 | objection for the record, which was similarly raised earlier |
| 8 | this morning. If we are asking the witness to form legal |
| 9 | conclusions, that is entirely improper. I am noting my |
| 10 | objection, especially as we're throwing around the |
| 11 | slanderous buzzword "perjury" like we did earlier. |
| 12 | Reasserting myself, Your Honor. |
| 13 | MR. KISE: Your Honor -- |
| 14 | THE COURT: Overruled. |
| 15 | Q Answer my question, sir. |
| 16 | A Can you repeat it? |
| 17 | MR. ROBERT: Could the court reporter repeat it? |
| 18 | THE COURT: Read back, please. |
| 19 | (Whereupon, the requested portion of the |
| 20 | proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) |
| 21 | A I do. |
| 22 | Q And do you further recall Judge Pauly saying to you, |
| 23 | quote, "My questions are intended to satisfy me that you wish to |
| 24 | plead guilty because you are guilty and that you fully |
| 25 | understand the consequences of your plea." |

M. Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert)

Do you remember that, sir?
A Ido.
Q This was a serious day; correct?
A Yes.
Q And Judge Pauly took this incredibly seriously, did he not?

A You're asking me to figure out what Judge Pauly thought?
Q So you don't think Judge Pauly took the proceedings seriously? You don't know?
A I'm not in a position --
MS. FAHERTY: Objection.
THE COURT: Sustained. Yes or no?
Q Did you take him seriously?
A Asked and answered, but yes.
Q What was asked and answered? Did you take him seriously?

A Yes.
THE COURT: You did ask him that and he did answer
that.
Q And, sir, during the course of those proceedings Judge
Pauly asked you over 50 questions about the crimes that you are about to plead guilty to, didn't he?

A I don't know the number.
Q Well, sir, I mean, I can spend the next two days going through it, but in the document that's in evidence as Defendant's Exhibit 951, Judge Pauly asks you over 50 questions.
Do you have a reason to quarrel with me when I say that?
A I don't.
Q And sir, you understood that Judge Pauly was asking you those 50 questions because he needed to satisfy himself that you were in fact guilty; correct?

A I don't know what Judge Pauly was thinking.
Q Well, it's not about what he's thinking. He said to you while you were in court that day to plead guilty, quote:
"My questions are intended to satisfy me that you wish to plead guilty because you are guilty and that you fully understand the consequences of your plea." If you want to look, sir, it's on page eight, lines one through five.

MS. FAHERTY: Is that a question?
MR. ROBERT: It is. I asked him -- we can have the question read back, Your Honor.

THE COURT: While he's looking, sidebar, please. Sidebar or front bar I like to call it.
(Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion is held at the side bar.)

THE COURT: Read back of the last question, please. (Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
Q It's not about what you think Judge Pauly meant. He . Cohen - Plaintiff - cross (Robert)
Page 2433
1 explained to you why he was asking all those questions, did he 2 not?
3 A He did.
4 Q And in response to those questions, you lied to him; 5 true?
6 A That's true.
7 Q And then about a month or so later there are additional charges that are brought against you; correct?

A That's correct.
Q And at that point you appear before Judge Carter; correct?

A Correct.
Q And at that point you enter a guilty plea before Judge Carter; correct?

A Correct.
Q And that was for you pleading guilty to lying to Congress; correct?

A Correct.
Q And on that occasion Judge Carter asked you over 76 questions to satisfy him that you were guilty. Do you remember that?

A I don't remember the number.
Q Well, do you remember that he asked you several questions to satisfy himself that you were in fact guilty?

A Yes.

| 1 A Correct. | 1 A I'm sorry. Can you repeat the question? |
| 2 Q And you pled guilty to that in December of 2018, | 2 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I could have the |
| 3 correct? | 3 question read back. |
| 4 A Correct. | 4 THE COURT: Readback, please. |
| 5 Q And then, sir, you were sentenced, correct? | 5 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was |
| 6 A Yes. | 6 read back.) |
| 7 Q And you reported to prison some time thereafter, | 7 A Correct. They did not tell me. |
| 8 correct? | 8 Q To inflate the numbers? |
| 9 A Correct. | 9 A To inflate the numbers overtly. |
| 10 Q So after you lied at your time that you pled guilty, | 10 Q Sir, that was the sworn testimony you gave to Congress, |
| 11 you lied to Judge Pauley at your sentencing. You then lied to | 11 correct |
| 12 Congress couple of months after you lied at your sentencing, | 12 A That's correct. |
| 13 didn't you? | 13 Q And this morning when you were asked if that was a lie, |
| 14 A I don't recall. | 14 you said, "Yes, it was a lie." That was your testimony? |
| 15 Q Sir, this morning you were shown testimony that in | 15 A Correct. |
| 16 February of 2019, you lied to Congress. That was the testimony. | 16 Q So you lied to Congress in February of 2019, correct? |
| 17 Do you remember that? | 17 It's not that hard. |
| 18 A I remember it being asked. | 18 A It is because -- |
| 19 Q Yes. And sir, that is Defendant's Exhibit 961 in | 19 Q Sir, yes or no? |
| 20 evidence and that was in February of 2019. That was less than | 20 THE COURT: All right. Just questions. |

| 8 Q You testified earlier, sir, that it was a lie. | 8 Q Within two months. |

$1 \quad \mathrm{Q}$ And accept that information from you?
2 A Yes.
3 Q In connection with the -- your sentence in the Southern District of New York?

A Yes.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'd like to pass forward a document I've premarked as PX 3299. I put it up, the cover page, on the screen. I'll just ask Mr. Cohen if he recognizes this document.
A Ido.
Q What do you recognize this to be, Mr. Cohen?
A This is the sentencing memorandum on my behalf that was produced by myself and guy Petrillo of Petrillo, Klein & Boxer, my criminal attorneys at the time.

Q And is it your understanding that this sentencing memo was, in fact, considered before the Southern District of New York pronounced sentence on you in connection with the crimes to which you pled guilty in the Southern District of New York? A Yes.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this document.

MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. It's bolstering the witness. Unless in these 33 pages it says that he's actually not guilty, it is completely irrelevant.
And I haven't read these 33 pages, but I don't think Mr.

statements about, you know, why I think the punishment is too severe or why I think my circumstances are different, that's irrelevant and it is completely admissible under the prior consistent statement exception.

And I can cite the Court to the Melendez case, 54 AD2d 864. It is a First Department case. The Giordano case, 9 AD2d 947. It is a Second Department case. People v. McKlean, 69 NY2d 426 which is a Court of Appeals case. I mean, I probably have 20 here, but you told me before you only need a couple, so -- but -- but unless the statement is fully consistent with what this witness has testified to here in open court, meaning he told Judge Pauley or he wrote something in court back then that says "I'm not guilty of these crimes," it cannot come in under the prior consistent statement exception.

It's just completely inadmissible. It doesn't satisfy any of the prerequisites and we haven't had a chance to go through that memorandum, but we can. We could take a few-minutes break and look, but I doubt seriously that there is anything in there that's consistent with what this witness has said today about him not being guilty because Judge Pauley never would have accepted a plea under those circumstances. It is not possible.

MS. FAHERTY: He can speak for the judge now.
MR. KISE: I can speak to --

1 Petrillo in the sentencing memo told Judge Pauley that the client lied and he is actually not guilty of the crime. So I don't see what the relevance of this would be.

MR. KISE: Right, Your Honor. The rule for admissibility of prior consistent statements, which is a very narrow limitation on the hearsay rule, is the statement has to be characterized as a recent fabrication or perjury. We satisfied that and the same statement was made at a time pre-dating the statement in court. So it has to be the same statement. It can't be a different statement. It can't be an inexplanatory [sic] statement.

If there are statements that say in there, "I am not guilty," "I'm pleading guilty even though I'm not guilty," that might be acceptable. We don't know because we haven't been able to go through it. Anything in there about excuses why he did the crime or why he thinks the penalty is too much or why there's extenuating circumstances, that's all improper rehabilitation. It is all complete hearsay. If he said at the time, which clearly he did, because Judge Pauley would never have accepted the plea. I've been to enough sentencings.

So if he said at the time "I'm not guilty," "I'm not guilty," "I'm not guilty" like he said here today under oath, then that statement could come in as a prior consistent statement. But just general statements or

MS. FAHERTY: To the extent that we need a rule that supports why this evidence is admissible, 4514, Your Honor, under the CPLR, respectfully, this is perfectly fair game, perfectly admissible and perfectly in line with the evidence these attorneys have put forth before this Court that you and your liberal discretion have permitted with regards to a sentencing of Mr. Cohen.

In fact, they moved to admit and you accepted the sentencing memo submitted by the federal government in that action. So, Your Honor, respectfully, this is appropriate and I have moved this into evidence despite the objection.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, our document was introduced as impeachment. This document is being introduced to attempt to rehabilitate an un-rehabilitatable witness and the law is just very clear on this. This is not subject to debate. So unless the statement is consistent with the testimony presented in this courtroom, consistent, not inconsistent, not maybe, not moving around it, it has to be fully consistent.

I think the example I gave when we had this issue with Mr. Larson is if the witness says today that the light is green and he's challenged that that's a recent fabrication, then you can introduce prior statements that say where the witness said under oath the light was green. Fine, but here, you have a situation where the witness is saying on the stand the light is green and the prior statements just like with Mr. Larson are the light is red, I don't know, maybe, I'm not sure, all those things. Those aren't prior consistent statements.

This is improper bolstering with hearsay. The prior consistent statement exception to the hearsay rule is one of the narrowest exceptions that there is. So the idea they can just bring something in because we introduced a sentencing memorandum for an entirely different person, this isn't -- the law doesn't work that way. The statement must be fully consistent and the Court must make a finding specifically on the record that it is fully consistent.

So if the government would like to point out exactly where in that memorandum Mr. Cohen said, "I'm not guilty of this crime", "I'm pleading guilty even though I'm not guilty," and "I plan to lie to Judge Pauley by answering his questions with I'm guilty because I'm pleading guilty because I am," fine. But I doubt anywhere in that memorandum is a statement consistent with what this witness has testified to in this courtroom.

THE COURT: You doubt that anywhere in the memorandum is a statement --

MR. KISE: I can't imagine again. Look, I can't speak for Judge Pauley, but I can speak to all the federal sentencings I attended and I can tell you that no federal

1 is prior inconsistent statement. They can't impeach their 2 own witness with prior --

THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, is that the right provision?

MS. FAHERTY: It is a prior consistent statement. This counsel is trying to repeatedly impeach the witness with his statements. He has made prior consistent statements. Under the rules of evidence, that is permissible rehabilitation. That is an exception to hearsay.

THE COURT: Am I correct that that's not the section you were referring to?

MS. FAHERTY: I pulled the wrong section, Your Honor. My apologies.

MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, it has to be a prior consistent statement. The case law is -- from the Court of Appeals on down is very clear on this. It can't just be any statement. It can't be a statement that's general subject matter. It can't be a statement that's inconsistent. It has to be the light was green, the light was green. It's really simple. So if he has -- if they have evidence where this witness said to Judge Pauley in that proceeding before "I'm not guilty" and that's in that sentencing memorandum, then that would be fair game; but it is not if it's just statements about why it's lenient or why I think I shouldn't

1 judge that I ever encountered would take a plea from an individual who stood in front of him and said, "Yes, I'm pleading guilty just because I'm not really guilty." That's the purpose of the colloquy. That's the purpose of this as Mr. Robert pointed out, the purpose of the 55 or 58 or 78 questions. I think state judges here, my experience is the same. In fact, in New York State court, the defendant has to allocute, specifically allocute. It is even different than federal court.

THE COURT: What was the CPLR section to which you referred?

MS. FAHERTY: 4514, Your Honor.
THE COURT: It is very short. Let me read it out loud because I want to read it anyway. "In addition to impeachment in the manner permitted by common law," I studied that in law school, "any party may introduce proof that any witness has made a prior statement inconsistent with his testimony if the statement was made in a writing subscribed by him or was made under oath."

MR. KISE: So now they're proceeding under the impeachment rule, the inconsistent statement? They're going to impeach their own witness with prior inconsistent statements. I mean, that's extraordinary.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor --
MR. KISE: The only possible basis it can come in

1 be punished, the usual --
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, New York Guide to Evidence 8.31, a prior consistent statement: "A statement of a witness made prior to his or her testimony and consistent with that testimony is admissible when offered to rebut an express or implied claim of recent fabrication and when the statement was made prior to the circumstances supporting that claim." I believe that is sufficient, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: So Your Honor --
THE COURT: Last word.
MR. KISE: First let me applaud Ms. Faherty for making something that's really mundane very interesting. I'll give her that.

MS. FAHERTY: I tell you.
MR. KISE: The words that she read are exactly what we're saying. We're actually saying the same thing. They have to be prior consistent statements. They have to be the light was green, the light was green. "I'm not guilty," "I'm not guilty." It can't be "I'm not guilty," "I'm guilty." It can't be "I'm guilty, but I think I should have these extenuating circumstances and now you say I'm not guilty." They have to match up. It has to be identical. It has to match up. So I just think that's the rule.

It's not really difficult. The case law is very 1 clear. This is a very narrow exception, very narrow she objected to. That was her own objection to my question.

THE COURT: Let's go back a step. It is an out-of-court statement, right? Are you introducing it to prove the truth of its contents?

MS. FAHERTY: Sorry, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Are you introducing it to prove the truth of its contents?

MS. FAHERTY: No.
THE COURT: Then what are you introducing it for?
MS. FAHERTY: To rebut the very testimony that they solicited on cross-examination which --

MR. KISE: No. She's introducing it to prove the truth of its contents meaning on a prior date when he didn't have a reason to -- recent fabrication, that he made a statement fully consistent, identical statement, an identical statement. That's the purpose of the prior consistent statement exception to the hearsay rule.

So yes, it is absolutely being offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted. The matter asserted is the contents of the statement, that his statement then and his statement now are fully consistent. So you can't introduce a prior consistent statement for any other reason than to demonstrate that the two are identical.

So it is definitely being offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted and the cases I've M.
exception and they're trying to shoehorn in a whole litany of sentencing considerations, none of which $I$ am sure tell Judge Pauley "I'm not actually guilty of these crimes."
THE COURT: Mr. Robert, quickly, if anything.
MR. ROBERT: I know when to not speak.
THE COURT: I think we're making a mountain out of a molehill. We've been spending hours and hours about the witness' credibility or lack thereof. What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander and I think we established that. The prosecution sentencing memorandum came in. This is coming in. I don't even know what's in it. We're arguing about --

MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, that's the whole point. In order to admit it, you have to make a finding that the statements are identical, that they match up, that they're both consistent. The light was green the, light was green. That's the requisite finding under the case law.

MR. ROBERT: Maybe the solution is if the government wants to show us in here where he says, "I'm really not guilty," we will look at it.

MS. HABBA: I think they should pull out a specific portion. I think if it's allowed in, it should be a specific portion as I did, not the entirety. That's what cited -- again, I can go on with many more. I know. This is a very narrow exception, very narrow.

THE COURT: Anything else to say before I rule one way or the other? I have a coin here I can flip, you know.

MS. FAHERTY: I think you have the complete wherewithal to understand the basis for having this document in front of you, Your Honor. I think you understand the speechifying that has occurred unnecessarily. I would like to move along from this point. Mr. Cohen has testified as to what this document is, what information was contained in the sentencing memo, and how, if at all, it impacted sentencing.

THE COURT: I don't remember him testifying to what is in this sentencing memo.

MS. HABBA: Thank you, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: That's the point.
MS. FAHERTY: Let's go through it then. Your Honor, I think if I have to go through it, it is a waste of this Court's time.

MR. KISE: No. No.
MS. HABBA: That's how this works.
MS. FAHERTY: It is just such a waste of the circus show that this has divulged into.

MR. KISE: The rules and the case law from the Court of Appeals on down are a waste of time? I realize that is the government's position. That's been their position with President Trump's case from the beginning, that the rules don't apply, the law doesn't apply, nothing applies, COVID rules don't apply, everything else doesn't apply.

MS. FAHERTY: Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: No, you had your say. So the point is there are laws and there are rules. If they want to make a specific proffer to the Court that there are specific statements that are identical, the light was green, the light was green and they're identical and the Court finds that these specific statements are identical, then they can offer to introduce those. But to just throw the memo over the top and say, "I want that in there" because I know where this is headed. I've been down this road before. Born at night, but not last night.

What they'll do is they'll throw it in there and then later pull out something in a memo and say, "Look. Look. Here. This is in evidence now." No. No. It doesn't operate that way, prior consistent statement exception. It is very, very, very, very narrow. This is not a speech. This is a recitation of the law.

MS. HABBA: Your Honor, briefly. As we know, Ms. Faherty liked to jump up when I was getting up and asked me what statement I was trying to put in, not an entire arguably equivocal statement by one witness who I don't consider the key witness. And there is enough evidence in this case to fill this courtroom. So denied, but you can make it again at the end of plaintiff's case.

MR. ROBERT: We will. Thank you, sir.
THE COURT: Since I'm denying it now, I don't think it's going to change, although actually all the other evidence presented, I assume. So I understand where it's coming from, but I hope you understand where I'm coming from.

MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir.
THE COURT: All right. Witness is excused. Thank you.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: All right. Counsel are going to stay, but everyone else, 10:00 a.m. tomorrow. Have a good rest of the day. That's it for the day, except for counsel.
(Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to October 26, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

Proceedings

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, we have no further questions. But, once again, I renew my request for a directed verdict again because Mr. Cohen in addition to now admitting to perjury several times, unequivocally has said that Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg did not direct him to inflate the numbers and even this purported redirect examination has done nothing to change the facts that the government's key witness has fallen flat on his face and there is no way they can make out a prima facie case.

So, again, at the close of the evidence in the plaintiff's case we'll make a formal motion for directed verdict, but at this point I once again must strenuously request that this Court grant relief and end this case once and for all on behalf of all defendants, sir.

THE COURT: Absolutely denied. This case has evidence, credible or not, all over the place. There is a 200-page complaint, there is a 35 -page summary judgment decision referring all sorts of evidence.

The fact that one witness, who I don't necessarily consider from what I've seen to be a key witness, I don't think there is a key witness, who said something which he has now -- however you want to categorize it, taken back. That's absurd, Mr. Robert. I mean, you and I respect each other and I -- you're a very good lawyer, but no way, no how this case is being dismissed because of an equivocal --

1 sort of stone faced. I think -- I'm not going to comment on 2 that. I think -- and if I thought there was a violation of an order I probably would have reacted. But in all events, sanctions must be based on clear conduct. This wasn't clear conduct. The conduct is not - is susceptible to an innocent explanation and for that reason I would ask the Court to reconsider.

Secondly, though, and I think as importantly, if not more importantly, accepting the Court's premise that it was in fact a reference to your law secretary, I think that raises even more problematic considerations for the Court to take into account. These are significant First Amendment considerations when we're talking about the kind of statement that was made yesterday. Again, I don't accept -and President Trump as you can tell from his testimony doesn't accept the premise that in fact he was referring to anyone other than Michael Cohen. But to the extent that the Court is saying that he does -- he was, then barring a defendant from commenting on his perception of fairness in a proceeding is simply, you know, based on his own observations is not, respectfully, constitutional.

I mean, these perceptions of the defendant are perceptions of what he is observing in open court. The case itself it's fair to say -- I mean, we can debate whether it's fully political or somewhat political, but in any event, it's political.
The Attorney General has made numerous public comments both prior to bringing the case and during the case about getting Trump and a political agenda here and the defendant is the leading candidate it seems even in New York now for the presidency of the United States. So he is entitled to comment even beyond what a normal event would be. I mean, the restrictions on political speech become much more - much greater consideration. So the notion that he cannot comment on the fairness of a proceeding with even a general reference to what he sees and perceives legitimately as bias is constitutionally infirmed.

I mean, this violates the First Amendment. His perception is based on him sitting here in the courtroom, watching your law secretary make comments to you, pass notes to you. He's -- he said to me numerous times when I'm arguing because when I'm arguing I'm focused on the witness or on yourself, but he's always said every time you get up to argue the law secretary is writing notes advocating. These are his perceptions.

You, Your Honor, may disagree with those perceptions, but these are his perceptions. He is a defendant in a proceeding where his business is being attacked and he's entitled to comment fairly on what he perceives in open court. Your law secretary's presence on

1 the bench is open and public. That's a point that he has 2 made and I have to echo anyone can observe that. So him
3 commenting on that fact is well within the bounds of his 4 First Amendment rights. Him commenting on the bias that may 5 result from that is well within his First Amendment rights.
6 He did not name anyone yesterday. Again, he was talking
7 about Michael Cohen. But accepting the Court's premise
8 there was no one named and all defendants in any proceeding
9 have a right to comment on what they believe is a perceived 10 lack of fairness or on some impediment to receiving a 11 complete and full, fair trial.

We don't have a jury. You've heard him comment on that before. The system doesn't allow him the jury under the circumstances and so that's also problematic and he's free to comment on that as well. But limiting a defendant's right to comment appropriately on observations that are made in open court, you know, again, I will note that everyone can observe your law secretary on the bench and when the photographers that you have let in here come in they're photographing the bench. There is no attempt to shield that public fact from the photographers that the media is covering this on a daily basis, albeit a little less today, but on a daily basis.

So this is open, public and the defendant has a First Amendment right to comment on what he believes and 1 perceives I think legitimately from his perspective as a 2 potential source of bias and limiting that runs afoul of the 3 First Amendment in general with respect to defendants, but 4 also even more under the heightened scrutiny of restricting 5 and placing prior restraints on political speech of a 6 presidential candidate.

There was no reference to anyone by name, there was nothing more than an observation about proximity and bias. Both of those are -- fall well within the fair bounds of the First Amendment comment, again, for any defendant but certainly for a defendant who is a candidate for President of the United States.

So, respectfully, Your Honor, I'd ask you to reconsider your order, one, because the President as he testified, the only evidence was referring to Michael Cohen; and two, because as stated the order is constitutionally infirmed.

To the extent, Your Honor intends to proceed then with the order and affirm the order, then I would ask respectfully that you reduce it to writing so that it can be appealed and I would also ask that at some point in the proceedings during a break that we be allowed since photographers have been in here to photograph the empty bench so the Appellate Court has a record of exactly what the setting is with where you're sitting, where Michael 1 Cohen would have been sitting, where your law secretaries 2 are sitting so that there is a full record there. I hope that that won't be necessary. I think that -- I know that President Trump understands your order and to the extent you want to reaffirm that order with him when he's back here that's certainly acceptable and appropriate to continue to admonish the defendant of the bound of the order, but I don't think that the order entered yesterday survives constitutional scrutiny, respectfully. Thank you, Judge. MR. AMER: Your Honor?

THE COURT: I was going to ask the plaintiff if any Counsel wants to say anything.

MR. KISE: One thing I would also point out before Mr. Amer speaks. My understanding of the CDC guidelines and based on their representations is individuals who are returning after five days should be wearing masks. Again, no one seems to be concerned about this on the Attorney General's side and it was represented to us that was going to happen and apparently it was not.

MR. AMER: That's not true. The CDC guidelines say if you test negative over a 48-hour period you no longer have to wear a mask and I'm within the guidelines, so I choose not to wear a mask.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you want to say? MR. AMER: Yes. I want to address Mr. Kise's

And I would say his second argument suggests that Mr. Trump doesn't believe that your gag order is valid in the first place and has bearing on then whether Mr. Trump took it seriously and who he was referring to during his press conference.

I will also say if you watch the video of his press conference he was asked multiple times by the press who he was referring to and he refused to answer that question, so that's all I have to say. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, one, so I don't know where to begin. First of all, I'm not sure that the Attorney General has a dog in this hunt, but I'll leave that to you, number one.

Two, the Attorney General is oversimplifying the constitutional analysis, not surprisingly, because doing that favors their blurring of the lines position. So irrespective of whether we believe the gag order is constitutional facially, certainly there is a distinct difference between facial unconstitutionality and as applied unconstitutionality.

The argument that I'm presenting to Your Honor as a basis for reconsideration relates to irrespective of whether the gag order itself is constitutional. The question that hasn't been raised and need not be reached. The question is as applied, your application of that order under these

| ---: | :--- |
| 1 | arguments he makes. Two points, Your Honor. The first |
| 2 | point is request for you to reconsider the sanction order. |
| 3 | I would just say I haven't heard anything that justifies |
| 4 | granting reconsideration. Your Honor put Mr. Trump on the |
| 5 | stand under oath. You heard his testimony, you assessed his |
| 6 | credibility that's within your purview and you made your |
| 7 | decision which I think should stand. Nothing new or |
| 8 | different has been brought to this Court's attention as far |
| 9 | as I could tell. |
| 10 | With respect to Mr. Kise's second argument, it |
| 11 | seems to be a challenge to this Court's gag order. I would |
| 12 | suggest, Your Honor, that there is absolutely nothing |
| 13 | improper and everything appropriate with your gag order. |
| 14 | The First Amendment has limits, Your Honor, carefully narrow |
| 15 | tailored the gag order to address the safety of your staff. |
| 16 | You did not prevent Mr. Trump from attacking or criticizing |
| 17 | you. You did not limit Mr. Trump from criticizing the |
| 18 | Attorney General, at least one other judge. A federal judge |
| 19 | in Washington, D.C. has issued a similar order to protect |
| 20 | her staff. That gag order is appropriate and based on the |
| 21 | assumption of Mr. Kise's second argument, which is that |
| 22 | Mr. Trump was referring to your law -- principal law clerk, |
| 23 | he is asking that you vacate your gag order. We think there |
| 24 | is no reason for you to do so and that gag order is |
| 25 | perfectly appropriate. |

circumstances, whether that's constitutional and my argument is that it is not because it is impinging upon the right of any defendant to comment on anything that happens in open court in full view of anyone, the media, anyone in this room that impacts the adjudication of the proceeding. It's not naming anyone, it's not a post on a website, it's not a disparaging comment.

And setting aside whether those distinctions have constitutional meaning here we're talking about a very narrow and specific question as applied to the comments that were made assuming, again, that he was speaking about Mr. Cohen -- about your law secretary and not Mr. Cohen. And, again, the Attorney General's observations about the video are a non-sequitur -- the other coverage. Because Mr. Trump was asked immediately before that were you talking about the judge's law clerk? Did you violate the order? He affirmatively said no. The fact that he didn't answer, like, 50 more questions about the same subject doesn't prevent anything other than he wasn't going to answer questions about the same subject. But here you've got a true significant, substantial impingement upon the constitutional rights of any defendant. And here, the First Amendment rights to political speech about observations, his observations of what's taking place in open court, whether one can agree or disagree, I think that he has a legitimate

1 basis to raise these arguments because he is seeing as he's 2 told me on a regular basis head nods, eye rolls, notes being 3 passed, head shaking, you know, comments on arguments that 4 I'm making. Again, usually when I'm making arguments, I'm 5 doing what I'm doing now. I'm not paying attention to 6 anybody else, so I don't see those things necessarily but

He's got every right to comment on -- just like if anything else were going on in the courtroom, any other public activity were taking place in the courtroom that might impact the adjudication of the proceeding. So he has a right to comment on that and as applied the order impinges upon that right. Any defendant has this right. And, again, there's been no attempt to otherwise shield anyone from public notoriety. The cameras that come into the courtroom film everyone that's here and everyone's aware of that. There's been no attempt to shield anyone on the bench or anyone else in the room from those cameras.

So I'm not sure that there is a meaningful distinction between that sort of notoriety and a comment by a defendant that hey, I'm not getting a fair trial because I'm observing that something's going on that's going to prevent me from getting a fair trial. It's no different from him saying I'm not entitled to a jury under this statute and that's wrong. That's not fair, that's not protect my staff. There are basically about three people. I don't think that's impinging on somebody's First Amendment rights to protect my staff.

I'll reconsider for -- because I haven't seen the video or even a full transcript, so let me see that and I think it may - based on what was said, may work both ways.

In terms of -- Mr. Kise, I think a few times you said nobody was named. I certainly remember from law school or cases you can be liable for defamation even though you don't use the name of the person if it's clear to whom you're referring. Of course, that's an issue, but that's a factual issue and I'm the finder of fact.

I think I said this yesterday, but I've been thinking about it since. The irony here, the great irony is on the one hand you're saying Mr. Trump was not referring to my law clerk and then you make this whole big deal "but she is sitting right near me, you're passing notes, you're talking," which I said yesterday I have an absolute right to do. I think several members of defense team have said that's not how it's done, I haven't seen that. Well, this is how I do it and I think it's certainly within my discretion and my purview and I think it makes me a better judge that I listen to other opinions. But I'll stress again two years of a former Trump's term, I am the decider. Nobody knows everything, somebody has to decide.

| 2 | And just because he's a candidate for President of | 2 |
| 3 | the United States or, in fact, maybe because he's a | 3 |
| 4 | candidate for President of the United States, that doesn't | 4 |
| 5 | really alter anyone's ability to impinge on those rights. | 5 |
| 6 | He has a right to make fair comment. And again, I don't -- | 6 |
| 7 | without getting into the issue of whether the overall gag | 7 |
| 8 | order is constitutional or otherwise, as applied under this | 8 |
| 9 | particular circumstance, it clearly -- I believe | 9 |
| 10 | respectfully is not and that's the basis for the | 10 |
| 11 | reconsideration. Thank you. | 11 |
| 12 | $\quad$ THE COURT: Briefly? | 12 |
| 13 | $\quad$ MR. AMER: Very briefly, Your Honor. I know a | 13 |
| 14 | facial challenge when I hear one. That was a facial | 14 |
| 15 | challenge, but it doesn't matter whether it's a facial | 15 |
| 16 | challenge or a challenge that's applied. We think it's | 16 |
| 17 | appropriate under the circumstances and we don't see any | 17 |
| 18 | reason why Your Honor should reconsider or change the | 18 |
| 19 | sanction order or revisit the gag order. Thank you. | 19 |
| 20 | $\quad$ THE COURT: Well, I will speak from notes, but | 20 |
| 21 | they're my notes. | 21 |
| 22 | Mr. Kise, you should have seen me in law school. I | 22 |
| 23 | was a real defender of the First Amendment. Justice is | 23 |
| 24 | black and Douglas is absolutist, but as we all learn it has | 24 |
| 25 | limits. Anybody can run for president. I am going to | 25 |

I do not consider this trial political at all. I understand the points or arguments about history or who said what to me. It's not a political trial. It's an Executive Law -- Judiciary Law 6312, whatever the law is and that's how I'm conducting it, that's how I'm deciding it. Just what was said doesn't violate the law and maybe finally, Mr. Kise, you asked that I reduce this to a writing, etc. so you can appeal. You can appeal the transcript. I did and I believe it's uploaded. Just confirmed it's been uploaded.

MR. KISE: That's fine. I didn't see that. I was working on the 11:30 filing from the AG, so I must have missed that.

THE COURT: It just happened, like, minutes before. MR. KISE: All right. Thank you.
THE COURT: And I'll do this. I'll make you a deal. I'll reconsider the sanctions decision because I do want to see that the clip or the transcript. If you read the opinion and you'll see more reasons why I did what I did than I was able to enunciate yesterday.

MR. KISE: I'll certainly read it. Yes, Your Honor, absolutely.

THE COURT: And that's it. I'll leave it at that. I'll reconsider, but I made the decision and unless I say otherwise, the decision stands.

Okay. That's it for now, yes?

| 2 | THE COURT: Sure. | 2 |
| 3 | MS. FAHERTY: As Counsel has already recognized we | 3 |

| 5 | However, we did not file it because in connection with that | 5 |

| 10 | We asked permission to be able to file those | 10 |

| 16 | MR. KISE: Well, once we see what they are. | 16 |
| 17 | MS. FAHERTY: You have them. We e-mailed them last | 17 |

1 impression it was going to be Ms. Dillon followed by Mr. Flores' continuation.

MS. FAHERTY: No.
MR. ROBERT: I even -- that's what we were told.
MS. GREENFIELD: Yesterday, with Ms. Habba, she indicated it was going to be Mr. Holl and then Ms. Dillon.

MS. FAHERTY: It's on our list, as well.
MR. ROBERT: I understand. I was under a different assumption because I actually think that Mr. Flores was planning to be here this afternoon with his counsel because they were told to be here at $2: 15$, I think.

MS. FAHERTY: Later in the afternoon.
MR. ROBERT: So you're going to have three witnesses?

MS. FAHERTY: Mr. Holl will be a very brief witness.

MR. ROBERT: I understand. Is he going to appear on our case in chief if we want him? Is he a New York resident?

MS. FAHERTY: I have no idea how you're proceeding with your case.

MR. AMER: We did give you notice that we were calling him. Really?

MS. FAHERTY: You are not always sandbagged, sir. I am apologetic that there was confusion. I'm trying to be

1 clear with the schedule. We have stood up with the Court's 2 principal law clerk, Ms. Greenfield, to discuss scheduling 3 with defense counsel present. We have identified our list

4 for Counsel and I'm sure you would agree that the past few days have been a bit chaotic. I have had no reasonable apprisal of the defendant's ability to calculate their own timing. So respectfully, this is the best we can do and this is how we are proceeding, sir.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it's the judge's determination, not yours, Ms. Faherty, but I appreciate your apology and I accept it. I'm not accusing you of anything. I'm just talking as a matter of practice and procedure. If you're going to call a witness then we then have to cross examine that witness we are entitled to notice of it. We were told we were starting with Ms. Dillon.

MR. AMER: We were just told that Ms. Habba was advised that we were calling Mr. Holl first this morning, so you did have notice.

THE COURT: That was my understanding was always it would be Holl, then Dillon.

MR. ROBERT: Okay. Well, then, I would ask that the Attorney General make all accommodations to have him reappear if we need him.

MR. AMER: No. We're calling the witness, we gave him notice. If they want to cross examine him, their chance

I worked for the Hartford out of college for about six months and then I worked for Chubb for about five years.  Q In what area did you work for the Hartford and Chubb?  A For Hartford, I was in the claims unit and then at Chubb, I was in the D&O claims unit.  Q What does D&O stand for?  A Directors and officers liability.  Q Can you just describe for the Court very briefly what that line of insurance covers?  A Sure. It covers exactly that. The directors on the board of companies and the officers if they're named in litigation.  Q And is that a liability cover?  A Yes.  Q Focusing on your time at HCC, what department or division did you start in?  A I started in the claims department. |

|  | Q Did you in that group ever have occasion to underwrite |
| 3 private companies? |  |
| 4 A Yes. |  |
| 5 Q And under what circumstances would you as a member of the public company D&O group be underwriting a private company? |  |
|  |  |
| 7 A Generally, if it's a complex risk or a risk that most  8 private company underwriters or units would just outright deny. |  |
|  |  |
| 9 Q I'd like to focus only the period of 2015 to 2018. |  |
| 10 Could you tell us who you reported to during that period? |  |
| 11 A My manager was Tom Pettit. |  |
| 12 Q Did you have any dotted line reporting relationship |  |
| 13 with anyone during that period of time? |  |
| 14 A Yes. |  |
| 15 Q Who? |  |
| A Andy Stone. |  |
| 17 Q And who was Mr. Stone? |  |
| 18 A Andy is the co-founder and president of HCC. |  |
| 19 Q Do you have any authority level for underwriting? |  |
| 20 A No. |  |
| 21 Q Who would you have to seek approval for? |  |
| 22 THE COURT: I doubt they can hear you in the back. |  |
| 23 I think it's your voice is |  |
| 24 | MR. AMER: It is. |
|  | Q Who would you have to seek approval for to underwrite |

Q Let me ask you to look at page two and direct your attention to the e-mail actually begins on the bottom of page one and carries over to page two.

That's an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone, correct?
A Yes.
Q And at this point in time, is Mr. Stone -- what was his title again at this point in time?

A President.
THE COURT: Mr. Amer, I think the microphone might work much better now.

MS. GREENFIELD: He raised the volume if you want to try it.
Q You wrote that you got a call from John Vanasco at AON. Who is John Vanasco?

A He is a broker for Aon.
Q What does that mean to be a broker?
A So a broker would have a relationship with the companies that we're underwriting.
Q And what role did you understand him to be playing in connection with the Trump Organization and the inquiry that he made?
A I would have understood that he's the broker of record for the Trump Organization.

Q I'm intrigued by the next line, so I'll just ask you what did you mean, "a nice, juicy one"?

1 MR. KISE: I can't hear him.
THE COURT: We've got to do something here.
MR. AMER: Short break.
THE COURT: Sure, short break.
MR. KISE: I don't think it's Mr. Amer. We had this problem yesterday with people with very loud voices as you know.

THE COURT: I think it's half and half, his voice and the system.

MR. KISE: Maybe.
Q So who would you seek approval for for underwriting?
A Who would I seek it from?
THE COURT: From, not for, from.
Q Yes, from. Yes.
A I would seek it from either Tom Pettit or Andy Stone.
MR. AMER: I'd like to hand the witness a document for identification with the number Plaintiff's Exhibit 587. Q Do you recognize this as a series of e-mails to you and from you?

A Yes, I do.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask this be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Hearing no objection, it's in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 587.)

Page 2492
A I mean, Donald Trump had just been elected President of the United States, so it is not an opportunity you get to look at very often.
Q What do you recall learning about this potential business opportunity from your conversation with Mr. Vanasco?

A So my understanding from him was that they -- upon the election, they were looking for additional D&O cover. D&O is written in towers and they wanted more capacity.

Q You write, "Currently, the primary 5 million is with Everest and those loss runs are clean." What did you mean by that?
A Well, it means that Everest is the -- would be the only carrier on and is the primary carrier and that there are no losses. They haven't written any losses on any of the policies they've written for Trump Organization.
Q The e-mail mentions a few lines down, "It is a $2 / 17$, but they are looking for midterm additional limits ( $5 \times 5$ ) now." If you could decipher that for us.

A It is referring to the expiration date. So this e-mail is in December. They're -- they're not looking just for the coverage once it renews on February 17th. They're looking to put additional capacity in place now and the $5 \times 5$ would be $\$ 5$ million in D\&O limit over the five that Everest is providing.

Q And that would be from the date of the -- in December 25 until the renewal in February; is that right?

1 A Yes. From whenever they choose to bind that coverage up through that February 17th renewal date.
Q Your e-mail says, "Trump Organization Private Company," so you understood -- did you understand that the Trump Organization was a private company as opposed to a public company?
A Yes, I did.
Q I think you explained to us that there were circumstances under which you in the public company group would get asked to look at a private company placement. Is this one of those circumstances?
A Yes, it is.
Q When you -- when this opportunity came to you from Aon, did you believe you had the necessary background and experience to handle assessing this risk from an underwriting standpoint?
A I think so.
Q If we scroll up to the e-mail above this one, which is from Mr. Stone to you, what did you understand Mr. Stone to be conveying to you in this reply e-mail?
A He was basically giving approval to quote the additional capacity they were looking for and the pricing for that being $$ 40,000$ and that to put a prior impending litigation exclusion on it, "PP lit X."
Q So when he says, "I think a $5 \times 5$ on this until $2 / 17$ is

M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

okay," what did you understand he was conveying to you in terms of what HCC's line would be for this stub period?

A What our line would be? I don't know what you mean.
Q How much coverage was he conveying to you was okay for HCC to write?
A Yeah. We were okay writing 5 million $X$ of 5 million.
Q The very last line of Mr. Stone's e-mail says, "We will need to review financials for the renewal."

What did you understand him to mean by that?
A That it's standard practice in any company we look at, that we would want to see the financials that we're not going to see them prior to the renewal, but that we're gonna want to see them as of that February 17th renewal date rolled around.

Q Can you explain to us why that was standard practice?
A Why it's standard practice? I mean, every account that we underwrite, we generally try to get a look at the financials for those companies to understand what their financial situation is.

Q Is that relevant to assessing risk?
A It is.
Q Why is that?
A It's relevant because you're trying to find out if 23 they're a successful company and if they're profitable and if 24 they are in debt, that they can't manage and what their overall 25 financial health is.

Q If you could just explain to us how a company's financial health bears on the D&O risk that you're underwriting?
A If they are a bankruptcy risk, there is a significant increase in the likelihood of a D&O claim if a company goes bankrupt.
Q Let's go to the top of the page, the top e-mail. You write to a woman named Ava P-R-Z-Y-C-H-O-D-Z-E-N. Who is that person?
A Ava was my underwriting assistant at the time.
Q What are you asking Ava to do in this e-mail?
A I'm asking her to draft a quote per the terms that Andy was okay with.
Q The last line of your e-mail says, "Subjectivities review of financials at renewal." What is a subjectivity?
A It's a line item put on a quote that says in order to bind this, you have to abide by the agreed to, what we're putting in front of you.
Q Did HCC, in fact, offer the quote reflected in your e-mail?
A Yes.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and hand the witness Exhibit 596.
Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this document?
A I do, yes.
Q What is this document?

A This is the quote per the terms that I spelled out to Ava.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 596.)
Q Let's turn to the second page and you'll see as part of this quote, it says, "Contingencies review of financials at renewal."

Is a contingency different from a subjectivity or is it the same thing?
A Not in this case, no.
Q So what were you indicating in the quote by this contingency?
A Same thing, that if we were going to consider the renewal of the risk, we wanted to see financials.
Q Now, we've been discussing that this was a quote to get to the renewal. Did there come a point in time where the D&O coverage came up for renewal where you looked at whether you would quote on the renewal?
A So I don't think that this extension was ever bound, so it wouldn't have been a renewal if this quote wasn't bound. It just would have been an inception of a new policy.
Q Do you recall participating in meetings -- in a meeting
M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER) Page 2497
2 with other underwriters to look at whether you would participate

25 Q Who do you recall meeting with?
M. HOLL - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

Page 2498
A Allen Weisselberg.
2 Q And is it that you recall only meeting with him or is that - or is it that he's the only one you specifically recall among these people?
A He's the only one I specifically recall.
Q But there were other people on behalf of the Trump Organization at the meeting?
A Yes, there were.
Q What did you understand Mr. Weisselberg's role to be at the meeting as you perceived it?

A The chief financial officer of the Trump Organization.
Q Did you take notes at this meeting?
A I did.
Q And did you report to your superiors, Mr. Pettit and Mr. Stone, about what transpired at the meeting after the meeting ended?
A Yes, I did.
MR. AMER: I'd like to hand up to the witness
Exhibit 2985.
Q This is an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit. Do you recognize this e-mail?
A Yes, I do.
Q And what's the date of this e-mail?
A January 10, 2017.
Q So -- and this was sent at 1:19 p.m., so is this basically immediately after you left the meeting?
A It is. It is on my train ride back to Connecticut.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 2985.)
Q Was this e-mail prepared with the benefit of the notes you took during the meeting?

A It is, yes.
Q And what was the purpose for your preparing this e-mail to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit?

A Just to provide all the information that I obtained during the meeting and provide some of my thoughts, insights or opinions.

Q And do you consider this e-mail to be an accurate reflection of what transpired at the meeting?

A Yes, I do.
Q Just focusing your attention on the paragraph that begins "saw very few financials," do you see that?

A Yes.
Q You say in this portion, "Saw very few financials, but did see the balance sheet for year ends 2015. They assured me that the one being put together in a few weeks is better."

When you say, "they assured me, "who, if you recall, specifically provided you that assurance?

Page 2500
A I don't recall who specifically provided me that assurance.

Q Was it somebody from the Trump Organization?
A It was.
Q And you go on to write, "They have total assets of 6.6 billion, cash of 192 million, total debt of 519 million." Do you see that?

A Yes.
10 Q Why did you choose to specifically call out the 192 million in cash figure in this e-mail to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit?

A That's generally a meaningful, useful figure in financials for organizations we're looking at.

Q And what did you consider that figure to reflect?
A The amount of cash they had on the balance sheet.
Q Did you view that as a figure that was a measure of liquidity for the company?

A Yes.
Q Directing your attention to the next paragraph, you say in the last sentence of this paragraph, "No material litigation or communications from anyone."

What did you intend to reflect in that comment?
A It's standard practice in meetings with the management to ask them if they are aware of something that's not public;
that is, litigation or notices or communications that could lead to litigation that would implicate the D&O policy.

Q What kind of notices or communications would you fit within that description?
A I mean, any letter from a law firm making a threat or any notice from a regulatory agency, you know, advising them of concerns they may have, something like that.
Q Did you, in fact, inquire about those items during the underwriting meeting?

A I believe -- if I didn't, somebody did. I think I did.
Q And what are you reflecting in your comment, "no material litigation or communications from anyone"?

A What am I reflecting?
Q Yes.
A The response that I received to the inquiry.
Q Did you review -- did you view the response that there was no material litigation or communications from anyone in a positive or negative light from an underwriting perspective?

A Positive.
Q In what way was it positive?
A I mean, if they do have litigation or notices or letters that are of concern, that raises the risk of liability to the $\mathrm{D} \& \mathrm{O}$ policy.

Q And based on this comment, you were told that there were -- there was no material litigation or communications from anyone; is that right?

A Yes.
Q So the facts that you --
MR. KISE: Your Honor, I just want to -- maybe this will be connected up, but I just want to raise a relevance objection to this line of questioning. I mean, I've watched it, so I let --
THE COURT: Overruled. I see relevance.
MR. KISE: Okay.
MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q We are looking now at an e-mail that has certain factor information that you are sending to about this underwriting meeting to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit who are your superiors and who have authority to issue the policy. Why were you conveying the facts that you are conveying to them?

A So they can start considering whether it's a risk that we want to provide directors and officers cover for.

Q Did you consider the facts that you were putting into your e-mail to be relevant to their assessment?

A Yes.
Q Did HCC, in fact, put in a quote for this coverage following your participation in this underwriting meeting?
A Yes, we did.
MR. AMER: I'd like to hand the witness

Exhibit 592.
Q Mr. Holl, this is a letter you are sending to Mr.
Vanasco on January 31, 2017. Do you recognize this document?
A Yes, I do.
Q And what is this?
A This is a primary quote for D&O cover for what's now being referred to as the Donald Trump Revocable Trust.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this document into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor, on relevance which I haven't explained. I know you overruled it, but I haven't explained it, but that's okay.

THE COURT: You don't think it's relevant. I see the relevance, so I don't know that there is a point in debating it.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 592.)
Q Mr. Holl, does this reflect the terms that you were authorized to quote for the cover from Mr. Stone?
A Yes.
Q And what layer of coverage is HCC quoting?
A The primary letter.
Q And what is the premium being proposed for this quote? A $\mathbf{$ 2 9 5 , 0 0 0}$.

Q Did the Trump Organization or the trust accept this proposal and bind coverage?
A Yes, they did.
Q Now, this indicates that the coverage was going to expire on January 30, 2018; is that right?

A Yes.
Q Did it, in fact, come up for renewal in January of 2018?

A Yes.
MR. AMER: I'm going to hand the witness

Exhibit 595.

Q Mr. Holl, is this a letter you sent to Mr. Vanasco on February 9, 2018?

A Yes.
Q Does this relate to the renewal of the policy quote that we were just looking at?

A Yes, it does.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence.
MR. KISE: Same objection.
THE COURT: Same ruling. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 595.)
Q Just to clarify one thing, Mr. Holl, because we had looked at the expiration date being January 30, 2018. If you look at the first paragraph, it says, "With regard to the above-referenced account, Tokio Marine HCC D&O Group is pleased to bind a 12-month extension of the current aggregate of limited liability on behalf of U.S. Specialty Insurance Company from February 10, 2018 to February 10, 2019."

Was there a short extension of the policy to get from January 30th to February 10th?

A Yes, there was.
Q So this is the quote to extend for a 12-month period the policy that had been bound in the prior year?

A Yes, it is.
12-month renewal?
A 295,000.
$Q$ So is that at the same as the expiring premium?
A Correct, yes.
Q Did the Trust accept the renewal quote?
A Yes, they did.
Q I want to ask you about the renewal for the following year in 2019.
Do you recall if HCC quoted a renewal for the following 12-month period?
A Yes.
$Q$ And did they?
A Did we quote it, HCC, yes, we did.
MR. AMER: Let me show the witness Exhibit 2989.
Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this e-mail from you to Ava?
A Yes, I do.
Q And does this relate to a renewal quote for 2019 to 2020?
A Yes, it does.
MR. AMER: Yes, I move this exhibit into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2989 in evidence.)

| Q And what is the premium amount being proposed for this |  |
| :---: | :---: |
| 2 | 12-month renewal? |
| 3 | A 295,000. |
| 4 | $Q$ So is that at the same as the expiring premium? |
| 5 | A Correct, yes. |
| 6 | Q Did the Trust accept the renewal quote? |
| 7 | A Yes, they did. |
| 8 | Q I want to ask you about the renewal for the following |
| 9 year in 2019. |  |
| 10 | Do you recall if HCC quoted a renewal for the following |
| 11 | 12-month period? |
| 12 | A Yes. |
| 13 | Q And did they? |
| 14 | A Did we quote it, HCC, yes, we did. |
| 15 | MR. AMER: Let me show the witness Exhibit 2989. |
| 16 | Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this e-mail from you to Ava? |
| 17 | A Yes, I do. |
| 18 | Q And does this relate to a renewal quote for 2019 to |
| 19 2020? |  |
| 20 | A Yes, it does. |
| 21 | MR. AMER: Yes, I move this exhibit into evidence. |
| 22 | THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. |
| 23 | (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is |

MR. KISE: Same objection, relevance.
Q Now, we had looked at the prior two renewal quotes, which were for $$ 295,000$ for the annual premium.

This renewal, what is the proposed premium here?
A 1.6 million.
Q And can you explain to us why the premium quote is being increased from $$ 295,000$ to 1.6 million?

A Because our assessment of the risk changed and we believed that the risk was significantly more risky than our initial assessments.

Q And it looks like there is an alternative option being proposed which was to remove entity cover and then the premium would be 950,000 ; is that right?

A Yes.
Q Did the Trump Organization or the Trust renew the policy for this increased premium, either option?

A No, they did not.
MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Any cross examination?
MR. FIELDS: Yes, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, can we have a short break as you suggested?

THE COURT: Sure. About how long you're thinking? MR. KISE: Ten minutes. THE COURT: Sure.

- Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have you had -- is there a reasonable chance under the circumstances to review the direct testimony and prepare for cross examination?

MR. KISE: I would say we're prepared to proceed now with some cross examination. I don't know I would call it reasonable under the circumstances, but we are prepared and we will make every effort to not have to call the witness back. I don't know that that will be necessary, but I don't want to waive any rights on behalf of my clients or anyone else for that matter, but we are going to proceed and try and move on with it.

MR. AMER: I'm just going to note for the record we advised Ms. Habba the order of the witnesses, so we think by providing notice to Ms. Habba, we provided notice to all defendants.

MR. KISE: I'm not sure what he's arguing about. I just said -- but in the event that something comes up, documents or things that we aren't aware of, we'll present that to the Court. But I certainly think as we have done with all the witnesses we're entitled to call them in our case if we need to. But we're not going to burden anyone with a reappearance. We've all been here far too long.

| 1 | THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate that you are |
| :---: | :---: |
| 2 | willing to go forward at this point reserving whatever |
| 3 | rights. I have -- well, let me ask one other question. I |
| 4 | know you're doing what we're just referring to. Did you get |
| 5 | a chance to see the written decision I wrote this morning? |
| 6 | MR. KISE: I have not, Your Honor, but I will on |
| 7 | the next break. I will. |
| 8 | THE COURT: Might ruin your lunch. |
| 9 | MR. KISE: No, no. |
| 10 | THE COURT: But in any event, I have reconsidered |
| 11 | the $10,000 penalty and I am adhering to that decision. I |
| 12 | have looked at the video of what Mr. Trump said outside and |
| 13 | of course I've taken into consideration your argument that |
| 14 | he must have been referring to Michael Cohen because that's |
| 15 | what he talked about. There was a clear, brief, but clear |
| 16 | transition. I think he might have an ooh, ahhh, whatever, |
| 17 | but he said "we are doing very well, it's going well." |
| 18 | He's a -- that was, to me, a clear transition from |
| 19 | one person to another and I think the original -- the person |
| 20 | originally referred to is very clear and that's the fact I |
| 21 | found and that's the penalty I levied, so let's move ahead. |
| 22 | Okay. Let's get the witness back. |
| 23 | THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering. |
| 24 | (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and |
| 25 | approaches the witness stand.) |

| 1 | THE COURT: Okay. |
| 2 | MR. FIELDS: With the Court's permission, may I |
| 3 | examine the witness? It should be exceedingly brief. |
| 4 | THE COURT: Absolutely. |
| 5 | CROSS EXAMINATION |
| 6 | BY MR. FIELDS: |
| 7 | Q Good morning, Mr. Holl. I represent -- I'm going to |
| 8 | ask you a couple questions, if that's okay? |
| 9 | A Yes, okay. |
| 10 | Q I notice you're wearing an American flag pin and I like |
| 11 | that, so thank you. |
| 12 | Mr. Holl, you were shown Plaintiff's Exhibit 587 by |
| 13 | Counsel for the government. As you'll recall, I think there was |
| 14 | a comment there where you said, "a nice, juicy one." Do you |
| 15 | generally recall that? |
| 16 | A Yes. |
| 17 | Q Would it be fair to say in December 2016 you were |
| 18 | excited about the prospect of insuring the Trump Organization or |
| 19 | various of its subsidiaries? |
| 20 | A Yes. |
| 21 | Q And that's because there was -- at that point Donald |
| 22 | Trump had just been elected president and was the |
| 23 | president-elect; correct? |
| 24 | A Correct. |
| 25 | Q And you believed that that could help your personal | business. Is that fair?

MR. AMER: Objection to "personal business."
Q You originate business at HCC, Mr. Holl?
A Yes.
Q And did - Donald Trump being elected president and being a potential client of yours, did you believe that that could help your business?
A No.
Q You did not believe that doing business with the president-elect of the United States was going to help your personal business at HCC?
A No.
Q So you did not plan to tell anybody that you were insuring the president-elect's trust. Is that fair?
A That's fair. We don't discuss who our insureds are.
Q But nevertheless you were excited?
A Yes.
Q At the time that you -- withdrawn.
Just so that I'm clear, there were several policies that you discussed with Mr. Amer and I want to make sure I understand them all.

There was the initial policy that was to sit above the adverse policy that was bound in approximately December of 2016? MR. AMER: I'm going to object. I think the witness's testimony was he didn't think that was bound.

Page 2512
THE COURT: You can ask.
Q Was the December 6, 2016 policy bound?
A I don't believe that extension was -- or that 5X5 was bound.

Q Okay. So then would it be fair to say then that the first policy that HCC bound under your direction was the January 2017 D&O policy?

MR. AMER: Objection to "under your direction."
THE COURT: Sustained. His testimony was somewhat different.

MR. FIELDS: Okay.
THE COURT: "Direction" is the wrong word.
Q Open-ended question.
While you were working at HCC what was the first policy that you bound for the Trump Trust?

A Yes.
MR. AMER: Can I just object to "bound?"
THE COURT: Yes, objection sustained.
Q Sir, do you work at HCC?
A Yes, I do.
Q Did you work at HCC in January of 2017?
A Yes.
Q Okay, great.
So now my question is what was the first policy at HCC while you were working there found for the Trump Trust?

1 A Yes, that January 30th policy.
2 Q All right.
3 A The primary policy.
4 Q The January 30, 2017 policy?
5 A Correct.
6 Q And then there was a renewal of that in January -approximately January 30th of 2018. Is that fair?

A So technically, it didn't renew. It got extended, so it came up for renewal and it was then extended instead.

Q Okay. And then in 2019 there was no renewal or extension; correct?
A Correct.
Q So then would you agree that there were two relevant policies while you were working at HCC that you discussed with Mr. Amer that were actually bound?

A There was only one policy that was bound. There was one bound policy number with an extension.

Q And one of them was in 2017 and it was extended in 2018?
A Correct, same policy number.
Q Okay. In December of 2016, when you were first approached by AON with the possibility of working -- binding or HCC binding coverage for the Trump Trust, you were aware that the Trump Organization, I'll use that term broadly, was concerned about potential exposure now that Donald Trump had
M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields)

been elected president; correct?
A Correct.
Q So you were aware that was a reason why they were seeking additional coverage; correct?
A I was aware that they thought that they would be a higher -- they would have higher exposure and that's why they were seeking additional cover.

Q And the first time that you reviewed any financials for the Trump Organization was in January of 2019?
A Yes.
Q And that was the underwriting meeting that you discussed with Counsel for the government, believe it was January 10th of 2017?
A I think so, yes.
MR. FIELDS: Can we pull up Plaintiff's 588, please? And if we can enlarge the list of attendees under the Trump Organization?
Q Just to make sure I understand your testimony, I believe you testified that you generally recall Allen Weisselberg being there, but you don't have a clear recollection about some of the other individuals that are listed there?
A Yes, yes.
Q Okay. And I believe your testimony was that there was a balance sheet that you reviewed; is that correct?

A That's correct.

1 Q And I think -- I believe the balance sheet had $$ 192$ million in cash listed. Is that fair?
A That's correct.
Q The balance sheet that you reviewed, was it a piece of paper, was it a PDF, an Excel spreadsheet? What did it look 6 like?
7 A It was a piece of paper.
8 Q And do you recall where the piece of paper was while 9 you were in the room; on the table, somebody hand it to you?
A It was handed around amongst the underwriters.
Q Do you recall who handed it to you?
A I don't recall who handed it to me.
Q And would it be fair to say, Mr. Holl, that the -withdrawn.

Are you familiar with what a retention is in an insurance policy?
A Yes, I am.
Q And for the uninitiated, what is a retention generally?
A It's a deductible.
Q It works similarly to a deductible in an insurance -health insurance policy, for instance?

A It's what the insured's responsible for before the policy would start.

Q And would you agree with me that the purpose of an insurance underwriter's review of financials of a private

Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields)

company seeking D&O coverage is to ensure that the potential insured has the financial wherewithal to cover the retention?
A Yes.
Q And in this case I believe your testimony was that the retention was approximately $$ 2.5$ million throughout the life of these -- the policy and the extension?

A Yes.
Q Okay. So just so I'm clear as an underwriter, when you went to Trump Tower that day to review the financials, would you agree with me that your primary concern was to ensure that the Trump Organization could meet its requirements to pay the retention if needed?
A Yes. And that they were not a bankruptcy risk.
Q Fair. But in this case as you just said the retention was $$ 2.5$ million; correct?

A Correct.
Q And so, for instance, if -- withdrawn.
And there was $$ 192$ million in cash on the balance sheet that you saw; correct?

A Yes.
Q So if the Trump Organization had identified, let's say, $$ 25$ million in cash on the balance sheet, ten times the retention, you wouldn't have been concerned; correct? MR. AMER: Objection. Calls for speculation. THE COURT: Overruled.

A So can you repeat that? Sorry.

MR. FIELDS: May I have a read back, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A So I think it would depend on the debt as well, right, and whether they had -- so it's not as simple as a yes or no. If they had debt on the balance sheet coming due and that debt amount was larger than the cash that they had on the balance sheet, then yes, but correct. If they had 25 million and a two and a half million dollar retention there would be enough on the balance sheet to cover their retention.

Q Were you at all concerned with any of the debt you saw on the balance sheet that day?
A I was not.
Q Did you ask to see any bank statements, Mr. Holl?
A Bank statements, no.
Q And just to be clear, you were binding a policy on behalf of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust; correct?
MR. AMER: Objection, Your Honor. It lacks foundation. This witness didn't bind anything. He had no underwriting authority.

THE COURT: You want to just -- withdrawn.
Q Did HCC bind a D&O policy on behalf of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust on or about January 30th of

Page 2518
M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields)

2017?
A Yes.
Q And you were involved in that process; correct? A I was.

MR. FIELDS: All right. I'm going to show the witness what's been premarked as Plaintiff's 597.

And, Your Honor, I don't intend to really examine the witness much about the document. I apologize. I don't have extra copies, but it was a little bit short trying to print them.

THE COURT: I'm sure that will work.
Q Mr. Holl, I'll just ask you, if you could, to take a look at this document. Let me know if you recognize it.
THE COURT: Do you recognize it?
THE WITNESS: Was there a question?
$Q$ Do you recognize the document?
A Yes.
Q What is it?
A That is the policy that we wrote on January 30, 2017.
Q And just to be clear, did you -- were you able to page through some of the documents to ensure that it's -- appears to be the entire policy that HCC wrote in 2017?
A It appears to be.
Q Fair enough.
MR. FIELDS: Move to admit Plaintiff's 597.

MR. AMER: No objection.
THE COURT: It's in evidence.
Q Mr. Holl, you were asked by Counsel for the government about some representations that were made during the underwriting meeting at Trump Tower in 2017 regarding -- and I use the wrong terminology, but prior pending litigation or notices of any potential claims. Do you generally recall that? A Yes.
Q And I believe your testimony was -- and please correct me if I'm wrong -- that there was a disclosure to you that there was no potential claims known to somebody that told you that statement. Is that an accurate representation of your testimony?
A Yes.
Q And I believe you also testified that you're not sure if you asked, but somebody else may have asked that question?

A Correct.
Q And do you recall who it is that made that statement to you -- withdrawn.

Do you recall who made the statement about no known claims?
A I don't recall.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, just so the record is clear that does mischaracterize the testimony. There was no material litigation and no communications from anyone.
M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields)

Page 2520
THE COURT: Are you relying on the specific language? Is that what you're looking to correct?

MR. AMER: Yes, as opposed to no known claims that was never part of the testimony or the document.

THE COURT: Right.
MR. FIELDS: Your Honor, I apologize. I had a couple of minutes to prepare this, so please forgive me.

THE COURT: All right. The record should be considered changed to reflect the exact wording.

MR. FIELDS: One moment, please.
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. FIELDS: Thank you. I want to make sure I use the right terminology.
Q So with regard to the statement that there was no material litigation or communication from anyone, if at some point you, HCC, had determined that there was information that was not known to them that should have been made to them or disclosed to them, isn't it true that HCC has the ability to rescind the policy?
A I would have to look at the specific policy to see if we had the ability to rescind or not.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that this policy does not contain a right to rescind by the insurer?
A I don't know what -- I don't know one way or the other.
25 Sometimes we have language on there that says that the insurer

MR. KISE: Objection; leading.
MR. AMER: I think it is summarizing testimony he already --

MR. KISE: Leading question.
THE COURT: Well, it might be simpler if you just ask it. Although, it might still be leading, but I will allow it if you just ask it in the abstract.

MR. AMER: I think he already testified to it, so I'm just trying to bring us back.
Q Did you have authority to underwrite this risk at that point in time yourself? Did you have underwriting authority?

A I don't have under -- I don't have authority, correct.
Q And if they had told you it was 25 million in cash, would that have been the number that you conveyed as opposed to 192 million in cash?
A Yes.
Q And as you sit here today, you don't know what they would have done in response to getting that different dollar figure, do you?
A That's fair, yes.
MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Any re-cross?
MR. KISE: Not at this time subject to the reservation, no. Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break until noon

DIRECT EXAMINATION
MR. SOLOMON:

Q Good afternoon, Ms. Dillon. Can you, please, briefly describe your post high school education?
A I attended college, University of Missouri. Graduated in four years with a bachelor's degree and I then went on to a masters program. I have a masters in public policy and several years after that, I went to law school at Georgetown Law.

Q Abdomen when did you graduate from Georgetown Law?
A 1999.
Q And are you admitted to any bars?
A Yes, D.C. and Georgia.
Q Thank you. Could you, please, briefly describe your work experience after your admission to the bar?

A I began my career at McGee Nelson as -- no, I'm sorry. I actually began my career at King & Spalding for just a short period of time and then the tax group at McGee -- no. King and Spalding largely broke off, started their own firm McGee Nelson.
I joined McGee Nelson which was eventually merged into Bingham & McCutchen, L.L.P. Following that, I left for a year and went to Vinson & Elkins. And after that, I rejoined my prior colleagues from Bingham who had been merged in Morgan Lewis and that was in 2015.

Q You said you worked at Vinson & Elkins for one year. So that was roughly 2014 to 2015.

A That would be correct and it is roughly one year.
Q And when were you at Bingham?

DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)
Page 2528
1 A That would be roughly 2009 to 2014 is the best of my recollection. I'm not quite sure on those dates.

Q Approximate dates are okay. Thank you. When you were at Bingham, were you a partner?
A I began my career at Bingham, yes, I would have been a partner.

Q Were you in a particular group at Bingham?
A The tax group. I've always practiced tax law as my primary practice. Although, I advise on other things as well.

Q And when you moved to Vinson Elkins, you were also a partner?

A Yes, I was also a partner in the tax group.
Q When you rejoined certain of your colleagues in Morgan
Lewis in 2015, were you a partner?
A Yes.
Q Are you currently at Morgan Lewis?
A Yes.
Q Are you currently a partner there?
A I am currently a partner at Morgan Lewis.
Q Did there come a time that you in your professional capacity began doing work for the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q When was that?
A That would have been began more or less in 2005.
Q And was the Trump Organization your client?

1 A It was a firm client.
2 Q And when you joined Bingham in or about 2009, did you bring the Trump Organization work with you?
4 A Yes, the Trump Organization continued with us.
$5 \quad$ Q You said "us." I'm talking about you. You continued doing work for the Trump Organization, correct?
A Yes, I continued doing work for the Trump Organization.
Q And when you moved to Vinson & Elkins in or about 2014, did the Trump Organization continue to use your services?
A Yes, they did.
Q And when you moved to Morgan Lewis in 2015, did the Trump Organization come with you?
A Yes, the Trump Organization continued to.
Q Do you currently do work for the Trump Organization?
A No.
Q When did you cease doing work for the Trump Organization?
A That would have been 2020, some point in 2020.
Q Do you recall when in 2020 ?
A I do not. It would have been in the spring or early summer.
Q Was there some precipitating event that caused you to cease doing work for the Trump Organization?
A No, not any one event.
25 Q Were there several events that caused you to cease doing work for the Trump Organization?

2 A There just came a time when it was mutually agreed with the client that it was no longer in their best interest for me to be representing the Trump Organization.
Q Keeping this at a high level, can you describe the type of work you've done for the Trump Organization over the years?
A Predominantly providing tax advice and advice related to the tax advice as well as other projects from time to time as requested by my client.

Q What would those other projects be?
A Assisting reviewing contracts from time to time, helping with forming entities and things of that nature.
Q Did you ever do any work responding to government investigations?

A Yes. From time to time, I would help with government investigations or other government inquiries.
Q Anything else you can recall?
A I assisted in the preparation of their work with Office of Government Ethics, helping with the disclosure requirements.

Q Did you work on what's known as the OGE form the Office of Government Ethics form that's filed?
A I did provide legal advice with respect to OGE form 278.

Q You mentioned you provided tax advice. What were -- again, at a high level. I'm not asking for specific

1 information, but at a high level, what was the -- what were the
2 general areas of tax advice that you provided to the Trump Organization?
A The general high areas of tax advice would be related to one, assisting with IRS examinations, working through that process as well as for Ava right of Trump entities as well as assisting with tax planning, looking at the tax aspects of various transactions as they came along over the years.
Q Would tax planning include providing advice with respect to donations of potential easements?

A Donations of potential easements would be I would provide tax advice with respect to donations, legal advice relating to tax relating to conservation easement.

THE COURT: Potential conservation easement, potential transactions?

THE WITNESS: Yes, both potential and lots of potential transactions across the board as well as actual transactions that occurred.
Q In connection with either potential or actual donations of conservation easements, would you interact with third-party professionals such as appraisers?

A I would interact with lots of _professionals, appraisers, environmentalists, a whole -- engineers, architects, all sorts of folks, yes.

Q During your time providing services to the Trump Organization, with whom did you interact?

A Is there a specific period you're looking for?
Q Let's put the period 2011 to present. Withdrawn.
Excuse me. Withdrawn, please.
Let's put the period as 2011 to when you ceased providing services in or about 2020.
A I worked with a lot of people at the Trump Organization. It would have been -- gosh. Jason Greenblatt, Jaclyn Maranes, Alan Garten. I'm sorry. I'm going through departments. As well as Jeff McConney, Allen Weisselberg, Mark Hawthorn. Gosh. Just a host of people, a variety right of folks.

Q Let's throw out some names to see if we can jog your memory.

A Sure.
Q Donald Trump?
A Sr. or --
Q Sr. When I refer to Donald Trump today, I will be referring to Sr. If I am referring to Jr., I will add Jr., so the record is clear.

A That would be very helpful. Thank you.
Q Did you interact with Donald J. Trump between the 2011 through the termination of the relationship?
A To some degree, yes.
Q What do you mean by "to some degree?"

1 A I did interact, but it wasn't -- he was pretty high on the food chain. That's not who I spent most of my time with.
Q Understood. Not as often as some of the other people you just mentioned?

A Yes.
Q Fair enough. Donald Trump Jr.?
A From time to time.
Q Eric Trump?
A Yes, from time to time on certain projects.
Q More often than you interacted with Donald J. Trump?
A It would depend on the project.
Q Ivanka Trump?
A Yes.
Q Patrick Birney?
A Yes.
Q Jill Martin?
A Yes.
Q Anyone else you can think of now that I've given you a couple of names from various departments?
A There are others that were in the general counsel's office and I'm sorry. I'm just not remembering their names right now. Adam, his last name I'm not remembering. David Cohen and I know there are others that -- yeah. If you have others to ask me about -- I'm sorry. It has been a while.

Q I appreciate the effort to try to remember. We will ocus on some documents and that may refresh your recollection later on.

A Great.
Q Sure.
Do you recall working on donations or potential donations of conservation easements relating to TNGCLA also known as Trump National Golf Club LA?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall working on a potential donation of a conservation easement at Briarcliff Development?

A Yes.
Q That's the Briarcliff Golf Course located in Westchester County in New York, correct?
A That's my understanding.
Q And do you recall working on a potential donation of a conservation easement relating to Seven Springs?
A Yes.
Q And Seven Springs, that's the property located in Westchester in the Towns of Bedford, New Castle and North Castle, correct?

A That is correct.
Q So let's focus on those and if there are differences between them, I'd like you to point it out.
When you worked on those potential donations, what did that work entail?

A That work would entail coming to an understanding of the property. It would come to an understanding most importantly the key element when thinking about a conservation easement is that an easement is something that is going to be granted in perpetuity and my perspective, to back up for a second, is from a tax law perspective. So I want to be clear on that.

So the tax law requires that it be granted and most easements are granted in perpetuity and perpetuity means forever. As we all know from our property class back in law, perpetuities, so you go back to that and so when you're granting an easement, it is a big decision. And a conservation easement, what that means is you retain the land and you put in conservation easement on it which is restricting the uses of the land. And so there's a lot of different decisions that have to be made with that and that's where I would spend a lot of my time in coming to understand the property, coming to understand what you want to do with it or not do with it, and it would be the choices of which parts of the property do you want to restrict and which parts do you not want to restrict and what will those restrictions be.

And then once you determine that, I would work with the client to help them implement that, working with the environmentalists. There's all kinds of environmental reports that have to be done, baseline documentation, working on the conservation easement deed, that makes the grant of the easement, working with the appraisers to determine the value of the easement working with engineers to some degree.

DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

Although, it was generally the other professionals who would work with the engineers, but it was just that whole collection of people and every piece of property is unique, so these are sort of some of the common elements sometimes there would be others who needed to be involved depending on what the project was and what the land looks like. But it would also be making sure that all of these things are laid out in the tax code and all of these various requirements, what does baseline documentation of the environmental aspects of the property, what does that mean, what's required for that, what's required for the appraisal. It needs to have qualified appraisers and a qualified appraisal. So there's all kinds of hosts of legal requirements that need to be satisfied. So that's the work I would do.
Q I think it was implied in your answer, but so the record is clear, you mentioned legal requirements. Were these requirements, to your understanding, to enable the donor obtain a tax deduction for the value of a donation?

A Some of them were. Some of them were requirements that are other sorts of requirements. Again, we would want to have a deed that would be respected, that could be recorded. That would be legal requirements outside of the tax code, but a lot of them are legal requirements that are set forth in the tax codes, so that Congress provided incentives encouraging folks to conserve land. Restrict your rights. Don't build on it. Let's keep public parks. Let's keep rivers. Let's keep beautiful forests. Let's keep all of that. And to do that, they did -- they created an incentive, a charitable deduction for tax purposes and that - so in order to secure the deduction, you would have to follow a lot of very stringent and lengthy legal requirements that are set out in the tax code in a host of treasury regulations. I think there's probably 50 pages of these regulations, IRS guidance that even further explains the code and the regulations and a huge body of case law that's developed on conservation easements as well as other donations of charitable property.

Q You mentioned in an earlier answer, an appraisal. I think the term that I've seen is a qualified appraisal. Have you seen that term?
A Yes.
Q A qualified appraisal, does that have a different meaning to you than an appraisal?

A A qualified appraisal is an appraisal that is described in the tax code and in order to secure it, a deduction, the appraisal that you have has to meet the requirements of a qualified appraisal.
Q And the appraisal is an appraisal of the value of the easement that is being donated; is that correct?

A It is the value of what you have given up in your easement, the economic value of the rights and restrictions that you have given up.
Q And you mentioned that you've worked on several of these. Do you know how that value is determined by an appraiser?
A There are different methods for determining that value.
The treasury regulations lay out the methods that may be used.
The primary method, I think my recollection is --I don't have the regs in front of me right now, but I believe the principal method is to find sales of comparable conservation easements. Those rarely exist, so the treasury regulations have an alternative way to measure the value of a conservation easement and that is called the before and after method.

Q And in the before and after method, does the appraiser determine the value of the property before placement of the easement, the value of the property after the placement of the easement, subtract the latter from the former to come up with that value of the easement itself?
A So, yes, the appraiser, if I understood this, first determines --

Q If my question wasn't clear, please tell me and explain it in your own words.
A The appraiser values the entire property unrestricted

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

meaning with no restriction.

THE COURT: You left out the word "first" which was included in your first answer.

THE WITNESS: I will try to speak slower. So yeah, we first start with the entire property. You value that. So in my example, we'll say that's worth a hundred. You then value the property after the restrictions have been placed on, taking into the characteristics of the property as it would then exist with the conservation easement. So the after-value would generally be less.

So let's say started off of 100 . Your after-value is ten. The appraiser then would say, well, the easement is the difference between the entire value of the property unrestricted and the value of the property restricted. So in my example, it would be 100 minus ten, would be 90 the value of the property.

There would then need to be other considerations taken into account which would have to do with does the property owner have contiguous property that surrounds or is in the nearby area of the property that's been restricted. Q And if there is an enhancement to the value of the contiguous property, that would be deducted from the value of the donation, correct?

A That is correct.
Q We'll come back to easements in more detail as we go on, but I would like to turn to something you mentioned about doing work in connection with government investigations for the Trump Organization.

Do you recall in or about September of 2016 communicating with the New York Attorney General's Office with respect to an inquiry that the office was conducting?

A I know I have responded to lots of things. So again, if you could give me a little more background, that might help me.
Q I will show you a document, ma'am, and see if it refreshes your recollection.

MR. SOLOMON: If we could, please, pull up PX 1001 and may I hand this up to the witness.
Q Ma'am, this is a letter dated September 27, 2016 sent by electronic mail and certified mail return receipt requested to you at Morgan Lewis. You were at Morgan Lewis in 2016, correct?

A Yes, I was at Morgan Lewis then.
Q This is from the State of New York Office of the Attorney General from the Charities Bureau, correct?
A Yes, the letter is from the Charities Bureau.
Q Did you receive this on or about September 27, 2016?
A Yes, I did.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 1001.)
Q Does this refresh your recollection to at least one matter that you were handling for the Trump Organization in connection with a government inquiry?
A Yes, it does.
Q What can you tell me if you -- withdrawn.
At a high level, what was your understanding of this inquiry that was being conducted in or about September of 2016?
MR. ROBERT: I appreciate the way Mr. Solomon has worded the question, "at a high level." I just want to make sure there is no waiver of attorney-client privilege here and I don't think that's what Mr. Solomon is getting at. I just wanted the record clear. Do you agree, Mr. Solomon, you are not trying to --

MR. SOLOMON: We are not asking the witness to waive privilege. We just want to know the witness' understanding of what the investigation concerned.

MR. ROBERT: From a high level, not conversations with any of her clients?

MR. SOLOMON: My question did not ask for conversations with the client.

MR. ROBERT: I didn't think you were and --
MR. SOLOMON: Also to be clear for the record, this witness received the letter. So this information came to General's office.

MR. ROBERT: I hear what you're saying. I just wanted the record to be clear. Got it.

MR. SOLOMON: No issue.
THE COURT: Please continue.
Q Does this letter refresh your recollection about a -- about this inquiry?

A My understanding was the Charities Bureau was taking a look at whether the Trump Foundation had complied with New York State law in connection with its activities.
information with anyone from the Trump Organization?
trying to understand it. I would have talked to Jeff McConney. I would have talked with Allen Weisselberg. I would have talked with Debra whose last name is escaping me right now. She is one of the internal bookkeepers at the organization.

THE COURT: I have to ask about "would have." Does this mean you remember you did or does this mean you think generally looking back, "Yeah, that's probably who I spoke to"?

THE WITNESS: I would have spoken to them. Yes, I spoke to them. I'm sorry. Got me there. Yeah, I would have spoken to them.

THE COURT: Thanks.
THE WITNESS: I did speak to them to clarify.
THE COURT: We are very precise.
THE WITNESS: At some point in time, not with everything in this letter, but in general in connection with the investigation.
Q When you had these conversations, were you ever made aware of a prior communication from the Attorney General's office directed to Mr. Weisselberg concerning a contribution in the amount of $$ 25,000$ made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to an organization known as And Justice For All?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. If the knowledge came from a conversation with any of the clients, it would be privileged. So if the question is "did the witness learn from any source other than her client", that's a fair question. But just a general question "did she become aware," she may have become aware of it from her client and the mere fact that she says that would be an invasion of the privilege.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that that's right. The fact that there was some discussion doesn't mean that that was advice asked or advice given, but we might be able to avoid that issue by --

MR. SOLOMON: That's all I was asking, was she made aware. I am not asking what was said. I'm not asking advice that was given. Was she made aware of the prior communication from the Attorney General's office? May I finish, please? I don't think that's privileged. The mere fact of the existence of prior communications is not privileged.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, any fact that a lawyer learns from his or her client during the scope of their representation is governed by attorney-client privilege. That's why if the question is "did you learn a fact from someone other than the client," that's a fair question. But once we get into "were you made aware of something," then becomes the issue of who made you aware of it and that conversation is absolutely privileged.

THE COURT: I disagree. It is not advice.

MR. SOLOMON: And also, Your Honor, not every fact you learn from your counsel or from the client would be privileged. If a client told me, "today is Thursday," that doesn't make that communication privileged.

MR. ROBERT: It would make it confidential if it's absent an order directing an attorney to provide it. It would be a problem, but here, the judge made his ruling.

THE COURT: So objection noted, understood, but overruled.
Q Simple question. Did you become aware of a prior communication from the Attorney General's office relating to the contribution that I described?
A At some -- I'm sorry. Of a prior communication from the Attorney General to?
Q To the Trump Organization relating to a $25,000 contribution made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to an organization known as And Justice For All?
A I believe I was aware of that communication. I don't recall the details.

Q And were you made aware that the Donald J. Trump Foundation responded to the Attorney General's Office? It's a yes or no.
A I believe I was aware of that, too, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Could we please mark as PX 1000 for identification?
Q Ma'am, while you're reviewing it, I'll just identify for the record that this is or appears to be a letter on the Donald J. Trump Foundation letterhead dated June 28, 2016 addressed to someone at the New York State Attorney General's Office.

MR. KISE: Your Honor?
THE COURT: Yes.
MR. KISE: I'm just going to impose yet another objection. What does this have to do with anything in this case? I mean, maybe Mr. Solomon is going to connect it up, but this is 2016 and it's a completely separate investigation of an entity that's not a defendant here. It has no connection to these proceedings of an investigation in a matter that's long since been over, so I know we're all interested in moving this along, I just don't see what connection this has to these proceedings.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon?
MR. SOLOMON: I think Your Honor heard earlier today from the prior witness that representations were made to potential insurance carriers that there were no outstanding investigations, inquiries and the like. I don't remember the exact language. I know we had to go back to find the exact language, but in the vernacular there are no outstanding claims asserted or unasserted and that representation was made to HCC and what we're doing now is just establishing whether there were --

MR. KISE: Right, but again -- well, as you know, on the insurance matter, I had basically the same objection, which is what does that have to do with a 6312 violation? I mean, all of those matters between the insurance company and the client are subsumed within the policy as we heard the witness -- I'm not going to go off on that.

Anyway, we're now taking to a second degree of relevance. We first had something that I objected to, you overruled as marginally relevant -- not relevant in my opinion, but marginally relevant and now we're taking yet another step away from the core issues in the case because I'm not sure what this has to do with anything in the case. What count does it relate to in the case?

MR. AMER: Can I just say I didn't hear the word "marginal" when Your Honor overruled --

MR. KISE: That was my description, as I just said.
THE COURT: As I told the witness, we are very precise around here. One word or the other could make a big ## difference.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, an omission in seeking insurance coverage is relevant. And if we show that there was knowledge at the Trump Organization at the highest levels of the existence of this inquiry and we actually are going to get to an actual Notice of Violation that was sent to the Trump Organization. The failure to disclose that, if intentional, absolutely goes to the existing claims in this case in the 6312 violations that we've alleged.

MR. KISE: Okay, Your Honor, the 6312 violations relate to financial statements and the submission and use of those financial statements in the course of obtaining loans and insurance. They -- the case as pled and as tried doesn't have to do with every single communication or representation that was made to anyone at anytime by this is the Donald J. Trump Foundation, again, a non-defendant, nonparty. At some level there really needs to be some containment of what we're doing here. This has gotten pretty far afield. So, respectfully, the issue in the case and the claims asserted again relate to statements of financial condition that were inflated, not inflated, whether they were used to obtain insurance, whether they were used to obtain loans, but anything to do with representations to anyone we'll be here until 2025.

MR. SOLOMON: We'll only be here that long, Your

1 Honor, if there that many fraudulent misrepresentations or omissions. I have another five or ten minutes on this line. It's not going to take that long. We're going to establish that they knew about these inquiries, they knew about the Notice of Violation, and as you heard earlier today in open court, they did not disclose it to HCC.

MR. KISE: Okay. So, again, the case is about statements of financial condition.

THE COURT: That's a banned word.
MR. KISE: I know it is, but I have to say it in response. I realize that the case is about statements of financial condition and the use of those -- I mean, we can pull out the complaint and look at the claims, so -- and whether or not the insurance company was notified properly or not notified properly about something is as the witness has testified and is clear for the policy subsumed within the policy. The insurance company and the insured and the insurer work that out. If there is something that wasn't disclosed, then they don't cover it.

MR. ROBERT: In addition, Your Honor, they keep using the phrase "they knew." Who knew what and when because there is a policy of insurance that's in evidence. There is specific provisions in that policy as to who is -who has to have notice in order to have a disclosure. So at some point there has to be some connection of the dots as to who knew what at one time. They're uniform. They knew, they knew. Respectfully, it's inappropriate here because there are multiple defendants.

THE COURT: I certainly see that and understand that as an issue. The record will show who knew, who didn't know. So that will be a consideration.

But let me make a general statement that might foreclose or deter other objections. To me, this case is not just about financial statements being submitted to insurance companies. It's about whether or not the defendants were committing fraud, persistent and whatever the pervasive -- whatever the other wording is. And it's also about what the -- what any alleged, of course, any remedies will be. If it seems to me in taking Mr. Solomon's -- building on what Mr. Solomon said, if the evidence shows that a certain defendant was consistently acting fraudulently if, if, if, then the law provides that there can be all sorts of equitable relief. So I think this is completely relevant. I understand it's not maybe the heart of the case, but it is in the case.

MR. KISE: But, Your Honor, the equitable relief being sought, the equitable relief that can be granted is limited by what they're requesting and the equitable relief cannot be just stop committing fraud generally. It has to be specific. And so here the case is about don't issue

1 false financial statements anymore. That's their claim.

That's what they're seeking. That's part of their injunctive relief is stop doing that.

THE COURT: Part of.
MR. KISE: But it can't be just stop committing fraud generally. I mean, there is no provision in the law for that. So any allegation of any claim of any kind that they say is fraudulent is going to come in as evidence of some pattern? I mean, it has to -- everything has to connect back to the case that's been pled and is being proven. Otherwise, there is absolutely no limits on what comes in. It's just anything that they decide to look at and say okay, this is fraud, that's fraud. How are you even supposed to fashion relief in that regard? Stop committing fraud generally? That's a prohibited order.

THE COURT: I have various ideas about how to do that if it comes to it.

MR. KISE: But the point is there has to be some connection to the claims. Otherwise, it's just adrift.

THE COURT: We're going around in circles. The objection is overruled for the reasons I said and that Mr. Solomon said. Let's move on.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: We'll break at five minutes to 1:00. MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Thank you.

A I did not read it word for word, but I looked at it when you asked me to look at it before, but no, I did not re-review it during the exchange.

THE COURT: You were riveted by the exchange?
THE WITNESS: As a lawyer I was riveted by the exchange.

THE COURT: I was just going to say as a lawyer.

contemplated donating a conservation easement over a portion of its property?
A Yes, there was a time that was contemplated.
Q Okay. In my questioning today when I use the term "communication" and I'm doing this because we had a little bit of a misunderstanding with another witness another day, but when I say "communications" I mean, all written, any other form of transmitting or receiving information, okay?

A That is what it says that Allen wrote and that's where it starts, but rest of the e-mail provides for a lack of clarity.
Q Okay. Did you have an understanding, however, that one of the issues in this e-mail was TNGC LA?

A I don't know if it was an issue, but there is a discussion about it from the re: line or appears to be a discussion about it.

$1 \quad Q$ Did you understand that the potential easement that was being referred to or considered at that time covered all or a portion of the driving range at TNGCLA?
A Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 1460.
Before we do that, Your Honor, I move into evidence PX 1412.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.

Plaintiffs Exhibit 1412.)

Q Ma'am, you will see this is an e-mail chain, the most recent on this chain, meaning the first one, is Jill Martin sent October 9, 2014 to you. Do you see that?

A I'm sorry. Yes.
Q Did the project or the consideration of potential easement in 2012 cease for a period of time and then was restarted in or about 2014?
A Yes, that's correct.
Q You'll see the bottom e-mail is from Brian Curry to you, the one dated October 9th? Do you see that? 1:25 p.m.?

A Yes.
Q Who is Brian Curry?
A He was the appraiser retained to work on that project.
Q The TNGCLA project?
A Correct.

Q You then forward his e-mail on to Jill Martin. Do you see that, in the middle?

A I do.
Q First sentence, "Yesterday, we had a call with Donald re valuation of the 16 lots." Do you see that?

A I do.
7 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to which Mr.
8 Trump was involved in the TNGCLA project?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Which Mr. Trump was involved in the TNGCLA project?
A It refreshes my recollection on who this call was with.
It doesn't refresh my recollection on who was involved because I believe both -- I certainly know Don or I don't know. I'm not sure who was involved, but I know who this -- I believe I know who this call was.
$Q \quad$ Who was the call with?
A That would be with Sr .
Q And during the call -- next sentence, I'm reading, ma'am. "During the call, we understood Donald to indicate that the 16 lots (and I believe the rest of the "Phase 2" lots) had a different zip code than the Phase 1 lots" and then it goes on. Do you see that?

A Ido.
Q Was it Donald Trump, Sr. that indicated during the call that the 16 lots had a different zip code and then the additional information you provide in this e-mail?

A I'm getting a little uncomfortable here with some of my ethical obligations are privileged since we seem to be getting into conversations I had with my client.

MR. SOLOMON: Several things. First off, the privilege belongs to your client, so it is for them to object to privilege, not the witness, as I think you instructed the witness we had here yesterday, Your Honor.

Second, second, if I may, this is an e-mail that was produced in this litigation. Your Honor has already ruled that communications governing valuations and appraisals are not privileged.

THE COURT: Because they involve business, not legal advice; is that right?

MR. SOLOMON: Correct.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, first of all, when we get up too soon, we get criticized for objecting too soon by the government and when we wait too long, they criticize we waited too long. Ms. Dillon is appropriately setting forth as a currently licensed attorney and a former attorney for our clients. If she feels uncomfortable, I think it is incumbent upon her and I commend her for making the objection the way she did or at least making it an issue.

We do believe that any conversations, as I said earlier this afternoon, between Ms. Dillon and her former

1 clients are privileged. Again, we weren't directly involved in the special proceeding. I do know the Court made certain rules as to what documents were in or not, but when we address the issue with some previous witnesses, the fact that the Court may have ordered a document to be turned over previously in our view, especially since many of the defendants in this case were not defendants in that case were given an opportunity to assert privilege in that case. But once again, we asserted attorney-client privilege in any communication that Ms. Dillon had with those clients is privilege and not the proper subject of inquiry.THE COURT: Well, I'd rather not because I don't need to address the question of who can object. I see your point. Let's just go to the substance of it. Let me take a very careful read-through of this. I understand that -- not -- you as attorneys were not involved in the special proceeding. I also realize that certain of the defendants were not involved in the special proceedings investigation phase we'll call it. Let me just look at this for a minute.

MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir.
(Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)
THE COURT: Can I get a readback of the exact question?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was

THE COURT: I guess I have to rule now. I rule that this is business information or advice, not legal advice. I direct the witness to answer. You are not prejudiced to where any other objections depending upon what the other questions are.
A Could you read back the question one more time?
THE COURT: Please. My fault.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
A I'm not sure if it was Don, Sr. or Don, Jr.
Q Is the fact that you're unable to distinguish between Don, Sr. and Don, Jr. with respect to the TNGCLA project because they were both involved in it?

A It is because I saw from an e-mail that you showed me and my recollection Don, Jr. was involved in a lot of things.
17 His father was involved in very few things, but was aware of a 18 lot of things. And it's unclear to me who I was talking to then 19 and confirming that Don, Jr. was potentially involved was the 20 fact who was on those prior e-mails. So it is just a little bit 21 confusing to me and it was a long time ago.
22 Q I understand it was a long time ago, but my question
23 was just a little bit different. Is the reason you can't 24 distinguish who was involved in conversations relating to TNGCLA 25 because both Don, Jr., Donald Trump, Jr. and Donald Trump Sr. were both involved in the project?
MR. ROBERT: Objection; leading.
THE COURT: Overruled.
A And my answer I think remains the same. One, I don't know what you mean by involved. I would certainly agree that Don, Sr. was aware. I don't think he was necessarily involved. He was the highest level executive at the company and involved is -- seems to suggest more to me as -- that seems to be more of a day-to-day thing as opposed to aware of having a general awareness. So that's the distinction I make.

As far as Don, Jr., I can't remember if he was involved or also aware and whether it was the staff at the Trump Org who was running the show. I just don't recall.
Q I appreciate, ma'am, your distinction between involved and aware of. So when you say "involved," that's day-to-day and when you say "aware," you mean aware of; is that fair?
A I would say there's two spectrums, right, and I would say it is not every single detail every day to be involved, but there's also a general awareness which can be a high level awareness on the other hand and there is a spectrum there. So I just want to be clear that I don't know what you exactly mean by involved, but I don't think -- I don't -- in my view, neither of them were involved as I would use the word "involved."
Q Okay. When I say "involved" and I asked you questions using the word "involved," give me anyone on that spectrum you just described and feel free to tell me where you think they are on that spectrum. Is that fair?

DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)
A I think at a high level, Don, Sr. was aware. I think Don, Jr. may have been more aware.
Q That's fair. I appreciate the differentiation between the two and I thank you for that. I want to make clear when I use the word "involved" today, I want you to understand it means anywhere on that spectrum that you just described and if you need to explain your answer to tell me where it falls. Feel free to do so, but it would include someone if they're anywhere on the spectrum you described, okay?

A Sure.
THE COURT: No. No. If we are going to refer to a spectrum from aware to involve, I guess it's -- it is involved to aware. Let's not call it the aware spectrum. Let's call it the aware/involved spectrum.

MR. SOLOMON: Very fair enough, Your Honor. I will be guided by that suggestion.

THE COURT: Or some other way, just so we're not saying one end of the spectrum to refer to the whole spectrum.

MR. SOLOMON: How about I use the term "a role in" and then the witness can tell me where it falls between aware and day-to-day involvement? Does that work?

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I think this is an

1 important distinction if he asks a question and the witness

24 Q Who is Mr. Zbranek?
25 A Mr. Zbranek was another appraiser at Cushman & needs clarification. It is direct examination. The witness will say, "I can't answer it that way" and explain it her way. I think using a define term will create confusion.

MR. SOLOMON: Im inviting the witness to explain.
THE COURT: A role in -- I would say being aware of something is not necessarily, depending upon your view of language, to have a role in. I'm sure you're creative enough to come up some way to ask the question that doesn't imply the answer and that the witness can explain if she needs to.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. We move PX 1460 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1460.)

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 944 for identification.
Q Ma'am, this is an e-mail chain between you and Brian Curry with Rick Zbranek as a cc. Do you see that?
A Yes.

Page 2578
Wakefield.
Q And was he working on the TNGCLA project, to your knowledge?
A Yes, he was.
Q In the top e-mail from Mr. Curry to you on October 16, 2014, Mr. Curry writes, "Sheri, I revisited pricing in both lots and home sales scenarios. Numbers come in around 27 to 28 million "-- "MM for the driving range property. That is about 1.7 to 1.75 MM per lot "as is" condition (not if yet fully entitled before land development, time and risk, et cetera.)" Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Did you understand that Mr. Curry was advising you that the driving range property was worth approximately 27 to $$ 28$ million?
A That seemed to be his preliminary view at that point in time.
Q His preliminary estimate of the value of the driving range property, right?

A I think it speaks for itself. He said the numbers come in around 27 to 28 , I understood "MM" to be million, for the driving range property and at that point in time.
Q At that point in time. That's all we're asking. At 24 that point in time, the driving range property was the property 25 that was being considered for the potential donation of the

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

1 conservation easement, right?
A The conservation easement was considered -- the easement that was being considered would be placed over part or all of the driving range property.
$Q$ So if it's over all of the driving range property, it would be somewhere around 27 to 28 million, right?

A At this point, I don't recall whether it was all of the driving range property that was being considered. It's been a long time since I looked at these appraisals, so I don't want to commit to something that I don't know if it is true or not.

Q It says for the driving range property. It doesn't say for a portion of it, does it?

A Doesn't say for all of it either.
Q But it says for the driving range property, right?
A I find that to be sort of an imprecise and it also isn't talking about the conservation easement. It is not talking about a lot of things and if you have more documents, that would be really helpful. I could take a look at them and understand it, but --
Q We will get to more documents, ma'am, but I want to know your understanding at various points in time.

A At this point in time, he was suggesting that numbers come in around 27 to 28 million for the driving range property, whatever he means by that.

THE COURT: Just a second. I learned in junior high school or high school that if you refer to something, you mean the whole thing unless there's some indication you only mean part of it. Now, obviously, I don't know what Mr. Curry was thinking at the time, but -- and there is no jury here. I wouldn't be saying this, but I take the driving range to mean the whole driving range. But, you know, if there's an indication that less than that is meant, fine.
And I'm not sure that's what he meant, but that's how I interpret it.

MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, we're back to a little bit to where we were yesterday. It is a matter of interpretation. I think the witness has to testify as to what she can relate. Understanding your view, but she can only testify to what she can testify to.

THE COURT: I agree. Thank you. You're right.
THE WITNESS: And I'm not trying to be difficult here. It is just there's a lot of different pieces to a driving range property. There's things beyond just the driving range and the lots. Does it include the putting range? I don't know. Does it include the huts? I don't know. There's a lot to it, so that's what's complicating this. There's a lot of shorthand and abbreviations used in e-mails that make them very hard to understand. Q Is that why you at one point in time you instructed your associate not to send e-mails to avoid creating discovery?

notice.

Q Sound about right?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: What's the ground of the objection?
MR. ROBERT: He's leading and turning this into a cross-examination. It is a direct examination of a witness they called. Is not "is this right," "is that right." Ask open-ended questions and get answers.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this witness was counsel for the Trump Organization and many entities as she testified. She was an agent. We actually have the right to treat her as a hostile witness and lead on it.

THE COURT: I would agree she can be considered a hostile witness.

MR. ROBERT: This witness has demonstrated no evidence of that at all. She's been incredibly forthright and the fact that a question may be inarticulately phrased, no offense to Mr. Solomon, the witness is being very careful in the words she is using as a careful lawyer. So the fact she may not understand one of his questions or she thinks he is being combative is not what the record demonstrates. She is not an adverse witness and she is not a hostile witness. The government has to continue to treat her and do a normal direct examination.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, the standard isn't how
A I have routinely throughout my practice, through all of years of practice, I was taught by lots of folks when anything is complicated pick, up the phone. Don't use shorthand. Don't use abbreviations. You will end up with 40 e-mails that make no sense and no one understands even at the time or later, so pick p the phone and give them a call.
Q Do you recall that the driving range was comprised of 6 lots?
driving range on it.
Q Wasn't my question. Later in the process of the analysis for the donation or potential donation of the conservation easement, the appraiser determined that you could do 16 lots on the driving range property. Do you recall that?
A The driving range property when it was being considered for a conservation easement, one of the plans of a hypothetical subdivision showed 16 lots.
Q Okay. 16 lots times he determined roughly 1.7 to 1.75 illion per lot, right? You see that in the e-mail?
A I see the numbers 1. --
Q When we multiply 16 lots times 1.7 million, we've done this before.

MR. SOLOMON: I ask the Court to take judicial notice that I think that's $$ 27.2$ million.

THE COURT: I'm not surprised. I take judicial the witness is answering the questions. The standard is the witness' status as a former attorney and as a former agent for the Trump Organization and various entities as she testified to. We have a right to treat her as a hostile witness. The word 'hostile' doesn't mean 'antagonistic' necessarily. It is a legal term. We all know that.

MR. ROBERT: The key is former, no longer current attorney. Ms. Dillon is not our current agent. She was a former attomey for our clients. Again, proceed as we have been with other witnesses and so far, things have been going well until the last few questions.

THE COURT: I want to make clear to the witness that by deeming her hostile or adverse, I'm not criticizing her. It is really more of a status situation. Whether or not the answers have also indicated maybe a little bit of body language one way or the other, you could argue that. In any event, objection overruled. I direct the witness to answer.

Do you need a readback or you want to just ask again --
A Are you asking me to confirm your math?
Q I am just asking you if that sounds reasonable to you that --
A 1--
Q If it sounds reasonable to you that the 1.7 to 1.75 million times 16 lots comes out to in the ballpark of 27 to $$ 28$ million as referenced in this e-mail?

THE COURT: We must have 50 calculators in this room.
A 1.7 million for 10 of them. For six of them at -- probably around that number, but --
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: That answers the question.
THE WITNESS: I use my Apple calculator all the time.

THE COURT: We all do.
THE WITNESS: I haven't done multiplication in a while.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence if I have not already.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled. Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 944.)

MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1402 for identification.
Q Do you recognize this as an e-mail chain with respect to the potential conservation easement donation for TNGCLA? A Yes.
$1 \quad$ Q And you are on this e-mail chain, correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And the top message, the most recent on the first page is from Jill Martin. Do you see that?

A Ito.
Q Did you understand that on or about November 2014 she was the assistant general counsel for the Trump Organization?

A Yes.
9 Q Brian Curry, we've discussed. Selim Sawaya, do you see 10 Mr. Sawaya is a cc on this?
11 A Ido.
12 Q Do you know who Mr. Sawaya is?
13 A Yes.
14 Q Who is he?
15 A He was an engineer.
16 Q Did he work on the TNGCLA project?
17 A Yes, he did.
18 Q What was Jill Martin's role involvement or awareness on 19 this project, to your knowledge?
A Jill Martin was in-house counsel for the Trump Organization in LA. She was providing legal advice and assisting one of my primary contacts in connection with the conservation easement.

MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 1402 in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

A I do.
Q "trumpvalueconclusions.pdf," correct?
A I see those words.
Q Did you add that description for the attachment?
A I don't believe so. I don't know. I have no idea.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it looks like the e-mail from Mr. Curry already has "attorney-client confidential work product" in the subject line.

THE COURT: We understand that.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, I wasn't questioning that. That's forwarded. The next line, however, where it says "attachments," "trumpvalueconclusions" is not in the e-mail from Mr. Curry to Ms. Dillon.

MR. ROBERT: Correct. That's why this whole document should not be in evidence because it is attorney-client privilege. That makes our point. It was -- the attorney forwarding the document doesn't undo it and you're correct, sir. There is an additional document that is privileged.

THE COURT: Let me try to get to the --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, if you look at the second page, the additional document is "Trump Estates Conservation Easement Valuation." The Court has ruled repeatedly that valuation numbers are not privileged. The appraisal process to get to valuation numbers is not privileged. Only 21 Q Right. When you forwarded on, however, the forward on

23 A I see that.
24 Q And now there is a line added that says "attachments."
25 Do you see that?
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 1402.)

MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1472 for identification.
Q 1472 is an e-mail chain. At the bottom is from Brian Curry to you with a cc back to Brian Curry and Rick Zbranek.
You see "attached"?
A Yes.
Q Shortly thereafter on December 12th, you forward it on to Samuel Guthrie. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Who is Samuel Guthrie?
A He was an associate who worked with me.
Q The e-mail from Mr. Curry, the subject is "attorney-client confidential work product." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q When you forwarded on -- withdrawn.
And it just simply says, "see attached," right?
A Yes, that's what Brian Curry says.

attorney work product privilege does not make it attorney work product or privileged.

MR. ROBERT: I understand that there is a distinction between business and legal. I think we all get that. Where things get a little blurry is when you have lawyers that need to understand business aspects of a transaction to give legal advice. Here, it is abundantly clear that the information that's in this attachment, while nobody's going to dispute that it is numbers, it is not a legal opinion of an interpretation of a brief or a statute is clearly designed in the process of obtaining information to give legal advice. Therefore, it's privileged. Just because it is a business item doesn't mean that now it's not something that's subject and covered by attorney-client privilege.

MR. KISE: It's also, Your Honor -- it's attorney work product. Attorneys hire all sorts of consultants and experts all day long whether in litigation or outside of litigation. If your client has an issue and you need to understand an issue, you can hire a subject matter expert. It may be a business issue. It might be an accounting issue. You would hire an accountant to provide information that evaluates numbers.

So just because it's numbers and just because it relates to business doesn't mean that it's not valid

1 attorney work product. That's what attorneys do all day long. I mean, if we're waiving work product protections and privilege protections simply because there are numbers in the document, that eviscerates the attorney work product privilege and attorney-client privilege in the case.

THE COURT: I have not seen any requests for legal advice or legal advice. Work product, I would be happy to discuss what's your definition or would you like to find the definition of what attorney work product is? Or I know it is not a privilege, what do they call it, the doctrine?

MR. KISE: I don't have to define it. The law defines it and so --

THE COURT: What is the legal definition?
MR. KISE: Attorneys is work product, work product gathered in the course of rendering legal advice. I mean, it's very simple. So if an attorney hires someone to give them information and input in the course of their rendering legal advice, the product itself doesn't have to contain legal advice. It doesn't have to contain a legal opinion. It's something gathered during the course of their work.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's hear -- let's hear from the other side.

THE COURT: Why isn't this attorney work product?

 What is attorney work product?MR. SOLOMON: The work of the appraiser in determining the valuations contained on the second page of this exhibit. I assume that's all we're arguing over; is that correct? The first page no one is claiming it is privileged.

So the second page of this exhibit, Your Honor, is work done by an appraiser. It is then forwarded on. The original work done by the appraiser is not privileged merely because the appraiser then sends it to the attorney does not make it attorney work product.

THE COURT: Some of these points are clear. The fact that they label it something, that doesn't make it privilege. The fact that it's forwarded, doesn't make it -well, it could be waived.

MR. ROBERT: Mr. Solomon is conflating. I think the appropriate inquiry is if you ask the witness was this information obtained by you in the furtherance of you providing legal advice to the client. If the answer is no, then it's free inquiry; if the answer is yes, it would be subject to attorney work product.

It's not up to Mr. Solomon at this point to say what Ms. Dillon needed or didn't need in 2014 to help her render legal advice to her client. That's up to her as the 1 lawyer.

THE COURT: I think one thing I remember clearly about work product is the purpose is that other people can't say oh, this is what the attorney is thinking, this is what the attorney is doing, this is not what the attorney is thinking or doing. This is, what, somebody from Cushman & Wakefield, right?

MR. ROBERT: Who is hired to assist the attorney in providing legal advice.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's not the attorney work product. It's the Cushman & Wakefield work product.

MR. KISE: But it's gathered in the course of the attorney's duties and I believe that at least some of these engagements, if not this one, I don't have it here, that Cushman was engaged by the lawyers.

THE COURT: I understand.
MR. KISE: So if I engage as a lawyer and I hire an expert to help me, by definition that's work product. Just because the expert is an appraiser by definition that's work product. That's -- the purpose I'm engaging him is to assist me to render legal advice. I'm not engaging them to assist in facilitating a transaction. If I share that work product later with non-privileged individuals, that's a different story, but we're not there yet.

THE COURT: I believe, again, that I remember the language some cases discussing work product. The attorney's thoughts, impressions. This not the attorney's thoughts and impression. Overruled. It's in.

Any questions you want to ask about it, go ahead. It may also be law of the case at this point.

MR. SOLOMON: I was going to cite Your Honor to your September 23, 2020 decision in which the Court said, "Part of the opinion is this Court orders Respondent Morgan Lewis & Bockius to turn over by October 2, 2020 all documents that they have" -- excuse me -- "identified as settlement privilege." It goes on.
"The Court reflects the applicability of any settlement privilege" and then continues with "Morgan Lewis to produce to petitioner by October 2, 2020 all documents related to the," quote, 'preliminary valuations' closed quote, "of the Seven Springs easement as documents related to a preliminary valuation are of a business and not of a legal nature."

THE COURT: Well, that's the privilege. That's not work product. By the way, I made a ruling. It was either not appealed or affirmed. I'll change my mind if I think I was wrong, but I don't think I was wrong.

MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, I know Your Honor loves that phrase, but as Your Honor's already pointed out, work product and privilege are two different things.

Second, it's not that -- if individuals or entities that were not parties to that proceeding are here now, their privilege isn't waived. I mean, it's not possible to waive in perpetuity a privilege for some stranger to a proceeding. And so those individuals and entities are entitled to assert the privilege and they're entitled to assert work product protection at this stage because they wouldn't have had any opportunity at the prior stage.

THE COURT: I understand.
MR. KISE: There would be no waiver based on that. So while I appreciate Mr. Solomon read, I'm sure, accurately from the prior determination, that would have no bearing on individuals or entities that were not participants in that process.

THE COURT: Yes, I understand waiver is a partial and fallback argument, but I don't think -- it's certainly not privileged. I don't believe it's work product either. So let's proceed.

MR. SOLOMON: Can we have it offered into evidence?
THE COURT: Over objection, it's admitted into evidence.
Q Please look at the second page, ma'am.
Did you understand this to be the value conclusions from Mr. Curry for the potential conservation easement over the demonstrative driving range at TNGC LA?
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

1 A Looking at this document today I don't know if this is the document that was attached to the e-mail you've got. Assuming that it is, I assume this to be some sort of preliminary value conclusion. I don't know if it's a final conclusion. I don't know what it is in isolation, but it is something that shows some valuation numbers. I don't know in what context. If you had other documents -- the final ones are in the appraisal. I know what those are, but these I don't know.
Q I understand, ma'am, but I want to establish the knowledge that you had at various points in time, okay?

I understand there is a -- you think there is a final appraisal. We'll get to it whatever you think it might be. My point is different. At this point in time, you had received Trump Estates Conservation Easement Valuation from the person at Cushman & Wakefield that was tasked with appraising the value of the potential donation of a conservation easement at TNGC LA; correct?

A And, again, I'm sorry, I'm a lawyer. I'm precise. That's what I do. I get paid to be precise. I get paid a lot to be precise, so my problem is if you want me to assume this was attached to that e-mail, I can't coordinate these dates for you because there is no date on what I'm looking at, so I don't know what point in time. I agree at some point in time this appears to be prepared. It doesn't say Cushman & Wakefield on it. I don't know who prepared it. This looks like lots of things I've seen. I've seen many, many, many of these and I'm sure you have, too, by now so I can't connect those dots for you. I would like to. I'm not trying to be -- I prefer to go home instead of sit here, so I'm not trying to delay this. I just can't give you what you want.

Q See if we can approach this another way.
This is how it was produced to us, these pages together, number one.

Number two, "VE" on the bottom, Vincent & Elkins, it was produced by your prior firm, okay? I am making that representation to you that that's who it came from and that's how it was produced as one document. That was in fact an attachment to the December 2014 e-mail, okay? Can you accept that? Can you accept that representation?

A I didn't produce the document, so yes, I'll accept -I'm not trying to quibble with you. All I'm trying to say is this has no date on it. I don't know. It's an e-mail on that date. I'll agree with that it had an attachment of some sort. Is this what was attached to that e-mail? If you say so, all right.

Q Okay. Let's go based upon that, please?
A Okay. So your testimony is that this --
Q No. My representation to you, ma'am?
A My representation.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2596
THE COURT: We agreed to be precise.
Q So this second page, if you see note one is before condition. On the top line, "development and golf course property value before condition note one;" right?
A Yes, I see that.
Q And if you look down bottom, the note says, "60 lots and golf course without driving range;" right?
A Yes.
Q Okay. "Less development and golf course property value after condition." That's note two; right?

A Yes.
Q And note two is "44 lots and golf course without driving range;" right?
A Yes.
Q Okay. You don't need to grab a calculator. 60 minus 44 is 16 ? That's the 16 lots I made the representation to you about earlier when I asked you to do the math and we did the math together, right, 16 lots?
A I don't think we did math on 16 lots. We did math on the value.
Q Yes. 16 lots times approximately 1.7 million per lot. Do you recall that?

A Yes, but we weren't - yes, but the question wasn't 16 lots. It was what was the value. That's what we were doing before was the math.

 BY MR. SOLOMON:Q Ms. Dillon, can we turn to the appraisal which has been marked as PX 1464?

A Yes.
Q You'll see on the cover of the appraisal itself, it's dated as of December 16, 2014; correct?

A Correct.
Q And that is the valuation date; right?
A I believe so, yes.
Q Okay.
A I'd have to confirm it on the inside.
Q Please take a moment. I'm sorry if I misspoke. It's December 26, 2014 is the date on the cover.

A Yes, and that is the valuation date.
Q Okay. The fourth page is the letter addressed to Jill Martin. Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q And I had mentioned to you an entity VH Property Corp as one of the owners. If you look at the fifth line down there is a reference to property owned by VH Property Corp and VHPS LLC (collectively, the "Donor") and "donor" is in quotes. Do you see that?
24 A Ido.
25 Q Does that refresh your recollection that the owner of the property were those entities?
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2602
2 A Yes, to a degree.
3 Q What do you mean by "to a degree?"

25

15 A Yes.
16 Q Has the before condition property as note one; right?
17 A Yes.
18 Q $$ 107$ million; right?
19 A That's what it says.
20 Q Okay. And is that your understanding of Mr. Curry and 21 Mr . Zbranek's conclusion as to the value of the TNGC LA property

A It is my understanding that is the before condition of 24 the property they valued as 107 million.
A Well, I'm not sure if it was VHPS LLC that directly owned it or if it was Property Corp, but it was in a structure and those were the ultimate -- I think one owned through the other. I just can't quite remember the setup.
Q Do you have any reason to believe the information contained in this cover letter is inaccurate in any way with respect to the owner of the property?
A No. It's just a little unclear, perhaps.
Q Turn to the next page. You'll see there is a chart Valuation Summary. Similar to what you saw in that attachment to your e-mail; right? before the condition?

Q Okay. And the after condition, 82 million; right?
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2603
1 A That is what it says.
2 Q And that gives you -- I think you explained the math 3 and how it is -- the value of the easement would be $$ 25$ million?

A Well, unless there are some other adjustments, but that appears to be what they valued the easement as.
$6 \quad \mathrm{Q}$ So the next line is 25 million?
7 A Yes.
8 Q And then they didn't have to make any adjustments, N/A?
9 A They did not make any adjustments.
10 Q I'm sorry. Please finish your answer.
11 A Yes, it said "not applicable" so there are no
12 adjustments. There is a difference. It's not zero. It's not 13 applicable.
14 THE COURT: Make sure she's completely finished and 15 try not to keep saying okay, okay, okay. Just ask your next question.
Q Line E, which is "C-D, conservation easement 25 million." Do you see that?
A I do see that.
Q Did you understand that to be the conclusion of the valuation of the conservation easement?
A I understood that to be the estimated fair market value of the conservation easement as of December 26, 2014.

Q If I could ask you to turn to page 156 of 160 in the exhibit.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

1 A 156, did you say?
2 Q Yes, of 160 . You'll see there are small numbers on the 3 bottom of each page.
4 A Yes, give me a second. I'm on the wrong --
5 Q Of course.
6 A Yes, I'm there.
7 Q Do you see the chart in the middle of the page, "Sales
8 Price Per Hole Value Estimate?"
9 A I do.
10 Q And the sale price per hole conclusion is $$ 15,800,000$.
11 Do you see that?
12 A Yes.
13 Q What understanding, if any, did you have or do you have 14 as to what that number represents?

A It has been a long time since I've looked at this, so I need to read around it to better understand it. I have no recollection sitting here today it was another way of valuing things. I just don't recall what it was doing. This is a backup for their work product.
Q If you look at the top of page 156, the title is "Price 21 Her Hole." Do you see that?

A I see that. If you want me to read this, then maybe I can help you, but it's going to take me a minute to get there. It's been years since I've read this valuation and it was complicated because of the golf course property, the driving

$1 \quad Q \quad$ Who would be getting it from Jill? Who are you referencing in that last answer?
3 A It would be whoever she would send it to. I don't know. Yeah, they would have needed it at the Trump Organization.
Q What do you mean by "needed it at the Trump Organization"?

A They would have needed documentation to know what they did.
Q So who at the Trump Organization would need that documentation to know what they did?

MR. KISE: Objection. Calls for speculation.
THE COURT: Without speculating, who, if any, would have received this?
A And so who do I think Jill would have sent it to if I don't recall who I sent it to? Is that the question?

MR. SOLOMON: That was not the question, Your Honor. May I ask for a readback?

THE COURT: Readback, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

MR. KISE: Again, Your Honor, that's just -- now that I see it read back, it's just complete speculation.
How would she know anything about internal affairs of the Trump Organization?

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

1 THE COURT: Well, she dealt with them.

MR. KISE: It doesn't appear that the witness remembers who she sent it to herself much less who in the Trump Organization might have received it. It appears to call for complete speculation.

MR. SOLOMON: Question wasn't who might have received it. The witness testified she understood it would have been sent to whoever at the Trump Organization needed it. And my question was specifically tailored to that last answer as to who she was referring to when she said who at the Trump Organization might have needed it.

MR. KISE: I don't think she was referring to anyone. I think she was just simply saying when you say I don't --

MR. SOLOMON: Counsel, your thinking of who she might have been referring to is not relevant. The witness' stated who would have needed it. I asked her who that was.

MR. KISE: She said whoever might have needed it would get it.

MR. SOLOMON: I'm entitled to ask who she was referring to.

MR. KISE: I'm entitled to say it is calling for speculation because I don't know if this witness is capable of knowing that.

THE COURT: Overruled. If she doesn't know, she doesn't. If she can tell us, she'll tell us.
A Could we have the question again, please?
THE COURT: For a third time, yes. Let's have it read back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
A And it -- to the extent anyone wanted to use it to support a charitable deduction on a tax return, the people that would need it would be the accountants and most importantly, the outside accountant who prepared the returns which would be Donald Bender.

Q You said 'the accountants' and then differentiated "the outside accountants." The first accountant, were you referring to the inside accountants at the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Who were those people?
A The person that probably would have needed it would have been Jeff McConney.

THE COURT: Try not to say, "okay."
MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
THE COURT: That's okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, pull up PX 731 native which is in evidence and go to lines 381 -- let's start at the top of the document first.
Q This previously has been identified as what's known as

DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

Page 2612
Jeff Supporting Data or the Supporting Data for the Donald J.
Trump Annual Statement of Financial Condition and this is the one for June 30, 2015.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, go to lines 38 through 404.
Q You'll see that for the year ending 6/30/2014, the total valuation for Trump National Golf Club LA is $$ 213,690,642$. Do you see that?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Grounds?
MR. ROBERT: There is no foundation this witness even knows what this document is. He's just asking her if she sees something on a page up on a screen.

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm getting there, Your Honor. I'm just asking if she saw that number on the screen.

THE COURT: Objection sustained. I think we need to know context of what this document is.
Q You mentioned Jeff McConney --
MR. SOLOMON: Sorry. Your Honor, we need to know?
THE COURT: What this document is and the witness certainly might need to know what this document is.

MR. SOLOMON: And I represented that this is Jeff McConney Supporting Data. That's why we went to the top, the June 30, 2015 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald

J. Trump.

THE COURT: All right.
MR. SOLOMON: It is in evidence, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. And maybe I should have --
MR. SOLOMON: I understand the witness may not have seen this document before. That's not what I'm asking.
THE COURT: That's what I want to get into.
Q What I want to show the witness is as you see as of June 30, 2015 the valuation for TNGCLA according to this document is $$ 140,710,895$. Do you see that?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Overruled. Maybe the question was -- I don't know whether the question was proper before or after, but now it is proper. It has been identified and he's just asking if she sees the number on the document. Overruled.
Q And you recall --
THE COURT: Did we get an answer? Did we get an answer that she saw the number?
Q Do you see that, ma'am?
A I see the number sitting here right now in this courtroom on that screen.
Q Thank you. And you recall the appraisal that we just saw had valued the entire property at 107 million before the donation of the conservation easement? Do you recall that?

A I -- I want to take a step back first. I think --
Q Ma'am, my question was do you recall that the appraisal that we saw earlier on the chart on page 5 of 160 valued the property as you agreed at $$ 107$ million before the easement donation? It is a yes or no.

MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Mr. Solomon is using this witness to make some sort of closing argument. He's trying to get the witness to close the loop on connections between documents, one of which the witness hasn't even seen before today and she's just -- the only answer she's given is, "Yes, I can see" like I could give that answer, "Yes, I see the number on the screen says 213 million;" but there's no foundation for her to go ahead and now extrapolate, "I see this appraisal," "I see Jeff McConney's spreadsheet" and somehow there is an interconnectivity there. There is no foundation at all for this. It is totally improper to question this witness about something she knows nothing about.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I haven't asked her to extrapolate anything. I asked her if she saw the number on the screen and $I$ asked her if she remembers a number on a document that she identified that is in evidence for notice.

THE COURT: I don't think that proves much necessarily.

MR. KISE: Notice to whom? We are back to that.

1 We established before that the only people that was 2 introduced for notice for did not include Mr. McConney, that 3 I'm aware of. It was the people that were on the e-mail. 4 That was what was agreed to when we introduced the document.

THE COURT: You're objecting to the question or the number's different? Is one number $A$ and one number is $B$ ?

MR. KISE: If that's all he is asking, does this number on that page says this, and this number on this page says that.

MR. SOLOMON: So the record is clear, the witness also said that since this was on the tax return as a deduction, it would have been sent to Jeff McConney.

MR. KISE: No. No, Your Honor. She did not say that. She said who might need it, might need it, but she didn't testify that that's exactly who it was sent to. She can't possibly do that because she doesn't know who it was sent to. He is now putting words in her mouth which is the danger of going down these lines of questioning.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I will stand on the record transcript as to what the witness testified to with respect to Mr. McConney in receiving what I'm assuming this appraisal.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, she didn't testify that Mr. McConney received it because she can't probably do that. THE COURT: You know, one thing that even though certainties either. If somebody says, "Well, I think this person could have" or "I would have" or "This is how I normally did things," it is up to the trier of fact to decide whether it happened or not.

MR. KISE: I would respectfully disagree particularly when it comes to things like intent of a criminal statute. You can't just assume that someone received a document and then ignored it which is exactly what the Attorney General is asking. That's where they're going with this is they're trying to establish through a witness who would have absolutely no knowledge whether Mr. McConney actually received something from Jill Martin.

The right witness to ask is Jill Martin or Mr. McConney, but certainly not this witness. We can't skip over the part where we establish that Mr. McConney actually had a copy of this document and, therefore, would have acted or not acted in a particular way. That's clearly what they're trying to establish, to just back-door here knowledge, actual knowledge and, therefore, intent which they'll argue later that Mr. McConney acted in a certain way or failed to act in a certain way. They can't presume that one way or the other whether or not Mr. McConney would have received this document.

1 based on a witness who has absolutely no basis to conclude

THE COURT: We have a fundamental difference about that. Let me ask you a hypothetical. What if there's proof, solid proof that this witness, and this is a hypothetical, had mailed it to Mr. McConney? We don't -- but we don't have Mr. McConney saying, "Yes, I received it." Could the trier of fact conclude that yes, he received it?

MR. KISE: We don't have that evidence. Your hypothetical assumes facts not in evidence. So if they were to establish that -- if they were to establish, for example, that this witness actually e-mailed it to Mr. McConney, yes, then they would be able to establish that, in fact, this witness would have a basis to know or it would be reasonable for her to conclude that Mr. McConney received it because of the fact of sending.

We have none of that here. What we have is a witness who has been more or less forced to speculate as to who might need it within the organization based on her knowledge and now they're taking that to mean that Mr. McConney, in fact, received it and they're comparing it to Mr. McConney's spreadsheet which the witness has never seen before today it would appear and doesn't have any ability to witness testified that it was used for tax deduction and that she would have to send it or the recipient would have to be the accountant and the outside accountants. I asked her who. She differentiated between inside and outside. The inside was she identified Mr. McConney, but I didn't want to interrupt Mr. Kise and I think, Your Honor, we can settle this in one quick and easy moment. If the Court looks at line 393 on Mr. McConney's spreadsheet, "per 1 mailed it to Mr. McConney," that would suffice. But what 2 you have here is a witness speculating on who might need it 3 within the organization, "might" being the operative word, 4 and no indication from this witness who is being examined 5 about this at this moment, whether or not Mr. McConney, in 6 fact, received it one way or the other. There's no indicia. 7 I don't think the witness could possibly tell you whether or 8 not it was even sent to him. All she has testified to is 9 what she thinks might have happened. That's not sufficient 10 to establish receipt or even delivery.

THE COURT: We're talking preponderance standard here, 51 percent.

Mr. Solomon, would you explain as specifically as you can what you think the witness has testified to that would indicate in any way that Mr. McConney had received the -- this, whatever we're calling it, origin document.

[^10]

Page 2618
1 testify about what any of these numbers on the page mean and connecting the dots.

THE COURT: The number says what it means.
MR. KISE: Well -- but there's a lot of different numbers on here than when you compare them on the valuation and the appraisal. They're oversimplifying and conflating communications, oversimplifying comparison and conflating the communications with a witness who, again, has no basis to know what, in fact, was actually sent or received. If she said it, that's a different story. If they would like to establish that, then okay, then establish that; but they haven't established that.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, who goes first, me or you?
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've learned if you're going to rule in my favor, to sit down, grab my briefcase and leave the courtroom.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have we established that we don't need the alleged recipient to say, yes, I received it? There are other ways that a trier of fact can conclude that somebody received something.

MR. KISE: There is, but you have to actually do that. I mean, of course, there are other ways. Again, you pointed out if this witness were to testify "I e-mailed it to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I Federal Expressed it to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I appraisal."

MR. KISE: Right. Which appraisal? That's a different -- that's yet a different number. Again, I'm not sure exactly what Mr. Solomon - he's smarter than this. I don't know what he's trying to establish. I mean, truly, you can't have this witness testify about who would have received something, maybe might. It's not possible. And it's not possible to connect up -- if they -- if they want to call Ms. Martin to testify, if they want to call Mr. McConney and ask him about it. I mean, while we're at it, she said that Mr. Bender - she said that Mr. Bender might have received it or would have received it as well. Is that then to mean Mr. Bender -- we can assume in evidence now that Mr. Bender, in fact, received it?

THE COURT: I don't think it is a question of assumption. It is an issue of fact. I think they raise that issue.

MR. KISE: So then we are to say here that Mr. Bender, in fact, received this appraisal as well. Based on that testimony, she said Mr. Bender and Mr. McConney. So if the sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander as you say, so if, in fact, we're going to presume now that based on this witness' testimony, which is speculation, that Mr. McConney received it, well, then -- then the same fact has to be assumed with respect to Mr. Bender. I don't think

1 either makes any sense, frankly, but if you're going to
2 allow one, then you have to allow that it is a fact now

1 "per appraisal," but it doesn't say which appraisal. But if the number is the same, then I'll, as the trier of fact, could say, "Oh, that's the appraisal that the number came from."

MR. KISE: But it isn't the same number.
THE COURT: Okay. So I'm not reading anything into that because we don't know what appraisal it was, but everything else stands.
Q Ma'am, before today, were you ever aware that as of June 30, 2015, the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA property at $$ 140$ million?
A I was not aware of -- I've never seen this document. Everyone seems to accept that, so I don't even know what this is. I don't know what it's valuing. I don't know what it's doing, so I don't know what the $$ 140$ million -- I've never been aware of what they, otherwise, valued Seven Springs at in -- at that time. I've certainly seen things in the news since that time.
Q Okay. I think that was just a mistake in your answer and let me clarify for the record. You said Seven Springs?
A Oh, I'm sorry. California.
Q It is a simple yes or no. Prior to today, were you aware whether the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA as of June 30, 2015 at $$ 140$ million? It is a yes or no.

THE COURT: That's a yes or no.

THE COURT: If you want to try to bring that out on any sort of questioning, feel free. I'm not going to go there now.

MR. KISE: But there's no way to do one without the other respectfully.

THE COURT: I made my ruling. Enough. I made my ruling.

Mr. Solomon, where are we? I would like to know how we know what -- how we connect that 50 million and change number to a particular appraisal if we can or you can just withdraw that point.

MR. SOLOMON: No. I was just pointing out to Your Honor that the spreadsheet said "per appraisal" as to the question with respect to Mr. McConney. The number I was focusing the witness on is the line on 404 and I don't mean 404 error, I mean line 404 on the spreadsheet value as of 6/30/2015 is 140 million and $I$--

THE COURT: I know what number you're trying to get to.

MR. SOLOMON: Right. I'm sorry.
THE COURT: I think you were trying to show that Mr. McConney must have seen the appraisal because it says [^11]18 Q Yes, nothing to do with the spreadsheet. And ma'am, 19 let's be very clear. I'm just asking if prior to commencement 20 of this action, were you aware that the Trump Organization 21 valued TNGCLA at $$ 140$ million as of June 30, 2015; yes-or-no 22 question?

23 A No.
THE WITNESS: You all think this is simple, Your Honor. Respectfully, there's been so much in the news about this, I don't know if I've heard this before or not. Am I aware? Do I have personal knowledge of it? No. Have I heard it in the last? I don't know. Two years since this case has been going on, probably. I've heard various numbers at various times that there's a value disparity supposedly, allegedly and I, you know -- was I aware of any of this realtime? No, if that's your question.
Q Sure. Let's talk about prior -- you said realtime so, that may only be at one point in time.

Prior to the filing of this action, were you aware that the Trump Organization valued TNGCLA at $$ 140$ million as of June 30, 2015 ?
A I was not aware of the spreadsheet. I'm not sure what they did with that number, so I don't know. Nothing to do with the spreadsheet? Is that your question?

Q Did you ever discuss with Jeff McConney in form or substance how he should value TNGCLA?

Page 2624

MR. ROBERT: Objection. You are now getting into legal advice that would have been given to a client.

THE COURT: That's business advice, not legal advice.

MR. ROBERT: They're consulting their attorney who is a tax attorney to give them tax advice. This is not a business consultant. They're not talking to the appraiser. The question was did you ever talk with Jeffrey McConney in form or substance how he should value.

THE COURT: It is not asking for the substance. Did they ever discuss? Overruled. They are allowed to ask what was discussed. When it comes to a business advice request, that's something else. So we're getting close to that maybe, but we're not there yet.
Q It is a yes-or-no question.
A Could you read it back, please?
THE COURT: Read back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
A No.
Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump 22 Organization how they should value TNGCLA for purposes of the

23 Statement of Financial Condition?

A Not to my recollection other than -- let me correct that. I did discuss how it was valued for tax purposes and for, you know -- I made -- when we had the appraisal, so certainly again -- are we including Donald Bender in the Trump Organization or is he an agent? I don't know where he fits in.
4 Q Let's include him for the moment.
5 A I would have discussed it with Donald Bender because he has to attach the appraisal to the tax return, so I would have sent him the appraisal and discussed it with him and explained the appraisal to him, so he would have known the value to report on the tax return.

Q Other than Mr. Bender, did you discuss the valuation of TNGCLA with anyone at the Trump Organization in connection with the Statements of Financial Condition?
A I do not believe so, no.
Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization, and let's exclude Mr. Bender for the moment, anyone at the Trump Organization the valuation of TNGCLA?

A I don't -- I don't recall. Over the years, I'm sure it may have come up at some point in time, but I don't recall any specific conversations about that.

Q Do you recall any general conversations?
A I don't recall whether we ever had any or not.
Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization? And for purposes of this --
A Can I correct my last answer?
Q Please.

1 A I certainly would have had conversations with Jill Martin when we were doing the appraisal for the federal income tax purposes which is a very unique kind of appraisal.
Q Anyone else?
A I'm trying to think and remember.
Q Please.
A I don't believe so.
Q Would you have discussed it with Mr. Weisselberg since this had to do with tax planning purposes? And I mean Allen Weisselberg.
A I don't believe so, but people would have been aware and I would have -- the bottom line, would have been discussed, the value of the conservation easement is what would have been a topic.

Q What about the valuation of the property?
A The valuation of the property as a whole? I don't recall having conversations about that.
Q Let's turn to Briarcliff Manor.
A Yes.
Q Do you recall that property?
A Yes.
Q That's the property located in Westchester?
A I believe it is located in Westchester. It's been a while since I've been there.
Q That's owned by Briarcliff Manor, LLC, right? that? land. right?

A I would have to look at a chart. If you want to represent that, I'll -- I accept your representation.
Q We'll get to it in a document later on. I don't need to represent that, ma'am.

Did there come a time that you were consulted in connection with the donation of a potential conservation easement over a portion of that development?
A Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we look at PX 157, which I believe is in evidence already.
Q Ma'am, feel free to look at whatever you need to answer my question, but I'm going to start with is that your signature on page 9 of 11 ?
A Yes.
Q If you look at page 4 of 11 and look at "intended use," "To estimate the value of 71 hypothetical residential units located at Trump National Golf Club Westchester, 1 Shadow Tree Lane, Briarcliff Manor, New York, (the "property"). Do you see

A Yes.
Q Do you now -- withdrawn.
Do you recall that the task for the Briarcliff property was to determine the value of a potential donation of a conservation easement over 71 hypothetical residential units?
A I'm sorry. I was looking at this. I didn't quite catch the question. I was trying to take a look at the engagement letter.

Q In looking at the engagement letter, do you have an understanding as to why Cushman & Wakefield was being engaged?
A It was an engagement that we were exploring whether - the Trump Organization was exploring whether or not to donate a conservation easement and restrict certain of its Q That would be over 71 hypothetical residential units,
A Yes, it would be to prohibit the building of 71 hypothetical residential units.
Q Let's remember the number 71 because that's going to come up later.

MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, can we mark PX 3197 for identification. It is already in evidence. If can we look at PX 3197, please.
Q Ma'am, do you recognize this document?
A I see that it is an e-mail that I was copied on, but I don't have any particular recollection of it.
Q Is it fair to say, though, in or about October of 2013, you were aware that Cushman & Wakefield was ready to move forward with a written report?
A I see that's what it says.
Q And that's Trump Westchester. Is that a reference to Trump Briarcliff?

A Sitting here today, I think so, but there are a variety of Trump properties that were located in Westchester.
Q But sitting here today, you do believe this is a reference to Briarcliff, right?
A Hopefully, that's what Mr. McArdle told you.
Q That wasn't my question.
Sitting here today, is it your understanding that that is a reference to Briarcliff, Trump Briarcliff?

A It is a reference to Trump Westchester. I don't have an understanding one way or the other that it says Trump Westchester. Again, if you have materials, I'm happy to look at things that say "Trump Briarcliff."
Q Maybe we'll get to those. Do you recall if you moved forward with a written report for Trump Briarcliff on or about October of 2013?
A What I recall is there was never a-- a donation was never made. The project was explored on and on for a long period of time. I don't recall the fits and starts and timeline of it all.

MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, mark for identification PX 3201. Sorry. It's been corrected. It's already been moved in evidence.

Page 2630
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Q PX 3201 is an e-mail chain. Top line is from David McArdle to Eric Trump with a cc to you. Do you see that?

A Yes.
Q "David per my conversation with Sheri, cc'd, please finish but hold off on sending the appraisal until further notice." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Was Eric Trump involved in the consideration of the potential easement donation for Briarcliff?

A He was aware. I'm not sure if I'd say he was involved. I mean, he was involved. I just don't know what level of involvement you have. But yes, he was more than aware of it. He was more than aware and I don't know what you mean by "involved."
Q Were you running all relevant material decisions past him before moving forward?

A I would have run decisions by representatives of the Trump Organization, not necessarily always Eric.

Q Did you run decisions past Eric in connection with the Trump Briarcliff potential donation?

A You're making me uncomfortable again with privilege.
Q It's a yes or no. Not asking what the decisions were, ma'am, and I'm not asking the substance of the decisions. I'm simply asking if you ran the decisions past him before moving forward.

A Some decisions, yes; not all decisions.
Q Do you recall why a decision was made to hold off on sending the appraisal until further notice at that time?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Attomey/client privilege.
Why something was done or not done is clearly in the course of acting as the attorney for the organization.

MR. SOLOMON: My question, Your Honor, was not why. It's do you recall whether the decision was made. If I misspoke, I will rephrase it.

MR. ROBERT: Question was do you recall why a decision was made to hold off.

MR. SOLOMON: What I'm saying is yes or no. I wasn't asking what the reasons were.

MR. ROBERT: But I would respectfully submit when you're talking about an issue here that is clearly one of attorney/client privilege even the question of if you know why a decision was made, even the mere knowledge that the attorney has it is covered by privilege.

THE COURT: Rephrase or read back, either way I don't care, one other the other.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I can withdraw the question?

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: We'll fight on other fights.
MR. ROBERT: That I agree with.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'm going to ask to put in front of the witness PX 1465, which I understand is already in evidence.

THE COURT: Six-minute warning. Break at 4:30.
Mr. Kise, was that your saved by the bell gesture?
MR. KISE: Ready to be done for today.
Q Ma'am, the court officer has put in front of you PX 1465, which is in evidence. Do you recognize this e-mail chain?
A I can read it now and see there is the e-mail chain that I was drafting and receiving. Do I have a specific recognition of it, no.
$Q$ Or recollection of it?
A Or recollection of it, no.
$Q$ Okay. If you turn to the second page of the exhibit, the e-mail from you to David McArdle?

A Yes.
Q Okay. "I spoke to Eric and he is aware that the more supportable value at this point is around $$ 45$ million." Do you see that?

A Ido.
Q Was that the value of the hypothetical easement donation -- withdrawn.

Was that the value of the potential easement donation for the 71 hypothetical units?

A I'm not sure if it was of the 71 units because one of 1 document is now in evidence, that's a fair question, but to the things that happens as you're going through this process is you sometime -- you change what may or may not be donated, what may or may not be restricted, whatever the case may be.

What I do see is that there was a value of around 45 million for whatever precisely it was that was being valued. Whether or not -- I don't know if it was 70 units, I don't know if it was determined there were really 75 . I can't remember if there were 65. I know there was some confusion around that point, but it was -- the value of a potential donation was around 65 million for IRS purposes under the IRS appraisal standards as compared to other appraisal standards.
Q And you'll see that Mr. McArdle responds to you:
"Thanks, Sheri. That is a great summary of where we stand and glad we are aligned here. I will speak with Eric." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Let me take a step back. I didn't ask you. Your e-mail that started with "I spoke to Eric," is that an accurate summary of your conversation with Eric Trump?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. The document is one sentence. There is a conversation with Eric Trump. That one sentence is what's there. This question is saying is that a -- let me have it right -- "Is that an accurate summary of your conversation?" If you want to talk about that -- whether that one sentence was said since that simple ruling. Is this an accurate summary? That's a fair question for document that's already in evidence, is that --

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Overruled. But again, we may be close, but just is that a fair summary. That's a fair question, of course to someone who says "I spoke to Eric." You mean is that a fair summary of, what, the whole paragraph?

MR. SOLOMON: Of the portion that recite what she said to Eric or you said, ma'am, to Eric. I don't mean to --

MR. KISE: But again, Your Honor, if he's asking the witness if what's in here is accurate does it say that, did you write that communication and is that -- what's in there accurate, that's one thing. But to ask what you --

THE COURT: That's all he asked.
MR. KISE: If that's what he's asking, but he's not asking it quite that way.

MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Kise is trying to parse this in what is not acceptable. I'm asking if what she wrote is an accurate summary of what she told Eric Trump on the phone call. I'm not asking if what she wrote -- this document is accurate as to what she wrote. There is no question the document is authentic. No one is challenging that. I'm asking if this is an accurate summary of what she said to Eric Trump in or about October 2013.

MR. KISE: And that then calls for direct attorney/client communication about the matters to which she was engaged to represent him on and represent the organization on, tax matters. That calls for just a direct communication. They have this evidence. They can argue whatever they want from this evidence, but to ask this witness is this specifically what you told your client in a privileged conversation, there is no waiver here of the privilege. This doesn't waive that privilege. It's not possible to waive that privilege just because you wrote in here something to a third party and made a summary.

If what's in there is accurate then they can argue what they want, but the idea that there is a waiver of privilege based on a document -- this document is nonstarter.

THE COURT: Just a side point, it's to David McArdle. He is --

MR. ROBERT: So, Your Honor, the point is if the question is did you tell Eric Trump and is he aware and you want to say that first sentence, is it true that you spoke to Eric Trump and did you tell him that the more supportable value at the point is around 45 million, that's a fair question. But to discuss that whether this e-mail is a fair summary of the entire conversation that Ms. Dillon had with Mr. Trump would constitute a waiver of attorney/client

Page 2638
A To your point about my entire discussion with Eric or partial discussion, it's not a yes-or-no question in my view. If I could just have --

THE COURT: Go ahead, explain.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, other witnesses, including us, you have indicated if it's a yes-or-no question you have to answer yes or no and they're able to explain their answers by questioning on the other side.

MR. ROBERT: First of all, Mr. Solomon, as the judge would say if you can answer it yes or no and the witness said that they couldn't the judge would then allow them to answer.

THE COURT: Yes or no to me to the witness may not appear, so I'll allow an explanation. I hope it's brief. A It will be brief.

So I have no recollection of the conversation itself. I don't know if there is more in the conversation, I don't know if there is less in the conversation. I believe I would have accurately reflected the parts of the conversation that I reflected here I would believe are accurate, but whether there were more things talked about, less things -- well, wouldn't be less things, but I can't tell you that sitting here today. It was a conversation ten years ago.

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've gone over my time.

1 privilege. So the document that was produced is talking myself, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I direct the witness to answer is that one paragraph, one summary of the conversation? Blame me if you have to.A Let me give this a try.MR. KISE: Same objection.20
A Let me give this a try. ..... 22MR. SOLOMON: It's a yes-or-no question.
THE COURT: It's a yes-or-no question is that a ..... 24 fair summary of your discussion with Eric?

THE COURT: We'll bill you for that. Let me -- I order the witness not to talk about in this case or your testimony or anything related to anybody until your testimony is finished, which won't be at least until tomorrow obviously.

THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.
MR. KISE: We have Ms. Dillon tomorrow and Flores?
MR. AMER: Yes.
MR. KISE: Okay. Just want to be sure.

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in session. Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Okay. So why are we here at 9:30 instead of 10:00? Because we're going to hear oral argument on a motion by Ivanka Trump to quash a subpoena, trial subpoena issued against her.

I read the papers, so, please, don't be too repetitive. I'm hoping that we can finish by 10:00. If we can't, then by $10: 30$. We want to try to finish with the current witness, Sheri Dillon, today. And without further ado, who would like to speak on behalf of the motion?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Bennet Moskowitz on behalf of non-party witness Ivanka Trump. First, let me say thank you everyone here, especially Your Honor, Ms. Greenfield and the parties for giving us the time for this in the middle of a very busy trial.

I heard you loud and clear. I have no intention to just rehash what's in my moving papers. As Your Honor knows, I wasn't afforded a reply opportunity, so I'll take this opportunity to address things mostly that the AG raised. What I will say just to level set here and I don't want to get lost in the shuffle with all the papers flying back and forth on this. We're not here about technical service defects. This is about fundamental issues of jurisdiction.

THE COURT: Good. That makes things a lot simpler.
MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right, and hearing only facts that matter for purposes of the jurisdiction. Ms. Trump does not live in New York. She's not domiciled here and despite the fact that the AG concludes otherwise and doesn't present evidence supporting that conclusion, she does not transact business here. Let me say it again, she does not transact business here. That has a very specific meaning under New York law.

Weinstein, Korn & Miller, no offense to Professor Siegal. He's great, too. I picked it up and Section 30809 of Weinstein, Korn & Miller, so that section of Weinstein, Korn & Miller provides, Your Honor, that actual place of business under New York law means where that person is regularly, physically present and regularly transacts business.

Ivanka Trump does not regularly transact business and does not regularly at any of the addresses where they served these subpoenas to these entities at most since 2017 and if they want an affidavit for that business, that's fine. By the way, side note, they didn't put in an

1 affidavit because I urge the Court, and you read the papers,

if you revisit it, maybe you don't need to, the correspondence attached to my affirmation, the AG's position on this motion has been like a moving target.

First they said, "Oh, it is a subpoena to these entities." No, it is a subpoena to her. Now I'm hearing in their papers for the first time that she transacts business at Trump Tower. She does not. Since 2017, she's been there once or twice a year, never for business, to say hello, people including family members for 15 minutes, 30 minutes, things like that. So there is no basis to say a service on an entity at Trump Tower is service on her individually. That's just wrong.

Let's look at the case law here and I'll address mostly the case law that was cited by my friends across on the other side. First, they don't deal with the fact that Justice Fried's decision just as an example, Amelius is decisive. A non-party, non-domiciliary is not subject to the subpoena power of the court. That's 64 New York State 3d 855 at 866. Again, that was Justice Fried.

When we had the ongoing discussions leading up to this motion and still today, perhaps the AG relied on cases like 2323 Communications Corp. Those cases stand for a principle that's very different which is that where an entity is a party, it can be compelled to appear through a months leading up to this. So if that's the best case they can do, I'm happy with it. It doesn't help them. It helps me.

There are other cases. The Court doesn't have to take my word for it. A lot of cases have cited that Gibson Dunn case and what they rely upon such as this Napoli vs. Bern which is 2021 Westlaw 5458747 at page three, 2021 case with the line of cases that I found talking about the Gibson Dunn case. They'll hook on to that inducement. This guy had the legal fees sent there, represented that's where he worked, and then he turned around and said ha-ha, fee over legal dispute, can't get me there.

Now, there is another new argument and, you know, Your Honor, I always tell younger associates there comes a time in trial where parties go a bridge too far and try not to do it. Here is the AG's bridge way too far. How they assert for the first time and they are getting a little desperate here, respectfully, that Ms. Trump consented to this jurisdiction in this case because she's a party in the special proceedings.

They must take us all for fools. I'm looking around. This is not the special proceedings. They didn't issue the subpoenas in the special proceedings. There was no trial in the special proceedings, so that's just false on its face. And in any event, we could cite case law that specific person. The entities they subpoenaed are not parties, so those cases are not applicable.

They also talk about this Gibson Dunn case. Let's take a close look at that case, Your Honor. It is a First Department case, doesn't help them. Maybe they didn't find anything better. In that case, you could tell that -- it's a Gibson Dunn case, is a dispute over legal fees and the person trying to evade service, Your Honor, had the legal fees sent to a specific Madison Avenue address. In the few months leading up to --

THE COURT: Wait. Wait, you don't mean that the legal fee was sent. How the bills were sent.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: The bill, excuse me, for the legal fees. Invoice me here kind of thing. Then there is a suit over legal fees. The person trying to say service didn't apply, jurisdiction didn't apply had been to that address for work multiple times leading up to the legal proceedings and leading up to the service. And what the court found there was this guy induced Gibson Dunn to rely on this place where he does go to work sometimes. He can't now turn to the court and say that "I'm actually not really there that much." That's not this case.

Ivanka Trump didn't induce anyone to go to Trump Tower. She hasn't been there working since 2017 and she did not go to work there since then, certainly not in the three stands for the proposition, including First Department case law and this is pretty basic, that even consent in one action does not mean that there's jurisdiction over a person who consents even in a related action. Here is not what we are dealing with. They're saying we had this years-long social proceeding. She was subject to jurisdiction in that proceeding. Therefore, in this trial, under separate index number, which we issued subpoenas, she must come today. Not how it works and there's a reason we didn't hear that argument previously. It doesn't fly.

So let's talk about the entities. Again, I urge Your Honor to revisit the fact that the AG kind of spoke from both sides of the mouth about what these subpoenas were. It is pretty simple. We all know what happened here. They had easy jurisdiction over Ivanka Trump. They could have served her at her house. Much different. We probably wouldn't be here today. What appears to happen is they task one someone in their office for saying let's go to the transcript let's look at documents let's find some entities that have something to do with her and let's fire off subpoenas. That's what they did.

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Entities that had something to do with her? Didn't she own some of them and didn't some of them own parts of others?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'll get to that. It is not clear.

1 The TTT and OPO entity, she absolutely has an affiliation for anything. It exists, I grant you that. I could speculate at what it might have been. I have no document that says that like the other two that she was an officer or anything like that. She doesn't know what it is and the AG doesn't know what it is.

So they weren't served on Ivanka Trump. They were served at best on these entities. And, by the way, not all cleanly, but again, I'm not here about service stands or what. If they insist they need those entities, those entities can appear. I think they should articulate with why they need those entities, but I understand the defendants will speak for themselves. They offered -- for the two that we concern that they offer, they offered for someone who has lived here appear and testify for those entities, which you are allowed to do.

New York law again, I pulled out Weinstein, Korn & Miller. You can look at Section 230504, "If a subpoena to testify is served on and is addressed to an entity, that entity may choose the person who will be deposed," period. So they cite --

THE COURT: I'm very familiar with that concept that the entity has the right in the first instance to decide who to produce. I think we are in a different situation than the normal one here. As we all recognize, we are not looking for the entities. They're looking for the person.
MR. MOSKOWITZ: That's exactly right. At the end of the day, Your Honor, they just don't have jurisdiction over her. They tried with this transient business again articulated to me for the first time in their papers that they submitted to Your Honor and I just addressed it. It's just wrong and if they want an affidavit saying what I just represented to the Court as an officer and I'll say it again that she does not transact business at any of those places they served, I will be happy to do it.

THE COURT: Did she ever transact business?
MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes.
THE COURT: When was the last time she transacted business?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Before 2017.
THE COURT: Okay. So what?
MR. MOSKOWITZ: You have to have jurisdiction over her now. If someone worked in New York 50 years ago and leaves, you don't get to say, "Hey, you once worked at this address. Come to trial." That's not how it works. It has to be jurisdiction now, transact business here now.

THE COURT: How are we going to define now? What if somebody transacts business here, leaves on a vacation or a business trip or is away?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Again --

THE COURT: A week later, they're not still --
MR. MOSKOWITZ: No. The Weinstein, Korn & Miller basic principle addresses that, Your Honor. If it is a place you regularly return to work such as like I work on Third Avenue where my law firm offices are. If I leave for a week and they serve me there, I can't turn around and say, "Oh, I was gone that week." Here, you have someone who didn't work at the place for many, many years. They no longer return there for work.

THE COURT: Let me ask you a question. Did Ivanka submit any sworn statement?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: On this motion, no, because again, I didn't hear this argument and didn't get a reply for it. I'm happy to submit one now. I would have done it in a reply brief.

THE COURT: Now is too late. I'm hoping to decide this today and if she testifies, it will be fairly soon.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I wasn't put on notice that that was their argument because they kept changing it. How could I respond to something they didn't articulate? I can't guess what their position is.

THE COURT: Well, it's standard practice in New York law that you need to have an affidavit from someone with personal knowledge if you're going to start spouting facts, but --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. So going back to the idea that corporations can designate their own witnesses, they cite the Standard Fruit case, totally different. In that case -- by the way, it was from 1977 -- the court did allow a party to subpoena an out-of-state witness. It was after the witness provided by the subpoenaed corporation was unable to testify to the relevant facts. And even then, the court allowed the corporate entity to select between two different individuals.

THE COURT: When I said, I read all the papers, I didn't read all the cases, but that case, I did read.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right. Right. So again, that's our point. The corporation gets to put someone up and it has to be someone who can speak to the facts, again, which is why my first question to them when we got notice that they were trying to serve these subpoenas, "Hey, what testimony are you going for" and we quoted this and it is in the exhibits to my affirmation. They were honest about it. I appreciate that. It was basically limited. It was, "She knows this, she knows that, but I can't really limit it," so they want her here. They want it to be unlimited. They didn't depose her. They could have. They didn't de benne esse, you know, subpoena her. They could have done that. I guess they didn't think she'd be out of the case. I'm

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and they don't have one either showing the opposite, but I'm happy to put one in today.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that they can prove a negative. Ivanka would be the person best able to say when she ever -- when was the last time she worked in New York or whether she still works in New York, what she owns here, et cetera, et cetera, but --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I could get it to the Court ASAP.
THE COURT: I promise you I'm not a "Ha-ha, I got you" judge. I'm not trying to say, "Ha-ha, you didn't have an affidavit from her," but it does weaken your argument because you keep talking about what she does and doesn't do. She would know better than you.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and if I had been afforded an opportunity to reply, I would have submitted it. I did not want to disregard what the Court advised me which was no reply afforded, which was the e-mail I received.

THE COURT: Whether you should have needed a reply, waited for a reply, a reply is to respond to their arguments, but if you don't make out a prima facie case by an affidavit from Ivanka saying "I don't do these things. I don't live there," et cetera, I don't think that should have been in the reply. That should have been in moving papers, but that's just my opinion. All right, continue.

sorry. She is and that changes things fundamentally. You're no longer in the case. You're not a resident. You don't work here. You don't have jurisdiction over that person. That's the breaks.

THE COURT: The expression is "that is the breaks."
MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'm referring in the singular situation, but I appreciate Your Honor's.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else on your initial -- I don't know whether we will have time for a reply, but was that it for now?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor. I mean, I appreciate the possibility if I hear something new, to address it.

THE COURT: Probably. Probably.
MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yeah.
THE COURT: Okay. It is my understanding that the defendants themselves do not have standing to contest this, but I'll let them talk if they want to.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't know that I would say we don't have standing since it affects the impact of the trial and it affects the course of the trial, but in all events, I appreciate the opportunity to address.

THE COURT: We always like to hear your mellifluous voice.

MR. KISE: That's good. At least there's something positive that may happen here. I will try not to go over as you suggested, Your Honor. I'm not going to belabor the papers. I know you've read them and you've seen in our papers that we view the subpoena truly as just continued harassment of President Trump's children. They were all named and included in this case as leverage. There's no serious evidence that any of them had any involvement in the Statement of Financial Condition preparation.

Ms. Trump was dismissed from the lawsuit by the First Department and now despite having a year to depose Ms. Trump in this case, several months post-dismissal to depose her, now all of a sudden in the trial, the Attorney General claims that her testimony is somehow essential. I thought Mr. Wallace was going to object when he stood up. I'm just so used to it. No. No.

THE COURT: Obviously, testimony does not have to be "essential."

MR. KISE: Even if it were relevant then, then they should have done it during discovery. They're claiming now that only she can provide this information and if it was so essential, then why are we here in the middle of trial? There was no even attempt to do a de benne esse deposition which was done with other witnesses who may or may not be available for trial.

The exhibits attached to their motion demonstrate that this is an inexcusable delay. All of the documents that I saw that were attached as exhibits were all things they had in their possession for at least a year, if not more. The Attorney General certified in their NOI, their note of issue, that all discovery was complete and the service of that prohibits reopening. I'll cite the Court to the Melcher case, 38 AD3d 376. It is a First Department case that stands for that proposition that their certification meant that they've completed their investigative efforts for trial, their discovery efforts for trial and yet, this is tantamount to a discovery subpoena. Nothing was done.

To us, again, our answer is obvious they want to put Ms. Trump on the stand, create another media event while I'm always certainly happy to have the Attorney General in the courtroom, her presence today demonstrates that that's what this is about. I doubt she came here to hear Ms. Dillon. I doubt she came here to hear Mr. Flores. Although, I'm sure the testimony will be riveting. Really the purpose here is to focus on another one of Mr. Trump's children who has been dismissed from the lawsuit.

To the jurisdictional point that Mr. Moskowitz raised, there's just no legal authority for the Court to require a non-party, non-domiciliary to appear at trial as a representative of a non-party entity. It's non, non, non.
information about that entity, about Standard Fruit, about that specific entity. They produced, as was their right, the first witness, the corporate designee to testify about relevant facts. Only after that witness testified and there was a demonstration that that witness could not -- could not testify did the court order another witness.

The Amelius case, which we also cite 64 NY Supp. 3d 855, draws the distinction further bearing out, Standard Fruit draws the distinction between a non-party corporation and a corporation under investigation. Here, you have three non-parties, none of which are under investigation, none of which have any association heretofore with this case.

So, the subpoenas were not served. They were served all on Ms. Trump. They were served on the non-party entities. Those non-party entities are entitled to designate a corporate representative and the Attorney General has the burden in the first instance to demonstrate that that designation was inadequate. The Barone case, 260 AD2d 417 and the other cases we cite stands for that proposition that there must be some demonstration that the initial witness that is designated by the entity is inadequate.

There's no showing that the individual that's been designated here by the corporate entities, Eric Trump is inadequate. In fact, the Attorney General herself alleged

1 And the Court itself could not compel her attendance under 2 these circumstances.

The service issue, I'll just touch on briefly. The service on -- and the cases -- I'm not citing all the papers. They're in their papers, Your Honor. The service on a non-party entity registered agent is not service. It is not service on Ms. Trump in her individual capacity and a non-party, non-domiciliary not subject to the court's subpoena power does not constitute service on Ms. Trump.

And I'll cite, as in our papers, the Genger case, 50 Misc.2d 361. The Attomey General argues that Ms. Trump did not contest jurisdiction in the special proceeding, but that's frankly a complete non sequitur. The Coutts case they cite is completely in opposite. That's a judgment debtor who fled the jurisdiction after judgment that then filed a parallel action against the creditor in a New York court.

There was no dispute that the court could obtain the jurisdiction over the debtor in the very case at issue, but here, you have Ms. Trump is not a party. She was dismissed by the First Department. She's not a judgment debtor and she's not actively litigating any affirmative case in New York.

The Standard Fruit case that they cite is also in opposite. There, an investigative subpoena sought

1 in the complaint that Eric Trump is responsible for all aspects of management. I mean, that's their allegation. So I don't see how they can claim without any explanation that -- or any proof that Eric Trump is now somehow an inadequate corporate designee, and they're not entitled to raise that issue unless and until they make that -- make that showing and that has been established by the court.

Finally, and just briefly, the subpoena itself revealing what this is all about is truly overly broad. There is no attempt to narrow the issues. They just want another free-for-all on one of President Trump's children. There's no real relevance to the proceeding. It's more in the nature of a subpoena for a deposition where we're going to spend seven hours. "What do you know about this?" "What do you know about that"?

THE COURT: She was deposed already in a different case related, if you pardon the expression, so it is not like they're not -- it is not like a total shot in the dark.

MR. KISE: It may not be a total shot in the dark, but the subpoena is pretty close. The lights are on dimly and they're shooting off to the right when there's someone over on the left that's their target. So yeah, maybe it is in the same room, but the lights are dim and they're going in the wrong direction. So there's -- if they had a 1 specific focus, then they would have put that in the 2 subpoena. If they had a specific purpose, they would have put that in the subpoena.

And frankly, had they had such specific focus and specific purpose, we wouldn't be here because they would have either deposed Ms. Trump during the long course of discovery in this case. They had ample opportunity to depose anyone they wanted. She was certainly available for that while she was a party. And then after she wasn't a party as of June of this year, they still had several months to conduct a de benne esse deposition.

They haven't even deposed -- made any showing to the Court as to why that wouldn't suffice or wouldn't have sufficed. Even after the commencement of trial, they haven't even proposed that. And I'm not going to agree to that on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz' client. I'm just showing that it just shows the real purpose here is to drag her into court. It is bad faith and it is harassment of another one of President Trump's children who has been dismissed out of this case.

The First Department determined that she left in 2017, so to your point, Your Honor, about affidavit or connectivity, I mean, I think the First Department has certainly, if not established it fully, has established it almost 95 to 99 percent of the way. They basically said she this case. She was dismissed in the case the end of June. There was still time to do the de benne esse deposition and they did not and instead of coming before this Court forthright and saying, "Listen, we want Ivanka Trump and these are the reasons why," they come up with this Ruth Goldberg, coming up with these three companies that have nothing to do with it. We want them.

Mr. Moskowitz in consultation with my client says, you know what, for the two companies that have something to do with Trump, Eric Trump is willing to be the corporate representative because he's going to be testifying anyway and they said, "Well, no, no, not so fast." They were smoked out as Your Honor pointed out. They want Ivanka Trump. If they want Ivanka Trump, there is a mechanism to do it. If they do it in the appropriate way and even if there is still an objection by Mr. Moskowitz, that becomes a motion that's before Your Honor. But right now, all there are are three subpoenas, three subpoenas in our view in our papers are defective. There should be no question that they be quashed and we move on. Thank you, Your Honor.

out. She left years ago. This is not as Your Honor posited, respectfully, a situation where she's gone on some vacation or some business tip. She's been gone for years, multiple years, years and so for those reasons and the reasons stated in our papers and those of Ms. Trump's counsel, we would ask the Court to quash the subpoena. Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. Robert.

MR. ROBERT: As usual, I will be extremely brief. The goosey gander rule, Your Honor refers to it, what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. Yesterday morning when Mr. Holl was on the stand and I had colloquy with the Attorney General's office because we didn't think he was going to be called and I said, "Are you going to call him back?" And they said, "Well, no. Try to serve a subpoena on him." Turns out he is an out-of-state resident. We did effectuate service on him outside once he left the court yesterday, but the rules are the rules.

The motion that's before Your Honor today is a motion to quash the subpoena on three entities. I agree with Your Honor's sentiment that what this is really about is trying to serve a subpoena on Ivanka Trump individually. Then that's what they should have done. There were plenty of opportunities to do it. They could have deposed her in

THE COURT: Does the Attorney General have anything to say?

MR. WALLACE: I will try to be brief, Your Honor.
THE COURT: You don't have to be. They took their time.

MR. WALLACE: I want to try to be, though.
So I'll start with the point the defendants made about whether there is a mystery as to what Ms. Trump might testify to, why it might be that Eric Trump is not a suitable replacement for Ms. Trump and the answer as you somewhat indicated is they have a very good idea of exactly what we would like to ask Ivanka Trump. I don't think we were hiding it. Her name is on the subpoena. We've been going back and forth about whether Ivanka Trump, the person, would be appearing.

We have her examination during the investigation. We've even offered as -- as a resolution that we would put being sued into evidence, her examination from investigation. We even gave the defendants the designations of what we would have introduced from her examination and the defendants, as is their right, declined to waive the fact that they were not present to cross examine her during that exam and hence, it's not admissible. But they very much know exactly what we would like to put into evidence from Ms. Trump.

I'll also go back to the idea that she is no longer a party and somehow the statute of limitations may play into whether or not she has relevant evidence to provide the Court and courts at trial.

I will note that the statute of limitations stretches back to 2014. That means that Ms. Trump was an executive of the Trump Organization in 2014, 2015 and 2016 before departing the company in 2017. All of that is relevant to the case and within the statute of limitations period. She was an executive of defendant entities and she undertook transactions on their behalf.

Whether or not the First Department thought that we had established she committed fraud during the period that she was subject to the statute of limitations is unrelated to whether or not she has relevant knowledge of what was happening within the company at that time. And part of the reason we need her knowledge and not Eric Trump's is because she was the direct contact with Deutsche Bank on the OPO loan. She ran that project, not Eric Trump. And I believe the case law in our brief establishes that we're not required to take a witness who may educate themselves about the company's position and then testify.

I will also add the idea that we should have taken her deposition is -- it is a red herring. She has a presence in this state. She owns multiple businesses within

And this is identified in paragraph 17 and 18 of our supporting affidavit. "She returned as a manager to that entity after her time in Washington was over."

So she is a manager of the Trump Organization business. I think you combine that with the fact that they're offering Eric Trump as a replacement suggests that she is very much still intertwined with the Trump Organization.

So we're not just focused on the specifics of the mechanics of service. I certainly think that under the operative words of this Court she could be brought here by the Trump Organization. They certainly seem to have enough control of her.

The only other point that I think I would make is she clearly owns and operates businesses. They're still affiliated with defendants, they're still relevant to this case and are located in New York. If she truly wanted to completely absent herself from the company, from the state, she was free to do that. She has maintained these businesses and these businesses aren't complete strangers to this action. Ivanka OPO is the ownership interest she held. As late as after the sale of this property she obtained I believe at least $$ 4$ million from her interests in the sale of the OPO property which explains very much directly at issue in this case. She was acting in her own interest when

1 the state. She owns multiple businesses that have their principal place of business within the state.

And I'll note that Mr. Bennet -- Mr. Moskowitz keeps talking about I believe he's a Weinstein & Miller fan.

THE COURT: Weinstein Koren & Miller is with a "K" and not a "C."

MR. WALLACE: I'm aware of that at least. But he also ignores the plain language of the CPLR 3086 which states: "For purposes of this section, actual place of business shall include any location that the defendant through regular solicitation or advertisement has held out as its place of business." Ivanka Trump has certainly held out the location of Trump Tower and the Trump Organization as a place of business for the OPO Ivanka entity, for TTT and for the 502 entity.

I will add that if Mr. Moskowitz needs additional information on relationship to the 502 entity that can be found in the -- paragraphs 24 through 26 of the supporting affidavit that we submitted and the documents attached thereto. It is a property that she owns and is renting out as a commercial enterprise for TTT.

I would note that this is part of the case already.
Ms. Kidder talked about it during week two of the trial. It is part of the licensing fees that the company earns.

I would also note that she returned as a manager.

Proceedings

she was negotiating a loan with Deutsche Bank on OPO.
So, in any event, she very much remains intertwined with the Trump Organization. She very much still has a presence in New York and we are now obligated to go seek her de bene esse deposition because she is still available to this Court and through that commercial presence. She is a hundred percent someone who can come in and testify and is susceptible to subpoena in this jurisdiction.

So I don't think she is currently unavailable. She is a hundred percent available and the subpoenas were properly served on business addresses she maintains. Either businesses can require her to come forward and testify or she is holding out herself as doing business in those locations in the services appropriate. The fact that they're multiple avenues to secure her testimony in this court does not mean that we're doing something untoward or hidden or changing our tune. She is still apart of the Trump Organization. She still has commercial interests here in New York. She operates businesses here. Whether or not she visits them once a year just to say hello to the good people who are handling her paperwork or she comes more regularly is really irrelevant under 308 subsection six.
But I'm happy to answer any questions Your Honor might have, but we really don't see this as being a closed issue. She has sufficient contact with New York if the subpoenas were appropriate.
THE COURT: What are your thoughts about granting the motion only in part and limiting her testimony to the OPO, Old Post Office transaction?

MR. WALLACE: I don't think -- I'm not sure what the basis would be for that. She would have the knowledge in her head of what the transactions are. I think it would also cover her information on the licensing agreements of TTT, her knowledge of the 502 Park apartment. But honestly, if it's just the OPO, I do think relevant -- the course of conduct with Deutsche Bank is relevant to the OPO loan. Im not sure it presents that much of a restriction to the scope of her testimony, but I think it -- the entities we've subpoenaed really do cover most of the breadth of what we would be interested in hearing -- what we would be interested in having her testify about.

THE COURT: Brief replies?
MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor.
First, as to the only argument I heard that touches on actual jurisdiction, the issue which is what dictates the result today is whether there is jurisdiction over my client. I heard this argument with this other CPLR section. There is no case that says that being affiliated with an entity registered to do business in New York means that service of a subpoena on that entity means you have

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Say owner. I can go with that. Someone who lives in Nebraska can own shares in 50 New York corporations. The case law is clear, Weinstein Koren & Miller with a " $K$ " is clear, Siegel is clear that service of a subpoena of process of a complaint, whatever it is on those entities is not service on that person and does not mean that you necessarily have jurisdiction over that person absent something like someone who is also subject to general jurisdiction which is not what we're here talking about today. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Just briefly, Your Honor. I think Mr. Wallace's points about we have a very good idea what we want out of Ms. Trump's testimony, we knew about the OPO loan involvement, all the facts that he's reciting they've known about since the investigation. Forget about since the case started. Since the investigation.

So the question comes up again why not do this during discovery. Why not depose her during discovery? Why not depose her after she was dismissed from the case? They had plenty of time to do that. Why issue a Note of Issue if they had a witness that they still needed an essential witness. The rules exist --

THE COURT: You file a Note of Issue. You don't issue a Note of Issue.

MR. KISE: That actually sounds better.

THE COURT: I'm just trying to get you up to speed on New York law.

MR. KISE: By the time we're done here in November of 2025, I probably will be. The rules exist for a reason, Your Honor, they do. And the case I cited it's just black letter law. Once the Attorney General files a Note of Issue, that's it. They don't get to reopen discovery. Particularly - it would be one thing if this were some new witness that no one knew about before that. Well, this is something critical to our case and we didn't know about these facts and there is some justification. This is an individual that's been associated with the investigative process and then this case then dismissed and no attempt to do anything despite the fact that as Mr. Wallace said we have a very good idea we've known about these specifics, we've known about her specific involvement in the OPO transaction, etc.. So they haven't provided the Court with any explanation for that. The designations that Mr. Wallace represent, I'm glad that he acknowledged and I appreciate him acknowledging. Of course, we weren't there which is our biggest problems with using the examinations under oath, but the designations offer little because there were designations essentially with most of the transcript. So it wasn't really a narrowing in that sense.

The idea that somehow Ms. Trump is under the control of the Trump Organization or any of the defendants, her father, all I can say is anyone that's raised a daughter past the age of 13 knows they are not under your control. She lives in Florida, she has her own family. The jurisdiction must be here and now irrespective of what she did five years ago, ten years ago with the OPO transaction, the jurisdiction must be here and it must be now and it simply doesn't exist.

And respectfully, the Court doesn't have the authority to just ignore that impediment. Respectfully, it doesn't have the authority to ignore the Note of Issue. Respectfully, the Court doesn't have the authority to just say well, I don't care if they knew about all this a long time ago, we're going to let this happen in the middle of trial. I think the case law on that is very well established.

So -- and, again, they haven't even proffered -I'm not offering this on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz and his client. They haven't proffered the least intrusive means which would be some deposition taking place where she does live, in Florida. And if it's so narrow and it's so focused her testimony, then perhaps that can accommodate the issues. Again, I'm not volunteering that, but what I'm saying is the Attorney General's offered nothing to this Court but no, she must come in here now. We didn't depose her, we don't have 1 York now. jurisdiction. here. York? our affirmation.

MR. KISE: Again, I don't know other than what's in the record and that would - any ownership of any nonparty entity or party entity would not necessarily give the Court

THE COURT: I acknowledge that.
MR. KISE: Because JP Morgan is headquartered here and I think it's somewhere in my $401(\mathrm{k})$-- I have ownership interest in a New York entity.

THE COURT: You have to be careful what you do up
MR. KISE: Yes, right.
THE COURT: Defendants, what, if anything, in the record shows current ownership interest by Ivanka in New

MR. WALLACE: I believe that's almost everything that's laid out in our affirmation in support. She owns the OPO entity, which has its principal place of business at Trump Tower; she owns the 502 entity; she owns an interest in TTT Consulting. We -- she is also one of the managers. She owns two apartments at the Trump Park Avenue property. I believe that's primarily the scope of what we laid out in

THE COURT: And was the affirmation -- were the affirmations by someone with personal knowledge?

MR. WALLACE: It was made by someone with personal knowledge of our files and it attaches the documents that are the support, so it shows the agreements relevant to the OPO entity, to the TTT entity and to 502. So it lays out documentary evidence that supports our assertions on those fronts.

THE COURT: Any last words by defendants? And then I'll retreat for properly ten or 12 minutes and come back with a decision.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I can answer Your Honor's question. No, it was not someone with personal knowledge. It was a member of counsel for the Attorney General who attached stale documents. None of them show, answer the question that I can't answer either, which is what does she currently own.

By the way, that's all stuff that usually gets addressed at a Traverse hearing, which again, they didn't ask for. We're not submitting to, but that's all about general jurisdiction which they never even argued until now.

THE COURT: I once read all the way through "Prince, Richardson & Farrow On Evidence." One of the things I really appreciated learning is there is a presumption in the law that facts stay the same, that they don't change unless there is some reason to think they change. So I don't think the -- well, we don't know what

| Proceedings |  |
| ---: | :---: |
| 1 | she owns today. Because she owns something six months ago, |
| 2 | I don't think that -- |
| 3 | MR. MOSKOWITZ: I was just going to say someone can |
| 4 | show you a piece of paper that says I go to NYU. |
| 5 | Unfortunately, for me, those days are long gone and my point |
| 6 | is that as to the question of what gives jurisdiction over |
| 7 | her now, there is nothing in this affidavit from someone who |
| 8 | in any event doesn't have personal knowledge of that |
| 9 | question. |
| 10 | THE COURT: You said you went to NYU? |
| 11 | MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor. |
| 12 | THE COURT: Which division, which school? |
| 13 | MR. MOSKOWITZ: College of Arts and Science. |
| 14 | THE COURT: Okay. The law school, '79. |
| 15 | MR. MOSKOWITZ: Im aware of because my colleague |
| 16 | went to school with you. |
| 17 | THE COURT: Anyway, interesting. |
| 18 | MR. MOSKOWITZ: Your Honor, I could submit an |
| 19 | affidavit, though, again, if the Court has questions I would |
| 20 | like to point out, though, they flip the burden. |
| 21 | My life as a litigator would be very easy if I |
| 22 | could fire off subpoenas without the basis to do so which |
| 23 | last I checked I have to have the basis when I serve a |
| 24 | subpoena and then say to the person tell me why it shouldn't |
| 25 | be this subpoena which is what they're doing here, but |

Also, and this phrase is engrained in all lawyers,
"Ms. Trump has clearly availed herself of the privilege of doing business in New York."

Finally, plaintiff's papers make abundantly clear by documentary evidence that Ms. Trump owns property in New York and has done business in New York. Even Ms. Trump's own papers admit that she is occasionally here.

With all due respect to Mr. Moskowitz, the record is devoid of any evidence because we do not have a sworn statement from Ms. Trump that she does not do currently or has not recently done business here. The time to submit any such affidavit in the first place was in the moving papers. Movant made the argument. There is no jurisdiction over her and it was her burden to provide an affidavit of someone with personal knowledge, meaning herself, to substantiate that. It is black letter law that you may not use a reply to state facts that should have been in your moving papers. Basically we don't know what she does or doesn't do because only she could tell us that and it's too late to tell us that now. That was - that should have been, could only have been in the moving papers. That's what you do in the motion to quash a subpoena and I've seen that all the time.

I get affidavits from people in California or Nebraska saying I don't own property here, I don't come here, I don't do business here. We don't have that.
again, I could submit an affidavit and do it very quickly.
THE COURT: All right. Let's take a break until 10:35. I suspect to come back with a decision.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Let me start with two basic ancient principals for which no citation is necessary.
A trial is a search for the truth and the law is entitled to every person's evidence. On the other hand, we don't compel people to testify unless the Court has personal jurisdiction over them. As we learned in law school in the international shoe case, personal jurisdiction to satisfy due process has two elements: Notice and power.
Here, the power of the Court to compel Ms. Trump into court to testify. In this case, notice is clear which is why we are here and in any event I think was essentially conceded by her attorney.
I find that the power element is also clearly satisfied here. "The due process element is satisfied where the non-domiciliary has minimum contacts with New York State and based upon those contacts the non-domiciliary could or should have reasonably anticipated being hailed into court," and that's more or less an exact quote or paraphrase from LaMarca, 95 NY2d 216.

Proceedings
Page 2679
So the motion is denied, but her testimony shall not be scheduled before Wednesday, November 1st for Ms. Trump to appeal this decision if she deems herself so advised.

Now, let's go on to the trial. First witness, next witness or same witness?

Sure, Mr. Moskowitz, you want to say something first?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I just want to request a so ordering of the transcript unless the written decision is forthcoming.

THE COURT: Unlike what I sometimes do there won't be a follow-up written decision. The decision will be a so order of the transcript and I'll make sure it gets so ordered today.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: Not to volunteer, would the Court entertain -- I mean, we just did one on Monday, a de bene esse deposition? We just did one on Monday. That way Ms. Trump doesn't have to leave her family and three children to come to New York.

THE COURT: No. Denied. I want to see her in person. That's how we prefer testimony.

I'll get the signed transcript from which you can appeal by Monday morning. It's just tough, but you know

| Proceedings |  |

| 1 | what it will say. |
| 2 | MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, before the witness begins |
| 3 | her testimony, we did have one housekeeping matter |
| 4 | concerning today. I believe Mr. Solomon has maybe an hour |
| 5 | and a half -- at least an hour and a half of questioning. I |
| 6 | believe the defendants are going to cross and the question |
| 7 | is should we bring the next witness, Mr. Flores, back to the |
| 8 | courthouse or do defendants expect this will take us through |
| 9 | the remainder of today? |
| 10 | MR. KISE: I don't know if we're going to cross |
| 11 | this witness at this time. We may call her in our case, but |
| 12 | to preserve time we're not going to take up the Court's time |
| 13 | today necessarily. We reserve the right as we have with |
| 14 | other witnesses, but I'm not sure that's going to become |
| 15 | necessary. So I don't want to unnecessarily delay the |
| 16 | proceedings. |
| 17 | THE COURT: So that will save time for today. |
| 18 | Will there be enough time to finish the current |
| 19 | witness and have Flores testify? |
| 20 | MR. KISE: If we go like yesterday -- |
| 21 | MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, my questions -- I should |
| 22 | be able to finish. With respect to objections and how long |
| 23 | they take, I can't speak to that. I will do everything in |
| 24 | my power to finish this witness today, if at all possible, |
| 25 | yes. |

what it will say.
MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, before the witness begins her testimony, we did have one housekeeping matter concerning today. I believe Mr. Solomon has maybe an hour and a half -- at least an hour and a half of questioning. I believe the defendants are going to cross and the question is should we bring the next witness, Mr. Flores, back to the courthouse or do defendants expect this will take us through the remainder of today?

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, my questions -- I should be able to finish. With respect to objections and how long they take, I can't speak to that. I will do everything in my power to finish this witness today, if at all possible, yes.

THE COURT: The question is will we be able to get to Mr. Flores today at all? Let's make it easy on everybody.

MR. KISE: I think it would be optimistic.
THE COURT: All right, so we'll have Flores testify starting next week, okay.

MR. WALLACE: Understood, Your Honor.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I like to make life easy on everybody.
I'll remind the witness as I always do that she is still under oath.

And let's get right into it, Mr. Solomon.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
Y MR. SOLOMON:
Q Ma'am, l'd like to ask the court officer for PX 158 in If turn to page six of 13 you'll see that it's addressed to you from Cushman & Wakefield, David McArdle's etterhead. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Okay. And if you turn to page 11 of 13 , is that your
A Yes
Q And did you sign it on or about February 19, 2014 ?

A Yes.
Q Okay. Please turn back to page six.
I'd like to focus your attention on the "Subject of the Assignment and Relevant Characteristics."

THE COURT: Let me just suggest to the witness she has -- you have three different ways to see this: the paper copy, the screen in front of you and the screen there. I often find the screens are a lot simpler. You don't have to turn pages, they turn the pages for you, but whatever you want to do is okay. Some people like physical papers in their hands.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Ma'am, if you look at this paragraph, did you understand you or your firm were retaining Cushman & Wakefield to "perform an appraisal on the hypothetical 71-unit development site located at Briarcliff Manor?"

A Yes, I did.
Q Okay. And was that appraisal to be done in connection with a potential donation of a conservation easement?

A Yes, it was.
Q Thank you.
A And to be clear, the purpose of this was to document the value of the conservation easement. In connection with that as apart of that assignment it was to appraise the hypothetical 71-unit the residential development.

Page 2683
Q The development didn't exist at the time of the appraisal; correct?

A No, no, no. It was a hypothetical.
Q When you say "no" let's clarify this.
Did the 71-unit development exist at the time of the appraisal?

A There was no building.
Q And, in fact --
A Or two buildings.
Q And, in fact, to your knowledge, it's never been built; right?

A To my knowledge, it's never been built.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Can I please have 3194? May I ask the court officer to put 3194 in front of the witness which was already in evidence.
A I'm sorry, could I clarify one more thing?
THE COURT: Yes.
A I guess it wasn't -- while there was a general scope of -- I think you need to look more at the general scope of work to understand the work that was being done. And, again, this was all about documenting the value of a conservation easement and not just the 71-unit hypothetical buildings, you know, units needed to be appraised, but it was also the golf course and other properties. So it was a little bit shorthand or abbreviation just to say is that the 71-unit. That was part of the whole project.
Q I appreciate that.
A That's why I wanted to take a look at the letter because that didn't sound right to me, but I wanted to get that right.
Q Sure. I appreciate that.
The appraisal needs to determine whether the surrounding parcels or contiguous parcels that may be owned by the same party are enhanced in some way by the conservation easement. I think you mentioned that yesterday; right?
A That's apart of it, but again, the whole point is to get to the differentials. What is the value of the conservation easement, the rights and restrictions, the economic value of those things that were being given away.

Q But in that process one of the steps is valuing the hypothetical 71-unit residential development; right?

A That is apart of the assignment but it's not the entire assignment. There was more to the assignment than that.

Q If you take a look at PX 3194. The cover is an e-mail to you from Mr. McArdle dated April 25, 2014. Do you see that?
A I don't have that yet, but --
MR. SOLOMON: PX 3194.
A Yes. It is an e-mail to me from Mr. McArdle.
Q And did you receive it in or about April of - April -

Proceedings
Page 2685
on or about April 25, 2014 ?
A I have no recollection of that, but $I$ assume that I did since it's an e-mail addressed to me and I have no reason to believe I did not.

MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. Understood.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiffs Exhibit Number 3194 in evidence.)
Q If you turn to page six of 193, please, under "General Description." Do you see that?

MR. ROBERT: Excuse me, I haven't been provided with a hard copy. Is it just the e-mail or is there an attachment seeking to move it into evidence?

MR. SOLOMON: It's already in.
MR. ROBERT: I thought you moved it into evidence. That's why you asked to move it. You said "we offer it into evidence."

MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry. It was already in evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Got it. Thank you.
Q If you could turn to page six of 193. I'd like to focus you on the general description, second sentence: construction of 71 luxury housing units contained within two adjacent low rise structure." Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q So in connection with this project, did the appraisers determine in trying to calculate the value of the conservation easement the value of the right to build 71 luxury housing units?

A My understanding, that was part of the assignment, yes.
Q Please turn to page 4 of 193. The chart in the middle of the page, "Final Value Reconciliation." And do you see, "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement $$ 43,300,000$ ?" Do you see that?

A I see that.
Q Did you share this information, the value of the conservation easement, with your client as reflected in this appraisal?

A Yeah, I believe, I can. Although, this easement was never completed, I'm not entirely sure.

Q Would it have been your practice whether the easement was actually completed and donated or not to share the valuation in the appraisal with your client?

A It would have been my practice as the project was going along to share values along the way with my client. Do I have a specific recollection of this? No.

Q I understand, but you said it was your practice and I appreciate that.

MR. SOLOMON: PX 132, please. It's already in evidence.

1 Q Ma'am, would you be comfortable while they're looking for it to look at it on the screen if we move along?

A Yeah, if I could look at all the parts we need.
Q Then let's wait.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
Q This is a document dated June 23, 2014 addressed to Mr.
Eric Trump, Cushman & Wakefield letterhead, again, from David McArdle. Do you see that?

A Ido.
Q Do you have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had already retained them, as we saw in that other document, a few months before?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Ground?
MR. ROBERT: Attorney-client privilege. "Do you have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had already retained them?" It would go to conversations Ms. Dillon had with her client.

THE COURT: Response?

MR. SOLOMON: I don't believe that's in connection with legal advice. The witness has testified that there is a process in determining whether to place a conservation easement on a particular piece of property and I believe the witness testified there are preliminary steps and then there is actually a formal appraisal. I'm just trying to understand is this the next step in the process to get to the formal appraisal.

MR. ROBERT: Those were general questions. I think you started them all at a high level and now we're getting into specifics as to this particular engagement and this particular assignment.

THE COURT: Can you just, please, read back the question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

THE COURT: I don't see it as legal advice.
Overruled.
A Sitting here today, this is a little confusing for me because I haven't had a chance to look at what was the prior appraisal.

MR. KISE: The question as framed is a yes-or-no question. So if your ruling is can she answer, does she have an understanding yes or no, I would agree with you that that answer is not privileged. But if he asks, then, what's the basis for that understanding, that would be different.

THE COURT: I will buy that.
MR. SOLOMON: My first question was does she have an understanding because if the answer is she does not, then we don't need to go further.
Q Do you have an understanding?
A Sitting here today, I don't have an understanding without looking through these documents in more detail.
Q You mentioned that you did not believe that a conservation easement was ultimately placed on the Briarcliff property. Do you recall that?

A Yes.

Q If you look at the intended use here -- highlight that.
"To document the value of a conservation easement placed," past tense, "On a parcel of land for federal and state income tax purposes."

Can you explain if you don't believe a conservation easement was placed on the property, why they would be using the past tense in this retention letter or engagement letter?
A In my experience, there are sometimes typographical errors or misstatements and I believe that would be a typographic or a clerical error.

MR. SOLOMON: 3127 which is already in evidence.
Q This is an e-mail to you from Mr. McArdle dated July 30, 2014. "Sheri, here is the revised appraisal." Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q Okay. Again, on page 3 of 113 for the document, the third paragraph, "Trump Briarcliff Manor owned a parcel of land in Briarcliff Manor, New York, the parcel over which it has placed." Again, is that just a typographical error?

DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

A As I look here, yes. This is not a final appraisal and I can see that because it says donated to XXX. So it appears to be in contemplation, but using the past tense.

Q If you turn to page 4 of 113, you will see here, again, the, "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement $$ 43.3$ million." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Did you share that information with your client in or about July of 2014?
A I don't recall.
Q Would it have been your practice to share that information with your client upon receipt?

A I didn't share every bit of information I got along the way. At various points in times, I would have shared some values with the client.
Q Do you believe this was one of those various points in time?

A I have no recollection of whether I did or not.
THE COURT: That's not the question. The question is whether you would have, not whether you recollect that you did or didn't.

THE WITNESS: I don't know if I would have because I don't see all the other e-mail traffic around this. I

S. DILLON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON)

A It may or may not have been. If I would have shared that number with them a month ago, it wouldn't be relevant if it is about the same number.
Q Is it fair to say if you hadn't shared that number with them previously, you would have shared it with them at that time?

A If if if, yes, but again, I'm not saying whether I did or not and I'm not trying to be difficult. I just want to be accurate.

MR. SOLOMON: PX 910, please. This is an e-mail from Mr. McArdle to you with a cc to your colleague Mr. Zemil, "attaching a revised draft." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q He states that he "addressed your comments." Do you see that?
don't know if there is a valuation two weeks before, two weeks later. I don't know if this particular valuation was relevant. There's lots of activities with valuation because lots of new facts and information come in and can make things change from time to time.
Q But you do endeavor to keep your client informed of the changes of the facts, right?
A Only if it is material and relevant. per it j it it permitted. It just requires it to be permissible and things change over time, so you certainly don't have to go and get all the entitlements in place.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, move to strike as non-responsive.

MR. ROBERT: It is absolutely responsive.

MR. KISE: It is, Your Honor. She answered the question. He just doesn't like -- Mr. Solomon just doesn't like the answer.

MR. SOLOMON: We like the answer, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: Then why are you moving to strike it?
MR. SOLOMON: Because it is not responsive to the question.

THE COURT: Let me just check. I'm so happy --
MR. KISE: It looks very responsive to me.
THE COURT: -- we have the immediate transcript here. It is stricken because it is not responsive to the question which is a yes-or-no question. Is that --

MR. SOLOMON: May I --
THE COURT: Is that how you perceived it yourself, Mr. Solomon, that it is a yes-or-no question?

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor. May I ask the Court for a readback of that question, please.

THE COURT: Sure. Please, read back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
A I don't remember.
Q Let's see if we can refresh your recollection.
MR. SOLOMON: May I, please, have marked for identification PX 3275.

MR. SOLOMON: May we, please, mark PX 3261 for identification.
Q Ms. Dillon, this is an e-mail chain from June 2014 between you and Eric Trump, correct?
A Yes, it is.
Q And the top e-mail, you wrote to Mr. Trump, Eric Trump, "Hi Eric. In going through the documents, this is what I see happening."

You first lay out what happens in the original offering plan and declaration. Do you see that?

| 15 MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up the 202-G statement, | 15 |

| 17 Q Ma'am, this is a statement under rule 202-G of our | 17 |
| 18 local rules here in New York for court practice. The beginning | 18 |
| 19 paragraph 55 is the allegation by the plaintiff of an undisputed | 19 |

| 21 see that? | 21 |
| 22 A It seems to not be an undisputed fact. It looks | 22 |
| 23 disputed. | 23 |
| 24 THE COURT: I don't know what you mean by | 24 |
| 25 "undisputed fact." | 25 |

Q Great.
Does this e-mail chain refresh your recollection as to whether Mr. Heffernan provided a preliminary view as to the value of the lots in New Castle?
A I see that Mr. Heffernan is providing preliminary views, but I have no independent recollection of those numbers. I do know we worked with him. I don't disagree with that, but I just don't recall all of this since he ended up not being the appraiser on the project.

Q You have no reason to doubt that he did in fact provide this information to Mr. Leonard in or about December of 2012, do you?

A I have no reason to doubt the authenticity of this e-mail.

Q Let's move forward into 2013, please.
Were you aware that at a Town of Bedford Planning Board meeting in May 2013, an attorney for Seven Springs LLC agreed to restrict construction on the New Castle and North Castle portions of the property in order to obtain approval for the subdivision of the lots in Bedford?
A I was not aware of that at the time. I have some awareness derived in the course of these proceedings and historically I -- yes, so during the course of these proceedings, not just here today, but overall I've become aware -- yes, go ahead.

Q Do you recall providing testimony in connection with the investigation conducted by the Attorney General's office in this matter?
A Yes, I do.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up Ms. Dillon's testimony, page 660, line $19 ?$
Q You recall this was done during COVID; right?
A I remember that distinctly.
Q So we had -- the transcript may not be clear, but we'll go through it, you were asking and we were discussing having the document on the screen for everyone to share. Do you recall that? And it had to be moved for a period of time so you could see different portions of it?
A Yes, yes.
Q And my colleague, Alex Finkelstein, was the one who was moving the documents. So when we see this on the transcript -we'll be able to see this, 660 , line 19. Okay:
"QUESTION: I'm going to ask Alex to pull up our first electronically shared exhibit. It is a May 17, 2013 newspaper story from the Bedford/Pound Ridge Record Review.

Ma'am, as you've done in your prior sessions, if you could please tell Alex when you refer to a portion and you want him to move down that would be helpful."
"MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to mark this as Exhibit 52."

And then you go on. The document is being advanced.
"QUESTION: Does reading this article refresh your recollection about any events involving Seven Springs before the Bedford Planning Board?
"ANSWER: No, I was not involved in that process.
"QUESTION: That wasn't my question."
"MR. SOLOMON: Can I have the court reporter please read back my question?"

Question is read back.
"ANSWER: --
It reads your answer; correct, just to clarify?
A Yes.
Q "Because I was not involved in the process, this article does not refresh my" -- excuse me -- "doesn't refresh my recollection about things I wasn't involved in.
"QUESTION: Ma'am, you will agree with me someone could have told you about it, right?
"ANSWER: Someone could have told me about it.
"QUESTION: Right. So this article could have refreshed that recollection, even if you weren't involved in the events before the Planning Board?
"ANSWER: This article does not refresh my recollection."

Was that your testimony during the investigatory

phase --  A Yes.

Q -- of this?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. He's conflating refreshing the recollection with trying to impeach his own witness. I mean, this is consistent.

THE COURT: Overruled. I don't see any problem with this at all. He's just asking her if she sees that was her testimony. I don't know what you're reading into the question.

MR. ROBERT: There would be no reason to do that other than if it refreshed her recollection.

MR. SOLOMON: Can we go to page 663, line 8 ?
THE COURT: What was the purpose of asking her if she --

MR. SOLOMON: That she previously had no knowledge about this planning meeting which is why we're going to this next portion which is a short question and answer, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So it is the admissibility of that depending upon the admissibility or the answer or the testimony you're going to read now?

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, it's being linked together.
MR. KISE: It looks like he's using something where she didn't have a -- refresh her recollection -- to refresh

Page 2714
"Because I wasn't involved, I do not know."
So at that time you had no recollection of this planning meeting; right?
A At that time I was -- I think I've been consistent. I was not at that planning meeting. I was not involved in the planning meeting. Have I learned things about the planning meeting? Did I know some things? But I didn't know they came about from the planning meeting, yes. It's complicated, but for the most part it didn't matter. It didn't matter. It's again back to hypothetical. It's a hypothetical subdivision that's being drawn. No one needed to be permitted. The standard is legally permissible and the courts have ruled time and time again it's a waste of everyone's resources for taxpayers, landowners, etc., to impinge upon a planning board, zoning boards and everybody else that you don't have to actually be permitted and entitled for anything.

MR. SOLOMON: Move to strike as nonresponsive, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Stricken as nonresponsive.
I'll ask that the witness be taken out for a few moments so I can talk to Counsel not in her presence.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand and exits the courtroom.)

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, I feel like we're two or three levels away from anything that's relevant. This all seems to be what happened. She saw something, but didn't you say something different what she knew about all this stuff?

MR. SOLOMON: It goes to the valuation of Seven Springs, Your Honor. They valued it as if they could build 24 lots on the three properties. That's what the appraisal does, which is what we will get to. However, previously, they had agreed to restrict the number of lots to I think 12 or 13 .

THE COURT: Okay. But what does that have to do with whether she remembers what happened at a meeting?

MR. SOLOMON: Because this witness was the one who retained the appraiser, who gave the appraiser the information necessary, was the conduit for the appraiser and if she knew this and didn't give it to the appraiser that's relevant. If she didn't know it and other attorneys at the Trump Organization knew it, that's relevant because that information should have been provided to the appraisers when they projected their 24 hypothetical lots by law and we have an Appellate Division decision which is coming up shortly which said they have -- the Seven Springs LLC entity has no access through Aragon Road. So they didn't have a second access and this restriction was binding on them.

THE COURT: Okay. It seems to me this has become a game of got you, didn't you say that, didn't you say this,

1 but then you said that. I'll let you go ahead because there is no jury and l'd like to afford some leeway, but maybe if we could get to the heart of the matter quicker, Mr. Kise?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I think what the witness was trying to say -- what Mr. Solomon asked it be stricken is -

THE COURT: That was a speech. That was not responsive.

MR. KISE: No, I'm just saying she's explaining why what you're saying is correct that we're just going around in circles here because from a tax perspective, from an appraisal, for IRS purposes, for conservation easement you don't get into all of this stuff about whether you had this permit or didn't have this permit or what you knew or what you didn't know.

If Mr. Solomon wants to use a witness to establish the points that he's making, that's fine, but this witness has said both today and before based on the testimony there that she wasn't part of the process, she didn't have anything to do with the process, she can't testify to the process and, most importantly, it would not have been relevant to her job, her role. So we are just kind of going in circular fashion here because her role is with respect to advice on conservation easements. She's already said twice it's been stricken that when you do that you're not looking at actual permits, actual this, actual that. She's the expert on that and so I think that she's testified that's why she wouldn't have a foundation here to have any of this knowledge. But if we want to continue to go around, it's their morning. I don't know that any of this has any relevance.

THE COURT: I'll let the question continue in the manner that Mr. Solomon thinks is relevant.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we will endeavor to move quickly on this.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I just want to make a general statement without any accusations that when a witness is asked to depart the courtroom, nobody should attempt to speak to him or her. And let's go on.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. We'd ask to mark for identification PX 899.
For the record, it is a July 16, 2014 e-mail on Vinson & Elkins letterhead, Ms. Dillon's letterhead in particular to David McArdle, Senior Managing Director at Cushman & Wakefield.
Q Ms. Dillon, is that your signature on page four of the exhibit?

A Yes, it is.
Q Did you send it to Mr. McArdle in or about July of 2014?
A I would assume so.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer it into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and privilege.

THE COURT: Overruled. Give me a second.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
THE COURT: Overruled on both grounds. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 899 in evidence.)
Q Was this the engagement letter you were retaining Cushman and specifically Mr. McArdle to provide an estimate of the value of the potential conservation easement for the Seven Springs property?

A It was to provide consulting services, yes, related to the estimated value of the potential conservation easement.

Q And did he provide an analysis of the estimated current value of these lots as of a particular valuation date?
A I can't recall how far along we got before the project was discontinued in 2014.
Q Why was it discontinued in 2014?
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2719
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: What's the objection?
MR. ROBERT: Why something was done and why if a retention was discontinued is attorney/client privilege. It clearly falls within if it was a direction from the client as to do or not do something that's a continuation in the course of giving legal representation.

THE COURT: It's business. Overruled.
Unless you want to withdraw it on the ground --
MR. SOLOMON: I've learned, Your Honor, if you rule in my favor to be quiet.

THE COURT: I ruled in your favor.
Why was the project discontinued?
THE WITNESS: I have no specific recollection, but I can certainly give you the typical reasons projects would be discontinued.

THE COURT: Do you want that or not?
MR. SOLOMON: I will take the typical reasons for the moment. Thank you.
A The typical reason is a landowner just isn't ready, they haven't made the determinations of what restrictions they want to put on property, which land they want to keep out of the restricted property. That's the biggest reason.

Other reasons are there is just simply not enough time to get it done, but those tend to be the biggest reasons as you have not yet decided what exactly you want to do with the property, whether you want to retain it because, again, it's in perpetuity, which is forever and it affects not just that landowner but all landowners.
Q Is also one of the reasons for tax planning purposes?
A That could be one of the considerations.
Q Does it refresh your recollection as to whether in this situation it was discontinued at that time because Mr. Trump did not need additional tax deductions for tax year 2014 ?

MR. KISE: Objection. That's -- I mean, if she wants to answer yes or no, perhaps, but once you get into the substance, that's squarely within the attorney/client privilege. I mean, I think all of it is respectfully, Your Honor, but she is a tax lawyer being engaged to provide tax advice and the conservation easement is -- the purpose of doing one is to get a tax deduction. So it's all squarely within the confines of the privilege. So I would respectfully disagree, Your Honor, it's not business. It involves business matters, but it's at the core of the attorney/client relationship with a tax lawyer.

THE COURT: Overruled. The question is whether that was a factor -- if she knows whether that was a factor in why the process was discontinued.

THE WITNESS: Is it time for me to answer? THE COURT: Yes, it's also a yes or no.

Page 2721
1 A I believe it probably was one of the considerations among many.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we please put PX 133 in front of the witness? It's already in evidence.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning and then we'll come back. It's not the end of the -- we started early. That's what's throwing you off.

MR. SOLOMON: I'm just focused.
Q Do you recognize what was marked as PX 133?
A I have seen this before.
Q Okay. Do you have an understanding as to why Mr. Eric Trump -- withdrawn.

Do you have an understanding as to why this letter was addressed to Mr. Eric Trump at Seven Springs LLC directly when the prior letter that we saw was addressed to you?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Attorney/client privilege. THE COURT: It's from Cushman & Wakefield.
Overruled.
A My understanding would be at this point in time it appears that the project was still going forward and we were seeking a formal appraisal that would be provided to the Internal Revenue Service since this is being done for the purpose of federal and state income tax purposes.

Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Can I have PX 1861? I'm jumping

1 forward.
2 Q When the project was either terminated or put on hold in 2014, had you already learned of Mr. McArdle's estimate of the value of the lots for the potential conservation easement? A I don't remember.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this may be a good point.
THE COURT: Is this a good time? All right. Let's just make it 12:10 everybody and then we'll go to 12:55 or so.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Witness?
MR. ROBERT: Do we have a minute before the witness comes in?

THE COURT: Sure.
Hold off on the witness.
MR. ROBERT: Are we going to finish today with Ms. Dillon?

MR. SOLOMON: In light of the Court's instruction, I have no more than 20, 30 minutes, max.

MS. GREENFIELD: That's after we finish the witness?

MR. ROBERT: That's fine. I just want to know who is on for Monday.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2723
THE COURT: Now witness?
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: So as everyone else has just heard, we're hoping to finish with this witness this moming. So let's keep the questions moving and the answers moving.

BY MR. SOLOMON:

Q Ms. Dillon, could we please put -- I'm sorry -- PX 104 in front of you?

Is this an engagement letter signed by Eric Trump on behalf of Seven Springs LLC dated June 1, 2015?

A Yes, it is.
Q And was this engagement letter executed in connection with restarting the potential donation of a conservation easement at Seven Springs?
A Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we please mark PX 195 for identification?
Q This is an e-mail from Timothy Barnes to you and Mr. Zemil with a cc to Didi Yep. Who is Timothy Barnes?
A Mr. Barnes was the lead appraiser on the Seven Springs project.

Q And do you know who Didi Yep is?

1 A Yes, that was his second -- the second appraiser.
2 Q The second e-mail draft is attached. Let me know if you have any questions. Do you see that?

A I do.

Q Did you see -- did you receive that in or about November of 2015? Specifically November 6th is the date of the cover e-mail?

A Yes, I fully expect I received it.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I offer this in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and the attachment is hearsay.
THE COURT: Statute of limitations overruled.
What is it being offered for.
MR. SOLOMON: For notice, Your Honor.
THE COURT: It's in simply for notice.
MR. ROBERT: Notice to whom?
THE COURT: The recipients?
MR. SOLOMON: Ms. Dillon and Mr. Zemil at this point in time.

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
Q If you please turn to page 5 of 139 of this exhibit, "Value Conclusions." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Is this the method that we've been talking about
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2725
previously where you value the property before and after the easement, make whatever adjustments are appropriate and then the difference is the value of the easement?
A Yes, that is the before and after method that we talked about before.
Q So the before method values the entire Seven Springs property at $56,500,000$. Do you see that?
A I see.
Q Did you advise your client in or about November of 2015 that the appraisal had valued the entirety of the property at approximately $$ 56.5$ million?

A I don't recall.
Q Would it have been your practice to do so?
A I don't recall if we would have had a discussion about this in November. There are thousands of e-mails and conversations about this as the process goes through, so I have no idea if I told him the before value of the property or if I told anyone -- it would have been - I don't know. At some point I would have advised probably the value of the easement. That's what they were interested in.
Q Would you have discussed how that easement was calculated with the client?
A I may have.
Q Okay. You say there are many e-mails back and forth and the like. When you received the first draft of an appraisal

1 the first time that you find out what the appraiser is coming in with for the value of the property and the value of the easement, would you advise your client at that point in time?

A I was in touch with the appraisers on a regular basis, so I always had some understanding of where they were. At various points in time I would have explained the indicated value of the easement to someone at the organization.

Q Okay. Would you have done it the first time that you found out what the value of the easement or the entirety of the property was?
A Not necessarily. My practice would be to understand it and see if I thought that was reasonable, if there were facts that had been omitted, if they understood things, if they had questions. Often these values are very preliminary and we learn things as the project goes on is the things that may or may not affect value.
Q So is it your testimony that you don't always keep your client informed of changes?
A It is my testimony that I appropriately keep my client informed of changes and I respect all of my duties and obligations and ethics as a lawyer.
Q Do you recall when you first, a general time frame, advised your client that the value of the entirety of the property was 56.5 million?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. That's not the testimony.
S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon)

Page 2727
THE COURT: That was just a question. Does she recall when she first notified?

MR. ROBERT: The testimony was that she doesn't know if she ever told the value. She would have told them the value of the easement, not the value of the property. That was the testimony, Your Honor.

MR. SOLOMON: That's an easy foundation, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.
Q Do you believe you ever told your client what the value of the property was as reflected in the appraisal?
A My expectation is I certainly would have given them the appraisal at some point so they would have had that. Probably also at some point in time I would have said here's how it was calculated, but I can't recall when and I don't know if I would have done it at various points along the way, but I would have been in fairly regular communication about the value of the easement.
Q When you received this draft appraisal in or about November 2015, did you communicate with anyone at the Trump Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the statement of financial condition?
A I don't recall. I don't think so, no.
Q Did you ever communicate with anyone at the Trump 25 Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the ## easements?

A I don't know what you mean by -- could you restate -could you read back that question? It was confusing to me.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may we have a read back, please?

THE COURT: Please.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A Yes, but not things that necessarily looked like this.
Q How would you provide those updates to your client?
A More informal e-mails, conversations, things along those lines from time to time and if regular means from time to time, then from time to time. There was no set -- it's not like every Monday we talk about conservation easements or anything like that. It would have been from time to time as I had something to say.

```
MR. SOLOMON: One moment, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Wow. Where is Flores?
MR. ROBERT: I was just about to bet the under.
MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.

Q Fair enough. Thank you.
You'll see pointing to one side of the top e-mail that doesn't include you, but the one in the middle is from you to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Trump with a cc to Mr. Bender. Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q And just so we're clear, it's Mr. Eric Trump; right?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Did you send -- and the subject is "Easement Analysis." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Did you send this to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Eric Trump and Mr. Bender on or about September 23, 2014 ?
A Yes.
Q If you look at the chart that's attached to that, the next page, "Potential Charitable Contribution Analysis." Do you see that?
A I do.
Q And the next page you are suggesting topics they should keep in mind. Do you see that?
A I do.
Q Did you provide regular updates to your client as to the progress of conservation or potential conservation

THE COURT: Plaintiff, are you finished with this witness?

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Good.
Will there be any cross-examination despite what you said previously?

MR. KISE: Not right now, Your Honor. We are going to try and streamline and determine whether we need to call the witness at all.

THE COURT: We should talk scheduling, but should I let the witness go at this point?

MR. KISE: Fine with us, yes, Your Honor.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. I will let the witness go.

Thank you.

(Witness excused.)
THE COURT: Let's talk scheduling on the record. Who wants to go first? Should I ask plaintiff since it's still your case?

MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor. Should we give the witness a moment to leave?

THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.
MR. WALLACE: Okay, Your Honor. The next witness that we will call on Monday would be Mr. Flores returning to the stand. Our expectation is that examination would take

1 about an hour. After that, we would have Mr. Cerrone, the

THE COURT: Will there be cross-examination of the two Tuesday witnesses as best you can tell?

MR. KISE: Orowitz, no. Cornwell, yes. And, obviously, the expert, yes.

MR. WALLACE: I would just clarify that Mr. McCarty has been proffered as an expert in bank underwriting issues, but we will -- and issues of disgorgement. At this time, we are only planning to examine him on the issues of disgorgement. We are reserving any evidence or any presentation on bank underwriting issues until after the presentation of the defendant's case which I you understand will cover a number of bank witnesses anyway, would influence his opinion.

THE COURT: That's okay. Hold on.
MS. GREENFIELD: And Wednesday?
MR. WALLACE: Wednesday, we will then move on to the defendants, specifically Mr. Donald Trump, Jr. Then after him, Eric Trump and presumably, depending on whatever may happen with appeals, would be Ivanka Trump. And as we have indicated to the Court, reserve Monday, November 6th for Donald J. Trump, for his testimony.

THE COURT: We like to keep families together.
MR. KISE: What about Garten and Brunnett? Are we not calling them?

MR. WALLACE: We will not be taking Garten and 1 Brunnett during our case in chief.

MR. KISE: Okay.
MR. WALLACE: Also, Mr. Greenblatt we will not be taking during our case in chief. They will be moved to our rebuttal list, but we will not be taking them at this time.

MS. GREENFIELD: Do you anticipate getting Eric Trump, Donald Trump Jr., Ivanka Trump pending the appeal all in one day?

MR. WALLACE: Our hope is to do one day for each of them.

MS. GREENFIELD: That would be we are looking at Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday for each of the three Trump defendants. Ivanka Trump is not a defendant.

MR. WALLACE: Correct.
THE COURT: Will there be any cross?
MR. KISE: Not -- well, I don't know about with respect to Ivanka Trump just because to minimize her travel here and I can't really -- none of us here at this table can speak for her schedule and availability next week. Mr. Moskowitz, which I don't -- I don't know if he is still here -- would have to address that. But that would be the only witness, again, just to minimize her having to come back and forth whenever it is that she appears. We may try and just do that collectively.

MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. I want to -- I'm sorry, but just to be super clear, I understand that we are going to have each of the Trump witnesses on a separate day, but do we think their testimony will take the entire day or are you going to have filler witnesses or anything in between?

MR. WALLACE: Our expectations, it would likely take a full day. At this point, after we call Mr. Trump, we would rest our case in chief is our expectation at this point. So there -- there's no filler witnesses remaining.

MR. KISE: So a question with respect to Ivanka Trump. To the extent -- and again, I can't speak - I have no idea what her schedule is, but is Ivanka Trump someone that the People -- because I know you're moving a number of other witnesses out of your direct case. Is that someone that you must have in your direct case?

The only reason I'm asking the question, I'm not suggesting an outcome, if for whatever reason her availability becomes challenging, we certainly would be calling her now that we know she's coming and we certainly would -- I'm just trying to figure out whether we can do it all in one day, whether it is a day on their case or a day on our case on that particular witness. But if they feel that they need to have her in their case in chief, that's a determination they need to make. I just don't -- I'm just trying to minimize the schedule conflicts for that witness.

THE COURT: Well, I think it would be preferable if we could get her Friday and maybe it is up to the plaintiffs to communicate with Mr. Moskowitz about her availability. If not then, when?

MR. KISE: Okay. That's fine.
MS. GREENFIELD: I just want to also point out that Friday is a half day, so whoever's testimony we think is going to take the least amount of time between Donald Jr., Eric and Ivanka, that should be scheduled for Friday just for the Court's logistics.

MR. ROBERT: I would need to know that now because as things stand now, Donald Trump, Jr. on Wednesday and Eric Trump for Thursday and since we need five days notice, can you confirm that now that that's your order?

MR. WALLACE: We provided you guys notice earlier that we might call them as soon as Monday, but I think that is the order. I would propose that Eric Trump be ready to testify whenever Donald Trump, Jr. is completed, so that could be Wednesday. That would be the order, Donald Trump, Jr. and then Eric Trump to clarify.

MR. ROBERT: And then Ivanka last?
THE COURT: Yes.
MR. KISE: I don't know about prior notice. I just know if we are talking about Wednesday and Thursday, that would be five days in any event, right?

MR. ROBERT: That's fine.

Page 2737

MR. WALLACE: And we can work with Mr. Moskowitz and the defendants if there are issues with Ivanka Trump or if there is some -- but we are definitely calling her as part of our case in chief.

MR. KISE: Okay.
THE COURT: Okay. I will say again. It is my understanding that defendants do not have a standing to object, but I don't mind them being part of the process as a courtesy, whatever. Maybe Mr. Kise is right. Maybe he does have standing.

MR. KISE: They certainly objected or you allowed them to speak yesterday when I was talking about the other matter in the morning and I told you I didn't think they had a dog in the hunt, but you allowed them to speak in any event.

THE COURT: In any event, Monday, ten o'clock, okay. Thanks, everybody. Great weekend.
(Whereupon, the trial was adjourned to Monday, October 30, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

NICOLE C. ROBINSON, CSR JARIETLIE C. LONDON, RMR, CRR Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding. Please make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Good morning. Either the room is getting bigger or more people are showing up.

In this case, as in I'm sure others, the housekeeping matters can be explored as actual testimony, not last week's, but I understand we have a couple of housekeeping matters. I'll just start with the plaintiff because they're the plaintiff.

MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor.
Just the primary issue is that there is a change from the end of last week is the scheduling of the testimony for Ivanka Trump. We've had a number of e-mail exchanges with Ms. Trump and her counsel over the weekend and I think we have come to an agreement we will not be able to complete her testimony on Friday, the 3rd of this week and so the OAG had proposed November 8th and 9th, but because of travel obligations of -- that Ms. Trump had, she had proposed Wednesday, November 15, which is not ideal from our perspective, but the OAG is willing to book that date and proceed with her testimony then. We would just need agreement from the Court and from defendants that our case would not actually close with our final witness of Mr. Trump but would remain open for her testimony on the 15 th.

THE COURT: Clearly as we work this out in that fashion, there is going to be any -- how long do you think the direct examination would be and how long do we think the cross examination will be?

MR. WALLACE: I think we would certainly complete it within the day, but I don't think it would take a full trial day and that we could do it with three to four hours of testimony.

THE COURT: You mean three to four hours of direct?
MR. WALLACE: Correct.
THE COURT: How long do you think cross examination?

MR. KISE: Probably a little less than that. I think overall it will be a full trial day between the government and the defense. That's I think why the 3rd doesn't really work just because we would get started and they might even finish their direct on the 3rd, but we're fine with the proposal if the Court is okay with it.

THE COURT: I have one creative thought. Let me run it by the person who sits along side of me.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: We have things scheduled for Friday afternoon, the proverbial other cases we have. Any chance of turning Friday into an all day? We would just have to move things, which would be a bit of a pain, but might be a better alternative. Let's hear from both sides.

Plaintiff?
MR. WALLACE: Certainly. I think we would have no objection to that.

MR. KISE: I would have to note, for me, at least I don't know about the rest of us, since that's our only afternoon off for other cases, that may pose a bit of a train wreck on our side just because we've got -- I know it's hard to imagine there is anything else going on in the world right now other than this trial. Certainly happy to explore this afternoon and try and work that out. I'm not philosophically opposed to it, but I just don't know logistically if it's an option.

THE COURT: Let's talk about it after the lunch break. It would be so much easier for her in particular, right?

So other housekeeping matters by the plaintiff?
MR. WALLACE: That was the only issue. Otherwise, we're prepared to proceed on the issue we laid out at the end of last week.

THE COURT: What is the story with Mr. Solomon?

Page 2743
MR. WALLACE: We'll go off the record for this? MR. KISE: Sure.
THE COURT: Okay.
(Whereupon, there is an off-the-record discussion held.)

THE COURT: Let's call the next witness ASAP.
MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. We recall to the stand Raymond Flores.

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, witness, as I always do, you're still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes.
THE COURT: Please proceed. Continue.
BY MR. AMER:
Q Welcome back, Mr. Flores. I'd like to quickly review where we ended your examination a week ago last Friday.

We were discussing the joint venture Vegas property and we had looked at the 2017 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 in evidence. And if we could go to Row 751, which we had looked at before.

It states in Row 751 that the values listed for June 30, 2013 and June 30, 2014 are, quote, "based on the cash go to Row 816, this is now for the next two years 2015 and 2016. Same note or similar note on Row 816 says "based on the cash flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores."

You recall that you continued preparing this cash flow analysis?
A Yes.
Q And am I correct that you were not aware in this time frame that your cash flow analysis was being used for the purpose of valuing this asset in Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?

\section*{A That's correct.}

Q Now, if we could look at the next two years the 2018 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet that's Exhibit 774 in evidence and if we could go to Row 841 that's where Vegas begins.

And do you see, Mr. Flores, that there is no longer any reliance based on the notation to your spreadsheet, your cash flow analysis, rather?

A Can you scroll down, please?
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
A Yes, that's correct.
Q So your cash flow analysis was no longer being referenced as the basis for the valuation in either 2017 or 2018; correct?

A That appears to be the case.
Q Let's go ahead and pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208
\begin{tabular}{|l|l|l|}
\hline R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) & Page 2746 \\
1 & native. And the document l've handed you is a series of e-mail \\
2 & exchanges that include you as a sender and recipient; correct? \\
3 & A & Yes. \\
4 & Q & And you'll see the last page is an attachment that's a \\
5 & document prepared natively. Do you see that? \\
6 & A & Can you show me the document, please? \\
7 & Q & Well, just that last page is a slip sheet for an \\

9 & A & Yes. \\
10 & Q & Provided natively. And we'll look at that in a moment. \\
11 & And I just want you to notice that's a native attachment. Do \\ 12 & you see that? \\
13 & A & Yes. \\
14 & Q And you'll see in on the first page of the exhibit your \\

19 & A & Yes. \\
20 & Q & And the attachment, the Trump rough and financial \\

22 & A & Yes, I believe so. \\
23 & Q & Let's go ahead and put up the native of 1208. \\

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

June 30, 2017 ?

A Yes.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask to move into evidence

Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208, including the spreadsheet.
 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
 (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1208 in evidence.)

Q And if you look at Row 37 of your spreadsheet that has the cash flow to Trump; correct?

A Yes, that's what the document says.

Q And so the value of the cash flow to Trump for your cash flow analysis has a total value of a little over \($ 77\) million; is that right?

A Yes.

Q Okay. If we could now split the screen and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 774, which is the 2018 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet in evidence that we were just looking at.

If we could go to Row 872 and go over to Column G.

That's the June 30, 2017 value for this property which is slightly over 102 million; correct?

A Yes, that's what the document says.

Q Okay. And that value for the Vegas property as of June 30, 2017 is about \($ 25\) million, more than the \($ 77\) million value in your cash flow analysis; correct?

\section*{A Yes.} statement?

A Yes.

A Yes.

A Yes.

Q Were you made aware, Mr. Flores, of a decision to stop using your cash flow analysis to value this Vegas asset for Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition as of the 2017

A No, not that I recall.
Q Before we move on to a new property I just wanted to quickly circle back to Niketown to see if I could refresh your recollection on a couple of points.

You'll recall we had looked at the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 857 in evidence and Row 88 is where Niketown begins, so if we could look there.

Do you recall we had looked at this before?

Q And if you go to Rows 88 to 103 you will see that there is a method used to value the property in 2019 from Rows 88 to 103 that produce a value of 445 million. Do you see that?

Q And then if we just go down to Row 106, you'll see that there is a change in methodology for 2020 that says "value per 20 year discounted cash flow from Ray Flores." Do you see that?

Q And I believe your testimony was that you don't recall performing a 20 year discounted cash flow analysis for Niketown for 2020; is that right?
. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
A Yes, that's correct.

Q And then I showed you the 20 year discounted cash flow analysis for Nike for 2020 which we could put up on the screen now. It's PX 857. Anyway, I believe we put up a spreadsheet and when we looked at that spreadsheet you still did not recall whether it was your work product. Do you remember that?
A Yes.
Q So we're going to look at a few more pieces of evidence to see if it refreshes your recollection about the 20 year discounted analysis for 2020.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and look at an earlier draft of the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2293 in native and let's go ahead and look at Row 118 and actually go down a little bit further just so we can see the Niketown section. The other way. Sorry.
Q You see this is the section starting at 86 that relates to Niketown. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And in this earlier draft of the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet for 2020 you'll see rather than reference the 20 year discounted cash flow analysis, it has -- starting in Row 105 and going down, a method -- keep going -- a method that takes the net operating income shown in 117 and divides it by a cap rate of four percent to produce a value of 265.1 million. Do you see that?

A Yes.
Q Do you --
MR. AMER: Well, let me move to admit this exhibit, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 857 in evidence.)
Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with additional reasoning -- actually, before we get there I'll withdraw that.

If you look at line 123, you'll see it says "cap rate." And you see there is a note below it for 6/30/2020 that says "given the prime location in the plaza district, the proximity to Trump Tower and the high profile tenant, we use the same four percent cap rate as Trump Tower." Do you see that note?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap rate for Niketown in the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition because Mr. Bender was pushing back on using the four percent cap rate?

A I don't recall, no.
Q You don't recall that.
If I suggested to you that he made such a request to R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer) Page 2751 you on Christmas Eve of 2020, does that ring a bell?
A No.
Q Mr. Flores, were you aware that as part of discovery in this case and in the investigation you received production of voicemail messages that were left on your office phone?

A No.
Q Okay.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'd like to play an audio file which is a voicemail message that Mr. McConney left on
Mr. Flores' phone that we marked at PX 397 and then I'll ask you if it refreshes your recollection.

THE COURT: Go ahead.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
Q I know you -- he spoke a little quickly. I don't know if you need to play it over again or not, but my question is whether that refreshes your recollection that Mr. McConney left you a message on Christmas Eve Of 2020 asking you to come up with additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap rate for Niketown?
A No, I don't recall that.
Q Okay.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that the voicemail message be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 397 in evidence.)

THE COURT: I don't know how these things work. Is there a transcript of that that will actually be in evidence or just this recording?

MR. AMER: We can transcribe it and put that in as an exhibit as well.

THE COURT: Please do.
MR. AMER: Okay. We will.
Q Do you recall, Mr. Flores, that in lieu of convincing Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 2020?
A I'm sorry, can you repeat the question?
Q Sure. Do you recall -- and we've listened to this voicemail message where Mr. McConney is asking you to come up with additional reasons to justify the four percent cap rate. Do you recall that in lieu of trying to convince Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 2020 ?

Page 2753
A No, I don't recall.
Q Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 in native. This is a draft 20 year cash flow analysis for Niketown for 2020. Do you recall creating this analysis shortly after receiving -- well, shortly after Christmas Eve of 2020 ?
A No, I don't recall that.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark as 3295, the metadata for this spreadsheet.
Q Mr. Flores, this document is a printout of the metadata that was produced along with the spreadsheet we were just looking at. And if you go down you will see that it says the author is you. Do you see that?
A Yes, that's what this says.
Transcript continues on the following page....
\(1 \quad\) Q And you will see that the created date is December 28, 2020. Do you see that?

3 A Yes.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'll represent, and the Court can take judicial notice, that the very first business day after Christmas Eve in 2020, which fell on a Thursday, is Monday, the 28th of December.

THE COURT: I'll assume that's correct.
Q So this metadata shows that the very first business day after Mr. McConney left you the voicemail message that we listened to, there is a 20 -year cash flow analysis that the metadata indicates was created by you on that date, the 28th. Do you see that?
A That's what the document says.
Q Does this refresh your recollection, Mr. Flores, that you prepared the 20-year cash flow analysis that we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 shortly after Christmas Eve as an alternative valuation method for Niketown because Mr. Bender was pushing back on using a cap rate of four percent?
A No, it doesn't.
Q So you have no recollection of doing this work based on a Christmas Eve 2020 voicemail message less than three years ago today, correct?
A Correct.
25 Q Just to close the loop, let's compare the MPV value on

\section*{R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 2755
the spreadsheet that we were looking at.
MR. AMER: If we could put that back up.
Q You'll see the MPV value in Row 14 is \($ 252,779,805\) ?
A Correct.
Q And again, this is the spreadsheet that has the metadata that says you are the author of this document based on what we were looking at, right?

A That's correct. Correct.
Q And let's put up next to this the final 2020 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet that is Exhibit 857 in evidence and let's go to Row 86 where Niketown starts and then if you go to Row 106, which has the value that is attributed to you, same value that's in the spreadsheet -- sorry. The analysis that the metadata says you created on December 28, 2020, correct? A Yes.
Q Mr. Flores, having looked at a number of 20-year discounted cash flow spreadsheets for Niketown, the metadata for one of those spreadsheets identifying you as the author, the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheets attributing the spreadsheets to you and the voicemail message that Mr. McConney left for you on Christmas Eve in 2020 asking for your assistance, is your recollection now refreshed that less than three years ago, you created a 20 -year cash flow analysis for Niketown to be used to value the property in 2020 for Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?

A No, it's not refreshed.
Q In terms of the statements that you worked on preparing, I believe you previously testified that you believed you worked on the statement as of June 30, 2020, but that you didn't recall if you also worked on preparing the Statement of Financial Condition as of \(6 / 30 / 21\) before you left the company in March of 2022. Did I get that right?
A Yes, that's correct.
Q Let me see if I could refresh your recollection. We did receive in production along with an audio file of a phone message that Mr. Birney left for you some metadata attached to that audio file, all of which gets produced in something called a Cellebrite file.

MR. AMER: So I would like to mark as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300 which I'm going to hand to the witness a report generated by the metadata from Cellebrite file.
Q I may have misspoke, but this is a message that was left for Patrick Birney, not by him, and based on Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300 , which is the report for the audio message, it says that the message was left on August 2nd of 2021 and it has the phone number of the message of the phone that was calling, leaving the message, and you'll see it is (212) 715-7282. That's your office number, isn't it?

A It was, yes.
Q And you'll see it's a 27-second message that is being

Page 2757

\section*{retrieved from the phone of Mr. Birney?}

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'd like to have this document 3300, admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in .
(Whereupon, the Audio recording was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300.)

MR. KISE: For what purpose, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Mr. Amer, you can say it better than I can.

MR. AMER: We are going to play the message. This tells us who the message is coming from and the date of the message.

MR. KISE: Okay. All of these are being used, though, to refresh recollection. Is there some purpose that the hearsay itself is coming into evidence, the same is true as the other message.

MR. AMER: I did not admit them for a limited purpose Your, Honor. I admitted them into evidence because they're all admissible for all purposes. They are party admissions against interest.

THE COURT: Well, I don't know what this new one will show, but the last one was relevant to how things were playing out there, simply put.

MR. AMER: Is it in evidence?
THE COURT: The metadata?
\begin{tabular}{|c|c|}
\hline 1 & MR. KISE: We haven't heard it yet. \\
\hline 2 & MR. AMER: No. \\
\hline 3 & THE COURT: We could wait -- \\
\hline 4 & MR. AMER: It was this report admitted in evidence. \\
\hline 5 & Now, we are going to play the message. \\
\hline 6 & THE COURT: If we haven't heard the metadata, we \\ \hline 7 & don't -- if we haven't heard the -- what you're going to \\ \hline 8 & play, I don't know whether the metadata is relevant. So why \\
\hline 9 & don't we wait until we hear. \\
\hline 10 & MR. AMER: Okay. \\
\hline 11 & Q Let's go ahead and play the voicemail message that was \\ \hline 12 & left from your phone number. \\
\hline 13 & (Whereupon, the audio recording was played.) \\
\hline 14 & MR. AMER: Do we need to hear it one more time? \\
\hline 15 & THE COURT: No, I don't. Anybody else does? \\
\hline 16 & Q That was your voice, Mr. Flores, was it not? \\
\hline 17 & A Yes. \\
\hline 18 & THE COURT: They're both in evidence now. \\
\hline 19 & MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. \\
\hline 20 & Q You were leaving a message for Mr. Birney saying that \\ \hline 21 & Eric had asked you to reach out to him about preparation of the \\ \hline 22 & financial statement, correct? \\
\hline 23 & A Correct. \\
\hline 24 & Q And that Eric was Eric Trump, right? \\
\hline 25 & A Yes. \\

1 this refresh your recollection." He says no and now it is 2 in evidence for all purposes at least according to them and 3 I'm just wondering how that can be because that's not really 4 consistent with the line of questioning. If they're 5 introducing hearsay to -- well, if they're introducing 6 hearsay evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted 7 and not meaning the substance of the communication, not to 8 establish either that this witness doesn't remember or not 9 to establish that a conversation may or may not have taken 10 place. Those are just two very different things.

Q And this is a phone message you were leaving for \(\mathbf{M r}\). Birney in mid 2021, right?
A That's what the metadata says.
Q And does the fact that Eric Trump touched base with you in mid 2021 about having you work on the preparation of the financial statement refresh your recollection that you indeed were involved in the preparation of the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition?
A I could have been. I don't recall.
A Yes.

A Correct.
MR. KISE: So Your Honor, just to clarify, I guess this is where I'm not stating it correctly. Is this message and the subsequent -- or the prior message being introduced to establish that Mr. Flores doesn't actually remember what took place? Is it being introduced to establish that it, in fact, took place? I'm just -- I think those are two very different things. If the government is trying to establish that Mr. Flores doesn't remember something that happened, because that's what the questions are.

THE COURT: I'm sure that's not the reason; am I correct?

MR. KISE: That's all the questions are. "Does

MR. KISE: Then with respect to the -- this statement since Mr. Flores accurately acknowledged that it was his voice on the message and, in fact, he has no reason to doubt it, then the foundation has been laid. With respect to the McConney message, which the witness doesn't remember and doesn't recall, you would need Mr. McConney here to say, yes, in fact, I left that message unless this witness can say he did leave the message. This witness can't get in a hearsay statement even if it is an admission by a party.

THE COURT: Even if it is an admission by a party? That's classic --

MR. KISE: But we don't know whether it is or not unless someone has authenticated it for that purpose.

MR. AMER: Do you need me to respond? It is a voicemail message produced in discovery by the defendants. Mr. McConney is a defendant in this case. It is an admission against interest, clear, classic traditional to the hearsay rule.

MR. KISE: I don't know why it is being admitted other than that he called Mr. Flores.

MR. AMER: I think it is admitting quite a bit and that's for argument.

MR. KISE: I'll leave it there.
THE COURT: It is in evidence for the "quite a

2 & MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor. \\
3 & Q & We are now going to move, Mr. Flores, to a different \\

6 & A & Yes. \\
7 & Q & You previously testified that the firm handled property \\

10 & A \(\quad\) Correct. \\
11 & Q \(\quad\) You mentioned that you worked with that firm in \\ 12 & connection with reviewing property tax assessments of Trump \\
13 & Organization properties in Florida, right? \\
14 & A \(\quad\) Yes. \\
15 & MR. AMER: I'd like to introduce Plaintiffs \\
16 & Exhibit 321l. \\
17 & Q \(\quad\) You will see that this is an e-mail from Tony Garcia at \\ 18 & Poer & Company to you. Do you see that? \\
19 & A \(\quad\) Yes. \\
20 & Q \(\quad\) Is Mr. Garcia one of the individuals you interacted \\
21 & with on tax assessment appeal matters that Poer & Company filed \\
22 & on behalf of the Trump Organization? \\
23 & A \(\quad\) Yes. \\
24 & MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted \\

\end{tabular}
\(20 \quad Q\) "The year end 2019 operating statement still supports 21 the county's value as being fair." Do you see that?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Do you recall what the property appraiser determined
24 was the market value of Doral for 2020 ?
25 A No, I don't recall.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3211.)
Q Now, if you look at the e-mail starting with the second sentence of the first full paragraph, he says, "Per our conversation, we will withdraw the RE appeals for lack of supporting evidence."

First of all, do you recall what "RE" stands for in that sentence?

A Real estate.
Q Real estate, okay.
Do you have a recollection of having this discussion with Mr. Garcia about the real estate appeals for Doral?

A This specific discussion, it seems familiar.
Q And Mr. Garcia goes on to say, "Our opinion is the property was fairly too favorably assessed as of the \(1 / 1 / 2020\) assessment date." The "YE 2019," we can agree that means year end, the year?

A Correct.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3209. Your Honor, this is the official notice of proposed property taxes from the Miami-Dade property appraiser that's available on the government's website and I move that this be admitted into evidence as a business record from a government website.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3209.)

MR. KISE: Your Honor, just briefly. I mean, I'm assuming this is a public record, so that satisfies that basis; but I'm just wondering what's the relevance of this document. Why is this coming in?

THE COURT: I guess we'll find out.
MR. KISE: Okay. Subject to connection.
MR. AMER: Indeed.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q If we go down, down the document, you'll see that there's value information column. Keep going. You see it says, "Value information, prior value 2019, current value 2020." There are two columns. Well, multiple columns. There is a market value column and then there are two assessed value columns. Do you see that?

A Yes.
Q And the market value in both years is \($ 78\) million,

\section*{FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 2765

\section*{correct?}

A Correct.
Q And that is the market value that Mr. Garcia from Poer & Company was indicating in his e-mail to you as being fair, correct?

A I believe so.
Q Let's go ahead now and --
MR. AMER: Oh, I think we had your ruling that this is admitted? THE COURT: Yes. MR. AMER: Okay.
Q Let's go ahead and turn to Mar-A-Lago. And before we talk about Mar-A-Lago, I wanted to just put up plaintiff's demonstrative Exhibit 3.10, just so that we can all see the values of Mar-A-Lago for the 11-year period in the Statements of Financial Condition.

THE COURT: But before we --
MR. KISE: Before we get there, was that the connection? I'm lost. Was that the connection? We are moving away from this exhibit now. It was offered subject to connection. Maybe I missed the connection.

THE COURT: Well, I think the connection was market value and \($ 78\) million. MR. AMER: That's right.
MR. KISE: So this is being offered as the actual

1 market value of the property in this year, just so I'm about the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition. So he has a foundation for knowing if he has any reason to doubt Mr. McConney's testimony.

MR. KISE: But he testified he doesn't know whether it was valued as a private residence or not.

THE COURT: Well, that's his testimony.
MR. KISE: Right.
THE COURT: It doesn't mean --
MR. KISE: Now, any reason -- I mean, is there any reason to doubt that it is raining outside? If you know, you know. If you can't look out the window, you don't know. This witness doesn't have any basis to know what Mr. McConney was doing or what he testified to or the accuracy of it. It is just sloppy, Your Honor.

MR. AMER: Well, I take offense to calling my questions sloppy, but I think it was appropriate. I think the witness said he didn't recall how Mar-A-Lago was valued and it is appropriate to ask him if he has any basis to dispute Mr. McConney's testimony.

THE COURT: He doesn't say, "I would have no way of knowing that." He says, "I don't recall." The objection is overruled.

MR. KISE: It would be better if he -- I mean, does he have any understanding one way or the other is the clear?

THE COURT: Well, the tax assessor's view and I think Mr. Garcia's view of the market value. That's what it says. Now, Mr. Kise, you can certainly argue that there are different market values, but it is still relevant.

MR. KISE: Okay. Same objection, but thank you, Judge.
Q I just wanted all of us to familiarize ourselves with the values for Mar-A-Lago that are in this statements from 2011 to 2021.

Mr. Flores, we heard testimony from Mr. McConney that every year from 2011 to 2021, Mar-A-Lago was valued as if it could be sold as a private residence. Do you have an understanding that Mar-A-Lago was being valued as a private residence when you were working with others to prepare valuations for the Statements of Financial Condition?
A I don't recall, no.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt Mr. McConney's testimony that every year it was being valued as a private residence?
A No.

MR. KISE: Objection; foundation.
MR. AMER: I think there was foundation because the
R. FLORES - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

question? That's the first question. Any reason to doubt? I mean, he's not demonstrated that the witness has any basis to know one way or the other.

THE COURT: Please explain the basis which I think was evident.

MR. AMER: The basis is that this witness said he was personally involved with others in the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition and I will -- if you will refrain from characterizing my questions in a pejorative way, I will extend you the same courtesy if and when you get to the podium to question witnesses, Mr. Kise.

MR. KISE: But I'm still -- pejoratives aside, just because he was involved in the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition, there's literally hundreds of properties. There's all sorts of properties. I mean, the question relates to this one particular property and not even that one particular property, but a particular aspect of that one particular property.

So to say that I'm involved -- that a witness is involved generally in the preparation of the Statements of Financial Condition is very different than saying the witness was involved specifically with respect to this asset and would know specifically Mr. -- have a basis to know one way or the other Mr. McConney's rationale.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, I think the questions are perfectly appropriate. There was a basis and the witness said he didn't remember, didn't know. If we're going to have to go through this every time there's some -- you perceive an issue with relevance, we'll be here a lot longer than I think we need to be.

I don't want to stop you from presenting your defense or questioning the plaintiffs case, but gee, save it for something that matters. I don't see that this even matters much less I think you're wrong on the merits. So let's move on.

MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, it does matter. The rules matter and this witness' knowledge matters. This is a highly-technical case, so all of this collapsing and conflating that has been done throughout the course of their case is inappropriate.

So I am -- respectfully, I'm not trying to take up a lot of time, but I am respectfully going to have to object to that. I understand the Court's position and I will just make my objection and leave it there. Thank you.

THE COURT: Yes, the rules matter at a certain point. I'm just going to say, and maybe the point is now, my ruling is my ruling. I give you some leeway because you know what you're doing and this is an important case and the details do matter, but if I rule rather than you might just hearing of the tax assessment for the 202 year; correct?

A I believe so, yes.
Q Did you review this petition before Mr. Corbiciero filed it with the county?

A I don't believe so.
Q To your knowledge did anybody review it -- anyone from the Trump Organization review it before Mr. Corbiciero filed it with the Value Adjustment Board?

A I don't believe so, no.
Q You don't have any reason, do you, to believe that Mr. Corbiciero would file this petition without appropriate authorization from the Trump Organization; is that right?

A Correct.
Q Now, if we go down to the petition you'll see -- too far -- you'll see there is a section that says "type of property." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And can you tell us the type of property Mr. Corbiciero checked for Mar-A-Lago?
A Says "commercial."
Q So he's in an official filing with the Valuation Board denoting Mar-A-Lago as a commercial property; correct?

A Correct.
25 Q And that's consistent with your understanding of what
R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 2776

1 Mar-A-Lago was; right? It was a commercial property being used 2 as a social club; right?

\section*{A Correct.}

Q And there were boxes that would have permitted
Mr. Corbiciero to indicate that the property was residential; right? There is a box next to "type of property" that says "RES one to four units" and "RES five plus units;" right?

A Correct.
9 Q So he could have designated it as a residential property if he checked those boxes, but he did not; right?

A That's correct.
Q Okay. And so if we go to the last page of the document you'll see this is a withdrawal petition. Do you recall that the petition appealing the assessment was withdrawn?

A Yes, I believe so.
Q And the reason for the withdrawal if you go down a little bit there is a box checked, says "the petitioner agrees with the determination of the property appraiser or tax collector." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And so was it your understanding that the appeal was withdrawn because the Trump Organization agreed with the determination of the property appraiser?
A Yes.
Q And that determination was based on Mar-A-Lago being

Flores - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 2777
1 categorized as a commercial property; correct?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1382.
4 You'll see the e-mail that begins in the middle of the page is 5 from Mr. Corbiciero to you copied to Mr. Garcia dated 6 November 17, 2021 and the subject is "Mar-A-Lago Homestead Exemption." Do you see that?
A Yes.
9 Q Now you go ahead and pass along Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail to Eric Trump and Allen Weisselberg in the e-mail above; right? A That's what the document says, yes.
Q Do you recall reading Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail before you passed it on to your boss Eric Trump and Mr. Corbiciero?

A No, I don't recall.
Q Can we agree that you would have reviewed the e-mail before passing it along to your boss Eric Trump and Mr. Weisselberg?
A Yes.
Q And you ask and you tell them that they should let you know if they would like to discuss further, right?
A Yes.
Q So can we agree that at the time you passed along
Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail about the homestead exemption you were prepared to discuss it with them if they so chose?
A Yes.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this exhibit into evidence. \\
THE COURT: Granted. It's in. \\
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3170 in evidence.) \\
Q Let's look at the second sentence in this e-mail from \\
Mr. Corbiciero. He says "last year we briefly discussed the \\ possibility of filing for a homestead exemption on the \\ Mar-A-Lago property since President Donald Trump had legally \\ declared Palm Beach and the Mar-A-Lago property as his permanent residence." Do you see that? \\
A Yes. \\
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you did in fact discuss this possibility with Mr. Corbiciero the prior year? \\
A No. \\
Q Let's look at the second paragraph. \\
"In order to do this Mr. Trump would have to do certain \\ things to establish residency" and I'm going to -- it says \\
"since the private club is currently owned by a corporation, the \\ property ownership would need to be changed/transferred into his \\ name as an individual and not under a corporation." \\
Do you recall being aware of that point that \\
Mr. Corbiciero was mentioning? \\
25 A I believe so, yes.
\end{tabular} & \begin{tabular}{l}
Q And did you understand, sir, that as a result of being assessed as a private club and not a private residence, it was assessed at a much lower price per square foot? \\
A That's what the e-mail says. I don't recall. \\
Q And that's what you were to understood when you received this e-mail and read it? \\
A Correct. \\
MR. AMER: Your Honor, the Court can check my math, but based on the numbers in Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail and going off of the \($ 3,000\) per square foot figure, private residences are assessed at almost eight and a half times the price of a private club based on just the math and I think the Court can take judicial notice of the math. \\
THE WITNESS: I'll take judicial notice subject to any contradictory views. \\
Q And you understood that Mr. Corbiciero was saying it's not worth the \($ 50,000\) homestead exemption because of the increase in the assessment of the residential portion of Mar-A-Lago were that to be carved out and designated at a private residence; right? \\
A Correct. \\

The property appraiser would need to come out and do a property inspection and measure the residential area and that portion of the assessment would receive the homestead exemption." \\
You understood what he was explaining to you when you received this e-mail; correct? \\
A I believe so. \\
Q And let's look at the next paragraph. \\
"Currently, this property is assessed as a private club \\ with the current assessed value at \($ 359\) per square foot. The surrounding residential properties are assessed on average of over 2,000 per square foot with a recent sale with just 3,000 per square foot. If the property appraiser were to separately assess the residential portion of Mar-A-Lago in order for it to qualify for homestead, we believe this would result in a much higher assessment and therefore outweigh the potential tax savings from the \($ 50,000\) homestead exemption in the immediate future. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns." \\
Mr. Flores, did you understand from this e-mail from \\ the company's tax advisor that Mar-A-Lago was currently assessed \\

MR. AMER: He received this e-mail, Your Honor. \\
THE COURT: Let's ask. I think the question was basically do you understand it that way and he says that's what the e-mail says. \\
Mr. Flores, aside from the fact that's what the e-mail said, is that what you understood, which is what the question was? \\
THE WITNESS: I don't know. \\
Q But isn't that what you would have understood from reading this e-mail? \\
A Yes, that's what this e-mail says. \\
MR. KISE: That's an entirely different question. \\
MR. AMER: I'm happy with the question I asked and \\ the answer I got. \\
THE COURT: And any objection overruled. \\
Q Did Eric Trump or Allen Weisselberg ever get back to you to discuss this e-mail further? \\

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I thank the court officers for their alacrity.

THE COURT OFFICER: Remain standing and raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear or affirm any testimony you give will be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
D A VID CERRON, called by and on behalf of the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

THE WITNESS: I do.
THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and either business or home address on the record.

THE WITNESS: My name is David Cerron. Business address 830 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10065.

THE COURT: Okay. Counselor, please proceed.

\section*{DIRECT EXAMINATION}

BY MR. GABER:
Q Good morning, Mr. Cerron. Can you please state your employer and title for the record?
A My employer is the City of New York. I work for the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation. I am the Q And until recently, New York Department of Parks and Recreation had a concession agreement with the Trump Organization; is that correct?

A That's correct.
Q Could you give me some of your professional background within the Parks Department, please?
A Sure. I've had the privilege of working for Parks in the city for just over 21 years. I started there working in our citywide services office, so that was doing a variety of different programs with our parks enforcement; with the Green Thumb Organization, which is community gardening; with arts and antiquities, variety of different operations there.

I moved -- I worked in public programs, which does all the recreation centers in the city and I had a chance to work on their after-school programming and other different events and I've worked in our transitional job programming, parks opportunity program and with the concessions team and have been there since about 2007, 2008.
Q And can you tell me at a high level what your role has been as a member of Parks and Recreation with respect to the Ferry Point Golf Course?
A So my role has been to work with colleagues in the concessions division on contract administration. So contract administration is effectively the oversight of the terms of the contract. So we'll focus on things related to operations, you know, is the operation -- and in this case Ferry Point.

Is it open to the public seven days a week; when does the day start, when does the day end; are we sure that it's being operated that time; when does the season end for most of our golf courses, effectively all of them.

They have a season, so the weather has changed, but they could be open until September or October, sometimes later and then they'll kind of start a new season in the spring.

We'll go over reports that are due to us. We want to make sure they have insurance. We want to make sure they're charging the right rates if rates go up, which they tend to. We want to review those rates and we have to approve them, so those sorts of things.

Q And at what point in the history of the concession agreement for Trump Ferry Point did you become directly involved in the --

A I became involved once the license was registered by the New York City Comptroller's Office and the agency had issued a notice to proceed. So that was when the contract commenced in I believe it was like the spring of 2015.

Q Were you in the office, though, during the period when the request for offers was issued and being considered?
A I was.

Page 2789
Q And did you have familiarity with that process?
A I was -- you know, I was there during that process and certainly remember, you know, colleagues talking about it. I was not involved in the selection.
Q Not formally involved?
A Not formally involved.
Q Can you describe what a request for offers is in terms of city procurement? Your understanding?
A So it's an -- it's under the other procedures under the city's Franchise and Concession Review Committee rules, so that's the -- for short, the FCRC is the acronym that we use.

Typically, when the city does its solicitation to have an operator provide a public service that includes fees we would use two methods: A request for proposals, an RFP, or request for bid, an RFB. Generally those are going to be the methods that we'll use. There are instances where we will use either a sole source where there is no competitive process and we go through a process instead to award it directly to one operator. We can just -- this operator is uniquely qualified to provide that service and that, you know, the deal offered to the city is sufficient for that justification.

And then in other circumstances we'll go through another process. And this RFO, requests for offers, is part of the other process and to the best of my recollection this is the only time that the agency has done an RFO.

1 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just -- very briefly just so was not a sole source, so this was the other -- and in this case the other was the RFO.

Transcript continues on the following page.....

Plaintiff's Exhibit 3289 for identification.
Q So Mr. Cerron, there is some addition. It was publicly filed in a different legal proceeding, but the document in chief begins on page two of four of this exhibit and I just ask that once you've had a chance to take a look at it to let me know if you recognize this document.
A Yes. This is a pre-solicitation review, what we call a PSR, and this is part of the documentation that we have to submit to the mayor's office of contract services before we can formally issue a solicitation, in this case, the RFO.

MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence. THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Standing objection overruled. It's understood.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3289 in evidence.)
Q And Mr. Cerron, could I ask you to describe your understanding from this document of the selection procedure that's being outlined here?
A So, the selection procedure is along the lines of what we had just discussed a few minutes ago. It is neither a competitive sealed bid, which is an RFB or competitive sealed proposal, which is an RFP. We did a different procedure that we avoid interruptions. One thing I notice on the record, it's f-e-r-r-y, not f-a-i-r-y. And the other is that I just want to have a standing objection so we can avoid on statute of limitations and relevance to this line of questioning, this testimony for this witness. Thank you.

THE COURT: We certainly want to get the spelling correct and the objections are considered standing and overruled.
Q Can you give me some background maybe about the -before we get further into the request for offers, some background about the genesis of the Ferry Point Park Golf Course?
A So the Ferry Point site, the scenario before it was a golf course was a municipal landfill and this was something that when I was working with the city under the Bloomberg administration was a priority for the agency to convert this landfill into a golf course and that was something that, you know, the city had attempted to do through a private operator. We had issued other RFPs and solicitations to try and achieve that goal and ultimately were not able to. So the city invested, you know, approximately \($ 120\) million, I think, over that in order to, you know, design and construct the golf course.

MR. GABER: So at this point I'd like to bring up

Q So this would be followed by your request for offers? A Correct.

MR. GABER: I ask to bring up Plaintiff's 3290 for identification.
Q Again Mr. Cerron, once you've had a chance to review this document, can you, please, tell me if you recognize this document?

A This is the RFO document that was issued after the approval of the PSR that we just discussed.

MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3290.)
Q Mr. Cerron, I'd like to direct your attention on page two of this document, the underlined header, "Goals for Request for Offers." Starting at the end of the second line, "Parks is seeking innovative offers from entities that can demonstrate substantial experience in the operation of golf courses and management of large scale events and significant financial capability to operate and maintain this concession at the highest level."

So can you, I suppose, tell me your understanding of the goals of this RFO based on this language here?

A Yeah. The agency was seeking an operator that had experience and I think that can be interpreted in a few ways, but mainly operation of a golf course and a golf course that had hosted, you know, major tournaments from the PGA or LPGA and then have an entity that has the financial wherewithal to ensure that the course is maintained at a high level and also any other capital work that would be necessary.
Q Can you turn to page 3 of 8 under, "Content of offers," item number five, it says, "Financial capability, including financial statements and other supporting documentation of the responder's financial worth."

Is that what you were just referring to I think in terms of the wherewithal to operate the concession?
A Yes.
Q And then moving forward to page seven of the document, and we'll go between seven and eight. So there's here, it discusses scoring, I believe in the document, of the offers that are received; is that correct?
A If you could scroll I guess -- scroll down a little, so I can -- or the other way. Sorry. Okay. "The conditions based on the following criteria," is that the --

Q Yes, "conditions based on the following criteria." Do you understand that to be the criteria on which offers would be scored?
A Yes.
Q And you see there it says, "Financial ranking, ten percent financial capability." Can you, I guess, provide your understanding of how financial capability would be scored in a request for offer such as this?

A So this is -- this is a category that, you know, we would look for documentation verifying someone's finances to move forward with the commitments that they're making in their offer.

You know, there's a number of different documents that we would - could review depending on what someone provides. It could be tax returns. It could be bank statements. It could be financial statements. It could be attestation letters. It is a variety of different things.

Q I think you said this a little bit before, but can you explain Parks' interest in ensuring that an offerer has sufficient financial capability?

A Well, I think generally for any project that we want to do, we want to work with someone that we're sure has the money or the financing to be able to deliver on what will be obligations under the contract and I think specifically given this -- the history of this course and the fact that we ended up doing an RFO, I think the city was even more focused because this was a tough one to get -- to get accomplished and to actually complete.
Q Can you elaborate what you mean by "tough one to 25 accomplish"?

A As I mentioned, we had tried a handful of times through an RFP to find an operator for this course and to have someone else perhaps help with the construction or do the construction. The city ended up investigating over \($ 120\) million and there was a certainly a sense of importance placed on making sure that this course was open and available to the public. And in doing so, we wanted to be sure that whoever we had operating the course had the financial capability to deliver on their obligations including making sure the course was operating and working every day.
Q Do you have a sense of how many offers were submitted in response to this RFO?
A My recollection is that there were four offers.
MR. GABER: I'm going to now pass up PX 1331 for identification.
Q Mr. Cerron, please let me know if you recognize this document once you've had a chance to read it.
(Witness reviewing document.)
A This is the response to the RFO from the Trump Organization.
MR. GABER: I'd ask this document be moved into evidence.

MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as

\section*{Plaintiff's Exhibit 1331.)}

Q Mr. Cerron, if I could point you to page four of this document, heading " \(F\), financial capability." It says, "We have enclosed a statement from the certified public accounting firm of Weiser, L.L.P. indicating a net worth in excess of \($ 3\) billion and cash on hand in excess of \($ 200\) million. As such, we will easily be able to meet any and all financial obligations under this contract."

Just to move to page seven of the document, there's a letter here from Weiser L.L.P. that I think says substantially the same. So Mr. Cerron, is this the type of documentation of financial capability that the city would use in considering offers submitted to it?
A Yes.
Q And the city did consider this letter in reviewing the request for offers?
A I believe so.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection; foundation.
THE COURT: Do you want him to ask if he knows?
MS. HERNANDEZ: He already testified that he was not involved in the bid process.

MR. GABER: I believe he testified that he was not formally involved, but he had an understanding of process both generally as a Parks employee familiarity, but also specifically in discussions with colleagues. I can ask him

15 A This is the request for award. This is what we refer 16 to as an RFA and this is part of the documentation that we have

\section*{Marketing.}

So Mr. Cerron, does this certification mean that NYC Parks is recommending that Trump Ferry Point, LLC be awarded the concession?

A Yes.
Q So if we go down to the second -- page three of the document, under the header, "Financial Resources, Adequate and Accounting Procedures", the document says here, "Trump has provided Parks with documentation from WeiserMazars, LLP, certified public accountants, stating that Donald J. Trump, the president of Trump, has a substantial net worth and cash position as set forth in Exhibit V to the concession agreement. There is also a personal guaranty from Donald J. Trump regarding payment obligations and the completion of capital improvements. Trump's offer includes setting aside three percent of gross receipts towards a capital reserve fund in years 5 through 12 and two percent in years 13 through 15 of the term of the concession agreement."

Mr. Cerron, can you explain your understanding of this paragraph here and how it relates to the recommendation?
A So this part of the -- this part of recommendation is kind of just verifying to the mayor's office that we believe that this elected operator has the financial resources, the wherewithal and organization to competently run this concession.

Q Could I ask you why did the city need to see, I guess, a demonstration of assets of Donald J. Trump in order to grant the concession to Trump Ferry Point, LLC?

A I mean, in terms of why they needed to see it, this was part of the financial capability section. And as I had mentioned, this was a course that the city wanted to open for quite some time and we wanted to be sure as we would always that the operator in place had the funds to deliver on their obligations under the license.
Q I think -- let me rephrase my question. The concessionaire here formally is Trump Ferry Point, LLC. The paragraph here is referring to the net worth and cash position of Donald J. Trump personally.

Do you understand why the recommendation for award here is interested in Mr. Trump's personal financial position and not that of the entity?
A Well, in his personal position, it relates to the personal guaranty from Mr. Trump, which was to I think -- again, very important and helpful in helping the city feel comfortable that all of the obligations were indeed going to be met.
Q The next two headers, I just like to briefly ask you about. They are "business integrity" and "other sources of responsibility information." Can you just to a high explain what these categories refer to?
A This is -- this is a section where the agency will

A Yes.
Q -- analyzed there?
A Yes.
Q And so business integrity and responsibility of a concessionaire are important to the city?
A Yes.
Q So was it important in recommending the award for Parks & Recreation to receive truthful, accurate and complete information from offerers?
A Yes.
Q Based on the submissions here, the offer that we just looked at and the additional determinations described in the recommendation for award, did the city and the Department of Parks & Recreation believe that it was receiving truthful, accurate and complete information from the offerers?

A Yes.
Q I'm going to hand you a very voluminous exhibit marked Defendant's 981. Let me know if you recognize this document.
A This is the license agreement between Trump Ferry Point, LLC and the City of New York.

MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection; statute of limitations.
THE COURT: You really don't have to do that every time. It is a standing objection, if that phrase means anything.

Go ahead, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: As to the testimony, the standing objection, but the documents, we need to object one by one like we've been doing throughout the trial.

THE COURT: Why is that? Don't the documents always or almost always have the date of them?

MR. KISE: Again, I mean, we -- not to belabor it, but our research has concluded that there's no standing objection with respect to documents, but with respect to testimony, yes, but with respect to document by document, no.

THE COURT: Well, Cliff isn't here, so we can't consult him, but I'll assume -- I'll let you do whatever you need to do, okay.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 981.)

MR. GABER: I realize I may not have admitted
Plaintiff's 3291. I move to admit 3291, plaintiff's.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3291.)
Q Can I just quickly -- I just want to direct your attention to pages 103 and 104 of this document. Just to confirm that this is a signed version of a license, so this would be the final agreement between the city or Parks & Recreation and Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
A Yes.
Q With respect to the trees that went into printing this out, I'm going to move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3283. Let me know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.
A Yes. This is the personal guaranty made by Mr. Trump.
Q Is it your understanding that this personal guaranty was a condition of the license that we just looked at?
A Yes.
Q If you look, Mr. Cerron, at page eight and nine of this document, you'll see that it is signed by Donald J. Trump as

Can you explain the purpose of these "No MAC" letters on an ongoing basis?
A That it was an annual letter that was to be sent to the city to just reaffirm that the initial financial statements that were shared with the city during the award process were in material respects the same.

Q And would you expect those letters to be true, complete and accurate?

A Yes.
Q Would submission of false or fraudulent information in those "No MAC" letters be a matter of concern to Parks? A Yes.
Q Can you elaborate on that, what type of concern would be raised?

A I think, you know, for -- I guess the first concern would be our questioning of whether or not the financial obligations under the license could continue to be met. And then I think the second concern would be if this was not accurate, are there other documents, other reports that were provided to the city that were also not accurate.
Q As a general matter, does Parks & Recreation have procedures or mechanisms in place for reporting suspected or actual false or fraudulent submissions if you know about them?
A If we become aware of something that was reported falsely, yes. Generally, that's a matter we would refer to our counsel's office and then potentially to the city's department of investigation
Q So, Mr. Cerron, I'm just going to ask you before I let you -- before I'm concluded to just take a look at a number of documents and tell me if you recognize them. They're going to look substantially similar. This is Plaintiffs 3282. It is a letter from WeiserMazars dated December 21, 2011. Just let me know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.
this is - this is an e-mail and then starting on page two is the letter. I'm sorry. It is an e-mail with an attached letter.

A This is one of the "No MAC" letters that were referenced in the personal guaranty that you just had up.
Q Okay.
MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be moved into
evidence.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations and foundation.

THE COURT: Overruled on statute of limitations.
What's the foundation?
MR. GABER: The foundation is -- I can ask a question just to --
THE COURT: Sure.
Q Mr. Cerron, is it your understanding that this letter, which I believe you yourself said is the "No MAC" letter, was submitted to the city?

Page 2807
A Yes.
MR. GABER: I move to admit it.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection, Your Honor. He testified he doesn't recognize the first page of the exhibit, only the second page.
MR. GABER: It was produced as a family with the cover e-mail that's an internal Trump Org document. I'm happy to admit only as to the letter at this time just to obviate.

THE COURT: Okay. Then that's what we will do. Just submit it as to the letter.

MR. GABER: Although, I will note that the e-mail is from Mr. McConney and so to the extent that it's a party admission, perhaps we just seek to have it admitted for all purposes at this point and Mr. Cerron is only testifying as to his knowledge.

THE COURT: It is admitted all pages for all purposes.

MR. GABER: Once again, I think I need to admit 3283 the previous exhibit as well into evidence.

THE COURT: Sorry. Say it again.
MR. GABER: 3283, I may not have moved that in formally. It is the previous.

THE COURT: All in for all evidence for all purposes.
(Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3282 & 3283.)

MS. HERNANDEZ: Just note our objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled.
Q Mr. Cerron, first paragraph here, the last sentence refers to -- well, let me start with the whole first paragraph.
"We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2011 as indicated in our accountant's compilation report dated October 6,2011. This compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of $4 billion and cash and marketable securities in excess of \($ 250\) million."

So Mr. Cerron, would the city expect that representation to be true, complete and accurate?
A Yes.
MR. GABER: I would now move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3286 for identification.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
A Yes.
Q Can you tell me what it is?
A This was -- this was a proposal from the concessionaire at the time to extend, if memory serves, the 18 th

\section*{CERRON - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. GABER)} hole and perhaps the 17 th hole into what is now a passive waterfront park that is approximately 19.5 acres.

Q And this was sent to the Department of Parks & Recreation?

A Yes.
Q I direct your attention to page seven of this document.
Section \(F\) there, "financial capability." "We have enclosed as attachment \(F\) a statement from the certified public accounting firm of Weiser, LLP indicating a net worth in excess of approximately \($ 5\) billion and cash on hand in excess of \($ 330\) million. As such, we will easily be able to meet any and all financial obligations under this extension proposal" and then it is signed at the bottom there, "Donald J. Trump."

MR. GABER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Objection, Your Honor; relevance, statute of limitations and beyond the proffer that we received for this witness.

THE COURT: Would you have done anything differently if you had received their proffer in the sense that it is now being offered?

MS. HERNANDEZ: Yes, Your Honor. We had a deposition on Monday, last Monday of this witness. We would have asked more questions. That was the intention of the proffer.

MR. GABER: How is this beyond the proffer? I believe that we had a pretty broad proffer related to the "No MAC" letters and the maintenance and administration of the --

MS. HERNANDEZ: This was a proposal for extension, so it doesn't relate to the maintenance of the Ferry Point property.

MR. GABER: But it does contain a letter from Mazars and it reflects the -- contains a letter from Mazars which reflects the financial capability of the guarantor.

MS. HERNANDEZ: The proffer doesn't specifically mention the WeiserMazars letters. It is a little bit different. I don't know how much of this we want to get into in front of the witness, but this is beyond the scope of the proffer we received.

THE COURT: Was it beyond the scope of the proffer?
MR. GABER: We don't believe so.
THE COURT: I don't think so either. Overruled on all three grounds. So it is in for -- the document is in for all purposes. Signed by -- apparently signed by Donald J. Trump.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3286.)
Q So I would just like to have you look at page 21 of the document now, Mr. Cerron. This is a letter from WeiserMazars, LLP dated October 29, 2013. It is addressed to Ms. Smith, the assistant commissioner of revenue again. It says, "Dear, Ms.

Smith. We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2013. As indicated in our accountants' compilation report dated October 28, 2013, this compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of \($ 4,900,000,000\) and cash and marketable securities in excess of \($ 330\) million."

Mr. Cerron, would the city expect this to be true, omplete and accurate representation?

Q I'd like to now hand the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3284 for identification. Again, this was produced as a family with a cover e-mail, but I'm only going to be asking the witness about page three of three here.

Do you recognize this letter dated March 28, 2016 from WeizerMazars LLP, Mr. Cerron?

A Yes.
Q What do you recognize this to be?
A A No Mac letter.
Q For what year?
A For the year ending December 31, 2015.
Q Okay. Thank you.
So this letter states in the second paragraph:
"While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2015 financial statement, based on discussions with Mr. Trump and his advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date or as of December 31, 2015."

Mr. Cerron, the city expects this to be true, complete and accurate as to the representations in this letter?
A Yes.
THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to speak a little louder and closer to the microphone, directly in.

THE WITNESS: Sorry. Yes.

THE COURT: Much better.
MR. GABER: Does it to every witness.
THE COURT: And usually much earlier, right?
MR. GABER: And I'd like to move this into evidence, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3284.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3284 in evidence.)

MS. HERNANDEZ: Sorry. Objection also they're only showing the third page of a three-page exhibit. The first two pages he does not have knowledge of and there is no foundation to admit those.

MR. GABER: I said I'm only showing him the third page and that there is an e-mail there that at this point I'm only admitting it as to the --

THE COURT: The third page. Okay. So it's only as to the third page.
Q So Mr. Cerron, I'm going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3285, and again, this was produced as a family, so I'm only going to be making reference to page two of two of this document at this time.

Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
A Yes. This is a No Mac.
Q I don't think we -- so Mr. Cerron, do you know what year this No Mac letter is for?
A Just a moment. I believe this is for June 30, 2016.
Q The 2016 calendar year?
A Or I believe if they have a financial year that ends June 30th.

MR. GABER: Okay. So the second paragraph here, I'd ask that this letter, page two, be moved into evidence. THE COURT: You ask that it be admitted into evidence? Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3285 in evidence.)
Q This paragraph, second paragraph here, says, "While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2016 financial statement, based on discussions with the trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended, and their advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date."

Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and accurate?
A Yes.
Q I'm now going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3280 for identification. Again, this was produced with a transmittal

Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
A Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending June 30, 2020.

MR. GABER: I'd ask that this be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in. Can't object on statute of limitations grounds.

MS. HERNANDEZ: No objection.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3281 in evidence.)
Q So here, this is substantially similar to what we've read. I'll note that the last sentence of the last paragraph says that this compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of \($ 3\) billion in cash and cash equivalents in excess of \($ 90\) million.
Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and Recreation expect the representations in this letter to be true, complete and accurate?

A Yes.
MR. GABER: I believe I have no further questions for the witness. Is this in evidence?

THE COURT: It's in.
Will there be any cross examination?
MS. HERNANDEZ: Yes, Your Honor.
```

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber)
e-mail, so I'm only going to ask you to look at page two of two.
Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
A Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending
June 30, }2017
Q This contains similar language in the second full paragraph as to the last letter I read.
MR. GABER: The -- first, I'd ask this be moved into evidence -- admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Quick learner. Yes, granted. It's in evidence over an objection.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Just the second page?
THE COURT: Yes, just the second page.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiffs Exhibit Number 3280 in evidence.)
Q And so this is -- I believe this is the same language as in the previous letter we read; is that correct? Same or substantially the same?
A It seems so, yes.
Q And would the City and/or Department of Parks and Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and accurate?
A Yes.
Q I'd like to hand the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit }328 for identification.

```
D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber)

THE COURT: I look forward to it.
You know, before you start I have a few quick questions. I won't disturb your situation.

You described the property before it became a golf course as landfill; correct?

THE WITNESS: Correct.
THE COURT: And can you in one or two sentences describe what material was there? What was the fill?

THE WITNESS: Municipal waste, people's garbage. THE COURT: Yes. It was what we would call a garbage dump as I remember it from many, many years ago, which might have made turning it into a golf course difficult if it was just grass or sod or something. Anyway, okay. Cross examination. Let's begin. MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, for the record, my name is Jennifer Hernandez on behalf of the various corporate defendants, our first time officially meeting.

THE COURT: Welcome to Room 300. MS. HERNANDEZ: Thank you.

\section*{CROSS EXAMINATION}

BY MS. HERNANDEZ:
Q So Mr. Cerron, you were not involved in the award process to Trump Ferry Point LLC for the Ferry Point property?

A Correct.
25 Q And you only later became involved in the 1 which is already in evidence.

2 Q And this is the license agreement between Trump Ferry Point LLC and the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation; correct?
A Correct.
Q And it's for the operation management and maintenance of an "18 hole Jack Nicklaus signature golf course, lighted driving range and ancillary facilities and the design construction operation management and maintenance of a permanent clubhouse at Ferry Point Park;" correct?
A Correct.
Q And we're going to go to page 52 of the License Agreement. 52, sorry, right. Thank you.

This is the capital improvements portion of the License Agreement; correct?
A Correct.
Q And here it says: "Licensee shall during the term at its sole cost and expense perform and complete all costs to be performed and completed the capital improvements described conceptually on the schedule capital improvements annexed to" -"annexed hereto as Exhibit F."

And if we move forward a little bit, "licensee shall spend or cause to be expended capital improvements costs of at least ten million dollars;" correct?

A Yes.
D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hemandez)

Page 2823
Q And so under this section the licensee is Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct?
A Correct.
Q And the most relevant element of the required capital improvement was the clubhouse; correct?
A Correct.
Q And so Trump Ferry Point LLC agreed to spend at least \($ 10\) million to construct the clubhouse and any other capital improvements; correct?

A Correct.
Q And did Trump Ferry Point spend at least \($ 10\) million on those capital improvements?
A Yes.
Q In fact, Trump Ferry Point LLC spent more than \($ 10\) million on the capital improvements; correct?
A Yes.
Q And so we're going to go to page 319 of this exhibit now and so this is Exhibit 5, the Guaranty Agreement; correct?

MR. GABER: Objection. I believe it's Exhibit V just for clarity of the record.

MS. HERNANDEZ: Sorry?
MR. GABER: I believe it's not Roman V. I believe it's Exhibit V. MS. HERNANDEZ: So that's news to me.
Q So Exhibit V is the Guaranty Agreement?

A Correct.
Q And so this is --
MS. HERNANDEZ: Can we go to the next page, Nate?
Q This is a Guaranty Agreement between Donald J. Trump and the city; correct?

A Correct.
Q And at the end of the page, it says "guaranteed obligations;" correct?
A Are you referring to --
Q B?
A Correct.
Q And so \(B\) is guaranteed obligations. Are the obligations under the License Agreement that Donald J. Trump guaranteed; correct?

A Can you repeat that, please?
Q These guaranteed obligations are the obligations that Donald J. Trump guaranteed under the License Agreement; correct?
A Correct.
Q And so if it's not under this list, under \(V\), he didn't guarantee it; correct?

A I believe so. I'd have to take a look at the whole document, but I believe so, yes.

Q We're going to run through some of it now.
So here in romanette \(i\), President Trump guaranteed the payments of all due and unpaid license fees to the city;
. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez)
Page 2825
correct?
A Correct.
Q And those yearly license fees were usually in the neighborhood of approximately \($ 300,000\) a year; correct?

A That's correct with the caveat that the first -- if memory serves, the first five years there were no license fees due.

Q Understood. And were there any unpaid license fees for Trump Ferry Point LLC?

A No, there were not.
Q So the guaranty was never invoked for payment of any license fees; correct?

A Correct.
Q And so we're going to move down to romanette ii now and so under Section 2, President Trump guaranteed any unpaid deposits to the capital reserve fund less any credit Trump Ferry Point was entitled to; correct?

A Correct.
Q And were there ever any unpaid deposits under the license agreement?

A No, there were not. Again, just with the caveat as we had discussed during the deposition that there was a credit related to --

Q Correct, which we're going to get to. Thank you.
So the guarantee was never invoked under this section;

\section*{1 \\ AFTERNOON SESSION}

THE OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable Arthur Engoron presiding. Now, please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Let's hear from the defense about Friday's schedule.

MR. KISE: About what?
THE COURT: Friday's schedule.
MR. KISE: Oh, Friday's schedule. I think we reached an agreement on the 8th, doing Ms. Trump's testimony on the 8th. She's going to move her trip around. That way if we start, we can finish that day and if we don't -- and if we don't finish that day, we will have the night to rollover.

\section*{THE COURT: Okay.}

MR. KISE: I think at least with Mr. Wallace -- I haven't spoken --

MR. AMER: That's fine with us, but I thought the Court was inquiring whether the 3rd was possible if we did a full day rather than a half day.

THE COURT: That was the original idea.
MR. KISE: Well, for the logistical reasons and otherwise I pointed out at least from my end, our end, the 3rd represents a challenge so -- and I don't know that Donald Trump Jr. is finished. Now, that may be Thursday, but it may also be Wednesday afternoon. I think we don't want to have dead time --

THE COURT: Dead time.
MR. KISE: That seems awfully optimistic. I know they've been eternally optimistic. We never have met those expectations.

MR. AMER: I'm putting the marker down because I don't want to hear that we weren't on notice that he could go as early as Wednesday afternoon. I don't know --

MR. KISE: Oh, that. I don't think that's an issue.

THE COURT: Well --
MR. KISE: Without Mr. Robert being here, I can't represent anything, but I don't -- I don't know. I don't anticipate that's going to be that big of an issue.

THE COURT: Well, will Eric be here on Wednesday?
MR. KISE: As far as I know, he will. But again, I'm not representing anything without Mr. Robert here.

MR. AMER: Mr. Farina is here. We have somebody who is representing Eric Trump here. I just -- I mean, my understanding is that we start Donald Trump, Jr. Wednesday morning. I don't think we have a full day with him. I think he could be shorter than a full day, so I think in order to not waste time, Eric Trump should be available to we'll get to her. I know we all have these lofty plans when we start early in the week to get through witnesses, but I'm not entirely sure we'll get through the expert, Don, Jr. and Eric by Friday in any event.

MS. HABBA: I just talked to them about the schedule. We were just going back and forth. I don't know about the 3rd. I'm not Bennet Moskowitz. That's her attorney. But I know the way the schedule would work now, we have Don Wednesday, Eric Trump --

THE COURT: Thursday.
MS. HABBA: -- Thursday. I think they're representing Eric might be longer than Don. If we have Donald Trump on Monday, then at least there's a day off and a clean break that we have. Ivanka goes into the next day. She is here and can do two full days and then they rest.

THE COURT: Do we know who's going to cross-examine Ivanka?

MS. HABBA: I don't.
MR. KISE: I don't know that's been decided that we will, but I'm sure -- without Mr. Robert here, I don't want to say anything at all about that decision because I haven't spoken to him about that.

THE COURT: Mr. --
MR. AMER: I wanted to mention one thing, so we are clear. My understanding is Eric Trump will testify when start whenever we finish Donald Trump, Jr.
MR. KISE: Well, we'll have an answer for you by tonight or tomorrow morning, well in advance of Wednesday. I just don't want to give you an answer that I can't give you only to have to retreat from.

THE COURT: I think we are all okay with Ivanka on the 8th, Wednesday. What will we do Friday? What can we accomplish?

MR. KISE: My questions is we're going to be - it is an educated guess after what we've been through that we will need Friday to finish the witnesses that are already on deck. I'm pretty sure. Nothing ever goes according to plan.

THE COURT: S-N-A-F-U I think they call that.
MR. AMER: I don't disagree. We don't have any witness between Eric Trump and Donald Trump. So whenever we finish Eric Trump, I think we're not going to have anything else to put on until Donald Trump goes the following Monday, which is the only day he's available as I understand it.

THE COURT: So we'll leave Friday as a big question mark and we will all agree Ivanka Wednesday, the 8th and possibly Thursday?

MR. KISE: Yes, Your Honor, that's fine.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness back.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

8 & A & Yes. \\
9 & Q & Who did you speak to from the Attorney General's \\

D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ)1 Q So what did you speak to about Mr. Gaber more specifically about your testimony?

A Predominantly, it was a review of many of the documents that we've seen here today and kind of generally on questions that I may be asked -- Q So he --
7 A -- by him.
8 Q So he walked you through the direct examination that you all did earlier today, correct?

A We went through some of those documents, yes. I mean, not exactly, but yes.

Q Was there anyone else there other than Mr. Gaber?
A I believe there was another gentleman, but I don't remember his name.

Q And is that the only instance that you spoke to anyone from the Attorney General's office since your deposition?
A Yes.
Q You testified --
A Just if I could correct.
Q Go ahead.
A We did text this morning just to let them know that I was here, procedural stuff, nothing of materiality.
Q Got it. So you testified on direct examination that Ferry Point was a tough one to accomplish, correct?

A Correct.

Q But Trump Ferry Point, LLC did accomplish the goals of the contract, correct?
A In which respect?
Q The clubhouse was built, correct?
A The clubhouse was built, correct.
Q The golf course was maintained, correct?
7 A And the golf course was maintained, correct.
8 Q And the grass was grown in correctly, correct?
9 A The grass was grown in correctly, that's correct.
10 Q Mr. Trump put more money in the property than was required under the contract, correct?

A To the best of my recollection, the capital commitment exceeded the obligated amount, that's right.

Q And Trump Ferry Point, LLC met all of their obligations, all of its obligations under the contract, correct?
A With regard to the items that we discussed. I don't want to give a blanket, correct, to a pretty sizable document, but with regard to the capital, with regard to the grow-in, with regard to the clubhouse, those were all obligations that were met, yes.

Q Are you aware of any obligation that was not met by Trump Ferry Point, LLC as you sit here today?
A There's not a firm capital obligation that comes to mind that was not met.

THE COURT: Can you just hit your microphone again.

\section*{We'll call the tech guy.}

MS. HERNANDEZ: It says it is on. It's in and out.
THE COURT: Some drunk who's losing consciousness is becoming conscious.

MS. HERNANDEZ: I'll try to project either way.
Q We are going to pull up PX 1331 which is already in evidence. This is Trump's response to request for offers, correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q And you testified on direct examination that you believe this letter was relied on by -- sorry. Go to page seven before I ask this question.

You testified on direct examination that you believe this letter was relied on by Parks, correct?

A Correct.
Q But you weren't involved in the award process, correct?
A Correct.
Q And so you don't know for certain what was relied on by Parks during the award process, correct?

A I was -- I was not on -- I was not on the selection committee, so to the extent that that is the definitive marker of whether I know something or I don't and how they made that determination, you know, I would agree, but I think when we're talking about this process that -- of awarding concessions that I've been involved in for over a decade and I look at the requests for recommendation for award, and it cites the content of this letter. In knowing that process, I do believe that this was part of that determination for, you know -- to help them feel comfortable with financial capability.

MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move to strike that answer as non-responsive. It was a yes or no whether he is aware for certain what was relied on in the award.

THE COURT: Well, off the record.
(Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)
THE COURT: I'll ask for a readback and I believe that counselor is correct that part of the answer was non-responsive.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

THE COURT: Can you answer that yes or no?

\section*{A Correct.}

MS. HERNANDEZ: So we are going to now pull up PX 3258 which is already in evidence.

THE COURT: And the earlier answer is stricken because some of it was non-responsive.

MR. GABER: I believe Mr. Cerron on direct testified as to the basis for his understanding as to what was and wasn't relied on.

THE COURT: He did, but --

\section*{D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) Page 2843}

MR. GABER: He laid a foundation that I think allows this to be considered responsive.

THE COURT: You can re-direct him if you want.
Q So can we go to page two. So this was admitted. Page two of this document was admitted earlier today and I want to point your attention to the third paragraph there. "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And are you aware of any instance where the city requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point contract?
A Can you repeat that question, please.
Q Sure. Are you aware of any instance where the city requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point contract?
A So this is not a yes or a no. It's the last part of that question is a little bit confusing, so I'm sorry if I'm not able to answer this on the first -- on the first try. But with connection with the maintenance of the course, there was -- there's an annual income statement that's submitted by the concessionaire at the end of each -- at the end of each operating year, which we would review. And that would have information on the costs related to the maintenance of the golf course and it would also have the revenues that would either support that cost or which would not and they might be at a loss or gain depending on how things shook out, but we would not have requested it -- we did not request, you know, certified financial statements, but it would not have been related to maintenance because the maintenance is something we would have seen in the financial statements that they would have sent us purely related just to the course, not to any other business dealings.

Q What you're describing is financial statements from Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

A Correct.
Q So did you ever receive President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition during the maintenance?

A No. During the term of the license or related to maintenance, no.

Q And did anyone from Parks ever request the Statement of Financial Condition?
A Not that I'm aware of.
Q And so when you reviewed these "No MAC" letters, you did not review them to determine whether President Trump had the financial capability to perform the contract, correct?

A Correct.
\(1 \quad \mathbf{Q}\) The determination of whether someone has the financial capability to perform under the contract is largely made during the award process, correct?
A Correct.
5 Q And your interest in reviewing the "No MAC" letters is 6 making sure that all of the obligations under the contract are 7 being completed, correct?
A Our interest in reviewing the "No MAC" letters is simply just to confirm that what was is what is. So I think 10 that's correct.

Q He was required to submit it and he submitted it, correct?
A Correct.
Q And at the time of this letter, it is dated April 22, 2017, correct?

A Correct.
Q At the time of this letter, there was a rent credit in favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

A Correct. And my apologies. I think at this point, there might have not -- there might have been before the rent kicked in.

Q You're not sure?
A If it was '15, '16, '17, this would have been before rent was due because the first five years of the license, there was no rent.

1 Q So when you were reviewing this letter, there was no rent due under the license agreement?

\section*{A Correct.}

Q And as you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars, LLP, correct?
A Other than, you know, this -- I think the -- some of basis for this trial, but no, I am not aware of, you know, if there's been -- if it's been revised or anything else.

MS. HERNANDEZ: So we're going to move to PX 3280 which is also in evidence. Can you go to the second page, Nate. Only the second page is in evidence.
Q So this is another "No MAC" letter, correct?
A Correct.
Q And this one is dated April 5, 2018, correct?
A Correct.
Q And so highlighting that third paragraph, it says, "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017," correct?
A Correct.
Q At the time of this letter, so April 5, 2018, was there a rent credit in favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC?

A I believe so, yes.
Q And so the rent credit basically means that the city

\section*{D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ) \\ Page 2847}
owed Trump money under the contract, correct?
A It meant that he had a rent credit. I defer to our attorneys if somehow the license was terminated, whether the city owed money or not, but it meant that the concessionaire had a rent credit.

\section*{Q A rent credit because he --}

A Because related to the grow-in, so there was -- once after the five years - once the license fees were billed, they were billed against a credit of several million dollars that he had, so we would just be drawing down on that credit month over month.

Q Because Trump Ferry Point, LLC and President Trump spent more than what was required under the contract, correct?

A For the grow-in, correct. Right.
Q As you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars, correct?

A Correct.
Q So we are going to move to PX 3281 which is already in evidence. And so the second paragraph in this one says, "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition including notes and narratives included therewith as of June 30, 2020," correct?
A Correct.
25 Q And at the time of this letter --

MS. HERNANDEZ: If you can scroll up a little, Nate.
Q This is dated February 26, 2021, correct?
A Correct.
Q And at the time of this letter, the rent credit that we've been discussing was already in place, correct?
A Correct.
Q And so as you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars, correct?
A I think as I mentioned, I'm not aware of them except for my understanding is part of the basis of this trial is that these were not -- these were not accurate. So I have not received a letter saying, "Here is a revised statement" or "Here is what the numbers should be." So when I say correct, I'm not aware of it. That's because nothing's been brought to me, but it is something that obviously seems like an outstanding question.

MS. HERNANDEZ: I would move to strike that as non-responsive. It is just whether he is aware of it or not.

THE COURT: I understand where both of you are coming from. Why don't we do this. Can I deem the question withdrawn and you will ask it more precisely if you think you can.

Page 2849

MS. HERNANDEZ: I can try.
Q So as you sit here today, aside from any allegations in this case, are you aware of any actual false statements in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars?
A I haven't received a correction letter. I have not received anything from Mazars to say that this is -- this is being -- this is being -- these numbers are being corrected. I just -- I feel uncomfortable saying like there's nothing inaccurate here even if I don't know precisely what it is. I'm just not in a position to have the knowledge to know, precisely know what it is and that's part of why I think there is this trial. So I wish I could be more helpful to just in general to anyone in answering that question, but I don't want to represent that my understanding is that there are no misstatements here because I'm just not -- I'm just not sure at this point what the facts are.

MS. HERNANDEZ: Your Honor, could I move to strike that answer as well?

THE COURT: Granted. If you listen to the question, we'll get a --

MR. GABER: If we're talking about any of the other allegations in this trial, then the question is no longer relevant.

THE COURT: Disagree.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Im asking what Mr. Cerron is aware 12

THE COURT: Well -- but it is a lot more limited than that.

MS. HERNANDEZ: Correct. Correct.
Q What you are actually aware of? Are you actually aware of any false statements that are in this "No MAC" letter issued by Mazars in 2021?
A I am not aware of any other statements regarding this financial -- these financial documents during this time period.

MR. HERNANDEZ: Okay. Thank you. We can take that down now.
Q So you are familiar with the assignment of the concession for the Ferry Point property from Trump Ferry Point, LLC to Bally's, correct?

A Correct.
Q You were involved in working with counsel's office on that deal, correct?
A I worked with our -- with the agency's general counsel.
Q So you were involved in that deal, correct?
A Yes.
Q And Bally's paid Trump Ferry Point, LLC approximately judicial notice of it, then I have no further questions.
THE COURT: Okay. Any re-direct?
MR. GABER: No, Judge. Thank you.
THE COURT: Okay. We are all finished with this witness, I assume.

Thank you, witness. You're excused.
(Witness excused.)
D. CERRON - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERNANDEZ)

```

    as PX 1501.
    ```

MS. HERNANDEZ: The native, Nate, please.
Q So I'm going to represent to you that this is the 2021 supporting data for the Statement of Financial Condition. And I'm going to direct your attention to Row 575 of the supporting data. Do you see there where it says, "Trump Golf Links Ferry Point"?

A I do.
MR. GABER: I'm going to object to foundation here.
The witness -- the witness is incompetent to testify on an internal valuation document from the Trump Organization.

THE COURT: The question was simply did he see -- does he see it. So objection overruled without prejudice to see where it goes.
MR. GABER: Okay.
MS. HERNANDEZ: And on Row 584, you could highlight that, Nate.
\(Q\) You see the value in 2021 is \($ 22,548,589\) ?
A Ido.
\(Q\) And the \($ 22,548,589\) is significantly less than the \($ 60\) million that you just testified Bally's paid Trump Ferry Point LLC for the assignment of the concession, correct?
THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice that the \($ 22\) million is less than the \($ 60\) million.
MS. HERNANDEZ: Okay. If Your Honor will take

THE COURT: Am I correct that the next witness we are going to hear from via recorded -- video recorded testimony?

MR. AMER: That's right, Your Honor. I think we clocked the video at two hours and 16 minutes. I don't think with our afternoon break we're going to be able to play the entire video given our timing, but if we have to spill over until tomorrow morning, then we can just finish it then.

THE COURT: And why are we not hearing live testimony, which I'm on record as wanting -- valuing?

MR. AMER: We were in agreement that the witness is unavailable. She is not in New York, she doesn't work in New York and she is also in her -- knew she was going to be nine months pregnant around the time of the trial.

THE COURT: And defendants, there is no issue, I assume?

MR. KISE: No, not at this time, Your Honor, no. THE COURT: Okay. Let's play the movie.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings while the video recorded testimony is played in open court.)

THE COURT: Okay. We're going to take a ten-minute break, so I'll see you back here in 15 minutes.

MS. GREENFIELD: Just Counselors for the AG, I know that the exhibits for this deposition were marked as

1 deposition exhibits. Would it be possible to get a list of have Mr. Cornwell is next followed by Mr. Orowitz followed by Mr. McCarty.

Page 2855
THE COURT: And we going to finish all of them? MR. AMER: I don't know.
THE COURT: That's a lot more than we've ever done in a day.

MR. AMER: My understanding is there will be cross examination of Mr. Cornwell. I don't believe there is cross examination of Mr. Orowitz; is that right?

MS. HERNANDEZ: That's my understanding as well.
MR. AMER: And there certainly will be cross examination of Mr. McCarty, who is our banking expert although, I will say his examination is going to be shorter than it otherwise would have been but for the summary judgment ruling, so we're obviously taking that into account in terms of what is now relevant for him to testify to.

MS. GREENFIELD: Assuming we don't finish all of these witnesses tomorrow, are they available to resume Friday since that morning is now available? You don't have to answer right now, but if you can find out.

MR. AMER: Yes. I mean, I think the idea was to have them finish and have Donald Trump, Jr. start when Mr. McCarty is finished.

MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. So it could be Donald Trump, Jr., would start later in the day on Wednesday?

MR. AMER: It could be.

THE COURT: Okay. That's it. Ten o'clock tomorrow. See you all.

Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to October 30, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Arthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order. \\
THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Last night, defendants filed a motion in liminae to preclude the plaintiff's expert, Michiel McCarty, from testifying. Defendants first assert, despite repeated rejection from this Court and the First Department, that disgorgement of profits are not available as a remedy in a "purely Executive Law Section 63 (12) case." \\
For reasons this Court has explained ad naseum, that is simply incorrect, and this Court will not belabor the point here. Disgorgement is clearly an available remedy under Executive Law 63 (12) case. \\ Defendants next assert that the expert testimony seeks to rely on facts not supported by the record, and that the expert will rely on cherry-picked facts from the Attorney General's office. For example, defendants assert that "the Attorney General certainly could have asked Mr. Haigh whether additional information would have, in fact, altered the loan approvals and/or the pricing. But now, after avoiding what is no doubt unfavorable testimony from those directly responsible for approving the loans and determining the terms and pricing, she seeks to fill the factual void in her case with 'expert' testimony amounting to no more than speculation as to what 'might' have happened." \\

First, obviously plaintiff has free reign to build the record it believe supports its case, as defendants are free to do the same. To that end, defendants' argument that the Attorney General should have asked Mr. Haigh other questions is as a non-starter, as defendants were free to ask Mr. Haigh those questions on cross-examination. The plaintiff is not obligated to ask questions that inure to the defendants' benefit. \\
Second, contrary to defendant's assertion, the proffered expert testimony relies upon facts that are in the record, not mere speculation. Several witnesses have testified that they would have acted differently had they known that the Statements of Financial Condition were fraudulent. \\
Further, to the extent that the defendants wish to cross-examine Mr. McCarty about other facts that they believe are in the record, they may do so. Moreover, the proffered expert testimony is not subjective. It is based on four decades of banking expertise, an evaluation of Deutsche Bank's contemporaneous internal communications and
\end{tabular} \\

\end{tabular}

1 documents, and research into available public sources. If

2 the Court, as the trier of fact, does not find the expert testimony reliable or credible, it may choose to disregard it.

Furthermore, as plaintiff has pointed out, when employing the equitable remedy of disgorgement of profits, precision is not required. As the Second Circuit held in Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. Fowler, 6 F. 4th 255, 267 (2d Cir 2021), "In general, the amount of disgorgement ordered need only be a reasonable approximation of profits causally connected to the violation. If the disgorgement amount is generally reasonable, any risk of uncertainty about the amount falls on the wrongdoer whose illegal conduct created that uncertainty."

Finally, to the extent defendants assert that McCarty's expert testimony should be precluded because it is beyond the scope of the statute of limitations, as has been explained many times, the statute of limitations bars claims, not evidence. Where, as here, disgorgement of profits is an available remedy, the Court may, depending upon the circumstances, be permitted to look at any "ill-gotten gains" for the entire life of the loan, so long as the final damages award is appropriately prorated to include only such ill-gotten gains that occurred within the statute of limitations.

And this is all done this morning, by the way. There may be some meaty issues to look into, but this is my current understanding. The motion to preclude is denied and if defendants want to put their objections on the record, they may do so now.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. I'll be brief, but I think I want to at least point out a few things that Your Honor mentioned. First of all, I think you know this, but I just want to make it clear on the record. The issue about disgorgement not being available was not our first argument. It is just simply for not to belabor the point and that's why it is in the footnote.

THE COURT: I appreciate that.
MR. KISE: The fundamental difference here, I guess the disconnect is there's no establishment in the record that the gains are ill-gotten. That's really the issue here. They haven't established that they're ill-gotten. They haven't established that something would have actually been different and that's a very different thing than the SEC case and the other cases they cite. Those cases are traditional fraud cases and materiality and reliance and all of that has been established and so that's what's not been established here.

The purpose of 63 (12) is essentially two-fold. It's one, to stop conduct that the Attorney General - give the Attorney General the ability to stop conduct that she thinks may be harming the public. None of that conduct has actually harmed the public or not. That's why in the first instance, to stop the conduct, there doesn't have to be any demonstration that someone has actually been hurt yet.

So using our example, if the Attorney General thinks that someone is using a financial statement in a way that could theoretically harm someone, then she goes to court and says, "You're using a financial statement in a way that could theoretically harm someone." "There is a false or misleading statement, you know, something false or misleading contained in the financial statement. Something's in there and you shouldn't be doing that."

Now, as you know, we disagree with whether or not it is false or misleading, but setting that aside, that's one aspect of the statute. That's one reason it exists, is to stop someone, so the court can issue an order saying stop issuing those false and misleading financial statements. You defendants, stop doing that. That's a very separate issue, though, from the other piece which -- and again, I'm not belaboring this point, but restitution, which we think is allowable under the statute, disgorgement, accepting Your Honor's views at this point without waiving our position, but in order to get there, you have to now establish that something actually took place and the restitution in disgorgement, you can't just assume theoretically that something is ill-gotten in the disgorgement context.

You can't assume in the restitution context that someone has lost money based on the conduct. You have to actually establish that and that's the part that the Attorney General is skipping over. This ill-gotten concept that their whole case is premised on, the fact that the defendants secured more favorable loan and insurance terms and then retained those terms with each statement, with each submission of the statement ongoing, but that premise assumes something that hasn't been proven.

That's the whole purpose of bringing Mr. McCarty in here. They are assuming that the defendants received something. They secured more favorable loan or insurance terms that they wouldn't have otherwise received. There's just no evidence in the record. And the point about Mr. Haigh's testimony is not to say, well, they could have asked this question or they could have asked that. The point is to demonstrate that Mr. Haigh's testimony is squarely counter to their position in the case.

Mr. Haigh never said that something would have actually been different. Mr. Haigh never said because they didn't ask him, no, these loans would not have been issued. So they have -- without that testimony, they haven't established that the loan wouldn't have been issued anyway.

1 And if the loan would have been issued anyway, there is no 2 ill-gotten gain. It's not possible to have. The bank's 3 role is to make the decision and as Mr. Haigh testified, 4 there's myriad factors. There's multiple, multiple factors. 5 So the bank's role is to make the decision.

\section*{PROCEEDINGS}

the banks determine the pricing for loans. That's what happens in the real world.

The Attorney General can postulate, anyone can postulate that something might be different; but unless the bank says it would have been different, meaning that they would have decided something differently, an expert can't come in and now introduce his or her own opinion as to what he or she might have done under the circumstances because there's no room for that sort of -- it renders the statute at that point limitless and I would say respectfully unconstitutional as vague.

There's no way -- there's no way parameters around what conduct it is that's required. So the Attorney General is not allowed at this phase to simply presume and have the Court presume that the Statements of Financial Condition here were relied on, that that was -- and that was material and that that reliance and that materiality then made a difference in the loans. Because again, there's nothing ill-gotten if they haven't proven that anything would have been any different.

That's not a counterfactual world. That's the real world. That's how -- that's how loan transactions works. That's how the capital markets work and what the Attorney General wants to do now is say forget about what the real world thinks, forget about what the bank actually decided on its own, forget about all this criteria. I mean, Mr. Haigh talked about both on direct, and I won't put it in here, it is in our papers, both on direct and on cross that the approvals terms and pricing were based on multiple factors, innumerable factors. They are all in the credit memos.

\section*{PROCEEDINGS}

He also testified that the relevant approvals year after year after year were based on their own internal analysis. That's not testimony that the Attorney General is free to simply ignore. There has to be something in the record that establishes that something would have been different here because if you don't establish that there was real harm, any real world impact, you can't have an expert come in and say, "Okay. Well, now here is the document."

What the expert is testifying to is a penalty. The expert is now testifying as to a penalty. We think -- the AG says, "We think the conduct of using these financial statements was wrong. We don't care whether anything would have been different factually. We don't care whether the banks would have done something differently. We think it is wrong and here is what we think the ill-gotten gains are."

That's -- it's beyond counterintuitive to contend that what the bank actually thinks and what the bank actually did is irrelevant and immaterial to the analysis. So to allow this testimony and to allow this theory, frankly, to advance is to substitute a decade later, post-closing of the loan transactions the Attorney General's opinion or her expert's opinion, in this case, for what the bank might or might not have done.

I just want to put on the record briefly the cases -- the case law on this is very straightforward and again, the case law that the Attorney General cites, the SEC cases and the one Your Honor cited, those are traditional -- that's where there has been an establishment that there was reliance and materiality and things would have, in fact, been different.

There, the issue is we can't get precise, but the Gathers case, 242 AD2d 506, a First Department case, reversed admission of expert testimony because the expert reached his conclusion by assuming material facts not supported by the evidence. That's exactly what Mr. McCarty is going to do here. He is going to assume that the gains are ill-gotten.

They're skipping over the part where they have to establish that the gains are ill-gotten, meaning that the loans would not have been issued in the first place or that the terms would have been different. There's nothing for him to testify on otherwise and an expert is not entitled to just flatly contradict the record evidence. They can't substitute their opinion for what actually is in the record.

The other case that I'll cite in addition to the 1 ones that are in there in the brief is the Ortiz case, 19 2 AD3d 239, another First Department case. There, the issue is whether or not an accident reconstructionist could come in and reconstruct the accident in a way different than the two eyewitnesses that actually testified to.

And so again, that's what McCarty is going to do here. He's going to come in and reconstruct the financial analysis irrespective of what the bank would have done, and that's just plainly impermissible because the gains are not ill-gotten until you prove that something would have been different. There's no basis for restitution or, as the Court is saying, disgorgement. There's no basis in the law.

THE COURT: Those are very different --
MR. KISE: I understand that, but both of them hinge on the same underlying premise, though. They are -- the proof is different, but they center around the same underlying premise that something happened that shouldn't have taken place in the first place, that there's already been proof that the gains were ill-gotten. There's already been proof that someone was deprived of something that they shouldn't have. There's already been proof in the case of restitution that someone paid something that they shouldn't have paid and they're entitled to get that money back.

Here, the Attorney General wants to skip over all of that without any introduction in the record about whether or not the gains themselves are ill-gotten. So experts come in to analyze, evaluate, explain facts that are in the record. They don't substitute their own facts for what's in the record. They opine on the factual predicate as it exists in the case. They don't supply the factual predicate.

So here, what Mr. McCarty is doing, what the Attorney General wants Mr. McCarty to do and is asking this Court to accept, to substitute a factual predicate, to have the Court presume, which he's doing, that the gains are, in fact, ill-gotten before that's ever been established anywhere in the record. And so it's one thing for the Court to say as it has, again reserving our objection, that these statements are false, stop doing them, stop. I'm going to tell you not to do that in the future, and here is the things I'm going to do to keep you from doing it in the future.

All of that is step one, but before any dollars and cents can be computed under any theory, there has to be some showing that the gains were ill-gotten. The Attorney General is not simply allowed to substitute her own judgment for that of the bank and using an expert to do that doesn't make it any more proper than it would have in the abstract.

Then I'll make just a final comment on what Your

\section*{PROCEEDINGS}

Page 2871

Honor said at the end about the pre- versus post-statute of limitations period. To the extent that this Court is, in fact, going to pro rate, meaning look at the arguments that we've made --

THE COURT: Subject to some further research on this, of course.

MR. KISE: -- then we can be heard on that later, but yes, I mean, if you want to hear evidence as you've been doing. I mean we object to it, but that's a very different ruling than saying, okay, not only am I going to listen to it, but I'm actually going to come up with a number based on dollars and cents that took place prior to in this instance July 13, 2014.

Our position is, as it must be, that anything that happened with respect to the loan approval or the pricing and terms was set as of the date of the closing. So those subsequent submissions could not possibly have altered that. They would not have changed the pricing decision that was made in 2011, 2012, 2013. They wouldn't have changed those pricing decisions, so there's no -- there's no basis to then assume, again, that there's ill-gotten gain because the subsequent submission of the certification has nothing to do with the initial pricing. That's all wrapped up in the loan agreement.

So there isn't any monetary calculus to be made with respect to the subsequent certifications. This is -- this goes back to our whole position as to why the subsequent certifications are not false statements in the first place. We're not going to go there today, but because there's no -- it is not connected to any activity, it is not connected to any claim, it is just out there in the abstract.

So for these reasons, Your Honor, most notably that there hasn't been any proof that anything is ill-gotten and that the Attorney General is not allowed to skip over that, we think the admission of Mr. McCarty's opinion is purely speculative and hypothetical. Thank you.

THE COURT: Question for Mr. Robert. Did your colleague start out by saying he would be brief?

MR. ROBERT: It is all relevant, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I would say relative to the Lincoln-Douglas debates of the 1850s in Illinois, which went on for four hours or something. They would talk for two hours and the other guy would talk for two hours.

MR. KISE: I think I kept it under seven pages.
Mr. Amer set the bar yesterday.
MR. AMER: I don't think you did. We clocked it at 15 minutes.

THE COURT: I'll be brief. First of all, I apologize for mispronouncing Haigh's name right. It was

1 Haigh, not Haigh. I think to a certain extent the defendants are whistling past the graveyard here.
they -- they think that all of these financial statements, the people, the employees submit numbers, McConney puts together a spreadsheet. It goes -- it gets reviewed. It goes to Mazars to put together a compilation or they compile these data. They send it to the banks. Nobody relies on them. It's -- I'm sorry. It is a fantasy world.

These things, obviously, are done for reasons and we've had testimony that says, yeah, we looked at that, we relied on that. I don't know whether Haigh ever said we would have done things differently. Of course, defendants could have asked him that. The videotaped testimony we are listening to, she said, "I wish I had known what I know now."

I will leave it at that. I don't want to get into the weeds here. In the motion papers that were filed last night and in what Mr. Kise just said this morning said there were many factors. Nobody is saying, and I'm certainly not saying, that the financial statements were the only factor, but they are a factor. To me, that's -- again, without getting too deep into proximate cause whether the financial statements were "false and misleading," I'11 let my 35-page decision and order of September 26th stand on its own.

I think they were clearly false and misleading is a little bit more subjective statement, but I think the statute covers false. I think -- I think there's also -- there may also be documentary evidence about the internal analysis by Deutsche Bank and maybe some of the other financial institutions about what their statements of finance conditions said. What were they looking at these things for without relying on them? So if the Attorney General wants to say something on the record, I stand by my decision; but for the record, do you agree with me or Mr. Kise?

MR. WALLACE: As to whether or not the defendants are whistling past the graveyard, 100 percent. There is a decision, Your Honor has highlighted it, saying that the statements are false and misleading, and that they were used in business to obtain these loans. I understand Mr. Kise's arguments. I expect to hear them again at closing. I expect to read them in his post-trial brief. I expect to see them if they challenge this decision to the First Department, but the question before us this morning is can an expert witness come in and tell you the difference between a commercial real estate loan price and a private wealth bank price. And the Court is free to say, "I think that's a fair measure of disgorgement" or "I'm going to find some other measure of disgorgement or "I don't think disgorgement is appropriate in this case," but this evidence that's going to come in today, if we have enough time, is \(I\), think, admissible and it is up to the Court to accord it whatever weight it decides when it is reaching its final decision.

THE COURT: Okay. Back to Tuesday morning at the movies. Is that what we are?

MR. AMER: Yes, Your Honor. We will continue playing the video of Ms. Mouradian. I believe we have just under 50 minutes left to the video and then we'll move in some exhibits.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's do it.
(Whereupon, the video was played.)

MR. AMER: Your Honor, we do have some exhibits to move in to evidence. First of all, because this wasn't being transcribed, we need to move into evidence the actual --

MR. AMER: And then we have Deposition Exhibit 1, which we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1540. We ask that that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERNANDEZ: No objection.
THE COURT: Granted.

worked for two years at the National Football League, '94 to '96. Post business school starting 1998 I was at Morgan Stanley for 17 years until 2015. 2015, I left Morgan Stanley for a firm called PJT Partners. I was there for eight years and for the last year I've run a private equity firm called Dynasty Equity.
Q And what is PJT Partners?
A It's an investment bank.
\(Q\) And where is that based?
A New York City.
Q And what was your role at PJT Partners?
A I was a partner doing MNA work around sports and gaming.
Q And after that you went to Dynasty Equity. What is Dynasty Equity?
A Dynasty Equity is an investment firm focused on sports.
Q What is your role at Dynasty Equity?
A Cofounder and CEO.
Q Focusing your time at Morgan Stanley, what titles or positions did you hold there?

A I started there in the summer of 1997 as a summer associate while in business school. 1998, I was an associate eventually getting promoted to managing director in 2007.

From 2007-2015, I was a managing director and certain times towards the last five years I was the global head of sports investment banking.

Q And what were your duties and responsibilities as an associate at Morgan Stanley?
A Hard work. I executed transactions. So in any given deal, you have a deal team. For the most part the associate did a lot of the analytics, a lot of putting together presentations and the like.
Q And how, if at all, did your responsibilities change upon becoming managing director in and around 2007?
A I actually progressed through you start to lead teams and be responsible for revenue generation and getting new clients.
Q And do -- you also mentioned the title "head of global sports investment banking?"
A Yes.
Q Did your responsibilities change with that title?
A No, same thing. I was just the lead investment banker on all sports deals.
Q Did there come a time when Morgan Stanley was tapped to assist the Wilson estate in selling the Buffalo Bills?
A Yes.
Q Who are the Buffalo Bills?
A They are a franchise in the National Football League.
Q How did Morgan Stanley become involved in the Buffalo Bills transaction?
A So the estate of Ralph Wilson was looking to sell the Comwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) team and as part of that process they needed to hire an investment bank. They invited several different firms to give a presentation about their credentials and Morgan Stanley was one of those participants.

Page 2884
Q What was Morgan Stanley's role in the transaction once it was picked by the Wilson estate?
A Yes, we led the transaction and assisted with the estate, the trustees, to help them find a buyer for the team.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Id like to hand up PX 980 to the witness for identification.
Q Do you recognize this document?
A I do.
Q What do you recognize it to be?
A This is an e-mail -- well, it's an e-mail thread, but the e-mail is from me to one of my colleagues discussing our first round bid letters in the Buffalo Bills process.
Q So you just referenced the bid letter. What do you mean by that?
A So this MNA process is one which is very common where we had two steps and what happens is you have interested buyers, people who indicated they'd like to learn more about the asset that you're selling. You've signed a non-disclosure agreement, you give them information, they provide you a bid, a first round bid based on information you've received. Then what happens is you review the bids and you take some or all of the folks who've

\(1 \quad\) Q And this letter is addressed to you at Morgan Stanley?
2 A That is correct.
\(3 \quad Q \quad\) And what is the date of this letter?
4 A July 29, 2014.
\(5 \quad\) Q What was your understanding of the purpose of this letter?

A This letter was to indicate that the Trump Organization would like to buy the Buffalo Bills for \($ 1\) billion.

Q And turning to the second paragraph of the letter, the letter states: "I have a net worth in excess of \($ 8\) billion (financial statements to be provided upon request)."

Does -- was that representation considered by Morgan Stanley in the bidding process?
A It was, although we also received another letter that was very important. In our bid instructions we ask people to provide us proof of funds.
Q Did Morgan Stanley ever request financial statements from Donald Trump?
A Yes.
Q I would like to direct your attention to the third paragraph on the bottom, the next page, page nine. It says, "Please feel free to call Rosemary Vrablic, managing director of Deutsche Bank's private wealth management; Mr. Allen Weisselberg, chief financial officer of the Trump Organization; or me directly if you have any questions about this bid."
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein)

Page 2887

Do you ever recall speaking with Rosemary Vrablic regarding this bid?
A I don't recall.
Q Do you recall ever speaking with Allen Weisselberg regarding this bid?
A I don't recall.
Q Do you recall ever speaking with Donald J. Trump regarding this bid?
A Yes.
Q What do you recall about that?
A Not much.
Q So I would like to now turn to page 20 of the exhibit.
So you had mentioned earlier that there was a second letter. Does this appear to be that letter?
A Yes, it does.
Q What do you recognize this letter to be?
A This was a letter we got from Deutsche Bank indicating something about Donald Trump's net worth.
Q And was it your understanding that Deutsche Bank provided this letter to you at the behest of Donald Trump?
A Yes.
Q And in the third paragraph the letter reads:
"Our understanding is that Mr. Donald J. Trump has made or intends to make a bid for the Buffalo Bills in the amount of \($ 1\) billion in the aggregate. Based upon our preliminary review of the current financial information of Mr. Donald J. Trump made available to us, including liquidity and asset value, it is our assessment that Mr. Donald J. Trump would have the financial wherewithal to fund his bid."

\section*{ornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein)}

Did you have any understanding of what financial information Mr. Trump made available to Deutsche Bank?

A I did not.
Q Was the representation I just read important to Morgan
Stanley in its role in managing the bidding process for the Buffalo Bills?
A Yes.
Q Why was it important?
A We asked for some proof of funds and at this stage of the process a letter from a credible, reputable bank sufficed.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I would like to move to admit PX 980 into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevance and statute of limitations.

\section*{D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein)}

Page 2890
cc'd. Do you see that?
A Yes, yes.
Q And who is Alex hill?
A Alex was a colleague of mine, somebody -- a member of my team at Morgan Stanley.

Q The e-mail says: "Alex, Jason Greenblatt and I just dropped off a packet with Margay at your office for Don. Can you please ensure he receives it and advise me so I can confirm to Mr. Trump its receipt? Thank you."

What is your understanding of what Michael Cohen meant when he said he dropped off the packet for Don?

A The bid package.
Q And the bid -- what did the bid package contain?
A I know it contained a letter, the two letters that we saw. I don't know if there is anything else.
Q So in the middle of page three, Alex Hill sends a message to Michael Cohen and to you saying "regarding management presentation dates, would you all be able to do August 6th in Detroit?" What is a management presentation as described in this e-mail?
A Sure. So as I talked about in the second part of the MNA process as part of diligence we would provide potential 23 bidders an opportunity to meet with the management team.
24 Typically, what happens in those meetings is the management team 25 presents the story of the asset. So in this case it was the

1 team CEO talking about the future of the Buffalo Bills and why it's such a great asset.

Q Did the Trump Organization in fact receive a management presentation?

A They did.
Q Were you present?
A I was.
Q Who from the Trump Organization do you recall attending?

A I know Donald Trump was there. I don't recall who else. He had people with him, but I don't recall those people were.
Q What, if anything, do you recall being discussed at the management presentation?

A We talked about the Buffalo Bills and lots of topics.
We talked about the USFL, we talked about lots of things, but it was sort of a wide-ranging conversation.

Q Do you recall whether Mr. Trump provided any documents to you at the presentation?

A He gave us handouts of the Forbes list of top paid entertainers.

Q On page two of the e-mail Alex hill writes a message to Jason Greenblatt and Michael Cohen with you cc'd that says: "One near term NFL item we would like you all to fill out and have Mr. Trump sign is the attached Authorization and Consent to Release Records." What is the Authorization and Consent to Release Records?

A So in order to purchase an NFL team you have to go through a very thorough financial review with the league office. As we progressed through the process we want to make sure that bidders are getting the appropriate paperwork into the league so they can begin that process because it does take sometime so that Authorization and Consent to Release Records is something we need from each perspective bidder so therefore the NFL can go and start doing their diligence.
\(Q\) So at the very first message in this document is a message from Michael Cohen that says "after some internal deliberation, we feel it is premature to sign the consent to release forms until such time as we know that Mr. Trump is the final bidder." Do you recall learning in or about August 2014 that the Trump Organization was refusing to sign the consent to release records?
A I do.
Q Did Morgan Stanley ever receive signed consent to release records forms?
A We did not.
Q After the management presentation that we just discussed did the bidding process continue?

A It did.
25 Q What happened next?
\begin{tabular}{|c|c|}

of directors, but in this case we were providing that fairness opinion to the trustees of Ralph Wilson's estate.
Q So on page five of this exhibit there is a slide titled "Evolution of Participants."
5 A That's a good title.
6 Q The slide states that nine parties gave initial indications. Was Donald Trump one of those nine parties?
8 A He was.
\(9 \quad Q \quad\) The slide states that five parties received management presentations. Was Donald Trump one of those five parties?

A He was.
Q The slide states that six parties gave final offers.
Was Donald Trump one of those parties?
A Don't recall the nature of his final offer.
Q But he is?
A Listed, yes.
Q Is Donald Trump's name listed?
A Yes, it is.
Q Do you have any reason to dispute that Donald Trump provided a final --

A No.
Q So going back to page four, the slide is titled "Summary of Key Transaction Terms." Do you see that?
A Ido.
25 Q Who is the purchaser of this bid on this page?

1 A Terry and Kim Pegula.
2 Q How much is the purchase price listed?
A \($ 1.4\) billion.
Q Did the Pegulas in fact purchase the Bills for \($ 1.4\) billion?

A Yes.
7 Q Does this -- do these attached fairness materials accurately summarize the terms of the transaction? A Yes.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3219 into evidence.

MR. FIELDS: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: What's the relevance of this? This particular page, let's say?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: So this page was just to summarize the final result of the transaction and the other page was to show that Donald Trump participated in all three stages of the bidding process, even though his bid did not turn out to be the final.

MR. FERIS: Your Honor, it's the defendants's position none of this is relevant to any cause of this case. We agree with Your Honor here. This is completely irrelevant.

THE COURT: I just asked the question. What's the relevance of the final bid? We know the successful bid.
D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein)

Page 2896

\section*{Attorney General?}

MR. FINKELSTEIN: I am offering it for clarification just to show the full story on the Bills' transaction. The amount of the bid is not necessarily relevant, just I was just trying to show that Donald Trump was not the ultimate buyer.

THE COURT: I'll let it in. There is no jury, doesn't really matter, but I understand you're completing the circle.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3219 in evidence.)

MR. FINKELSTEIN: That's all. And I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Okay. Any cross examination?
MR. FERIS: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Counselor, I don't believe we ever met.
MR. FERIS: My name is Ivan Feris, Your Honor.
Can you hear me, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Loud and clear.
MR. FERRIS: Awesome. As I was saying, my name is Ivan Feris, and I'm here on behalf of several of the corporate defendants in this matter.

THE COURT: Welcome.
MR. FERRIS: Thank you.

Q And you as a member of Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley as a bank had to participate in what is known as a bake off for the opportunity, right?
A Yes.
Q Okay. So this bake off, Morgan Stanley would gather a list of potential buyers and eventually make a pitch to the seller of the team, correct?

A No.
Q You told us here on your direct that you would gather potential buyers and that was Morgan Stanley's role, right?

A We did more than that, yes. We presented our credentials.

Q That was part of what you did, though, right, gather the list of buyers?

A Yes.
Q And other banks did the same thing?
A I don't know.
MR. FERIS: Can I pull up document D1001, please.
Q I'm showing you this document, Mr. Cornwell, to see if it refreshes your recollection. Right at the top, it says, "From Cornwell K. Don." That's you, right?
A Yes.
Q It says, "Three banks invited including us" in the second bullet point. Do you see that there?

A Yes.
And if it may please the Court, I would like to proceed.

THE COURT: Please do so.
DIRECT EXAMINATION
BY MR. FERIS:
Q Hello, Mr. Cornwell.
A How are you?
Q As you heard, my name is Ivan Feris. I'm going to ask you a series of yes-or-no questions and to the best of your ability, please try to answer them with yes or no, okay?

So, we just heard from you that President Trump was not the ultimate buyer of the Bills; correct?
A Yes.
Q I want to talk a little bit about how the process of selling a professional football team works.

You told us here in your direct examination that Morgan Stanley had to compete for a spot to sell the Bills?
A Yes.
Q And the process started somewhere in April of 2014 or closer to that date; right?
A I don't exactly recall.
Transcript continues on the following page....

2 Q
Q You said that your "best guess is GS, JPM based on their experience and league relationships," right?

A Yes, that's what I wrote.
Q So other banks were involved in the bake off, right?
A Yes.
Q Correct. So -- and Morgan Stanley was ultimately the bank chosen out of the options?

A Yes.
9 Q And Morgan Stanley had an incentive to put a list together of suitable buyers, right?

A I don't understand the question.
Q You weren't just going to put anybody on that list?
A No, I wouldn't just put anybody on the list.
Q Morgan Stanley had to stand by that list, right?
A No, nothing binding about the list.
Q Nothing binding, but Morgan Stanley's name was on the list, right, that it submitted?

A We would not have been a buyer of the Buffalo Bills.
Q Can you repeat that?
A Morgan Stanley would not have been -- I don't understand the question.
Q Morgan Stanley would submit the list of buyers on behalf of Morgan Stanley trying to get chosen as the bank who would broker the sale, right?
A Yeah. The process wasn't one where we submitted a \section*{F - CROSS(MR. FERIS)}

Page 2900
list.
Q You didn't submit a list? What --
A That's not how that works.
Q We'll come back to that later, sir.
In the list of buyers that you did put together, you placed Donald Trump, the President of the United States later, he later became the president on the list, right?
A Yes. He had publicly indicated he was interested in the team.

Q And the list was eventually submitted to the CFO of the Bills, right?
A Presented to.
Q Presented.
A To the trustees.
Q And it was also presented to the NFL eventually?
A It was discussed with the NFL.
Q And even before Morgan Stanley was chosen, you knew President Trump was, right?
A Yes.
Q That's right. And his name came to your mind even before Morgan Stanley was chosen as the bank that would broker the sale, right?
A He probably stated he was interested. He was Tweeting about it.
Q But in your mind, Donald Trump was not an option as a doesn't hurt the process, correct?

    A I'm sorry. Are you quoting something? Where are you?
    Q At the top of page two, you said, "That being said, his strong show of interest doesn't hurt the process, which I think will be well-attended both north of the border and down into NYC"?
    A Yes.
    Q So President Trump being involved didn't hurt the process?
    A No.
        Q That means it helped the process, right?
        A Hard for me to know.
        Q You were the managing director at this time, right?
        A Yeah, but I can't tell you whether it helped or hurt.
        Q You told us that as a managing director, it was your responsibility to lead these type of transactions?
        A Yes.
        Q So you were involved, right? You had information relevant to this, correct? You thought that -- A At this point, I'm now looking at the dates. At this point, we weren't hired to sell the team.
    Q Which was one conflict. "We are of three pitching for
D. CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS)
Page 2906
1 sell side assignment?"
2 A That's correct.
3 Q So at this time, there were conflicts with President Trump potentially?
    A President Trump had asked if we would represent --
    Q Sir, yes or no? My question is a yes-or-no question.
        Did you have a conflict with President Trump; yes or 11 A We hadn't been hired yet.
12 Q So it was a potential conflict?
13 A Potential. There you go.
14 Q Okay. And you said that you thought that wealthy hedge fund guys would take a hard look?
        A Yes.
17 Q So President Trump being involved attracted other bidders?
19 A I don't know.
20 Q You don't know? So you're telling me here that a 21 world-renowned person like President Trump showing interest in 22 the bills, you don't know if that would have attracted other bidders?
        A Many times, that can scare away other bidders.

\footnotetext{
Q What was that, sir?

Q What was that, sir?
}

A Many times, that can scare away other bidders.
Q But your incentive as the managing director at this time before -- even before the sale was to attract as many bidders as possible, right?
A At this time, my incentive was to get hired.
Q And you would get hired. You would agree the more bidders you had, the more attractive the bank would be to the seller, right, more qualified bidders?
A No.
Q So you're saying if you had only one bidder on the list, you were more likely to get chosen?
A No.
Q No, right.
THE COURT: Please, one at a time, so the reporter can take this all down.

MR. FERIS: Sure, Your Honor.
Q And then the conversation continues with Mr. Holzschuh on the first page of this document and he said that "He probably does have the dough and he told me the bid was 1 billion, so at least he's in the right ballpark," correct?

A That's what the e-mail says.
Q But he told you that he was glad to pass on Donald Trump if that was the call, correct?

A Yes.
Q Or at least you could tell him that since you were

CORNWELL - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS)
Page 2908
baking off, you could hold off the president for a little bit, right?
3
4
5
6
7
8
A That's not what the e-mail says.
Q "Can certainly tell him we are baking off for sell side and not free until we know the outcome." That's what he said, right?
A Correct.
Q And you told him that "I can get an unofficial view from the league office on Trump pretty easily if that's helpful"?
A Yes.
Q So despite certain issues, Morgan Stanley didn't turn away Trump's business outright, correct? I can rephrase my question.

A No. I don't understand the question.
Q You had the opportunity to pass on President Trump, right?
A Pass what?
Q Pass on him as a buyer. Is that not what this meant, "glad to pass if that's" -- A Representing him.
Q As a buyer?
A This would be us working for him. That's what this was about. This was us representing him.
Q You put President Trump on the ultimate list of buyers, right?
```

    A Yes.
    Q You didn't have to do that?
    A So in an estate sale --
    Q Yes or no, please, sir.
        THE COURT: It is a yes or no.
    A No.
    8 Q You didn't have to put him on the list?
    9 A No.
THE COURT: Hold on a second. I'll ask that the witness be excused from the room for a minute and I can talk to the attorneys.
(Witness exits the stand.)
THE COURT: Well, we spent I don't know how long, but a significant period of time in which the questions seem to elicit some sort of prejudice against President Trump or against some sort of bait and switch. I don't know where we are going with this. I don't know what this proves. Can I get an offer of proof from anybody?
MR. KISE: It goes back to what we were talking about this morning, which I think we need to be allowed to make this record whether or not you actually agree with us.
They need to establish that there is materiality and reliance. It's not enough that a piece of paper was handed to someone that contained, in your view over our objection,
A So in an estate sale -
6 N No.
7 A No.

1 a false statement. That establishes only one piece of the case. That was the piece of the case that you decided on summary judgment. That doesn't establish anything about this part of the case.

The two are not connected necessarily and I respectfully disagree with your conclusion, apparently, that they are because if no one does anything with it, if no one relies on it, then it has no impact of any kind, no real world impact. Even if it is out there, even if it is inaccurate, it has no real impact.

So here with this witness, what we will establish is Trump was never a serious bidder in the first place. This guy's dancing all over the place. I'm not sure why, but they never considered him a serious bidder. They took him in to use his name to gin up the price. Sorry. To bid up the price. That's one of those --

THE COURT: It's a southern thing.
MR. KISE: Right. But that's what they were doing. They were using Trump to manipulate the purchase price thinking that he wasn't really a serious contender at all. And so the financial information that came in, so what, okay? Again, back to my point this morning. Whether that financial information contained something accurate or inaccurate is immaterial if the recipient of the information doesn't do anything with it. Just like with the bank. If

1 the bank doesn't actually -- you know. So any way, that's 2 really where we are going, to just establish --

THE COURT: There was no reliance on the statement.
MR. KISE: We think the whole thing is irrelevant because there's no claim or cause of action. We think the entirety of this is not correct so -- and I'll wait. You may have a question. I see that Ms. Greenfield passed you a note, so you may have a question.

THE COURT: She's asking me what I'm going to have for lunch.

MR. KISE: Okay. I can help you with that. Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, would you like to respond?
MR. WALLACE: I was just going to say this obviously goes to use and business and repeated use of the false statements. Not every single use is going to generate some disgorgement amount or something else. That's why this is in. That's why it has been introduced. I think part of the reason I guess he's dancing around is I found the questions confusing myself, but obviously, that's the reason why the people are introducing this evidence and it is fairly limited. Thank you.

THE COURT: Well, how much longer do you think your cross-examination will be?

MR. FERIS: It really depends on how the witness

1 answers the questions, Your Honor, but not much longer. I
2 think I'll be done before lunch.
5 Mr. Kise's point about reliance, so let's get the witness 6 back.

7 Q Welcome back, Mr. Cornwell.
8 A Thank you.
\(9 \quad\) Q So before you left, we established that Morgan Stanley
10 didn't flat out turn away President Trump, right?
11 A For what?
12 Q As a buyer, potential buyer.
13 A No.
14 Q No, right. Had the chance to, but didn't, correct?
15 A Sure.
16 Q So let's talk about what Morgan Stanley did before the 17 potential buyer submitted bids.
18 A Yes.
19 Q Now, I'm no expert in the sale of an NFL team, but you
20 would agree with me that the bidding process is essentially a competition between the potential buyers, right?

A Yes, and this was an open process because of the estate sale, so we had to talk to all interested parties.

Q And the potential buyers would each submit a bid or series of bids, right?

Page 2913
A That is correct.
2 Q And at this point, Morgan Stanley wouldn't simply turn away buyers if they thought that a bidder was qualified on basic information it had?

A We gave all people an opportunity to credentialize themselves.
Q And even if a bidder had potential problems, that would ultimately disqualify them in the beginning stages? You weren't turning away buyers, right?
A No.
Q And you told me that you would vet these buyers, you would give them a chance to qualify themselves?
A Credentialize themselves, yes.
Q Yes, credentialize. Generally, the more qualified suiters for an NFL team, the higher the ultimate selling price would be, right? That's what drives the competition?
A No. No.
Q So people don't bid against each other driving up the selling price? Is that what you're telling me?
A Sometimes.
Q And the higher the selling price, the more money that Morgan Stanley would earn on the deal, right?
A I don't recall.
Q You don't recall?
MR. FERIS: Can I, please, have the Morgan Stanley document up on the screen. I want to go here where it says "brokerage." Can you zoom in on that?

Q This is from the Morgan Stanley website. It says, "For brokerage activity, we offer transaction-based pricing in which you pay commissions, sales loads, markups, markdowns, or other fees for each transaction you and your financial advisor execute", correct?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: I would like to object to this document that has not been previously identified or otherwise provided to us.

MR. FERIS: Your Honor, he doesn't recall and I'm showing him something to refresh his recollection.

THE COURT: If it is just to refresh his recollection, you can --
MR. GABER: Does the witness have to indicate what would refresh his -- it is withdrawn.
Q So Morgan Stanley earns commissions off the sales price, correct?
A That is not related to investment banking, this document.
Q This is not about Morgan Stanley's services?
A This is about brokerage services.
THE COURT: Hold on. I think first you have to ask does this refresh your recollection.
Q Does this refresh your recollection, sir?

A No.
MR. FERIS: We can take it down.
Q Part of your job on behalf of the estate was to maximize the selling price, right?

A Yes.
Q And the bidder might be included in that process simply because they drive up the value, correct?

A Restate the question, please.
Q A bidder might be included simply because they drive up the value, correct?

A Yes.
Q And you told me earlier that representatives of Morgan
Stanley met with the NFL to discuss potential buyers before bids were submitted, right?

A Yes.
MR. FERIS: Can we get 1003 up here on the screen.
Q This is an e-mail from Robert Kindler on which you're cc'd, your e-mail is cc'd, right?
A To Robert Kindler.
Q In which you were cc'd from Alex Hill?
A Yes.
Q And you discussed President Trump at the meeting with the NFL, right?

A Yes.
Q And the NFL raised some concerns about President

8 A Yes.
9 Q Despite all this, the NFL was not opposed to Donald Record page 2356, exhibit on the record was D 995. What the record should reflect is D 955.

Record 2361, this is not really relevant. D 958-3 is on the record. It should just be D 958, no -3.

2364 record page. PX 341 is the exhibit on the record. It should be D 984.

And the last one is record page 2400. Exhibit on the record is PX 987. It should reflect D 988.

I'm -- I will give this to the Attorney General, as well, so if they have any objection they can put it on.
THE COURT: Any objections you can raise later.
MS. HABBA: Thank you.
THE COURT: For the time being we'll assume that's all correct. All right. Have a good lunch, everyone.
(Whereupon, there is a luncheon recess in the proceedings.)

DAV ID OROWITZ, a witness called by the People, after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court, took the witness stand and testified as follows:

THE COURT OFFICER: State your full name and your business or home address on the record.

THE WITNESS: David Orowitz.
THE COURT: You are going to have to talk a lot closer to the microphone.

THE WITNESS: Okay.
THE COURT: Keep your voice up, of course.
THE WITNESS: David Orowitz. 600 West 111th, New York, New York.

THE COURT: Please proceed with the questioning.
MR. HAREN: Thank you, Your Honor.

\section*{DIRECT EXAMINATION}

BY MR. HAREN:
Q Good afternoon, Mr. Orowitz. My name is Eric Haren. I am an attorney with the Attorney General's office. Thank you for being here.

Can you, please, describe your educational background after high school?

A I went to Hamilton College for undergraduate and I went to the Wharton School at University of Pennsylvania for my M.B.A.

Q Do you hold any professional licenses?

Page 2941

\section*{A No}

Q Do you have any professional certifications?
A No.
Q Can you, please, describe your employment history after college?
6 A After undergraduate, I worked at Kaiser Associates which was a strategy consulting firm. Then I went for my M.B.A. for two years, then went to the Trump Organization for eight years, and then after that and since then, I've worked at L&L Holding.
Q At what? Sorry. I didn't hear that.
A L&L Holding.
Q Thank you. Can you describe just in general terms your history of working for the Trump Organization?
A I joined as a summer intern in between my two years of my M.B.A. and then I joined full time at the end of the summer after I graduated from business school.

Q And approximately what year was that?
A 2008.
Q So you joined as a full-time employee of the Trump Organization in 2008?
A Correct.
Q Okay. And who offered you the full-time position at the Trump Organization?
A Donald J. Trump, Jr.
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)

Page 2942
\(1 \quad Q\) Could you walk us through your titles at the Trump Organization from 2008 until when you left?
A When I joined, I was VP of acquisition and development and when I left, I was SVP, senior vice-president of acquisitions and development.
Q There came a time when you were promoted from vice-president to senior vice-president?
A Yes.
Q Who offered you that promotion?
A It was the Trump - the Trump kids. I don't remember specifically who.

Q So by kids, who are you referring to?
A Sorry. Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump.
Q Thank you. Who did you report to when you worked for the Trump Organization?
A I reported to Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump.
Q And was that reporting structure the same throughout your tenure at the Trump Organization?

A Yes.
Q Approximately when did you leave your employment at the Trump Organization?
A I left in October of 2016.
Q Is it correct that you frequently met or spoke with Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and Ivanka Trump during your employment at the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q Speaking generally, what projects did you work on with Ivanka Trump?
A I worked on the Old Post Office, the acquisition and financing of Doral, the refinancing of Trump Chicago, and several brand licensing deals around the world.

Q And same question for Eric Trump.
A Eric Trump, I worked on and off with him, but I would say one of the things I worked with him on was the retail at Trump Chicago and I'm sure a number of other things while I was there.
Q And same question for Donald Trump, Jr.
A With Donald Trump, Jr., I worked on some of the leasing at the Old Post Office and some of the Trump India brand licensing deals.
Q Who do you understand to have worked in the accounting department while you worked at the Trump Organization?
A Allen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney, Donna Kidder, I believe Patrick Birney.
Q And in terms of the physical layout of the office, where was the accounting department located?
A The accounting department was on the 18th floor.
Q Where was Mr. Weisselberg's office located?
A On the 18th floor.

Q And where was your office?
A On the 17th floor.
Q Thank you.
Do you recall any instance in which you were asked by Allen Weisselberg for valuation information in connection with a conversation with Forbes Magazine?
A Yes.
Q What do you recall about that?
A I recall that there were conversations going on with Forbes about Mr. Trump's net worth in relation to the rankings of the world's richest people and that he had asked me to have a conversation with Forbes about one or maybe more assets as to kind of what the value of those assets might be.

Q In connection with those conversations, did you have an understanding of Mr. Weisselberg's objective?
A Yes.
Q What was your understanding?
A To persuade Forbes that some of the assets were worth more than what they originally were discussing valuing them at.

Q Did you have any other understanding about Mr. Weisselberg's objective?

A Could you clarify the question, please?
Q Sure. Did you have an understanding about Mr.
Weisselberg's objective in connection with Mr. Trump's net worth?

1 A That his goal was for it to be represented higher on the listing.
Q Thank you. During your time at the Trump Organization, did you ever have an understanding about a report on Mr. Trump's net worth?
A Could you clarify what kind of report you mean?
Q A financial statement about Mr. Trump's net worth.
A Yes.
Q How did you gain that understanding?
A There was a transaction that I was working on where he needed to provide a statement to his net worth.

Q Which transaction was that?
A It may have been more than one, but I know that it was in relation to the Old Post Office.

Q When you say "in relation to the Old Post Office, can you be more specific about what you mean?

A It was in relation to when we put the RFP response together in reaction to the original request for proposals. We had to demonstrate financial wherewithal and his statement was needed for that purpose.
Q Thank you.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, a continuing objection to this line of questioning. The RFP was well outside the statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Duly noted. Usual ruling.
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)

Page 2946
\(1 \quad\) Q Mr. Orowitz, I would like to change topics to the Doral transaction.

Do you have a general recollection of when the Trump Organization purchased the Doral property and obtained associated financing?

A Yes, it was generally in the early 2010 s.
Q What was your role in that process?
A I was involved with putting together the underwriting.
I was involved with the 1031 auction or that may not be what it is called, the bankruptcy auction because we were buying another bankruptcy estate and I was involved in the financing.

MR. HAREN: I'd like to have marked for identification PX 3243. I would like to pull it up on the screen.
Q Mr. Orowitz, the document on the screen, as you will see on the first page, begins with an e-mail from Ronnie Levine to Ivanka Trump and in the e-mail address, it states that Ronnie Levine is from meridiancapital.com and the e-mail is forwarded to you. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Can you describe the role of Meridian Capital in connection with the Doral transaction?
A My recollection is that they were helping to find potential lenders.

Q Helping meaning they were - were they engaged by the Trump Organization to do that work?

A I'm not sure if they were formally engaged contractually, but they were definitely engaged in practice.
Q They were assisting the Trump Organization in identifying potential financing?
A Yes.
Q And focusing in the e-mail from Ronnie Levine in the middle of the page, do you see where it states, "heard back from Blackstone a little while ago and they are a pass on the deal"?
A Yes.
Q What does that indicate to you?
A It indicates that Blackstone was not interested in providing a loan for the acquisition of Doral.
Q And there's a reference in the second paragraph to getting information to someplace called Inbursa. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding of what that refers to?
A I believe this was another financial institution that was a potential lender for Doral.
Q And there are other references here to Macquaire, Criterion, Colony, Baupost and HSBC.

It's your understanding that those are potential sources of financing?
A Yes. I don't recall at the time all of them being

\section*{ROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)}

involved, but yes, based on this e-mail, that appears to be the case.
Q There is a question in the e-mail on the first page that reads, "Have you received any feedback from DB."

What do you understand that to be a reference to?
A I would presume this was asking whether Meridian heard back from DB about their interest in the loan.

Q DB, is that Deutsche Bank?
A Yes.
Q Moving to the top of the page, there is a response from Ivanka Trump that reads, "I actually spoke to Todd Harrison at Colony today (I know Todd through Jared as well). We are partners on another deal together. He said that we wouldn't do a deal with them on the debt side as they are too expensive for what we'd be looking for (low teens)."

What do you understand "low teens" to refer to in the context of this e-mail?
A I would assume it refers to the interest rate.
MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move this exhibit into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, continuing objection on statute of limitations and objection to this whole line of questioning.

THE COURT: Overruled, but I will consider it a continuing objection.
be sized to a ten percent debt yield on the in-place cash flow. Even that would be a stretch for them."

Do you have an understanding of those sentences?
A Yes.
Q What's your understanding?
A Debt yield is the percentage of the assets or the debt that proceeds, so it is the income divided by the debt. So this is basically saying that they would only lend ten times whatever the current cash flow or income was of the asset.

Q Continuing that same e-mail, there's the next paragraph reads, "I spoke with Loancore early last week. My brother-in-law works at Jefferies and is on the JLC credit committee. This transaction is too large for them and they are generally not looking to do deals with large renovation components."

What's your understanding of that information?
A My interpretation of it is that they had reached out to Loancore and Loancore wasn't able to do loans this large or loans on assets that required investment in improving them.

Q What is Loancore?
A I'm not familiar with Loancore.
Q Do you have an understanding what Loancore is?
A -- I believe they are a real estate lender.
MR. HAREN: I move Exhibit P X 3244 in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

THE COURT: I think we've been over this many times. You still feel that you need to object every time even though it is a continued objection because it is a document, not testimony?

MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir.
THE COURT: I'm learning. All right. Do what you feel you have to do. Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3244.)

MR. HAREN: I've handed or the witness has been handed plaintiffs Exhibit 3247. That document is also up on the screen.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize, if you could take a moment to look through it, the e-mail and the attachment that follows.
(Witness reviewing document.)
A I don't recognize it specifically, no.
Q Do you see there at the bottom of the first page is an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Enrique E. Morelos Zaragoza on November 28, 2011?

A Yes.
Q And the e-mail is then forwarded to you?
A Yes.
Q And the e-mail from Ms. Trump refers to "Inbursa's term sheet" at the beginning of the first paragraph. Do you see

OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)
Page 2952
that?
A Yes.
Q And then you can see at the top of the first page, there's an attachment entitled "inbursatermsheet.docx"?
A Yes.
Q If you could look then to page -- beginning on page three, do you see a document that appears to be a term sheet from Inbursa Grupo Financiero?
A Yes.
Q It refers to Donald Trump as the sponsor?
A Yes.
Q And it refers to the sponsor as the guarantor? A Yes.

MR. HAREN: I move Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247 into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance. THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247.)
Q Mr. Orowitz, we're going to move to some information from another potential lender. We're looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3231.

MR. HAREN: Could we pull down -- I have the wrong document in front of me, so let me try to fix that. One

\section*{moment, Your Honor.}

THE COURT: Yes.
MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I apologize for interrupting Mr. Haren. I want to note for the record that there appears to be no attorney right now for Donald Trump, for Mr. Weisselberg or for Mr. McConney and I just want to know if the defendants have made some arrangements for this absence, but I don't believe either Mr. Robert or Mr. Kise represent those individuals.

MR. KISE: I certainly represent Donald Trump whether it says so on the docket or not. I mean, that's been obvious since the beginning, that I'm the lead counsel and if you want to ask him next time he's here, you can ask him, but there's no question as to that. I think Mr. Gabra is here. He may be in the back watching, but I think -- I mean in the video room watching, but I'll confirm that.

For Mr. Weisselberg and McConney, I clearly do not represent Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney, but I can check on that momentarily. We can continue the proceeding and I can -- if you'll allow me to go check, I could go do that.

THE COURT: Of course.
MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.
MR. HAREN: You could put the document you've been handed to the side. We will move to a different one and see if we can correct that issue.

\section*{D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)}

Page 2954

MR. KISE: He is now here, Your Honor. I appreciate the concern of the government for representation. MR. WALLACE: We want to keep the record clean. Q So Mr. Orowitz, you have in front of you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232. You see on the top of the first page, there's an e-mail from someone named Steve Harvey to you and Ivanka Trump copying Jacob Turner and some other people and the e-mail signature states that Steven L. Harvey is an executive vice-president at CSG Investment, Inc.

Do you have an understanding as to who Mr. Harvey is in the context of this e-mail?

A I don't have a recollection of it, no.
Q Are you familiar generally with Beal Bank and CSG Investments?

A Yes.
Q What is your understanding of those entities?
A They're affiliated entities that are both owned or partially owned by Andy Beal.
Q And then are they potential sources of financing?
A Yes.
Q So the e-mail states, "Attached is a redraft of the term sheet based on our conversation today. If you find this acceptable, the next step for us will be a loan application, which I am working on right now."

And you can see that there is an attachment entitled,
D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)

Page 2955

1 "Doral term sheet 111114 "which I assume is November 11, 2014 -. November 14, 2011.

Is it fair to say that this document represents a transmittal of a term sheet with Beal Bank or CSG Investments regarding the Doral property?
A Yes.
Q If we could take a look at the attachment. Do you see that this document appears to be such a term sheet?

A Yes.
Q It contains an interest rate term of LIBOR plus 5.5 percent?

A Yes.
Q And do you see that it provides a floor rate of two percent?

A Yes.
Q And there's a default interest rate of five percent above the interest rate?
A Yes.
Q And on page three, there are a series of additional fees including an upfront fee, a breakage fee. Do you see those?
A Yes.
MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232 into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and

Page 2956
1 hearsay and relevance.
MR. HAREN: Your Honor, this is a term sheet for a potential loan received by Mr. Orowitz and Ivanka Trump at the Trump Organization. They are right there in the "to" line in the e-mail.

MR. ROBERT: It is not prepared by the witness. It is prepared someone. It is an out-of-court statement and it was produced by whoever Beal is. I don't know who that is.

MR. HAREN: It is a bank that offered terms to the Trump Organization for a potential loan and I'm introducing it for notice for the terms that were offered.

MR. ROBERT: Notice of what to whom? Notice that there was a term sheet, but not any of the contents of the term sheet including the amount or the interest rate, correct?

MR. HAREN: The term sheet is contained in the document beginning at page two, portions of which I read to the witness and that do specify the interest rate, loan term, loan amount and other terms.

THE COURT: It's in simply for the notice of what's in it, not for the truth of the statements asserted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232.)

MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I have another exhibit, but before I show it to the witness, it's my understanding that

1 it is still subject to a confidentiality designation under

A Yes.
Q The e-mail states in the second line, "I understand that there is no need to discuss the \($ 130\) million comment on the markup (CSG is not going to get to that advance level)."

Do you have an understanding of what that line indicates?

A Yes, I believe it refers to the loan proceeds that they would be willing to loan.

Q The e-mail also states, "We had a number of discussions" --

MR. KISE: Your Honor.
THE COURT: Hold on.
MR. KISE: So the confidentiality, are we asking him questions about a document that's not in evidence that he can't authenticate or can he? I don't know. I did not see that he did. Maybe he did.
Q Mr. Orowitz, did you receive this e-mail?
A I don't -- I don't recall receiving it.
Q Do you see in the "to" line that it states "David Orowitz"?
A Yes.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you received this e-mail?
A No.
Q Do you understand that it contained responses from CSG
Investments concerning potential loan terms?
A Yes.
MR. HAREN: Your Honor, I move to admit Plaintiff's 3233 in evidence for notice.

MR. ROBERT: I want to be clear with this for notice. Notice of what? I mean, if you intend to try to show later with this document and the other document that there's certain interest rates that are here, that's not notice. So let's just be clear. You want this notice of who of what?

MR. HAREN: I want it for notice that Ivanka Trump and David Orowitz at the Trump Organization were expressly advised about potential loan terms from Beal. That's what that document provides them notice of.

MR. ROBERT: Not any of the terms of the loan because the terms of the proposed loan are hearsay.

MR. HAREN: I don't understand how they are hearsay if they were expressly advised what the terms would be.

THE COURT: They are not hearsay. I don't know what you mean by that.

MR. ROBERT: A statement coming from Jacob Turner who is not a party, sending an e-mail, making a statement of potential terms, that's quintessential hearsay.
THE COURT: It is not being introduced to prove the truth of the contents, just that the recipients were notified that this sender was willing to do these terms. Is that what I --

MR. HAREN: Yes.
MR. ROBERT: That goes to the truth of the matter asserted. We are now interpreting that to mean that the lender was going to go ahead on these terms. That, in essence, is the truth of the matter asserted. If it is a question of did you receive a document that said that 10:30 a.m. central standard time, that's one thing, but Your Honor's hypothetical goes to the truth of the matter asserted.

THE COURT: So just to make sure I understand your point, we don't -- does your point boil down to we don't know that this sender really would have done these --

MR. ROBERT: Correct. Correct.
MR. WALLACE: It constitutes an offer which is another reason that it can be admitted on its own for the purposes that there was an offer made. It doesn't need to show whether the offer was going to be closed, whether everything is going to proceed from here, we are not going -- that was down the road.

THE COURT: I don't -- when you say "offer," you

1 mean binding as in we learned in contracts, an offer is \section*{binding?}

MR. WALLACE: Not binding.
THE COURT: So, then, it is not really an offer.
MR. WALLACE: That's fine, Your Honor.
MR. HAREN: I could ask a slightly different question.

THE COURT: All right. Withdrawn.
Q Mr. Orowitz, when you received this e-mail, did you understand -- did you form an understanding that Beal Bank was responding to potential loan terms with the responses that are here indicated?
A I don't remember receiving this specific e-mail at that time.
Q Do you --
THE COURT: I think you said you have no reason to doubt that you did, right?

THE WITNESS: No, no reason.
THE COURT: Okay.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor.
Q Do you have a general recollection of engaging in -- withdrawn.
MR. HAREN: Just want to be clear, is the document in evidence for those purposes or is it --

MR. ROBERT: If it is noticed that an e-mail was

\section*{D. OROWITZ - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. HAREN)}

received, but none of the contents - all of the contents of the notice are hearsay.

MR. HAREN: I mean, just to be clear on the question of hearsay, it's not a truthful fact that it is being asserted by the statement. It is a market term that is being offered. I don't think it is hearsay at all. I don't think it is being offered for its truth. It is being offered to show what a third-party bank offered and notified the defendant organization was the subject of their offer.

MR. ROBERT: That's the definition of the truth of the matter asserted because you want to try to bootstrap that there were other offers, that these other interest rates, these interest rates differed than the ultimate interest rate and you're going to connect those dots or attempt to connect those dots.

What I'm saying is the underlying substance of what's contained here is hearsay. If you had the ability of the time is expired, someone from the bank to come in here and explain something, but that's not what we have. We have a document that you're trying to introduce from a witness who doesn't recall receiving it.

To Your Honor's point, he doesn't dispute that he probably got it because he is on the e-mail exchange, but the underlying substance of this and of the earlier e-mail are all hearsay.

\section*{D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)}

Page 2964
MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, if I could just clarify my point about it. It's an offer to constitute a verbal act under 8.47 under the rules of evidence and that even if it's not a binding offer it is contractual term.

By making this offer we are interested in establishing and making the offer to the Trump Organization. And so that is how the -- that's how Mr. Haren is offering to use this document.

And just to go back to one other point. This came from the Trump Organization, so any issues with authenticity because this was produced in discovery.

MR. ROBERT: I'm not questioning -- so I didn't think it came from us, this exhibit that's here, but I take your word for it.

MR. WALLACE: I'll just clarify that's the production stamp that the Trump Organization used for civil discovery in this action as opposed to TTO is from the underlying investigation.

MR. ROBERT: I'm just saying nonetheless if you want to introduce something as an offer, the person that made the offer has to come in and say here was the offer, here are the terms, not the witness who is looking at the document coming from a third party relaying terms or potential terms of a deal.

THE COURT: All right. Give me a moment.

\section*{property?}

A I don't recall the call.
Q Let's see if a document refreshes your recollection and I'll admit -- I'd ask to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Even if this refreshes the witness's recollection it will be hearsay what Deutsche Bank may have told him.

MR. HAREN: I'm speaking about the e-mail where Mr. Orowitz wrote: "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today." I'm not talking about the content of any phone call at this point.

MR. ROBERT: I thought the question was I thought on the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the bank might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding the Doral property so whatever they may have said to this witness is hearsay.

MR. HAREN: I'm asking to admit the document that was the precursor to that question and I will have another document that may refresh him.

MR. ROBERT: But even if it refreshes his recollection as to what the bank says, it's still hearsay.

MR. HAREN: The e-mail that Mr. Orowitz said when he wrote "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today," this is an e-mail that he wrote. The witness is the fact you were provided we could just admit it for that purpose.

A That appears to be attached to the invitation.
THE COURT: Okay. That resolves that.
Q And so if we could go back to Exhibit 3111.
At the top of the page we talked about this e-mail a minute ago, but this is the same day as that calendar invitation, November 18, 2011, and you wrote to Mr. Levine:
"Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today. Please find a link to a folder containing the due diligence materials that you requested." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Did you have a call with Mr. Levine from Deutsche Bank on or about November 18, 2011 ?

A From this e-mail it appears so.
Q Was Mr. Weisselberg on the call?
A I don't recall the call.
Q On the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the bank might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding the Doral

1 sitting here, he testified --
MR. ROBERT: I think we're talking about two different things.

MR. HAREN: That's right. We are talking about two different things. I haven't shown him the document that may or may not refresh his recollection. That's not what I move to admit. I move to admit Plaintiffs Exhibit 3111.

MR. ROBERT: So you're not going to ask him what the conversation was with Deutsche Bank? If you're not going to ask him what the conversation was I have no objection.

MR. HAREN: This may --
MR. WALLACE: If we have to lay out how we're doing this we will also say that the defendants are receiving multiple offers from different banks and they choose a bank offer that has a different term. That is an appropriate use of them having learned of the other offers from the other banks.

So we're saying putting things in for notice, but it is notice because we want to show what the defendants understood when they were making decisions about which loan to select.

MR. ROBERT: And, Your Honor, that proves my point. This is for the truth of the matter asserted. If they wanted to call people from these institutions, they very \begin{tabular}{|lc|}
\hline D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) \\
\(\mathbf{1}\) & well could have in their case. They didn't. They're now \\
2 & trying to use hearsay documents and hearsay testimony to \\
3 & make up for the deficiency in their case. \\
4 & MR. WALLACE: Absolutely not. \\
5 & MR. ROBERT: I'm still speaking, Mr. Wallace. It \\
6 & is inappropriate. \\
7 & MR. WALLACE: It is whether or not the defendants \\
8 & had notice of the other terms of what were being offered and \\ 9 & then selected another loan. \\
10 & THE COURT: Now, what the banks would actually have \\ 11 & lent the money at these rates I think that's a question of \\ 12 & fact. \\
13 & MR. ROBERT: Then you need someone from the bank to \\ 14 & testify; otherwise, it's completely irrelevant. If someone \\ 15 & is saying here -- to allow this to come in now without the \\ 16 & bank saying they would have done it is completely irrelevant \\
17 & I think because what someone didn't intend to do can't show \\
18 & reliance, can't show any of the elements they need to prove \\ 19 & their case. So just because their bank may have sent an \\ 20 & e-mail about something without the bank explaining what \\
21 & that's about, it's completely and utterly irrelevant. \\
22 & They need it for the purpose of the bank made an \\ 23 & offer at X and the defendants decided not to do it. They \\ 24 & can't do that through hearsay. \\
25 & MR. WALLACE: I don't know why we can't show that \end{tabular}

MR. WALLACE: I don't know why we can't show that

Page 2974
1 they got an offer and decided not to go with it through their own documents and witnesses.

MR. ROBERT: You have to bring in a witness who actually made the offer. I don't see these documents saying -- first of all, even if they said there was an offer you still need the person that made the offer. You're conflating notice with the substance of it. If you want to show they got an e-mail and there was words on the page of an e-mail, I can't fight you on that. But underlying substance of what the potential offer was and what their notice of that was that's hearsay.

MR. HAREN: So I think we're arguing about an e-mail that's not even in front of us.

MR. ROBERT: It's not about the e-mail, Mr. Haren.
MR. HAREN: If I can finish, please, Mr. Robert.
The e-mail that's in front of us is a statement from Mr. Orowitz who at the time was an employee of the Trump Organization that "it was good speaking with you earlier today" and in response to a series of other e-mails involving Mr. Orowitz and Ms. Trump who was also an employee of the Trump Organization at the time. That's all this e-mail is. That's what I move to admit. I don't understand the debate we're having here. It's not about this e-mail.

THE COURT: All right. So objection overruled to the extent we're talking about what Mr. Haren just said.
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)

Page 2975
MR. HAREN: So l'd like to bring up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3107, which is being shown to the witness solely for the purpose of refreshing his recollection if it does.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see on the screen an e-mail from William Frauen to Richard Byrne and Mason Parker?

A Yes.
Q And Richard -- just William Frauen and Mason Parker were both on the calendar invite we looked at a few minutes ago?
A Yes.
Q The e-mail states:
"Had call with them this morning (not Ivanka or Donald was Allen) and some other guy-David Orowitz I think." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And it continues: "We told them" -- and this is in the fifth paragraph down, and I realize some of the wording in the e-mail is in shorthand. "We told them we are working two angles: A) MTG plus mezz and B) whole loan to Levfin investors. They asked what whole loan costs, we said project development pricing is around ten PCT." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection as to any loan pricing conveyed by Deutsche Bank to you on the phone call of November 18, 2011?

A No, it doesn't.

Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)
Page 2976
Q And directing your attention to information further down in this e-mail. It states: "Also suspect others" -- let me ask you a question before that.

Do you have a recollection of Mr. Weisselberg conveying any information regarding Mr. Trump's personal financial statement on the November 18, 2011 call?

\section*{A I don't.}

Q And so if you take a look at Exhibit 3107 and you look down where it states -- this is in the second to last line -"also suspect others may be thinking/exploring direct Donald GNTY or other asset pledge as Allen again mentioned he sent you personal statement." Does that refresh your recollection as to whether Mr. Weisselberg conveyed any information about Mr. Trump's personal financial statement on that November 18, 2011 call?

A It does not.
Q You can set that to the side.
Putting aside any particular phone call, were you generally aware whether Deutsche Bank offered an interest rate of approximately ten percent on a nonrecourse commercial real estate loan for the Doral property?
A I don't remember that.
Q Do you have a general recollection of any difference between terms offered by the commercial real estate arm of Deutsche Bank and the private wealth arm of Deutsche Bank?

them as a sponsor-held hotel along with the hotel/condo units that had been sold off.

Q And beginning on page two of the exhibit, there's identified as up to 56 million in financing for the commercial condo component.
A Yes.
Q And on page four, there is an indication of the type of recourse provided for in this term sheet. It states, "The loan will be non-recourse to borrower with some exceptions." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q On page six, there is an indication that the interest rate fees, et cetera, are outlined on Schedule A?
A Yes.
Q And on page ten, there is actually a Schedule A that provides for pricing and various other terms?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: The ground?
MR. ROBERT: He's reading from a document that's not in evidence and it wouldn't be able to come into evidence because it is hearsay.

MR. HAREN: This is the same point as we dealt with with the prior term sheet. This is a term sheet received by Mr. Orowitz in the ordinary course of business seeking financing for the Chicago property. We're offering it for the same purposes as the earlier exhibits were offered and accepted.

MR. ROBERT: For the purpose that they received something, but all of the contents of it are inadmissible hearsay. Is that what you are saying?

MR. HAREN: Could go to state of mind internally, inside the company to choose as a private wealth loan with a guaranty as opposed to a commercial real estate loan that is non-recourse, would tend to go to state of mind.

MR. ROBERT: Notwithstanding the fact that you would have to stay whose state of mind you are trying to attribute this to. It doesn't change the fact that the contents of this attachment from Deutsche Bank is inadmissible hearsay.

MR. HAREN: I think we dealt with this in the prior exhibit. It is the same principle.

THE COURT: Same ruling, same principle.

\section*{Overruled.}

MR. ROBERT: I think it was sustained as to what our objection was subject to what Mr. --

THE COURT: Oh, well, let's try to be very precise. It is being introduced for what purpose?

MR. HAREN: It is being introduced for two purposes; one to show notice of the terms received by the Trump Organization.

Page 2988
THE COURT: Well, that alone should do it. Doesn't it?

MR. ROBERT: Notice of purported -- notice of what's contained in the document, but not those were actually the terms offered by the bank.

MR. HAREN: It goes to state of mind, as I said.
MR. ROBERT: That part I don't understand because it would be whose state of mind.

THE COURT: Right. Let's go to the second ground. Whose state of mind?

MR. HAREN: Sure. Inside a company, companies work through people. There's imputed knowledge of an agent that gets imputed to the principal. If there is one set of terms that involves the submission of Statements of Financial Condition and those terms have a very low interest rate and there is another set of terms that are a much higher interest rate that are not private wealth loans that would tend to show a motive or a -- minimum a motive to use those statements.

THE COURT: In for both purposes or on both grounds.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239.)
Q Then turning to page 15 , there begins a summary of terms for unsold residential condominium units. Do you see that?
```

    ```
    A Yes.
    Q On page 18, there is a description of recourse at the very top that says, "The loan will be non-recourse to borrower with certain exceptions"?
    A Yes.
    Q And on page 18 also -- excuse me. I may have the wrong page. At the very bottom of page 18 that provides loan interest rate fees, et cetera are outlined on schedule A. Do you see that?
    A Yes.
    Q And page 22 is the Schedule A that pertains to this particular term sheet and it - do you see that it provides an interest rate with a spread of 800 basis points?
    A Yes.
    Q You can set that document aside. We will turn to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242. Now, Mr. Orowitz, in the e-mail on the first page, do you see that there's an e-mail from Jason Greenblatt to David Goodman at Deutsche Bank on which you, Ivanka Trump and Allen Weisselberg are copied?
    A Yes.
    Q And the e-mail from Mr. Greenblatt provides, "Attached, please find a revised draft of the proposed term sheet."
        Do you see that?
    A Yes. do you have an understanding that the proposed term sheet relates to Chicago?

\section*{A Yes.}

MR. HAREN: And if we could turn to -- I guess
I'll move to admit this document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242 as Mr. Greenblatt who was the -- withdrawn. I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242 as the Trump Organization's response to a term sheet regarding the Chicago property.

MR. ROBERT: This one is just a statute of limitations defense. This is fine because this is us sending our work product to them, so it is not hearsay.

THE COURT: Okay. Understand. Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3242.)
Q If you can turn to page 17 of the document, please. Do you see at the very top, there's a reference to "Trump draft 6/19/12"?
A Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding as to what that refers to?
A Yes, this is -- this is a redline or a markup of a term sheet and that refers to a draft.
Q When it says, "Trump draft," that means it is a Trump Organization response, correct?
A Yes.

Q And if you could turn to page 29. Do you see that there is a Schedule A that provides an interest rate?
A Yes.
Q And it provides, "The interest rate shall be calculated at rate lock (see below) by adding [392] basis points (the spread ) to the yield on the ten-year on the run swap rate.
However, in no event shall interest rate be less than 5.64 percent with that number in brackets?"

A Yes.
MR. HAREN: Since that's -- if we can move to the next document. Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235.
Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235, you can see an e-mail from Jacob Turner at CSG Investments to Ivanka Trump followed by an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to you and Allen Weisselberg on April 18, 2012. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And the subject of the e-mail is "Trump Chicago investment memo"?
A Yes.
Q And could you just take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail. I am going to ask you some questions about the e-mail that's at the top, but take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail before I do that.
(Witness reviewing document.)

Page 2992
Q So I guess I'll walk you through it before I ask you questions about the e-mail that Ms. Trump sent to you.

On page three, there's an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Andrew Beal. Is that the Andy Beal you referenced earlier?
A Yes.
Q And Ms. Trump writes in that e-mail to Mr. Beal, "My father had asked me to send you the Trump Chicago loan memo per your conversation yesterday. Sometime in the next few weeks, I was planning to go to market for senior financing on our iconic 92-story mixed-use skyscraper in Chicago Trump International Hotel and tower. This loan would be secured by both the unsold inventory of the condominium units and retail component as well as operating cash flow from the hotel commercial and parking facilities."

On page three of the document, Mr. Turner responds, "Ivanka, thanks for the Trump Chicago memorandum. I have reviewed the materials on a truly beautiful first-class property. We are passing on the loan opportunity based predominantly on the interest rates sought."

A Yes.
Q It is a little bit difficult to read because of the small print, but on page two at the very bottom, Ms. Trump asked Mr. Turner the following question. "Out of curiosity and so I can better understand how you look," I think it says, "how you took at these type of loans, what type of pricing would you attach to the Chicago financing request"?
And Mr. Turner responds in part on page one, bolded underline text short answer, "Our new loan originations generally start with a baseline of around \(L\) plus 500 , with a LIBOR floor of two." And Ms. Trump then forwarded that information to you and Mr. Weisselberg stating "some interesting feedback." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding as to why Ms. Trump added Allen Weisselberg to this e-mail chain and stated to you "some interesting feedback"?
A I would presume she wanted to give him the benefit of understanding how this specific lender was looking at a loan like Trump Chicago.

MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiffs
Exhibit 3235 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235.)

MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236 is being handed up to the witness.
Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236, you recognize that it is the same e-mail chain that we just looked at except for a different ending?

Page 2994

A Yes.
Q And following Mr. Turner's e-mail to Ms. Trump, Ms.
Trump then e-mailed you directly and stated, "I think we made a mistake adding rate to our memo...." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q What did that indicate to you?
A It indicates to me that she was questioning whether we should have included a rate because it does seem to have made them not dig in on potentially giving a loan.

MR. HAREN: Move to admit Plaintiffs Exhibit 3236.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3236.)
Q Now, Mr. Orowitz, let's talk about the Old Post Office project. You have a general recollection of working on that project during your time at the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
MR. HAREN: Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's
Exhibit 3241.
Q Mr. Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241, you see that it is an e-mail from you to Allen Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt, Ivanka Trump and Ray Flores on September 3, 2013?
A Yes.
Q The subject is "All documents for OPO financing."

What did you understand that to refer to?
A It appears to be me sharing two clean versions of the term sheet that we got from Natixis and DB and then a quick markup of like my initial thoughts on them and then a comparison that Ray did, Ray Flores did against some previous loans that the Trump Organization had done.
Q And for what purpose were you sending this information to the recipients of the e-mail?
A I believe it was to get my initial thoughts out to them as quickly as possible and get everyone thinking about how to proceed with a loan.
Q The e-mail states, "We are speaking to Iron Hound about DB and Natixis today at noon." Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Can you explain what Iron Hound is and what its role was in this transaction?
A Iron Hound is a broker and consultant that helps real estate owners attain financing.
Q And what was its role in this transaction?
A They were helping us to find potential lenders and negotiate with them.
Q So they were working on behalf of the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q In item three on your list, you state that "One item attached was a comparison that Ray finalized last night of Natixis and DB versus our previous DB, Hypo and Fortress loans. Who is Ray as referred to there?

Page 2996

A Raymond Flores.
Q What was Mr. Flores' role at the Trump Organization at the time?
A He was a financial analyst and reported to me.
MR. HAREN: And I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.

MR. ROBERT: As to the cover e-mail, objection, statute of limitations. As to the attachments, there appears that there are more attachments listed on the cover e-mail than are attached to this exhibit. To the extent that they are documents prepared by anyone other than Trump, I object that it is hearsay; but it is not complete because the e-mail talks about a preliminary markup and a comparison and it looks like those are in the attachment, but it is not on what I was just handed.

MR. HAREN: So as to any item, one term sheet from Natixis and DB, the Court has already ruled the various purposes for which term sheets could come in. Item two, Mr. Orowitz's preliminary markups, those are his markups. He was an employee of the organization.

MR. ROBERT: I'm not fighting you on two and three. They're not here, so it is not complete. I don't know what they are.
MR. HAREN: One may be -- well, page seven of the document, there is a document withheld for privilege in the middle of the document. So why don't we do this? We can take a look at the term sheet from Natixis which is in the document, the term sheet from Deutsche Bank which is in the document, and we can take a look at the native Excel file that's the other attachment, and the defendants can advise if they continue to object to Mr. Flores' -- excuse me.
Mr. Orowitz's markups of term sheets and we can move past that issue.

MR. ROBERT: I'm sorry. I didn't understand any of that. I'm sorry. Maybe I didn't hear it.

THE COURT: That was tough to follow.
MR. HAREN: In the exhibit, there is a term sheet from Natixis. That's the first attachment beginning at page two.

MR. ROBERT: Goes from page two to page five?
MR. HAREN: Page two to page five. Page seven, there is document withheld for privilege.

MR. ROBERT: Seven and eight. Got you.
MR. HAREN: And then following that, there is a term sheet from Deutsche Bank.

MR. ROBERT: Okay.
MR. HAREN: That concludes on page 21. And then page 22 is a document provided natively which our other discussions is likely an Excel file and you can see that the last attachment listed in the e-mail is an Excel file.

MR. ROBERT: So you're representing to me that item two in the e-mail was withheld for privilege? I can't tell.

MR. HAREN: You would know better than I would the documents that are withheld for privilege based on the pages that are attached to the exhibit is my understanding.

MR. ROBERT: You are telling me this is the complete e-mail of attachments that was turned over to you?

MR. HAREN: Except for the native file which is Excel.

MR. ROBERT: I keep my standard objection then.
THE COURT: Same ruling. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3641.)

MR. HAREN: I'm informed that there may be - since it says "document withheld for privilege" on page seven and page eight, that may be two different documents that are withheld for privilege.

THE COURT: Defendants, Mr. Robert, do you want to waive the privilege?

MR. ROBERT: I accept his representation and later we can clean it up.

THE COURT: Do you want to waive the privilege?

\section*{A Yes.}

Q And there is a comparison to a Fortress loan that had a spread of 11 percent?
A Yes.
MR. HAREN: I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241 including the native file that Mr. Flores prepared.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations, but I thought it is already in based on the Court's ruling.

THE COURT: It was a different document, right? Anyway, it is in either way.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.)
Q We are going to move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 513. Mr. Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 513, you mentioned that Iron Hound was working on the Trump Organization's behalf in connection with seeking financing for the Old Post Office transaction?
A Yes.
Q And you can see that this is an e-mail that is sent to Chris Herron at ironhoundmgt.com?
A Yes.
Q Was he working on behalf of the Trump Organization at Iron Hound in connection with the Old Post Office?
A Yes.
Q Beginning on page two, there is a document -- does the

MR. ROBERT: Absolutely not.
Q I want to move to page two of the exhibit. Mr.
Orowitz, you see there is a label at the top "Natixis" and it appears to be a term sheet from Natixis for a loan related to the Old Post Office?
A Yes.
Q And beginning on page nine, there appears to be a term sheet from Deutsche Bank related to the Old Post Office? A Yes.

MR. HAREN: If we could pull up on the screen Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241 native one.
Q Mr. Orowitz, you recall in the e-mail there was a reference to a comparison that Mr. Flores prepared of potential terms for the Old Post Office transaction. You can see -- do you recognize this Excel spreadsheet on the screen to be that document?
A Yes.
Q And you can see in this document there are interest rate terms identified?
A Yes.
Q And so there's a spread from Natixis of 5.25 in the document. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q From Deutsche Bank, this is a spread identified at 4.25 percent?

that a -- that was essentially when the Trump Organization began \\ to seek financing for the Old Post Office from the private \\ wealth management group at Deutsche Bank? \\
A It appears to be from the same, yes. \\
MR. HAREN: Just give me one second, Your Honor, to confer with colleagues. \\
THE COURT: Sure. I confer a lot too, you know. \\
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.) \\
MR. HAREN: So can we pull up Plaintiff's \\
Exhibit 327? \\
Q So Mr. Orowitz, this is an e-mail from Tom Sullivan to you and Ivanka Trump and others attaching a term sheet in connection with the Old Post Office property. Do you see that? \\
A Yes. \\
Q And so is this document and the attached term sheet, do \\ they represent terms from the private wealth management group at \\ Deutsche Bank? \\
A Yes. \\
MR. HAREN: I'll move to admit Plaintiff's \\
Exhibit 327. \\
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations, hearsay. \\
THE COURT: Overruled. \\
Q And let's pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1286. I assure \\

Respectfully, this is not one of them. \\
MR. HAREN: If a person had a business, receives a request for proposals, takes steps to respond to it, participates in the response to it, the request for proposals itself to come in to show what the witness and the business were responding to. \\
MR. ROBERT: I disagree with that. \\
THE COURT: I agree with it. Objection overruled. \\
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1286 in evidence.) \\
MR. HAREN: Plaintiffs Exhibit 1164 ? \\
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize Plaintiffs Exhibit 1164 \\ as the response of Trump Old Post Office LLC to the GSA's RFP \\ regarding the Old Post Office property? \\
A Yes. \\
Q And I just want to direct your attention to page two of the document. There is a letter on page two, letter signed by Ivanka Trump. Do you see that? \\
A Yes. \\

document, but do you recognize it to be the request for \\ proposals from the General Services Administration in connection with the Old Post Office property? \\
A Yes. \\
Q And turning to page five of the document. \\
MR. HAREN: I move to admit Exhibit 1286 as the RFP for the Old Post Office project. \\
MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. Statute of limitations, but this is a complete hearsay document. It's prepared by the government, a request for proposal for Old Post Office. \\
MR. HAREN: It's going to be used to show the Trump Organization's responses not for the truth of any items contained. \\
MR. ROBERT: I still would object that it's impermissible to have it come in through this witness and it that it's hearsay. \\
THE COURT: I would think that it's -- the overall -- overall it's basically saying -- the government is saying we want to renovate the Old Post Office, here is what we want, send us your proposals. What about that is -- \\
MR. ROBERT: And they can call a witness from the government to do that. They're using a former employee of the company to admit documents without having to lay the proper foundation through either a representative of bank,

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) \\
A Could you direct me to that? \\
Q Sorry. I withdraw it. I think I may have the wrong page, so I just withdraw that question. \\
Page 145 of the document refers to the developer's financial capacity and capability. Do you see that? \\
A Yes. \\
Q And then page 153 refers to financial statements. \\
A Yes. \\
Q And it reads: "Please find Trump's Statement of \\ Financial Condition in an envelope submitted with each copy of this proposal." And it continues at the next paragraph. \\
"Please note that Trump affiliates are all private \\ companies. The attached Statement of Financial Condition was compiled under GAAP, but it should be noted that there are departures from GAAP that are described in the accountant's compilation report attached to the Statement of Financial Condition. Most personal financial statements contain GAAP exceptions. WeiserMazars LLP has compiled these financials." Do you see that? \\
A Yes. \\
Q And I'm going to note an undisputed fact from \\ defendant's summary judgment papers, paragraph 143 where \\ 23 defendants stated: "As required by the GSA, the 2008 to 2010 \\
24 SOFCs were submitted as part of the bid and the Attorney \\ the defendant's 202 statement.

MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164.

MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, I don't know whether he did or not --

MR. HAREN: I move to admit the Trump Organization's response to the GSA RFP Exhibit 1164.

MR. KISE: So hearsay obviously, relevance, statute of limitations, and his reference to the 2008 to 2010 SOFCs, I don't even know those are at issue in the case, so I'm not sure -- there hasn't even been any allegation that there is a problem with the 2008 to 2010 . That has never come in before, so I'm not exactly sure what that reference related to -- I'm sure it was undisputed in the summary judgment that they were submitted because yes, but that doesn't make it relevant to this trial proceeding and I don't see what any relevance of these RFPs is. I mean, this is way outside the statute of limitations. There is no claim that is presented with respect to the OPO award process. So is there?

MR. HAREN: Couple of responses. It's certainly not hearsay. It's entitled "Proposal of Trump Old Post Office LLC."

THE COURT: Statement of a party.
MR. HAREN: As to the other matters it relates to a

Page 3010

1 course of conduct, use of the statements of financial condition and business agreed that the date of the RFP is outside the statute of limitations, but that doesn't mean it's not relevant for the Court to determine what, if any, equitable relief to award.

MR. KISE: But which statements of financial condition? This is the 2008 -- by his own statement, this is the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition which heretofore have never been mentioned in the course of this proceeding, so I'm not sure are we going to go back there? I know that we're -- there is no calendar or clock associated with any of this, so -- but that's a new -- 2008 to 2010 is certainly a new allegation.

MR. HAREN: I would add there is an allegation in the complaint that refers generally to the Old Post Office, but the statement in the 202 statement is not our statement. It was a statement from the defendants describing the submission of these statements to the GSA and that is what we did not dispute, so you put it in your 202 statement.

MR. KISE: Again, there is a big difference.
THE COURT: That's the banned word, but you can say it again.

MR. KISE: As I stated before, but just because we said that the 2008 to 2010 statements were submitted to the GSA, okay, they were, but it has no relevance to these proceedings. That may be undisputed that they were in fact submitted, but there is no relevance to these proceedings because these statements have never been challenged. There is not a shred of evidence that has been introduced at trial or before about the 2008 to 2010 statements.

MR. HAREN: I don't want to say this necessarily in front of the witness, but there will be other documents that come in in the next few minutes or very early tomorrow morning that describe the actions and responses of certain people in connection with this RFP and they will be relevant at a minimum for that purpose.

MR. KISE: But again, actions by others -- well, I'm saying again to Counsel not to you, Your Honor, actions by other people -- let me just see if I get this right.

In responses in connection with this RFP, but those would be actions based on 2008 to 2010 financial statements, not 2011 to 2021, which is what the case has always been about, at least I thought so.

MR. WALLACE: I'll just interject, and I apologize to Mr. Haren, but the thread here is there is a discussion of some of the GAAP exceptions in the statements of financial condition as part of the GSA process that shows the knowledge of the company and its officers about -around the GAAP exceptions that people are now claiming they are not familiar with. So that is the thread that pulls us through and that this is the process that eventually leads to the loan that is in very much indeed apart of this case.

THE COURT: Objection overruled. Pattern and practice to repeat myself or again bars claims not in evidence.

And five-minute warning.
Overruled.
MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1288.
THE COURT: And notice which is part of pattern and practice.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, just so I'm clear on the ruling.

THE COURT: Yes.
MR. KISE: Part pattern of practice of what, 2008 to 2010 ?

THE COURT: Of the Trump Organization.
MR. KISE: But there's not been any allegation that the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition have any issues associated with them.

THE COURT: Well, would there be?
MR. WALLACE: But there is and there is a discussion of the GAAP exceptions that carries through this entire period, including 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, all the way into the future and the GAAP exceptions that are contained within the Statement of Financial Condition are very much a question that is open to debate at this point and goes to within the company. They don't know about the GAAP exceptions, so it's relevant to that.

I would also note from a timing perspective, this colloquy that we're having here is exactly what we're worried about when it's objection overruled. Let's talk about it for another ten minutes.

I think we've made our case as to why this will connect and we're entitled to put the evidence in and show that connection.

THE COURT: I try to strike a balance between not wasting time when I've made a ruling and explaining the ruling and allowing a record to be made and Counsel to say what he has to say. But we're basically done for today, anyway, so what time are we resuming tomorrow? Let me guess, 10 o'clock with this witness?

Objection overruled, by the way.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, can we have a sidebar?
THE COURT: Sure. We'll have a front bar.
And I'll order the witness not to discuss this case or his testimony or anything related to that with anybody until you're finished testifying team.

THE WITNESS: Okay, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)
(Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to November 1, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

to a presentation that we did in person where we were presenting our proposal to constituents in the GSA.
Q And there is a notation in the e-mail that identifies it as one of high importance. Do you have a recollection as to why that designation is there?

A We want -- we would have wanted -- this was important and we would have wanted to get organized quickly and make sure we had as thoughtful a response as we could.

MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's
Exhibit 1288 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Where is Mr. Robert? He usually does that.

MR. KISE: I know. I've got to take over this morning.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1288 in evidence.)
Q And directing your attention to page three of the exhibit. Do you recognize this as a letter from the General Services Administration to Ivanka Trump as executive vice president of acquisitions and development at the Trump Organization?
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)

\section*{A Yes.}

Q And the letter states: "This is to confirm that your team is scheduled to make a presentation regarding the above-referenced solicitation on December 19, 2011 at 2:00 p.m.." Is that a reference to the in-person presentation that you mentioned earlier?

A I believe it is.
Q And then on page four this is the second page of the letter under "Factor 3." It states under the second bullet, "financial statements appear to have multiple GAAP departures, including but not limited to, not including separately held financials, no provision for income tax and the PV of the deposits not reflected." Do you see that?

A Yes.
Q Was that an issue identified by the GSA during the process?
A It appears to be from this letter, yes.
Q And then on page four, same page, there is a bullet that reads -- it's the third bullet, "please provide a statement regarding any bankruptcy or loan defaults on real estate development projects as specified under Factor 3."

Was that also an issue identified by the GSA during the bidding process?
A Yes.
Q I want to direct your attention to page 15 of the document. Is the information on page 15 and what follows in a table format, is that the outline for presentation that you attached to your e-mail?
A Yes.
Q And the outline identifies under the heading "Oral Presentation" on page 15 that there would be an intro from Ivanka Trump?

A Yes.
Q And the third bullet reads "DJT speaks." What is that a reference to?

A That refers to the portion of the presentation when President Trump was presenting.
Q And on page 18 of the document next to factor 3B regarding financial statements it reads in part, "Dave to discuss with Allen how we might address." Do you see that? A Yes.
Q Was it your understanding that you will discuss the financial statement item under factor 3B with Allen Weisselberg?

A Yes.
Q How did you come to that understanding?
A I have a slight recollection that this was generally an issue that we had to address in our response, so in reviewing this it sort of reminded me of that.

Q But how did you come to the understanding at the time that Allen Weisselberg was the person you should speak to?

Page 3023
A Oh , Allen is the CFO and was responsible for that side of the business.

MR. HAREN: Let's pull up Plaintiffs Exhibit 1429.
Q Mr. Orowitz, the Plaintiff's Exhibit 1429, do you see that it's an e-mail from you to Allen Weisselberg on December 16, 2011 pertaining to language in the GAAP section? A Yes.
Q Does the information in this e-mail pertain to the GSA bidding process?

A Yes.
MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1429 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1429 in evidence.)
Q And in the subject line you wrote in all caps, "Important," and then you added "need to discuss now." Why would you write that?
A I think we were on a deadline to get the response put together and I needed people to focus on their portions of that response.
Q And in the first line of your e-mail reads: "Allen,
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)
1
1 Ivanka wanted me to change the language in the GAAP section.
    includes, it says, "message from RNPFC 77-CE" and it states "queries to scanner@Trumporg.com?"
    A Yes.
    Q Do you have an understanding as to whether this document was scanned or e-mailed?
    A I would assume that.
    Q And looking at the attachment beginning on page two do you see that it says at the top "Redevelopment of Old Post Office, Request For Proposals?"
    A Yes.
    Q And do you understand that the attachment reflects under the heading "Financial Statements" Mr. McConney's handwritten input into language describing Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition and GAAP departures?
    A I don't know whose handwriting this is.
    Q But does the e-mail itself indicate that it came to you from Jeff McConney?
    A It indicates that it came from Jeff McConney, yes.
    Q And back to the e-mail at the very top, you wrote
    "please incorporate."
    A Yes.
    Q What did you intend that to mean?
    A We had a larger presentation that this was apart of and my recollection is Morgan was putting that together or helping
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)

Page 3026
put that together and we needed to incorporate it into a larger presentation.

Q And so you received handwritten comments pertaining to Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition from Jeff McConney and then directed that they be incorporated?

A Yes.
THE COURT: Wait. These are two different things obviously. Are you saying yes to both? Incorporate the handwritten notes and incorporate the document into the presentation?

THE WITNESS: I was suggesting that with these changes in the handwritten notes, Your Honor, that that should be incorporated into the presentation.
Q And the handwritten notes came to you from Jeff McConney?
A I received them from Jeff McConney based on this e-mail, yes.

THE COURT: So there are two different incorporations. I just want to make that clear. Okay, I'll assume they agree.

MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiffs Exhibit 3273.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Don't you wish your buddy was here?
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)

Page 3027
MR. KISE: I do. He's making me work today. THE COURT: Overruled. Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3273 in evidence.)

MR. HAREN: Plaintiffs Exhibit 1431 has been handed to the witness.
Q Mr. Orowitz, you'll see on the first page an e-mail from you to Ivanka Trump and others on December 17, 2011. I'll jut advise you that's a Saturday.

And the subject of the e-mail is "handout for Monday." Do you have an understanding as to what that refers to?

A I believe that this refers to a document that we were providing to the GSA in tandem with our presentation.

Q And do you have an understanding that the attachment is a copy of the document that was provided to the GSA during the presentation?

A Yes. This appears to be a version of it, if not the final version.

Q Let's take a look at page ten of the exhibit. You see at the top at the left it reads "Factor 3:" And then "3B) financial statements appear to have multiple GAAP departures" and it goes on?
A Yes.
Q And it provides a response about three separate items in bold, "separately held entities provisions for income tax and PV of the deposits?"

A Yes.
Q And those were the same GAAP departures that were highlighted in the letter from GSA we looked at a few moments ago?

A Yes, correct.
MR. HAREN: I move to admit Plaintiff's
Exhibit 1431 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiffs Exhibit Number 1431 in evidence.)
Q And Mr. Orowitz, I'm going to switch to a different topic and hopefully have you out of here, depending on the defendants. This relates to the Doral property.

MR. HAREN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 347 has been handed to the witness.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this document as a series of e-mails between you and Dave Williams and Josh Frank from Deutsche Bank on or about March 18, 2016?
A Yes.
25 Q The subject of these e-mails is "Doral/Turnberry."
D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren)

Page 3029
Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding of what that refers to in this time frame?
A At that time we were in conversations with Deutsche Bank about upsizing our loan, so getting additional loan proceeds and I believe that's what this e-mail refers to.
MR. HAREN: And I move to admit Plaintiff's
Exhibit 347 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q Do you have an understanding as to how much in additional financing was being sought by the Trump Organization from Deutsche Bank in or about February or March of 2016?

A I don't recall specifically.
Q Let's see if a document refreshes your recollection.
MR. HAREN: This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 342 -- 352.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see at the top of the document there is an e-mail from Rosemary Vrablic to Ivanka Trump on February 11, 2016?
A Yes.
Q And do you see that in the e-mail Ms. Vrablic wrote to Ms. Trump, quote, "I spoke to the credit team on the" -- excuse me -- "$50 MM request and we are thrilled to consider it for you." Does that refresh your recollection that the Trump Organization requested \($ 50\) million in financing from Deutsche Bank to upsize the Doral loan in or about February of 2016?

A It refreshes my memory that it was around that number, but I don't remember specifically.
Q Thank you.
MR. HAREN: I have no further questions for this witness.

THE COURT: Will there be any cross examination at this time?

MR. KISE: Not at this time, Your Honor, no.
THE COURT: Okay. Witness excused.
THE COURT OFFICER: Members of the audience, please remain seated.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: And Plaintiff, would you like to call your next witness?

MR. WALLACE: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. The People call Michiel McCarty.

MR. KISE: For the record, Your Honor, we renew our objection as stated on the record yesterday.

THE COURT: I understand that, and I overruled it.
THE COURT OFFICER: Court ready for the witness?
THE COURT: Yes.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT OFFICER: Raise your right hand.
Do you solemnly swear or affirm that any testimony you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

THE WITNESS: I do.
THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat.
Please state your name and either home or business address for the record.

THE WITNESS: Michiel McCarty spelled M-i-c-h-i-e-1 M-c-C-a-r-t-y. Address is 44 N . Porchuck Road, Greenwich, Connecticut 06831.

THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed, Counselor. MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor.

\section*{DIRECT EXAMINATION}

BY MR. WALLACE:
Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
A Good morning, Mr. Wallace.
Q So just so that all of us are reminded, I will ask you to speak closely into the microphone so that people can hear you and also remind you to speak slowly so that the court reporter can take down everything we are saying.

Mr. McCarty, where are you currently employed?
A I am a chairman and CEO of an investment bank by the name of MM Dillon & Company.
Q And what do you do in your role as CEO and chairman of MM Dillon?
A I spend the majority of my time doing transactions for clients, corporate clients, mergers and acquisitions, financings, joint venture related.
Q And what kind of transactions are you involved in?
A I do debt transactions, convertible transactions, equity transactions, and assorted various mergers and acquisitions.
Q And how long have you been working in the banking industry?
A For a very long time, since 1975.
Q Could you describe for us your educational background prior to becoming a banker?

A I have an undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University in physics and honors and I have an MBA in finance with a concentration in capital markets from the Wharton School.

Q So if we could just go through your employment experience after you obtained your MBA.

What was the first position you took after you completed your education?
A My first job out of Wharton was for Citibank here in New York working in their merchant banking group.
Q And could you describe for us what kinds of transactions you worked on while you were at Citi?

Page 3033
A The first one I worked on just showed up was the Penn Central bankruptcy which was the largest bankruptcy in the history of the country at that time and I was assigned to that group for the first nine months I was there. Penn Central was at that time the largest real estate owner in New York owning 24 trophy properties.
Q And what were your responsibilities in that engagement?
A I was put on the team because of my science in analytical background, so I was the valuation expert on the properties which the bank was trying to originate the sale of to recover their losses on Penn Central.
Q And what were those properties?
A Large number PanAm building, the New York Central building, the Commodore Hotel, the Barclay Hotel, the Waldorf Astoria and about eight office buildings along Park Avenue and Lexington Avenue, Madison Avenue.
Q And after your time in Citi what was your next position?

A I was recruited to join Dillon Read & Company, another investment bank.
Q And what was your position at Dillon Read?
A I had various jobs. I ultimately took control and responsibility for the financing of corporate clients, both equity and debt.

Q And can you describe for us some of your experiences when you were at Dillon Read?
A One of the most notable was I was the lead banker and Dillon Read was the lead manager underwriter of the privatization of Fannie Mae. Fannie Mae was the largest issuer of debt in the United States and the largest provider of mortgages. I believe it still is. I worked for about a year privatizing, setting it up and taking it public in the market.
Q And after your time at Dillon Read what was your next position?

A I was recruited to join SG Warburg, which is a London-based bank. I believe it's the largest bank outside the United States in a role running North and South America for the SG Warburg operation.
Q And what were some representative transactions from your time at SG Warburg?
A One of the most interesting was the de-merger of Marriott Corporation. Marriott at the time I think was the third largest hotel operation in the United States.

We designed a system to divide Marriott into the hotel management company, Marriott and the real estate owning company post Marriott.
Q And what was your role on that transactions?
A I was the lead banker on that transaction.
Q Were there any changes in your employment during the
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace)

Page 3035
course of your time at SG Warburg?
A Moore I remember when she was appointed to the Management Committee and Commitment Committee overseeing all the assets in North and South America.

Q And what were your -- where were you employed after your time at SG Warburg?
A I was involved in selling the SG Warburg to UBS. I stayed on the combined UBS Warburg for my contract period which is nine months and then left to go to a firm here in New York, Gleacher & Co.

Q And what is Gleacher & Co?
A It was an independent investment bank owned by the partners. We sold it to NatWest, a UK institutional bank and we ran it as Gleacher NatWest in North America. We took over the NatWest operations here in North America.

Q And what were your responsibilities at Gleacher and NatWest?

A I was running the financing side of the business. Eric Gleacher, who was the founder was running the MNA side of the business.
Q When you say "financing side of the business," what does that entail?

A The whole spectrum of financing going from bank debt to private placements to public debt and then all the spectrum of equity convertibles and straight equity.

            THE COURT: Okay, great.
    Q Was there any other experts experiences that you mentioned? There were some others, I believe?
    A I've taken about one a year. I got into the expert witness business very accidentally. I was asked to do for a client in Delaware, a takeover discussion dispute and so I take one or two major a year.
    Another one that's relevant maybe is Duke Energy was a Crescent Realty and they done it -- a sponsored spin off of about two and a half billion dollars of debt and ultimately went brought bankrupt. I was put in to testify about the asset of the loans and public debt.

    Q So do you have a sense of what's the subtotal number of times you've appeared as an expert witness?

Q Across those engagements was there a general subject matter of the issues you testified on?

A Really a hundred percent of it was related to capital markets issues.

estate-related loans.
Q And what was your role in approving those loans?
A I was the senior officer signing off.
Q And how many other real estate transactions have you worked on since then?
A It's not a specialty, but it is probably four or five.
Q Did any of the transactions, any of the commercial real estate transactions you worked on involve high net worth individuals as guarantors?
A Yes, so I had a couple.
Q Can you give us those examples?
A Yeah. The NatWest had a subsidiary called Coutts that handled the high net worth including the Queen and kind of transaction involving the Coutts client base which one of their high net worth individuals wanted to buy the Cunard Shipping Lines and related real estate assets.
Q Any other experience?
A Another client of Coutts wanted to take and split up a public U.S. company that had a real estate subsidiary. Both of these were two and-a-half to three-billion-dollar transactions involving bank financing and equity from the high net worth individuals.
Q And so who did you represent in those transactions that you just described?
A Curiously enough, both parties because the subsidiary

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. WALLACE)}

Page 3041
Coutts was a reporting agent to me and the clients were investment banking clients, so I was the mediator between both parties.
Q Over the course of your career, was review of financial statements to make credit decisions something you did on a regular basis?
A Pretty much everything I've done involves review of financial statements and analysis, be it mergers or equity financing, or debt financing. I might have completed, I don't know, 350, 400 transactions and I probably looked at twice as many. So pretty much every day I go to work, I analyze financial statements.
Q What kinds of financial statements, corporate, personal?
A Corporate in the majority and the high-net worth individuals, it is individual statements.
Q And is there a significant difference between corporate financial statements and individual financial statements?
A Not really. I mean, it's still the same accounting principles. It is GAAP. So I don't really view them as highly different. Many of the family offices that we deal with are multi-billion-dollar enterprises.
Q And are you familiar with the banking transactions at issue in this case?
A Iam.

Q And is the analysis conducted by the lenders in this case similar to analysis that you had performed?
A Yes.
Q Are there any differences?
A One difference I notice is I don't know that I've ever dealt with compilation statements, so many of the transactions are done without audited statements, but compilation was a new thing to me.

MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I move to qualify Mr. McCarty as an expert in banking and capital markets.

THE COURT: Would that include expertise about compilations?

MR. WALLACE: Not in the preparation of compilations, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Let's hear from the other side.
MR. KISE: Well, it also appears that it is not a valuation of compilation statements either, so that's yet an additional reason that we would object to this witness in addition to the reasons we put on the record yesterday. He has now just testified that he's never dealt with compilation. "I don't know that I've ever dealt with compilation statements."

The entire case centers around the valuation by the banks of compilation statements. So while this witness merely has experience in the banking and financing sector and specifically with underwriting loan transactions, it appears that he does not have the specific experience relevant for purposes -- for the purposes that we're here.
Q Mr. McCarty are you capable of reading and understanding and analyzing a compilation statement? A I am. They're not really significant differences to me. The private financial statements of high-net worth individuals many times are unaudited and the difference between the statements, I believe, is not material to my analysis.

THE COURT: I hereby grant the request to deem him as an expert, but, of course, I'll keep in mind his statement that he doesn't or hasn't dealt with compilation statements, but balance that against his statement that he thinks they're somewhat similar or very similar to what he does have great experience with.

MR. KISE: And just briefly for the record, Your Honor, I think the answer to the question that Mr. Wallace posed still doesn't resolve the issue because he's basically saying in his own opinion there aren't significant differences, but if he hasn't dealt with them before, it is not possible for him to really know that. So he's just qualifying himself in that regard, but I understand the Court's ruling and our objection is noted.

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. WALLACE: As I understand, the issue is the these two reports?

A The matters are the same as I was retained to look at the economic impact of the false and misleading financial statements, if any.
Q And how did you go about conducting that analysis?
A I worked through the documents that were provided in production and I approached it the same way that I would in my transaction analysis. I broke down the business into analytical sections and did market research.

Q Mr. McCarty, I'm going to hand you a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3302.

Do you recognize this document?
A I do. This is the supplemental disclosure document I filed recently.

Q If we turn to the last page of this document, can you tell me what is reflected on this page?

A This is the updated lost interest calculation that I did in my original report modified in two manners.

Q Mr. McCarty, this is the subject matter I'd like to discuss with you today, this calculation that you prepared.

Could you tell us what was the assignment that led you to prepare this lost interest analysis?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, is this document in evidence?
MR. WALLACE: No.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. WALLACE)}

Page 3047
MR. WALLACE: Thank you, your Honor.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Demonstrative Exhibit 4.)
Q Mr. McCarty, going back to the question I asked, what was the assignment that led you to prepare this lost interest analysis?
A The same as my retention, to try to get a handle on the economic impact of the financial statements that were, I guess, judged as mistaken or fraudulent.

Q At a high level, can you explain to us how you went about that assignment?
A Yeah, I can. I might just say this is a modified version. The first version was in my last page of my report, expert report. This one has been modified to take into account the -- Your Honor's ruling on the statute of limitations and updated from the time from May to October. So it is the same analysis, same calculation. It is just modified for those two parts.

Q Okay. I'm going to hand you another document. This is not going into evidence. It is a copy of the summary judgment decision. It is NYSCEF Document No. 1531.

Mr. McCarty, if I could direct your attention to page 25 of this document, we'll pull it up on the screen. Footnote 21, this footnote states, "The subject loans made the banks lots of money; but the fraudulent SOFC's cost the banks lots of money. The less collateral for a loan, the riskier it is and a first principle of loan accounting is that as risk rises, so do interest rates. Thus, accurate SOFC's would have allowed the lenders to make even more money than they did."

Mr. McCarty, is the statement in this footnote consistent with your experience as a banker?

A With a few word changes, it could have been said by me as the way I look at risk and interest rates.

Q And so just so I understand at this point, your basis for saying that the Statements of Financial Condition that were used in the loans was misstated is coming from the judge's decision on summary judgment?
A That's correct.
Q Prior to the judge's decision on summary judgment, what was your basis for reaching that conclusion?
A Analysis of the financial statements myself on an independent basis.

Q And any other sources that you relied upon in reaching that conclusion?
A The credit reports of the Trump Organization.
Q Did you also rely on any other experts?
A I did for the valuation side. I didn't have an assignment to do the valuation of the assets, so I took as assumed the two valuation experts and the accounting experts' input.

MR. KISE: Objection. Going back to the footnote, are you asking him in his experience why this happens or are you asking him to comment --

MR. WALLACE: Can I conduct my exam? He has already stated -- I'm sorry. Actually, I assume the objection was to the judge. I withdraw it.

MR. KISE: A footnote in an opinion even by our learned judge is not a foundation for an expert to formulate an opinion as to the capital markets. If he's testifying -- if your question is is this his understanding of how it works based on his experience, that's one thing, but your question, I believe, was based on this footnote.

So if it is based on this footnote, I would say that's not a proper foundation because our judge may be an expert in many things, but I would respectfully suggest that he is not an expert in the capital markets. So if his experience bears this out, that's fine; but that wasn't your question.

MR. WALLACE: I'll go back to the prior question.
"Mr. McCarty, is the statement in the footnote consistent with your experience as a banker?"
"ANSWER: With a few word changes, it could have been said by me as the way I look at risk and interest rates".

I believe that's a sufficient foundation to show footnote, but he is saying -- the Court decided the statements were false, so that's the basis upon which he is going to discuss the opinions we're going to go through now.
        I don't know if I need to --
        MR. KISE: I reassert my objection to foundation.
        THE COURT: He can. Overruled.
        Q So going back to this footnote, Mr. McCarty, why is it as risk rises, interest rates go up?
        A The risk and sometimes it is included credit risk is a representation of -- that this is consistent.
MR. KISE: But then your subsequent question was not based on his experience. It was based on the footnote. So we just need to be clear here because as you know, we have a considerable disagreement as to the foundational and appropriate aspects of this witness testifying at all. So I just want to make sure the record is very, very clear here as to what he's testifying about.

THE COURT: I think the simplest way is just to ask the question again.

But I just want to ask the witness some day, will you tell me those few different word changes, so when I get another case like this, I'll know exactly how to state it.

THE WITNESS: Your words were better than mine.
THE COURT: Next question.
Q Mr. McCarty, do you have a view that as risk rises, interest rates go up?

A It's really a basis of the capital markets. Risk, sometimes called credit risk, is a representation of the probability of default. We call it PD for short and so as PD goes up, you have to compensate for the potential for loss and to do that, you raise the interest rate.

THE COURT: And you didn't learn that from me, right? You already knew that, right?

THE WITNESS: I did.

1 Q Mr. McCarty, is there a way to measure the differential you just described?

A The differential in what? If you would just clarify for me.
Q As risk goes up, is there a way to measure the differential in a loan when there's differential in risk?
A There is. There's reg agencies that exist. The banks all conform to the same, so you have a probability default very very low, nearly zero. It is a AA credit and if you have a probability of default that is five percent, that's a BB credit. And there's gradations all along, so people trade based on those analysis of the statements and whether they have a high probability default or a low probability.
Q And do those ratings apply to debt in all of its forms?
A It does. Bonds, loans, notes, convertibles. It is the whole spectrum of debt.
Q And did you conduct an analysis in this case of the risk differential from the various loans that are at issue here?
A I did.
Q How did you perform that analysis?
A I looked at the internal documents by Deutsche Bank of analyzing first the credit level of the guarantor versus the credit level of the collateral, the project itself without a guaranty.
Q If we could take a step back for just a moment.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. WALLACE)}

Page 3053
1 What determines the interest rate that a bank will charge for a particular loan?
A It varies. The first thing is the cost of their funds.
Then they put on a cost of servicing those funds and then the most key element is the risk premium. In the case of AA, there's very little risk premium. I did AT&T's last debt financing back before I was independent and they had a rate that was very similar to the U.S. Government rate, a risk-free rate. If there is a higher rate for premium, the interest rate goes up based on that premium.

Q And just to unpack some of what you said, you said a cost of funds for the bank is one element in what the interest rate is charged. What is the cost of funds?
A It varies by type of debt it is. If it's a personal guaranty where there's very little risk, A or AA credit, the cost of funds is very low for the bank because they don't have to set aside much equity. The Basel II mandated that the bank set aside equity based on the rating of the particular loan. So if you have a AA rated loan, you set aside very little equity. That means your cost of providing the money and the funds to the loan is very low.
Q And you said that the most important part was the risk premium. Could you explain what you mean by that?

A The risk premium is really, again, your own interpretation of the credit risk of the enterprise you're lending to, the individual, or the project, or some other structure.
Q And did you identify discussion of the risk premium on the loans in this case?
A I did, independently and also with reviewing the Deutsche Bank material.
Q And what conclusions did you reach?
A Conclusion I reached that the loans with the guaranty, the three principal trophy ones, Doral, OPO and Chicago, were assigned a very low risk level an A level or better, a strong A and a risk premium of almost zero by PWM.
Q Were there any other risk analyses that you found in your review of the Deutsche Bank materials?
A I did. In reading through the different credit memos, they did an independent analysis of the collateral which is short for the project-based credit availability and that one was a BB connoting that the probabilities independent without the guaranty held a relatively high risk.

BB is considered the first step of non-investment grade. If you go to BBB , it is investment grade. So they determined the projects were non-investment grade BB.
Q When you say the projects were determined to be non-investment grade BB, which projects were those?
A The three I mentioned; Doral, OPO and Chicago.
Q And was there a reason the bank determined those were

\section*{BB?}

A I think so. I mean, I know Doral. I've been there, played the Blue Monster a few times, and it was a project turnaround. It had been brought out of bankruptcy. MSR owned it, was selling it in bankruptcy. It needed a large amount of spending and a change in the image, so when you're doing a turnaround project like that, that's a risk item that a banker would look at and say that's a risky project. OPO was a startup. It was a conversion of a facility to a hotel for the first time. Startups carry their own risk premium.

Q And did you identify any impacts in the difference between these risks?

A Significant. The difference in the strong A credit and BB credit is many basis points, so I'm going -- I'm sorry for using basis points. Basis points are ticks in a one percent, so 100 basis points is one percent. I'll try to use percents. It's - it can be as much as seven or eight percent difference between the two different credit ratings.

Q And what is reflected in that difference between the interest rates?

A It is a difference in risk. Again, the probability default of the two. Historically, banks have been very willing to lend to high-net worth individuals at low rates because they get repaid so...
25 Q You described that there was -- I think you said there may be as much as an eight-percent difference. Here, did youconduct an analysis to determine the interest rate differentialbetween the BB credit and the A credit?
M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. WALLACE) Page 3056
A We did. We did several different analysis. We brokedown the analysis that Deutsche Bank had done of the projects.We went out and looked at -- it is hard to find a directcomparable, so there is no direct comparable, but we saw thingslike ClubCorp which was a ten percent issuer, BB credit. We dida scan of all BB credits of similar size and they all centeredaround kind of nine, ten percent at that time, the time of the loans.
    Q Any other confirmation that you were able to obtain asto your analysis of the interest rates?A After we did the comparable analysis and market sweep,we then looked at documents that CRE had proposed to finance theproject without a guaranty.
    Q If we could go back to what I believe is now Plaintiff's Demonstrative 4, if I could direct your attention to the top row, which is Doral, could you tell me what is your understanding of the Doral project?
    A Doral project is a large resort in South Florida. It involves several golf courses and a spa facility and a large number of bungalows. The spin was estimated to be something like \($ 200\) million to rehab the facility, make it a viable, long-term project.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. WALLACE)}

Q And if we look at the top row, the line that says, "actual INT percent," what is reflected in that row?
A We took that straight from the Trump statements. This is the actual interest rate paid in each of the years and the same is true of the loan amounts, that they're exactly the amounts that were outstanding for each of the years.

Q When you say "loan amount," you're referring to the row that says, "loan AMT ADJ"?

A Yes.
Q Can you tell us what is reflected in the "low CRE INT percentage"?

A We -- after we did the market analysis and determined that the BB credit was in a tight band, we then decided that the CRE proposals for each of the projects, since they knew more about the projects than the market would have, was probably the best representative, contemporaneous data for an interest rate for the projects without the guaranty.
Q And if we look at the numbers, they're spread out in the row "CRE INT," it stays at ten percent from 2014 through 2022. Why does the rate stay the same?

A We made a decision to keep it. The line above it is floating with LIBOR pricing. We decided in CRE to keep it straight for each of the projects as a conservative measure. We were concerned that with interest rates going up in '17, '18 and '19, that it would present too dramatic a number, so we decided to just flat rate it at the original rate. (Continued on the next page.)
en

Page 3059
Q And just to make sure I'm understanding correctly, you said the line above is a floating rate. This is the numbers reflected in the row, "actual INT percentage rate." That's the row you're referring to?
A That's correct. The loans were made as a premium to LIBOR and so as LIBOR went up, the interest paid went up and when LIBOR went down, interest payments go down.
Q And so if we look at the bottom row under the Doral section, it says "interest delta." What is reflected in that row?
A That's the difference between the first two rows and dollar amounts and so each year that's the calculation of the difference in if it's project financed versus guaranteed finance and that differential is totalled up for Doral on the far right, 72,908,308.
Q And what is the basis for the GAAP in the interest rates you've identified here?
A The basis is that the financial statements as provided wouldn't allow PWM along with conditions of the projects to have made the loans and that the true rate of risk premium was the CRE line. So the differential between the two was the - my calculation lost interest due to the debt difference.
Q Do you have --
MR. KISE: Objection. Move to strike the answer the answer, assumes facts not in evidence, Your Honor.

MR. WALLACE: What facts are --
MR. KISE: The real banks in the real world that actually evaluated the loan have not testified in this courtroom at trial that in fact they would not have approved the loans and at those levels. So this witness is assuming facts that are not in evidence at all. He's introducing new facts with that testimony -- that answer.

MR. WALLACE: I will make two points. One is an expert is allowed to rely upon hearsay and evidence that is not in the record. I will also note that the terms of the offers that were made by the -- that were made by Deutsche Bank were not disputed at summary judgments. We are entitled to disgorgement potentially coming out of the summary judgment decision and hence, it is part of the record as something that an expert is perfectly capable of considering.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, if the government is asking this witness to do the math between the two numbers and testify that that's the mathematical difference, that's fine, but that wasn't the question. That wasn't the answer that was given. The answer that was given is that Private Wealth Management would not have made this loan on these terms based on his analysis and there is no evidence from the real banks that operate in the real word that did their own real evaluation. That's what's in the record right now.

MR. WALLACE: Based on fraudulent financial statements. This is the hurdle you guys can --

MR. KISE: Can I finish my objection, please?
THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, please don't interrupt. MR. WALLACE: All right.
MR. KISE: And so the government as I say is perfectly capable of eliciting that testimony from the bank. It's their burden to do it. It's not my burden to undo it. It's their burden to do that. They were perfectly capable of doing that. They didn't because we all know from the record that isn't before the Court that the answer would not have been favorable to them. So that's why they didn't do it. So they now have a witness who is an expert and I don't quarrel with his qualifications in that regard, but he is assuming facts not in evidence which is clearly not appropriate under the case law that we cited. There is no record evidence. He's -- as the Ortiz case that we discussed, there are two eyewitnesss and this is an accident reconstructionist that's coming in.

I'll wait so you can read the note that
Ms. Greenfield just handed you.
THE COURT: What do I want for dinner?
MR. KISE: Right. That was yesterday.
THE COURT: Well, we could ask the witness what facts he's assuming.

MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I actually don't think he is assuming any facts and the record does show there was an offer made. I think he is describing his knowledge and his assessment of whether the loans would have been made, but ultimately, we are asking him to measure the difference between a market rate without a statement of financial condition and the rate that they obtained with the statement of financial condition. This is not an element of a 6312 claim but it is to provide assistance to the Court in determining what was the potential profit that came from the fraudulent activity that we've already identified and established. So it is not an element of 6312. It is not speculation and it is based on the facts that are in the record at this point as to what -- how these loans are being priced by different groups. I think he has also said he compared this to the market rates, which I - was going to actually be my next question.

So I think that this is a basis. If they want to suggest that it's not reliable, that he should rely on other information, that's perfectly fine. It seems like they have a very large binder for cross examination they can go through and they can make an argument on it as to what the appropriate measure of disgorgement might be, but at this point he's basing his opinions on facts that are in the record.

THE COURT: Well, I think we need to ask him what facts, if any, he assumed. Then we decide whether they're in the record.

As for whether experts are allowed to rely on hearsay, that's a subtle one. I don't think I've come across yet. Do you have any authority for that? Can you get authority for that?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'm not even suggesting it's relying on hearsay. What I'm saying is that the facts don't exist at all, that they haven't established that the gains are ill gotten in the first place because the bank itself has not provided that testimony.

Just because the statements may have contained falsities based on Your Honor's ruling, which you know we disagree with, but just because the statements may have contained inaccuracies, falsities, how you want to describe it does not mean that the bank in fact would have done something different. And until that is established, the gains are not ill gotten because if the bank were to say that even knowing what I know today, yes, I would have likely made those loans and Your Honor knows we're going to hear testimony from that same bank that's going to say that Mr. Trump would have qualified for the private wealth management group anyway. So the idea that whether it's two and a half billion, whether it's one billion, whether it's 500 million. So the question is whether the bank who had the responsibility in the real world to make the credit determination to determine the probability of default as this expert has just testified to, made that decision and with the revised information would they have made the same decision? I don't know whether this witness would have made the same decision, but that's not what's at issue here. What's at issue here is whether the bank made the decision or would have made a different decision or would have actually priced the loans differently considering all of the factors. And yes, we will get to a lot of other specific items in cross examination, but this is a fundamental question and this witness is assuming that the bank -- he's substituting his judgment. He's saying well, based on what I see I wouldn't have approved it, okay, that's great. But he doesn't get to make that call unless the bank says they wouldn't have approved it. Back to the Ortiz case and the other cases that we cited.

MR. WALLACE: I don't think it is our obligation to have a loan officer from Deutsche Bank sit here and listen to all the evidence that comes in at trial and then say yes, so let me go back and figure out what would have really happened if I had known all the lies that Donald Trump was telling me. That's not how this works. And Mr. Kise is rehashing the same arguments we made yesterday when they made their motion to preclude Mr. McCarty's testimony. This is a measure of the benefit they obtained. That is perfectly reasonable, expert testimony.

\section*{M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace)}

We do not need to prove the counterfactual of we reconstruct every piece of his financial statements. We showed that he used fraudulent financial statements in business to obtain these loans.

The measure of the benefit is perfectly reasonable expert testimony. It is not something that we have to establish by going back to each of the loan officers who are making the decision at the time these loans were made.

MR. KISE: Of course it is, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Hold on. I'm arguing for you. I still want to know what he based his answer on.

MR. WALLACE: I'm happy to get that information, but we've now drifted into a legal argument over essentially the same issues we were discussing yesterday. I'm happy to continue with the exam and ask Mr. McCarty to repeat what he based his decision on what the CRE INT percentage.

THE COURT: It's not even a legal argument. It's more of a mathematical argument. Anyway, why don't you given Mr. Kise's objection, which I'll sustain without prejudice to further examination --

MR. WALLACE: I'm sorry, what's been sustained?
THE COURT: His objection at this point on the
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace)

Page 3066

19 reflects the rate that Mr. Trump was able to obtain using his financial statement?

A That's actually off their statements.
Q Okay. And the CRE INT is just the interest rate that he was -- that one would obtain without using a personal guaranty. Is that a correct analysis?

A From Deutsche Bank invalidated in the market, yes.

THE COURT: So objection now overruled subject to cross examination. He said where he got the numbers.

MR. KISE: Right. I just want to be clear that he's testifying as to the mathematics, not to the ill gotten nature of the gain. He's just testifying these are the differences and the numbers.

MR. WALLACE: He is testifying as to what he is testifying to. There is someone here writing it all down. If we have a legal dispute as to whether that is an appropriate measure of disgorgement, that's our closing arguments or post-trial briefing, but the evidence of the work he did is the evidence of the work he did.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, you're asking -- you want to be clear what he testified to. The record will show what he testified to.

MR. KISE: But he's testifying to mathematics. That's acceptable. He can put up numbers on the board and testify to them, but our objection goes right to the point he can't substitute his judgment which is what the one question that we talked about that where this whole colloquy began. The one question is the loans -- they're not ill gotten gains if the bank doesn't testify that they would have done -- they would have not done anything differently if the bank would have acted the same under the circumstances. Then the gains are not ill gotten.

\section*{lease.}

Q Okay. And so in this analysis what does the row "actual INT percentage" reflect?
A It's the same. This is off the June statements of Trump Organization actual interest paid.
Q Okay. And the row marked "CRE INT," how did you determine the CRE INT for this loan?
A Unlike Doral and Chicago, which are very forward and similar, we had an issue with OPO because the proposal from Deutsche Bank included what we wonderfully call in my business bells and whistles which is intended to be a representation of other terms and conditions that have economic effect that aren't in the interest rate.
Q And what were some of the bells and whistles you had to consider?
A The first one, the major one was it was for a smaller amount than the proposal, the actual proposal by \($ 30\) million. So it required -- the Trump Organization would have required the Trump Organization to put up \($ 30\) million more equity into the project to complete it.
Q And what impact did the fact that the Trump Organization had to put in an additional \($ 30\) million of equity, what effect did that have on your analysis?
A Well, some people don't realize it, but equity has a 25 cost and the cost of equity can be determined and it's actually
As long as this witness is not testifying that the gains were not ill gotten, that this is -- if he's just testifying these are math numbers and there was one number that was the actual and there is one number that was the CRE, then that's fine. But I don't believe that that's where this is going and I don't believe that's what this witness is testifying to.

MR. WALLACE: Well, I believe the witness has said he is relying upon the Court's determination and summary judgment. I will say that if this is, again, legal argument as to whether this is an appropriate measure of damages. And so I would like to continue to put in this evidence and we can continue our disagreements as to whether or not this establishes an improper benefit to Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization, but that the testimony is the testimony.

THE COURT: Yes, objection overruled. Let's move on.

MR. KISE: Okay.
Q Mr. McCarty, I'd like to move on to the next row, the OPO loan. Can you tell us what's your understanding of the OPO project?
A OPO project was the Old Post Office in Washington, D.C. That was put out for bid for converting it to a hotel. Series of bidders put forward proposals and the Trump Organization ultimately won the right to convert and hold the
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace)
more expensive than debt. So we took a shot at cost to capital for the equity and adjusted the interest rate for that additional required equity.

Q And how did you do that?
A We took a cost to capital for project finance real estate-related average which is like 12 percent. So we took 12 percent on the 30 million to come back to an add on to get to a comparable rate.

Q Any other bells and whistles that you had to consider?
A This had a series of -- this was the only one that we found that was a proposed syndicated loan and syndicated loans have fees attached to them, one percent up front and three percent on syndication. So this had four percent fees that were not included in the other transactions.
Q And just to make sure the record is clear what does it mean to syndicate a loan?

A One bank originates it. They get an origination fee. They go out to distribute it to other banks. They have an agreement with the borrower they're allowed to sell the loans to other banks.
Q Any other bells and whistles that you had to consider?
A There are -- this is cash sweeps and low yield categories that basically restricted the ability to take cash out of the business and we had to take account of the differential.

Q And could you just describe for us what is a cash sweep?
A This is basically a lockbox. I think people might know that better where all the cash that comes into the organization, goes to a lockbox and is only released by the bank when and if the other obligations have been satisfied.
Q And so taking all those factors into account, what did you determine about the CRE interest rate?
A On a comparable basis it was eight percent we believe.
Q And were you able to determine whether or not that was a market rate?
A We did. We went out and did a similar comparable run through for -- again, there is nothing directly comparable to OPO, but we believe that in kind of the center of the comparable group.
Q And so just so I'm understanding, once again, the actual interest rate row shows the loan that Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization were able to obtain using personal guaranty and the financial statement; is that correct?
A That's correct.
Q And so then the CRE interest rate percentage row shows your assessment of what the market rate would be for a loan with no personal guaranty whatsoever?

A That's correct.
Q Once again, you used a fixed rate throughout the term?

1 A We did. We ran it with a floating rate, but it was significantly higher, so we decided to be conservative and keep it flat.

Q I think you described this when you were talking about the Doral loan as well that is because there was variation in the LIBOR rate during the term of this loan; is that correct?
A That's correct. And it would have been a significantly higher, several points higher for several of the years.
Q And so what was the total interest differential on the OPO property?

A Well, using the same loan amounts as from their books.
We came up with an interest differential lost interest of 53,423,209.

Q Okay.
MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Same ruling.
I just want to point out one other thing which goes back to our earlier discussions. I believe you said your only objection or your main objection was to any reading into what he said that these gains are ill gotten. I decided they were ill gotten. He's not deciding that. He's deciding the number.

MR. KISE: Yes, Your Honor, but the only basis for an expert to testify is in this circumstance as we went over yesterday, I'm not going to belabor it, but is where the Q And so how did you calculate the CRE interest rate for the Chicago loan?

A The CRE was from the term sheet that Deutsche Bank CRE provided to them. It had several iterations. I saw a redline version of it, so I think it had been interactively provided and so that was the rate. Again, we did it flat. This was the LIBOR plus the stated premium that CRE offered on a non-guaranteed basis.
Q Okay. And in the far right, what was your calculation as to the total interest benefit on the Chicago property?

A It was \(17,443,359\).
MR. KISE: Same objection. Interest benefit.
THE COURT: Same ruling. Overruled.
Q Mr. McCarty, do you recall being deposed by the defendant in this case?
A I do.
Q Do you recall the defendants asking you about a default rate on these three loans?
A Ido.
Q Did you consider as part of your work whether the default rate was an appropriate means to establish lost interest?
A I did.
Q And what did you -- what conclusion did you reach?
MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Again, now he's record provides an opening for that if there is no record evidence that the gains were ill gotten, meaning the bank itself in the real world with their real analysis does not say that they would have in fact done something different, then none of this comes in at all because it's like the accident reconstructionist being brought in in the case that I cited where there is two eyewitnesss to the accident.

The expert simply cannot contradict the record evidence. The expert can opine on the record evidence, but he or she cannot contradict the record evidence.

THE COURT: Overruled. And five-minute warning.
MR. WALLACE: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Mr. McCarty, just to move on to the next row. It states "Chicago." Can you tell me what is your understanding of what the Chicago loan is?
A There are actually two loans in Chicago, an A and a B and we actually didn't do the \(A\) because it was retired early, so we only did the \(B\) loan.
Q And what was the B loan that you analyzed?
A This is related to a hotel condominium complex in Chicago that Deutsche Bank had lent to previously.
Q Okay. And how did you calculate the -- let me just backup. Was your analysis for the Chicago loan similar to the analysis you conducted for the other loans?

A Yes. It's just exactly like Doral.
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace)

going outside even the documents. I mean, the document the contract, the agreement between the parties specifies a default rate. That was agreed to between these sophisticated parties. It was negotiated carefully. There is no basis in this record for an expert to come in and testify that that default rate wouldn't otherwise apply. It's just not -- there is no foundation at all for that. That's -- that's beyond absurd to have a witness testify directly contrary to the agreement of the parties.

The parties' agreement forms the foundation of the relationship and it was up to the bank to exercise its rights if it felt there was a default or if it didn't think there was a default or if it didn't think there was a default that it cared about because we're talking about performing loans, then they would have done nothing, but there is no foundation for this witness to substitute his judgment for what's actually in the documents.

THE COURT: You said there was an agreement as to the default rate?

MR. KISE: There is a -- there is a --
THE COURT: That was a yes or no.
MR. KISE: Yes.
THE COURT: Okay. Was there an agreement that it had to be applied?

MR. KISE: No. It was up to the bank's discretion.

MR. WALLACE: And, Your Honor, I'm just going to remind you the rules around disgorgement provide that it should be an approximation of what the benefit was. I'm just asking him now if his view is whether the default rate represented an appropriate way to establish lost interest. I think we have an objection.

THE COURT: Overruled.
MR. KISE: There are -- Your Honor, they're asking this witness to substitute its judgment for what was negotiated between the parties. That's completely improper. There is absolutely no basis for that.

THE COURT: Are you -- Mr. Wallace, are you doing what you're being accused of?

MR. KISE: It's exactly what he's doing.
THE COURT: Are you violating an agreement between the parties?

MR. WALLACE: I just want to make sure I have the question proper.

No.
MR. KISE: He's disregarding it. That's the record evidence. There is an agreement between the parties and he's asking this witness if that's an appropriate measure the parties negotiated that as the appropriate measure. You can't just throw that out by some expert.

MR. WALLACE: Mr. McCarty has his opinion as to

MR. KISE: It's not appropriate to even introduce into the record and it's not appropriate for the Court to consider it that it contravenes the evidence in the record if there is no foundation for it.
Q Did you actually conduct an analysis of what the differential would have been if you'd used the penalty rate?

A I did.
Q And what --
MR. KISE: Objection.
Q What knowledge did you come to?
A It's a number that's larger than this.
\(Q\) So it's larger than the numbers that we have on the differential in the loans here?

A The total number, yes.
THE COURT: You see, he's giving you a break.
MR. WALLACE: I think speaking of breaks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I wish I had thought of that.
All right. Let's say we'll call it a ten-minute break over the next 17 minutes, so I'll see you all at quarter to 12.

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, how much longer?
MR. WALLACE: For my direct, I would say five to ten minutes at most.

THE COURT: Good.
Do you have any idea how long the cross-examination will be if he has five to ten minutes?

MR. KISE: I would say probably three hours, could be two. We are going to have - we're going to have the lunch break in between. That will help us review.

THE COURT: Depends on what we eat.
MR. KISE: Right.
THE WITNESS: Witness entering.
THE COURT: Let's go.
Q It is still morning, Mr. McCarty.
MR. WALLACE: If we could put Plaintiff's
Demonstrative 4 back up on the screen, please.
Q Mr. McCarty, just looking to clarify one thing about your calculations on Doral and Chicago.

Under the year 2014, does that represent the full year calculation of interest or some other time period?
A No. I probably should footnote that. As I started to say in the beginning, we modified this for the judge's ruling of July 13, 2014 as a no-look-back date, so that includes only

Page 3081
July 14th forward.
Q Thank you. If we go down to the bottom row, 40 Wall. First, can you give me your understanding of this loan transaction?

A This was a re-financing of a Capital One mortgage that was done through Ladder Capital and for the 40 Wall Street building downtown Manhattan.

Q And how did you calculate the lost interest for this loan?

A Again, starting off, we took the actual interest off the books. This was a fixed rate loan and for the second one, we took -- the first one is Ladder Capital, not Deutsche Bank. There's a difference here. That's Ladder Capital's actual interest paid and the second line is an assumption we made that with the financial statements being determined to be false and misleading, they wouldn't have been able to get the Ladder Capital loan done and that they extended their existing facility with Capital One for the period.

MR. KISE: Same objection. Move to strike, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q Now, the loan to -- from -- for 40 Wall Street, that was not a guaranteed loan, correct?

A There was usage of the financial statements material in the offering material by Ladder Capital, so that's why we viewed it as something that would be impinged.
Q Were there any other transactions that you were asked to look at?
A We were asked to look at the Bryn Mawr loan, which was a smaller loan, and we determined that it really wasn't material to the discussion, so we didn't put it in the calculation.
Q And when you say "material," how did you interpret that to mean?
A It was less than a million dollars of impact.
Q Can I ask you the numbers reflected in your table, do they reflect compound interest or simple interest?
A It's simple interest. There's no time value of money to these at all.
Q And in your work compiling these numbers, did you consider any prejudgment interest in reaching these calculations?
A No, we did not.
MR. WALLACE: Nothing further, Your Honor. THE COURT: Okay. Let's start the cross-examination.
CROSS-EXAMINATION
BY MR. SUAREZ:
Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
A Good morning, sir. MR. SUAREZ: Is this on?

Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
Banks historically have been willing to lend to high-net worth individuals because they get repaid. That's what you said on your direct, correct?

A That's correct.
Q And that's exactly what happened here, isn't it?
A I believe everybody got repaid, yes.
Q Okay. The Deutsche Bank loans, OPO Chicago and Doral, they were loans that were made to borrowers guaranteed by a high-net worth individual and they got repaid, right?

A Yes.
THE COURT: I'll give you some leeway, but this has been admitted, conceded, stipulated, et cetera, et cetera, so let's not spend a lot of time.

MR. SUAREZ: The key difference here, Your Honor, is that he testified on his direct that banks have historically been willing to lend to high-net worth individuals because they get repaid.

THE COURT: Go ahead.
Q That's correct?
A That's correct.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)} management environment, correct?

A That's where most high-net worth individual loans are made, yes.
Q And you've never worked in a private wealth group of a bank, correct?
A I've worked in the banks that have private wealth, but I've never been an officer in a private wealth management group.

Q So long story short, you've never worked in the private wealth management group of a bank, right?

A No, not in the group.
Q You've never worked at Deutsche Bank, correct?
A No.
Q You've never worked at Ladder Capital, right?
A No.
Q Before you got involved in this case, you had never read the Deutsche Bank credit policies, correct?

A That one, I may have. I've done several transactions with Deutsche Bank and I believe I've probably seen it one time or another.

Q Had you reviewed the Deutsche Bank private wealth group policies?

A No. Again, I was a customer of private wealth management for a dozen or so years, so I might have seen it as part of my interaction as a customer.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

Q Your testimony is that as a customer of the private wealth group, you reviewed their private wealth management lending policies?
A I was good friends with Tom Bowers who ran that group and set it up, so Tom Bowers, so I might have seen it. I don't recall it today.
Q But you certainly have no expertise in them, correct?
A Clarify for me what expertise you're looking for.
Q Were you a specialist in the Deutsche Bank private wealth lending policies?

A No.
Q Were you a specialist in the Deutsche Bank credit policies?
A As they consider consistent with Basel II, I'm familiar with their policies, yes.

Q But you're not familiar prior to becoming involved with this case specifically with the Deutsche Bank credit policies, right?
A With Deutsche Bank specifically, no.
Q Okay. And the same is true for Ladder Capital, correct?

A Correct.
Q The New York Attorney General, I believe, is paying you \($ 950\) an hour for your work on this case, correct?

A That's my standard rate, yes.

1 Q As of your deposition, the People of the State of New York has paid you approximately \($ 300,000\), correct?

A That's about right.
Q How much more have you been paid since your deposition?
A Well, I haven't been paid any more than that. I may have billed some.
7 Q How much have you billed since your deposition?
8 A I don't really recall, but it might be 40 or \($ 50,000\).
9 Q So in total, you've been paid to bill the Attorney
10 General People of the State of New York over \($ 750,000\) for your testimony today, correct?

A The math -- 300,000 plus 40 or 50.
Q I heard 450. I'm sorry.
A 40 or 50.
Q I'm having a hard time hearing.
A Sorry about that. I'll get closer to the mic.
Q Approximately \($ 400,000\) for your work in this case?
A A little less than that, but yes.
Q How much more do you expect to charge the People of the State of New York for your work in this case?

A Other than for my testimony today, I don't anticipate any more.

Q Since your deposition, have you read any additional materials?

A Not that I can recall.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

Page 3087
Q And have you reviewed any of the trial testimony in this case?

A I haven't seen any of the daily transcripts, no.
Q I notice you were here for the first day of Mr. Haigh's testimony; is that correct?

A Partial day. I think I had the morning.
Q You didn't see the entirety of the Mr. Haigh's testimony; is that correct?
A No.
THE COURT: That's another example of a question asked in the negative. The response is ambiguous. "You didn't do it, did you, no." That could mean "No, I didn't do it or "No, you're wrong. I did it." So I suggest to everybody again, ask questions in the positive. "Did you," not "didn't you."
Q Is it correct that you were not here for the entirety of Mr. Haigh's testimony?
A I think I left after lunch.
Q You were retained through Kroll in this case?
A Excuse me? I didn't hear your question.
Q Were you retained through Kroll, Kroll & Associates?
A K-R-O-L-L. I was retained by the Attorney General's office and through Kroll, yes.
Q That wasn't disclosed in your expert disclosures, 25 correct?

1 A I'm not aware if it was or not.
2 Q You wrote your expert disclosures, correct?
3 A I just don't recall whether it mentioned Kroll or not.
4 Q You were the author of the expert disclosures that you submitted to this Court?
6 A Yes.
7 Q Did anyone else help you in preparing those expert disclosures?
A Probably one of my associates, yes.
Q Who typed them out?
A Probably one of my associates.
Q Were they reviewed by the New York Attorney General prior to submitting them to the Court?

A I believe so, yes.
Q Have you reviewed any other materials introduced at trial prior to your testimony today?

A What time frame are you referring to?
Q Since the inception of trial.
A No, I don't believe so.
Q Nobody has sent you exhibits that have been introduced?
A No.
Q Nobody has sent you trial transcripts? I believe you said you didn't read them.

A No.
Q But others did help you prepare the opinions that

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

Page 3089
you're offering here today at trial, correct?
A No, they're my opinions.
Q That wasn't my question. Others helped you prepare them, correct?
A Not my opinions. They helped me do the research and analysis. My opinions are from myself.
Q So others helped you prepare the research and analysis that support the opinions that you gave today?
A Parts of them that I gave them to do.
Q In connection with giving your opinions here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank credit policies?

A I've read them before.
Q In connection with the testimony that you are giving here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank credit policies, yes or no?

A Yes.
Q In connection with the testimony that you're giving here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank lending policies?
A Yes.
Q In connection with the testimony you're giving here today, did you read the Ladder Capital lending policies?
A No, I don't believe I read -- since it was an offering, I read the offering material, not the lending policy.
Q Did you review the Ladder Capital lending policies?
A No.

Q How much time did you spend reviewing the Deutsche Bank lending and credit policies prior to your testimony here today?
A Very hard to say. It's been a while, so I don't really have a recollection how long.
Q You don't remember how long you spent looking at them?
A No.
Q Or when you looked at them?
A No. I looked at them prior to my submission of my expert report, but I don't really recall how long.
Q And that was only last July, right?
A Actually, I think my report was May 26th.
Q Okay. You testified in July in a deposition?
A Deposition, yes.
Q So as recently as May of this year, you reviewed the Deutsche Bank credit and lending policies, but you don't remember how much time you spent looking at them, correct?
A No, I don't.
Q You were assisted in the preparation of the research and analysis that supports your opinions here today by Kroll & Associates, right?
A That's correct.
Q And by another gentleman at your firm named Michael Espinal; is that correct?
A That's correct.
Q And Mr. Espinal and Kroll determined the documents that
. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)
Page 3091
you would review in this case, correct?
A No. They responded to my questions and provided documents related to my questions.
Q They acted as a filter of information, correct?
A They had a knowledge base of the production that was useful, save me time in looking through all the documents.

Q Did they act as a filter of information?
A No, I don't believe so. They responded to my questions.

Q Because those were your words at your deposition. You said that they were a filter of information.
A I think a more accurate portrayal would be that they responded to my questions for documents.

Q But you don't doubt that you referred to it as a filter of information?

A I may have, yes.
Q You directed them to provide you with loan agreements, correct?

A Yes.
Q And annual reviews, correct?
A Credit reviews, yes.
Q Credit reviews. Also known as credit memos, right?
A That's right.
Q And loan documents?
A Correct.

1 A That's right.
2 Q Personal guarantees, correct?
3 A They were part of the documents.
4 Q All right. And you reviewed all of these documents and understood them, right?
6 A I kind of seen the same thing before, so it is pretty easy to understand.
8 Q They are pretty easy to understand?
9 A If you've done them hundreds of times.
10 Q Okay. And who prepared these documents for your review? Who created the universe of documents for you to review? It was the New York Attorney General, correct?

A I assume it was from the production from the case.
Q Did you review Deutsche Bank's entire production in this case?

A No, I did not.
Q Did you review any of Mazars' production in this case?
A I believe some of it, but I didn't -- my focus wasn't on the accounting aspect. Mr. Lewis took that, so I don't think I delved deeply into the Mazars.
Q Did you review any of the testimony offered by Jack Weisselberg in the trial in this matter?

A Not in the trial, no. I think I had looked at deposition material.
Q You never interviewed any of the Deutsche Bank
M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)

Page 3093
executives that were involved in the relevant loan transactions, correct?

A No.
Q You never interviewed anyone from Mazars, correct?
A No.
Q You never introduced anyone from Ladder Capital, right?
A Nope.
Q You never interviewed anyone from the Trump Organization either, correct?
A Nope.
THE COURT: By the way, that was four questions in the negative in a row. I wish you would stop doing that. These answers are ambiguous. "You didn't do that, did you"? No could mean "No, I didn't do that, or it could mean "No, you're wrong. I did that."
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Deutsche Bank?
A No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Ladder Capital?
A No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Mazars?
A No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone interest the Trump Organization?
A No.
THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. SUAREZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate it.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we put the demonstrative exhibit back up, please.
Q These are the four loan transactions that you testified about today, correct?

A That's correct. I think there was one where I testified about that we didn't include.
Q And that's not subject of your grand total of lost interest, right?

A That's correct. We judged it immaterial.
Q Let start with Doral. Actually, let's start with this chart. Did you prepare this chart?
A I did.
Q You went on Excel and created the actual chart?
A I do have a technical background. I can do Excel spreadsheets, yes.
\(Q\) Is that a yes?
A That was a yes.
Q Okay. And you reviewed the credit memo prepared in connection with the Doral transaction; is that correct?

A Idid.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we pull up Plaintiff's
Exhibit 293.
Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)
Page 3095
A Ido.
Q Is it correct that this document reflects the bank's analysis of the Doral loan transaction?

A I believe it does, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: If we could turn to the following page and zoom in on collateral.
Q Would you agree with me that the collateral for the Doral loan transaction is a first mortgage lien and a first priority security interest in the resort including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rent, revenue, operating accounts, reserves, and all other related assets?
A Yes, I believe that was true.
Q Did you review the Doral loan agreement?
A I believe I read it, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we pull that up, please. That's Defendant's Exhibit 212.
Q Do you recognize this document?
A Term loan agreement dated June 11, 2012 by and between Trump Endeavor as borrower and Deutsche Bank Trust Company
Americas as lender.
Q Did you review this document in connection with preparing the opinions that you've offered in court today?
A Idid.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, we move to admit

Defendants' Exhibit 212.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
And Mr. McCarty, even closer to the mic, so that it could bite you.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 212.)
MR. SUAREZ: I'd like to pull up Defendants'
Exhibit 213.
Q Mr. McCarty, please identify this document.
A This appears to be the first amendment to the Trump Endeavor agreement.

Q Did you review this document in connection with your representation of the opinions that you've offered in this case? A I believe so.

MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, we would like to move
Defendants' Exhibit D213 in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 213.)

MR. SUAREZ: Please pull up defendants' premarked Exhibit D387.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you identify this document, please?
A This is the second amendment to the term loan agreement.
MR. SUAREZ: I believe we have an actual copy to

Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
A I believe I read it, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, we would like to move
Exhibit 387.
MR. WALLACE: Evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 387.)
MR. SUAREZ: Please pull up plaintiff's premarked Exhibit 2315.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you identify this document?
A This is the third amendment to the term loan agreement.
Q And is this a document that you reviewed in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions?

A Yes, I believe it is.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'd move Exhibit 2315 in evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 2315.)

MR. SUAREZ: I'd like to show the witness plaintiff's premarked Exhibit 1303, please.
THE COURT: Can we proceed with the question based on what's on the screen?
Q Mr. McCarty, can you please identify this document?
A This appears to be the guaranty from Donald J. Trump guarantor to Deutsche Bank Trust.

Q Did you review this document in connection with your opinions in this case?

A I believe I reviewed it, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I would like to move
Defendants' 1303 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 1303.)

MR. SUAREZ: Let's, please, pull up Defendants' Exhibit 917.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
A I do. It's the first amendment to the guaranty.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?

A I believe so, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Defendants' Exhibit 917 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

MR. SUAREZ: Please pull up Plaintiff's 1304.

\(1 \quad \mathrm{Q}\) Mr. McCarty, did you review this document in connection with your preparation of your opinions in this case?

A I believe so, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I would like to move
Exhibit 916 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 916.)
Q Mr. McCarty, in connection with your preparation of your opinions in this case, you became familiar with loan documents and the guaranty documents, correct?

A For the economic terms that we needed to analyze, yes, but not on a complete basis.
Q Sorry?
A For the economic terms that I needed to prepare my material I reviewed.
Q I didn't hear the second part of your answer.
A Sorry. For the economic results that I needed to prepare my material is what I reviewed.
THE COURT: And not on a complete basis I think he said.

MR. SUAREZ: Not on a complete basis. Understood.
Thank you.
Q But you understood how the economic terms worked,
correct?
M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)

Page 3101
A Yes, I was.
2 Q And you understood that the Trump Park Avenue was not collateral pledged for this loan, correct?
A That's correct.
Q You understood the Trump Tower was not collateral pledged for this loan, correct?
A I think also Niketown wasn't either, so...
Q Okay. Niketown was not part of the collateral pledged, correct?
A That's correct.
Q 40 Wall Street was not part of the collateral pledged in connection with this loan, correct?

A I'm not certain of 40 Wall, but I don't have a recollection of \(i\).

Q Well, earlier we went through the credit memo.
A Right.
Q Described the collateral for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan, correct?

A Right.
Q Was 40 Wall part of the collateral pledged for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan?
A As I sit here, I don't recall whether it was or wasn't.
23 Q How about Seven Springs? Was Seven Springs pledged as 24 collateral?
25 A To the specific loan for Bryn Mawr, I believe it was.

Q No. We are talking about the Trump Endeavor 12 loan.
A No. I'm sorry, it wasn't.
Q Specifically with respect to the Trump Endeavor 12 loan extended by Deutsche Bank, 40 Wall Street wasn't either, right?
A I said I don't recall.
Q It wasn't reflected in the credit memos pledged collateral, correct?
A I don't specifically recall whether it was or wasn't.
Q We just reviewed it a minute ago.
A Yeah.
\(Q\) Do you want to me it back up?
A No. It's okay. You're asking me whether I recalled it.

Q Okay. Was 40 Wall Street pledged as collateral for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan?
A Again, I don't recall whether it was or not.

Q Do you see Plaintiff's Exhibit 293?
A Yes.
Q This is something that you reviewed?
A Yes.
Q And the second page describes the collateral.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we blow it up?
Q "First mortgage lien on a first priority security interest in the resort, including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rents, revenue, operating accounts, reserves, and all other related assets." Do you see that?
A I do.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that 40 Wall Street was pledged as collateral for this loan?
A No.
THE COURT: Mr. Suarez and Mr. Kise, I see why this is going to take two or three hours. Every question -- some questions come with three four or more questions. There is no evidence that it was the collateral. He says he didn't remember. We saw this document already. Why are you so worried about whether it was or it wasn't? It wasn't as far as I can tell. If someone in the audience has evidence that it was pledged as collateral, raise your hand. Okay, nobody raised his or her hand. Please stop making one question into four or five.

MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, respectfully, I'm just going to, as I have before, object. You never interrupt the prosecution, you never give them speeches, you never limit their questions, you never limit them on time, so I'm just putting that on the record, Your Honor. I think it's unfair.

THE COURT: I stand by my criticism.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I asked the witness a very simple question he was for whatever reason reluctant to give a very simple answer.

THE COURT: No, he did answer. He said he didn't remember that was the answer.

MR. SUAREZ: That's even more concerning because we showed him the credit memo ten minutes ago.

THE COURT: It doesn't say and 40 Wall Street is not on the collateral. That was a very general and vague statement, but let's move on.
Q The airplanes owned by entities belonging to President Trump aren't part of the collateral either; right?
A No, it doesn't appear to be, no.
THE COURT: Well, that's -- it says what the collateral is. I don't see the word "President's airplanes" phrased.

MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, he said it was really simple to read these credit memos. If they're so simple he

\section*{M. McCarty - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez)}

Page 3105
1 should be able to answer them.
THE COURT: They're so simple. You shouldn't have to ask him. That does not state the president's airplanes. That's why this is taking two or three hours.

Go ahead, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, we need to make our record with this witness. This witness is the only witness that they have that even hints at anything to do with ill gotten gains. Not going over that again, but we need to challenge his credibility, his memory, his ability to recite even simple things. I mean, all of that is at issue here. I mean, all of it. So I think we should be allowed -- you've allowed them the latitude of introducing him in the first place which I think is completely contrary to the case law as you know, and I respect your ruling. But we should be allowed some latitude. We've been going all of about 15 or 20 minutes. I just don't understand why we always get interrupted. It's becoming a bit of a pattern, respectfully.

THE COURT: I stand by my rulings and my statements.

Please continue. Let's not go over everything that Trump owned and ask the witness is it true that that's not part of the collateral. The collateral is listed there.

MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I heard you on the first
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez)

day of trial when you asked me to then summarize it and do it in a more rapid manner for the subsequent entities. I'm going to do it on the Doral loan and I'll do it in a much more summary fashion on the other transactions.

THE COURT: Thank you.
Q The guarantor of personal -- withdrawn.
Mr. Trump's personal residences are not identified as collateral for this loan; correct?
A That's correct.
Q And in your review of the loan documents and the credit memos, would you agree with me that the personal guaranty on the Doral transaction was reduced to a ten percent level by August 3rd of 2015?
A I think that's the right date. I realize it had a decrease in guaranty over time.
Q You understood that the guaranty burns down?
A That's correct.
Q As the loan to value burns down?
A That's correct.
Q The loan to value being the value of the collateral divided by the loan; correct?
A That's what they do.
Q Okay. And would you agree with me there was a certain point in time that President Trump, the guarantor, elected to retain a ten percent guaranty level on the Trump Endeavor 12 loan?

A Yes, I think to keep an interest rate differential.
Q Let's talk about that interest rate differential.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we please pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 290 at the second page?
And can we zoom into there the box that says "the revised terms" for the interest rate?
Q You see here it says that the interest rate is LIBOR plus 1.75 percent or prime minus .75 percent?
A Yes.
Q And when the guarantee level falls below ten percent it steps up to LIBOR + 2 percent or prime -50 basis points; correct?
A That's correct.
Q A half a percent; correct?
A Correct.
Q I just want to establish that I'm using the same language. A percentage point is a hundred basis points; a half a percent is 50 basis points?
A Yes.
THE COURT: Please keep your voice up.
Q So you would agree with me that the loan agreement between Deutsche Bank and Trump Endeavor 12 provided that the interest rate would step up by 25 basis points when the guaranty was eliminated; correct?

\section*{A That's correct.}

Q And the benefit to keeping the guaranty in place was a savings of 25 basis points; correct?
A Per the agreement, yes.
Q All right. Let's now take a look at the loan to 401
North Wabash.
MR. SUAREZ: If we could pull up Plaintiff's
Exhibit 291, please, at page three. And we could zoom into the collateral property.
Q Mr. McCarty, you would agree with me that plaintiffs -- actually, let me withdraw that.

Let's go back to the first page of Plaintiff's Exhibit 291. Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
A I do, yes.
Q Is this a document that you reviewed?
A I did, yes.
Q What is this document?
A This is the credit report for credit approval of the Chicago -- two of the Chicago facilities.
Q Would you agree with me that this document summarizes Deutsche Bank's only analysis of this loan transaction?
A Yes.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Please keep your voice up.
Q Let's go back to the collateral section.
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez)

Page 3109

And here it's a little more complicated, right, Mr. McCarty? There are two tranches to the loan transaction?

A That's correct.
Q And the first facility, facility \(A\), is a secured facility; correct?

A That's correct.
Q And the collateral that's pledged in connection with the secured facility is described here in this paragraph; correct?

A That's correct.
Q It's a mortgage lien and a first priority security interest in the residential component defined as the residential component of the property consisting of but not limited to all \(A\) -- excuse me -- all unsold \(A\), residential condominium units; \(B\), deeded parking spaces; \(C\), storage spaces; and \(D\), associated common areas, including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rents, revenue, operating accounts, reserves and all other related assets." Do you agree with me?

A Yes, that's what it says. time that facility \(\mathbf{B}\) remains outstanding; correct?
A Correct.
Q And I believe in your direct you testified that facility \(B\) was retired early in the loan's history; correct?
A Yes.
Q And facility \(B\), in much more summary fashion, you would agree had a collateral of a mortgage lien and first priority security interest in the commercial component of property; correct?

A Correct.
Q And all of the related property interests to that commercial component that are described in this credit memo; correct?

A Correct.
Q And you would agree with me that this describes accurately and fairly the collateral that was pledged in connection with the loan to 401 North Wabash; correct?

A Correct.
Q I'd like to pull up Defendant's Exhibit 876 and I'd like to ask the witness if he can identify?

A It's an amended and restated term loan agreement for North Wabash.

Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?

A Yes, I believe I did.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1844 in evidence.)
Q And Mr. McCarty, in connection with the opinions you've given today, you reviewed and understood the economic terms contained in these documents; correct?

A Yes, I focused on the economic terms. That's correct.
Q And we can agree other than the collateral we just reviewed there was no other property that was pledged as collateral for this loan; correct?

A That's correct.
2 Q And Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that the personal guaranty on this loan was extinguished by July 20, 2015?

A I believe that's correct.
Q All right.
MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up Plaintiffs Exhibit 294.
Q Mr. McCarty, do you recognize this document?
A Ido.
Q What is this document?
A This is a similar credit report for credit approval of the North Wabash loans. I believe it's both the A and the B loans.
Q Okay. And you agree that this document reflects the bank's only analysis concerning the decision to make the loan -I'm sorry -- Plaintiff's Exhibit 294.
A I have that.
Q You have that? It's not on the screen. There we go. Would you agree with me that this document reflects the bank's only analysis in making the determination to enter into the loan transaction with Trump Old Post Office LLC as a whole?

A Ido.
Q And have you reviewed this document prior to today?
A Yes, I believe I did.
MR. SUAREZ: Can we turn to page eight of this
M. McCarty - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez)

document, please? Pull up the collateral.
Q And Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that the section reflected here, "Collateral," which describes the security and the facility as -- I'm sorry -- "the facility will be secured by (i) a first mortgage lien on borrower's leasehold interest in X , the property, and Y , all improvements thereto, two security interests in and to the extent assignable and as applicable, assignments of the borrower's interest in all permits, licenses, lease, contracts, agreements, operating accounts, receivables, etc. and (ii)" -- I'm sorry -- "(iii), borrower's interest in other customary, ancillary, collateral relating to the property."

Okay. Do you agree with me that that adequately describes the collateral for the Old Post Office loan transaction?
A I thought we were on North Wabash.
Q No, 294 is the Old Post Office.
A Okay, yes.
Q Yes you would agree with me that this adequately describes the collateral for the Old Post Office; correct?

A Yes.
Q And that no other property was pledged as collateral in connection with the Old Post Office loan by Deutsche Bank to the borrower Trump Old Post Office LLC; correct?

A I believe that's true.

Q And Mr. McCarty, can you please identify the document that I'm going to ask to be pulled up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1238 ? Turning to the next page.
A It's the loan agreement for the Old Post Office project.

Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions?

A Yes, I believe I did.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Plaintiff's Exhibit 1238 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1238 in evidence.)

MR. SUAREZ: If we could please pull up D 1013.
Q Would you please, Mr. McCarty, identify this document?
A That's the guaranty of Donald J. Trump, I assume for the Old Post Office.

Q And is this a document that you reviewed in connection with the preparation of your opinions?

A I believe it is, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move D 1013 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1013 in evidence.)

Q All right. Let's move to the Ladder Capital loan on 40 Wall Street.

MR. SUAREZ: If we could please pull up D 552.
MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I would just note that we're happy to stipulate to the entry of these documents. As Mr. Suarez noted, we are paying Mr. McCarty by the hour and so if we could cut down on the time we would certainly appreciate it. I don't know if he's asking the witness questions about these documents or just using them to enter them, but they're generally unobjectionable documents.

MR. SUAREZ: Almost done with introducing the documents. THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SUAREZ: If you could turn to the second page. Following page.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
A Yes, I believe it's the offering document for the 40
Wall Street offering by Ladder Capital.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions?

A I believe I did, yes.
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I move this document into evidence.
    compute by dividing the value of the property, the 40 Wall property, by the amount of the loan; correct?
    A That's correct.
    Q And in this instance, speaking of the guaranty, if we could go back to the section that describes the guaranty. We're going to blow that up.
    You would agree with me that the guaranty that's at issue here isn't a full guaranty; correct?
    A That's correct.
    Q It's not an unconditional guaranty; correct?
    A It is limited, yes.
        Q Right. And it's limited to certain carve outs relating to unleased space; correct?
    A That's correct.
                            MR. SUAREZ: And if we can blow up the section on the covenants. A little further down on this page.
    Q You would see here that the covenant that it describes is that the key principles must maintain a net worth equal to at least \($ 160\) million and a liquidity of at least \($ 15\) million?
    A That's correct.
    Q And the key principle described in this document is Donald John Trump?
    A That's correct.

THE COURT: Granted
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 552 in evidence.)
Q And Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that this document we moved to the section on the collateral? Describes the summary of the collateral for the 40 Wall Street loan?
A Yes, I believe it does.
Q And in general terms would you agree with me that the collateral for the 40 Wall Street loan was the building that sits on top of 40 Wall Street and the leasehold interests?
A Yes, I believe it does.
Q And with respect to the 40 Wall loan, you would agree that there is no other collateral that's pledged in connection with this loan; correct?
A Other than the guaranty.
Q Well, is the guaranty -- withdrawn.
The collateral that's pledged as a security is the leasehold and the building; correct?
A That's correct.
Q Okay. But there is no other property that's pledged as collateral; correct?
A No other property, no.
Q No. There is no other property that secures the loan; correct?
cCarty - Plaintiff - cross (Suarez)

Q And the loan-to-value ratio for this loan you would compute by dividing the value of the property, the 40 Wall property, by the amount of the loan; correct?
A That's correct.
Q And in this instance, speaking of the guaranty, if we could go back to the section that describes the guaranty. We're going to blow that up.

You would agree with me that the guaranty that's at issue here isn't a full guaranty; correct?
A That's correct.

unleased space; correct?
A That's correct.
MR. SUAREZ: And if we can blow up the section on the covenants. A little further down on this page.
Q You would see here that the covenant that it describes is that the key principles must maintain a net worth equal to at east \($ 160\) million and a liquidity of at least \($ 15\) million?
A That's correct.
Q And the key principle described in this document is Donald John Trump?
A That's correct.

Q Do you have any reason to believe during the life of this loan Mr. Trump didn't maintain a net worth equal to at least \($ 160\) million in liquidity of at least \($ 15\) million?

A No, I don't think there was any violation of this covenant.

Q And this document that we've been reviewing here, Mr. McCarty, you would agree with me reflects Ladder Capital's own analysis as to the loan transaction with 40 Wall Street LLC; correct?

A The terms of the loan I think are described properly, yes.

Q And it contains the analysis of Ladder Capital; correct?

A Term sheets I don't normally say is an analysis, but I guess you could characterize it as analysis.
Q It's a document that's prepared by Ladder Capital; correct?
A Right.
Q After Ladder Capital has performed underwriting;
correct?
A Right.
Q And it describes the features of the transaction; correct?
A That's correct. I just -- the word "analysis" I don't know if there is any analysis in it.

Q And if we could please pull Plaintiff's Exhibit 2973. I would ask Mr. McCarty to identify this document.
A This is the loan agreement on 40 Wall Street.
Q And did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions in this case?

\section*{A I did.}

MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Plaintiff's 2973 into evidence. THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2973 in evidence.)

MR. SUAREZ: And I ask that Plaintiff's Exhibit 625 marked for identification be pulled up.
Q Mr. McCarty, did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
A We're on 625 now?
Q 625.
A Yes, I believe I did.
Q Can you identify this document, please?
A This is the guaranty of recourse obligations for 40 Wall.
Q This is what we discussed earlier as a limited guaranty; correct?

A Yes.

A That's correct.
    Q And this one wasn't listed?
    A No.
    Q But you did list the deposition of David Williams,
correct?
    A David Williams and Haigh, I believe, were the two key ones I looked at.

Q Okay. Now, do you understand Tom Sullivan was the head of structured lending at Deutsche Bank during the time it made the three loans at issue in your testimony?

A Yes, I do.
Q And I understand you don't recall having or at the time of your deposition you didn't recall having read his testimony, but now you do, but would it be the case that it was material to your analysis -- let me withdraw that.

Was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that Deutsche Bank was not mislead in any aspect of any credit decision it made based on information that was included in President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition? A No.

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: He answered it. What's the objection unless you want to withdraw the objection?

MR. ROBERT: I don't want to withdraw the objection. I believe that misstates Mr. Sullivan's testimony, but the witness was able to answer.
Q Was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified at his deposition that Deutsche Bank was not mislead because Deutsche Bank developed its own independent view concerning President Trump's financial condition?
A No, I don't think it is material to my analysis.
Q And was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that Deutsche Bank's decision making was based on what Deutsche Bank was comfortable with as a result of the assessment that it independently performed rob?

MR. WALLACE: I'm happy to make a standing objection to the characterization of Mr. Sullivan, but the questions, I'm fine with them. I just want to note our standing objection.

THE COURT: Okay. Noted.
A No, it is not material.
Q Not material. And is it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that he would have likely recommended a credit facility sponsored by President Trump even if he was only worth a billion dollars?
A No, I don't think it is material.
Q And do you think it is material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that this was because a \($ 1\) billion net worth is still significant wealth?

Q It is not material to your analysis?
A No.
Q Was it material to your analysis that such a determination according to Mr. Sullivan's testimony would be based on what the net worth looked like based on asset allocation, quality of the assets and assuming asset allocation, a \($ 1\) billion net worth would be sufficient?
A No, I don't think it is material.
Q You don't think it is material?
THE COURT: Please don't keep repeating the answer unless you think he can't be heard.

MR. SUAREZ: I'm having a little trouble hearing it. That's why I'm doing it, but I understand.
Q Are you aware that Mr. Sullivan testified at his deposition in this case that he would recommend the Doral credit facility based on the project strength alone?
A No, I don't think it's material.
Q That was not material to your analysis in this case?
THE COURT: That's what I just asked you not to do and you said you wouldn't do it.

MR. SUAREZ: I'll try. Are you aware -- let me withdraw that.
Q Was it material to your analysis in this case that Mr.

Sullivan testified that he was not aware of any misrepresentation with respect to any asset provided by the guarantor?
A No.
Q Did the NYAG ask you not to review the Sullivan deposition?

A No.
Q Was there -- withdrawn.
Can we agree that regardless of how the loans were procured from Deutsche Bank, the guaranty was still in place for a period of time?

A Yes.
Q And if there was an extreme situation that impacted the cash flow of any of the particular borrowers, the guarantor could have been responsible?
A Yes, probably.
Q Let's go up to your demonstrative from earlier today.
Going back to the CRE interest rate of ten percent, isn't it the case that that's a number that you used because the New York Attorney General provided to you documents relating to a proposed transaction from CRE at that interest rate?
A No. It originally started from the credit reports where I looked at BB rating that it assigned to the collateral and the BB rating to me had a market movement somewhere between nine and ten percent.
M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)

Page 3133
MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I move to strike that as not responsive. I was asking if the documents were provided by the NYAG.

THE COURT: It is -- all right. Were the documents provided by the NYAG?
Q Were the documents provided by the NYAG from which you determined that the CRE had offered an interest rate of ten percent?
A I received documents produced from Deutsche Bank through New York -- the AG that showed the terms and conditions of all three of the loans.
Q Okay. The terms and conditions of all three -- of the offers from the CRE Group, correct?
A That's correct.
Q Those were documents that were provided to you by the NYAG, correct?

A The confusion I had on your question is that wasn't the primary basis of my decision to use the numbers.

Q That's not what I'm asking you. Those were documents that were provided to you by the NYAG, right?
A The numbers are not necessarily the documents.
Q Sorry?
A No.
THE COURT: The numbers are not documents.
Q The documents that you reviewed in order to get those numbers came from offers that the CRE Group made that were provided to you by the NYAG?
A Only as a portion. I said the other portion was the credit report, my own analysis of comparable transactions and the knowledge of the rated companies.

Q Correct, but you knew that those CRE numbers existed because they were provided to you in documents by the NYAG?

A After I had started the analysis that I described, yes.
Q Okay. Those documents weren't in your possession until they were provided to you?
A That's correct.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Mr. McCarty, a little closer to the microphone and a little louder.

THE WITNESS: Will do. Thank you.
Q So with respect to the CRE proposal that was not accepted on the Doral transaction, would you agree with me that that proposal could have been further negotiated?
A I'm not aware of whether it was final or not, so I don't have an opinion whether it was negotiated or there may have been negotiations. I'm not aware of.
Q It was never a final proposal, correct?
A I don't know that that's true.
Q Well, you reviewed the documents, didn't you?
A I did. It had a signature block on it for the ones I

\section*{MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

saw, so that, to me, usually indicates it is a fairly final document.

Q But you're not certain if that was a final offer from the CRE Group?

A Not either way, no.
Q So you're not certain if the CRE Group would have extended credit on those terms, correct?

A Based on my experience of banks, I think the projection of a multi-page term sheet with details and a signature block indicates that they would have provided credit under those terms.
Q So your testimony is that based on your review of those documents, you are certain that the CRE Group would have provided a loan on those terms?

A I don't think that's what I said.
Q So are you certain sitting here today that the CRE
Group would have provided a loan on those terms?
A I don't have an opinion. I believe that those are serious, could be final documents.

Q I'm asking if you are certain. Either you're certain or you're not certain.

A I can't really give you a judgment about it.
Q You don't know whether you're certain or not that CRE Group would have provided a loan on those terms?
A I think my testimony was that I think they would have.
\(1 \quad\) Q Okay. So you can't be certain? You think?
2 A I think --
3 Q It is a supposition, correct?
4 A Based on experience.
5 Q You can base it on whatever you want, but it is still a supposition, right?
A I guess so.
\(8 \quad\) Q "I guess so" means yes?
9 A I'm uncertain.
Q You're not certain. So that, you are not certain about?

A I'm uncertain about your question.
Q Are you certain whether the CRE Group would have provided financing on those terms?

A I believe my best judgment is that they would have provided financing on those terms.

Q Your opinion is is that they would have?
A My best judgment based on experience.
Q Is it not your opinion that they would have?
A No.
Q Okay. So, then, you're not certain if they would have produced -- if they would have done that loan on those terms?

A No. My best judgment is they would have.
Q Okay. But you can't be certain?
THE COURT: Oh, come on. Enough is enough. How many times does he have to say he can't be certain. He's not certain.

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

\section*{Page 3137}

MR. SUAREZ: He says it is his opinion, maybe it is maybe, it isn't.

THE COURT: He said it is his best judgment, but he refused to say, "Yes, I was certain."

MR. SUAREZ: "Are you certain" is a yes-or-no question. I'm certain it is Wednesday.

THE COURT: I wish he had answered yes or no. I think he could have but he's not going to. So let's move on.

MR. SUAREZ: So would Your Honor agree with me that the response was not responsive?

THE COURT: Yes. So let's ask him.
It is a yes-or-no question. Are you certain that they would or not have, whatever, offered a loan on those terms? Are you certain?

THE WITNESS: It is a hypothetical question. I can't be certain.

THE COURT: I'll take that to mean no, he's not certain because he said "I can't be certain."
Q Your analysis here doesn't consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing, correct?
A No, we decided that the only way we could look at it was to do it on a static basis, no refinancing, no increase in terms to keep the situation static from the original start.

Q Again, it is a yes-or-no question. It either considers it or it doesn't.

THE COURT: Can you read back the question and the response.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

THE COURT: Stricken.
Please answer yes or no. If you need the question asked again or read back, we can do that.

MR. SUAREZ: Yes, please. Please read back my question.

THE COURT: One more readback, just the question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

THE COURT: Hold on. Objection by the judge. It is a negative question. Just ask it in a positive way.
Q Does your analysis here consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing?
A No, it does not.
Q Does your analysis here consider whether the sponsor could have borrowed money against another asset?
A No, it does not.
Q Does yours analysis consider whether the borrower could have pledged another asset as collateral?
A No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the borrower or sponsor could have just not done the deal?

A No.
Q But you would agree with me, Mr. McCarty, that the collateral in your hypothetical analysis here for the CRE rate is the same collateral as that for the actual loan that was made, correct?
A Absent the guaranty, it is the same collateral.
Q So the only difference in your analysis is whether the guaranty is there or not, correct?
A Correct.
Q And I have the same question for the OPO loan. Does your analysis consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing?

A No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the sponsor could have borrowed against another asset?

A No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the sponsor could have pledged another asset as collateral?
A No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether or not the sponsor could have chosen not to do the deal?

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

\section*{A No.}

Q And you would agree with me, Mr. McCarty, that the only difference in your analysis between the actual interest charged and the CRE interest that you've included in this calculation is the existence of the guaranty, correct?
A That's correct.
Q It is -- it -- your analysis is based on the exact same collateral, correct?
A I need to clarify the question. You're asking if that's the only difference between the two lines?
Q Let me ask it differently. Is the difference between the assumption that you made -- withdrawn.

The analysis for the interest rate that you provided at eight percent, that contemplates the same collateral, correct?
A Correct.
Q And with respect to the Chicago loan, the analysis that you've provided with the CRE interest rate at seven and-a-half percent, that contemplates the same collateral as the actual transaction, correct?
A That's correct.
Q And with the 40 Wall loan in the bottom, the same thing, the same question, it contemplates the use of the same collateral, correct?

A Correct.
Q With respect to the Doral loan, your opinion doesn't

\section*{M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)}

Page 3141
consider whether the sponsor of the transaction could have gone to hundreds, if not thousands, of other lenders, correct?
A No, it only -- the only consideration I have made was that there was an alternative offer from Beal, so there was another alternative.
Q So it doesn't include that consideration?
A It included the consideration of Beal, yes.
Q But not the fact that he could have gone to hundreds, if not thousands, of other borrowers?

A I had no knowledge that there was available other than Beal.

Q And your knowledge as to what was available came from the documents that were provided to you from the - by the New York Attorney General, correct?

A Everything was provided by the Attorney General, but the Beal reference I don't think was the same documentation.

Q But it was provided to you by the New York Attorney General?
A As part of production, yes.
Q Would it be fair to say that your analysis only contemplates the alternatives that were provided by -- excuse me.

Would it be fair to say that your analysis only contemplates alternatives that were reflected in documents that were provided to you by the New York Attorney General?

A No, I'd say it also includes my judgment about credits and pricing of credits in the market.
Q Is it the case that the sponsor in any of these transactions could have gone out and solicited additional financing from many other different types of lenders?
A Again, I'm not sure it was a broad spectrum of available credits for these properties at the time.
Q My question was a little different. Isn't it the case that the sponsor could have gone out and solicited from hundreds, if not thousands, of other lenders loans on these transactions?
A My answer was I'm not sure that that type of market exited.
Q But I wasn't asking you whether you thought the market existed. I was asking you whether you thought the lender -- sorry -- the sponsor could go out and solicit lending from hundreds, if not thousands, of other lending institutions?
A If he wanted to, sure.
Q Okay. And that fact is not contemplated in your analysis?
A No.
Q All of the different other financing alternatives that were available to the sponsor of each of these individual transactions are not contemplated by your analysis?

THE COURT: It is a negative question and it has
M. MCCARTY - PLAINTIFF - CROSS(MR. SUAREZ)

been asked and answered.
MR. SUAREZ: All right. I'll withdraw it.
Q Now, let's talk specifically about the three Deutsche Bank transactions.

Does your analysis contemplate President Trump's obligation to maintain deposits, assets under management at Deutsche Bank?
A No, it doesn't contemplate the \($ 20\) million deposit.
Q And isn't the case that at a certain point in time, President Trump and entities related to him had over \($ 100\) million on deposit in Deutsche Bank?

A I'm not aware of that fact.
Q It is in the credit memos.
A No, I don't recall it.
Q Isn't that part of the reason why private wealth management goes and seeks out high net worth individuals?

A In my experience in wealth management, it is not a major item. Deposits are worth very little.

Q But you agree with me that you have never worked at a private wealth management group?
A I've only managed them.
Q The calculations that you have here for the Doral loan don't factor the cost of maintaining those deposits at Deutsche Bank, correct?

A No. We decided to exclude them and the fees associated with the other loans, so we thought they canceled each other out. \\ Q So there is no credit given for the additional \\ requirements that President Trump had to meet in order to \\ qualify for the private wealth group, correct? \\
\begin{tabular}{|c|c|}

A It does because we canceled out the fees for the CRE loans to be equal. \\
Q But the wealth management loans had fees, didn't they? \\
A They were smaller. \\
Q The Private Wealth Group, however, has a different business model than the CRE Group, correct? \\
A That's correct. \\
Q And the CRE Group doesn't have the same requirements that you maintain assets under management, correct? \\
A No, they have different requirements. \\
Q But that wasn't my question. My question was whether \\ the CRE Group had the same requirement that you maintain assets under management? \\
A No, they didn't. \\
Q That's an additional benefit to the bank, right? \\
A It is one of the benefits, yes. \\
Q And the other benefit is the opportunity to cross-sell, right? \\
24 A That's available with any customer, yes. \\
25 Q But it is a benefit to the bank, right?

business in the Private Wealth Group? \\
A They marketed to him and I suspect that's true. \\
Q They marketed to him, correct? \\
A Yes. \\
Q He is the type of person that a Private Wealth Group would market to? \\
A Yes. \\
Q Now, in your analysis of the 40 Wall Street loan, does \\ that take into account the \($ 6\) million swap break fee that the borrower had to pay to do the transaction? \\
A It was in the case that we assumed that it was in both. Since we're continuing the Capital One, we considered it not relevant. \\
Q So, part of the 40 Wall analysis is just an assumption that the Capital One loan would have stayed in place correct? \\
A Correct, would have rolled over. \\
Q And it is your testimony that if the Capital One loan would have stayed in place, the borrower would still have had to pay the \($ 6\) million swap fee? \\
A No, we don't believe so. We considered it be a rollover on the same terms. \\
Q It would roll over on the same terms? \\
A Right. \\
Q So there was a cost to doing the transaction with \\ Ladder Capital, correct?
\end{tabular} \\
\hline \begin{tabular}{l}
A In any division, yes. \\
Q Excuse me? \\
A In any division of the bank, it is available. \\
Q Do you consider that to be a an emphasis of the Private Wealth Group? \\
A I think it is an emphasis on every banking group. \\
Q You don't think that's anything specific to the Private Wealth Group? \\
A Not necessarily, no. \\
Q The ability to develop relationships with ultra high net worth individuals, is that an objective of the Private Wealth Group? \\
A It is, yes. \\
Q And was it the case that they were able to do that with President Trump as a client? \\
A I don't know the specifics. They did multiple loans, yes. \\
Q And are you aware that the co-chairman of the bank expressed an interest in developing a relationship with President Trump and his companies? \\
A Yes, I read that. \\
Q And that Deutsche Bank sought President Trump's business? \\
24 A Yes. \\
25 Q And that Deutsche Bank wanted to have President Trump's \end{tabular} & \begin{tabular}{l}
A There was a cost to Ladder Capital, yes. \\
Q But the \($ 6\) million swap breakage fee was paid for by the borrower? \\
A Yes. \\
Q Okay. That was a cost of doing that transaction, correct? \\
A Yes. \\
Q So that cost would not have existed if they stayed with \\ Capital One bank, correct? \\
A That's correct. \\
THE COURT: Move a little closer to the mic, please, or bend the mic more towards you. \\

A I have not, no.
Q Okay. So I'm going to ask a series of questions related to GAAP. I'm sure we'll move through quickly, but I just want to just confirm some of your knowledge with regards to GAAP.

Is it fair to say based on your testimony that you're not familiar with how revenue is recognized in accordance with GAAP?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. The witness has already testified he's not familiar with GAAP. Now asking more questions about what he knows about GAAP is going to get us nowhere.

THE WITNESS: Yes, I know nothing about GAAP in terms of that capacity and I'll leave it to my accountants. That's why we have Big 5 CPA firms to do all of that.
Q So any further probing questions I would ask you about GAAP and how GAAP would be applied your answer would consistently be "I have no such knowledge?"
A That's correct.
Q Thank you.
Are you familiar with the Financial Accounting Standards Board or FASB otherwise referred to as FASB?
A Not to my recollection, no.
Q No specification understanding as to its function or its work?

Page 3157
A No.
Q How about the accounting standards codification? Any understandings -- any understanding as to the accounting standards codification and sub rules contained within?
A No.
Q So if I asked you about any of the NASC rules you would not have any specific knowledge as to those rules?
A That's correct.
Q Similarly, if I asked you a question about the ASC rules as they applied to statements of financial condition or compilation work, no specific understanding as to those rules or the application to statements of financial condition?
A Correct.
THE COURT: Those are negative questions. You can ask him if he does, not --

MS. FAHERTY: I promised I wasn't going to do it, Judge.

THE COURT: It's a tough habit to break.
MS. FAHERTY: It is.
THE COURT: Just ask Mr. Suarez.
Q Fair to say you don't have that understanding?
A No.
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: I think that was just a negative question. "Fair to say you don't have that understanding?"

You should ask him "do that you have that understanding."
THE WITNESS: I have no understanding. Simplify it.

MR. ROBERT: That was about GAAP he meant.
Q I'll take the answer.
Is it fair to infer that any work, if any, that you did on the Statement of Financial Condition you are not applying the AFCs or any rules included in the FAS?

THE COURT: That's a negative question.
Q You didn't apply any work --
MS. HABBA: Excuse me. I'm going to object to that. We've already run through that. He said he doesn't have qualifications. We've asked and answered this so now you're asking him something about a statement of financials and applying AFC rules. This will take a lot longer if we keep doing it.

THE WITNESS: I -- that's what you do in business. If you don't have that understanding, I rely on the professionals and CPAs that we paid millions of dollars that have that degree and probably have a great degree of understanding and I rely on their opinions and their assessments to make those decisions.

MS. FAHERTY: Move to strike, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Well, the last part, yes, but I've sustained the objection. It will be a lot simpler if he

\section*{D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)}

1 says he doesn't understand some standards, not to ask him 2 about the standards.

MS. FAHERTY: No problem, Your Honor. Thank you. THE COURT: Sure.
Q Mr. Trump, who is your current employer?
A I believe it's still Trump Payroll Corp.
Q Do you work for an umbrella organization known as the Trump Organization?
A Generally speaking.
Q You just made a reference to Trump Payroll Corp. Who is Trump Payroll Corp?
A An entity designed to pay the employees of the Trump Organization.
Q And what is Trump Payroll Corp's business other than paying employees of the Trump Organization?

A That's the extent of it. So you can again talk to the lawyers and the accountants who structured those things that way for corporate structure purposes.
Q And you just made reference to employees of the Trump Organization. What is the Trump Organization?
A Generally speaking it's a -- let's call it an umbrella term for the entities under the purview of our family's business.
Q So if I make a reference to the Trump Organization and work you've performed for the Trump Organization do you have an understanding as to the business I'm referring to when I use the term "the Trump Organization?"

Page 3160
A Generally speaking, yes.
Q Okay. When did you start working for the Trump Organization?
A Shortly after September 11th, 2001. So I think it was the 17th, right after 9/11.
Q Was that after a gap year from college?
A That was.
Q And when you first began working for the Trump Organization, what was your title?
A I worked as a project manager on West Side Yards project, so it wasn't even for the Trump Organization. It was for Hudson Waterfront LLC or one of the derivatives of that.

Q There is a derivative entity known --
A I think it's Hudson Waterfront Associates perhaps.
Q Hudson Waterfront Associates.
Is that still affiliated with the Trump Organization?
A It's been awhile. I'm not sure.
Q Any reason to doubt that it is an entity affiliated with the Trump Organization?

A Well, the assets were sold, so perhaps they are gone. I don't know.

Q At the time on which you were working on that project was it affiliated with the Trump Organization?
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3161
A Yes.
2 Q And through your work on the west side Yards project is it correct that you became familiar with Vornado Realty Trust?
A Yes.
5 Q And you became familiar with the partnership arrangement between Vornado and the Trump Organization; correct?
A Really didn't have anything to do with what I was doing at the time, but I generally knew of it. I was a low level guy learning how to build ground-up construction, so I didn't really deal with those entities, but generally speaking, yes.

Q And generally you're familiarity with that partnership, with Vornado, is that the Trump Organization or the umbrella Trump Organization maintains a \(1 / 3\) partnership relationship with Vornado; yes?
A Yes.
Q After the Hudson West Side Yards project, is it correct that you then still were working as a project manager you handled construction and development at Trump Park Avenue?

A Yes.
Q Is that a prewar building?
A Yes.
Q And what specifically did you do as project manager at Trump Park Avenue?

A Little bit of everything; design construction, overseeing some of the banking relationships we had, anything and everything.
Q And correct that there are certain units contained at Trump Park Avenue that are rent stabilized, yes?
A Hotel stabilized, but yes.
Q And you're familiar with rent stabilized laws here in New York City; correct?
A I was then. I've probably forgotten most of it now.
Q Fair to say at the time you had that knowledge about the rent stabilization laws that impacted development at Trump Park Avenue; correct?
A Yes.
Q And the limitations imposed by those laws; correct?
A Correct.
Q Subsequent to the Trump Park Avenue project is it correct you then eventually worked at the Trump International Realty Hotel in Chicago; right?
A Yes.
Q Again, as a project manager still?
A I don't recall my specific title, but probably, yes.
Q And what exactly were your duties at the Trump International Realty Hotel in Chicago?

A Well, when I got involved it was still the Chicago Sun Times building. We had a partnership with them and we were going to build the tallest residential building in Chicago there. So everything from design, architecture, sales, and

Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)
Page 3163
marketing, finance, construction. You name it.
Q And do you recall the time period that you were working on that particular project?

A Early 2000s. It was quite a bit of time, but probably three, four years I spent three days a week there for three, four years.
Q And then subsequent to your time working on the Chicago project, fair to say you had a change in title in your work for the Trump Organization?

A I may have. I don't specifically recall when that happened, but yes. I was progressing.

Q What do you recall your next title was at the Trump Organization after you progressed from being a project manager?
A I don't recall.
Q Fair to say you eventually became an EVP or executive vice president at the Trump Organization?

A Eventually, yes.
Q How many other titles have you held in the course of your tenure with the Trump Organization?

A I'm not sure.
Q More than five?
A Probably not, no.
Q Less than five then?
A Yes, but I don't know specifically.
Q Have you at any point become an executive vice
```

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)
president at the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q So we've got project manager; yes?
A Yes.
Q Executive vice president; correct?
A Correct.
Q What other titles as you sit here today did -- can you think of that you've had in the time that you've worked for the Trump Organization?
A I imagine I was a VP somewhere along the way and I'm not exactly sure.
Q And at what point in time do you think you were just a VP, not an executive VP?
A I can't recall.
Q Before 2011?
A I would imagine so, yes.
Q Fair to say beginning at least from 2011 you have served as an executive vice president for the Trump Organization; yes?
A On or about, yes.
Q And considering the hierarchy of executive titles within the Trump Organization where does an executive vice president fit within such hierarchy?
A Fairly high.
Q Who is above you in your role as an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?

```
            Page 3165
        MS. FAHERTY: I think we've got from 2011 forward he has served as an executive vice president, so the question was related to in his time as an executive vice president who was above him.
        MR. ROBERT: At what point in time? You're talking about a decade.
            MS. FAHERTY: I can narrow it down. I can ask the question.
            THE COURT: Or you can keep it broad. Was anyone ever among you?
            THE WITNESS: Obviously, I would have reported to my father during that period of time. I imagine, you know, in the early transition to that title I would have still been, you know, people like an Allen Weisselberg still would have been senior to me. Those would have been the primary.
        Q When was the time period when Allen Weisselberg was senior to you?
        A Well, certainly initially in that time frame and, you know, as other projects and especially as we started expanding more abroad and outside of New York City obviously I was going to be on the road a lot of that time. So the seniority started let's call it equalling up, then I guess that would have been mid teens, mid, early teens.

Q When was the time period when Allen Weisselberg was senior to you?
A Well, certainly initially in that time frame and, you know, as other projects and especially as we started expanding more abroad and outside of New York City obviously I was going to be on the road a lot of that time. So the seniority started let's call it equalling up, then I guess that would have been mid teens, mid, early teens.

Page 3164 D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)
\(1 \quad\) Q So around 2013?
2 A Perhaps off the top of my head, yes.
3 Q So from the period of 2011 to 2013, what, if any,
4 decisions did you need to report in to Allen Weisselberg for his 5 approval?
A There is not a specific list.
Q Did Allen Weisselberg have authority over your work at the Trump Organization between the time period of 2011 to 2013?
A I would say yes on some things and other things I'd have total autonomy to do what I wanted.
Q Describe for me the specific things you were thinking about with that testimony that Allen Weisselberg had an authority over you between 2011 to 2013?
A Well, I wouldn't have done a refinance without, you know, the involvement of our CFO obviously. Those are the kinds of things. If I was making a construction decision or even a deal decision to do a -- say, a licensing deal abroad, I had the autonomy to do that. Again, there is not sort of a defined list of where you would or would not go, but there are definitely things I would bring to him because I was naturally his wheelhouse.
Q In 2011 to 2013, which refinancing deals did Allen Weisselberg supervise you on?

A I don't recall.
25 Q No specific recollection as you sit here today?
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3167
1 A I'm just using refinance deals as an example of 2 something I would bring. I'm not talking about a specific one,
3 so if you have specific ones you can ask them, I can give you the answer.

Q I'm asking your specific knowledge as you sit here today.
A I don't specifically recall in that time frame which ones we refi'd or didn't.

Q Any other areas of supervision between 2011 to 2013 for which you reported to Allen Weisselberg for his supervision?

A Not that I recall.
Q I believe you also said your father during this period.
What is the period to which you are referring to between 2011 forward for which your father Donald J. Trump was a supervisor who had authority over the work you performed at the Trump Organization?
A Until he assumed the presidency.
Q When was that?
A January of 2017.
Q And how about your siblings? Between 2011 to present -- let's do 2011 to 2017. What, if any, authority did Eric Trump have over your work between 2011 to 2017?
A We were on a similar plane, so we had our own silos and we tried to stick to that. And if someone would be better at a certain thing or had a more institutional knowledge he would
\begin{tabular}{|l|l|}
\hline D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) \\
1 & bring them in, but we had our own silos. \\
2 & Q \\
3 & So in the hierarchy would you say that you were equal \\
3 & footing with Eric between 2011 and 2017? \\
4 & A \\
5 & Yes. \\
6 & Q \\
7 & How about Ivanka between 2011 and 2017? \\
7 & Q \\
8 & And fair to say your father was above the three of you \\
9 & A \\
10 & Q \(\quad\) Yes. \\
11 & between 2011 and 2013 that you testified to just a few moments \\
12 & ago? \\
13 & A \(\quad\) I don't know the exact dates, but that would make \\ 14 & sense. As they matured and as they figured out more, those \\ 15 & levels blended together a lot more. \\
16 & Q And in 2017, how, if at all, did the hierarchy above \\
17 & you serving continuing sales in EVP change? \\
18 & A \(\quad\) We stopped reporting to my father on decisions \\
19 & involving the business. \\
20 & Q \(\quad\) So who at that point in January 2017 was in charge of \\ 21 & the Trump Organization? \\
22 & A \(\quad\) It would have been a combination of myself, Allen \\
23 & Weisselberg and my brother. \\
24 & Q Anyone else? \\
25 & A \(\quad\) No.
\end{tabular}

Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)
Page 3169
\(1 \quad Q\) And was there a change in title in January 2017 to reflect that supervisory change?

A Not that I remember, no.
Q Okay. Focusing on your time as an EVP.
You've spoken about some of them, but let's dig in a little bit more.

What were your general responsibilities serving as an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?
A It's an all-encompassing developmental role for me.
Specifically, I focused a lot on our international business, a lot on our hotel company and development of new licensing deals and such, but you could have done anything at any given day.

Q Fair to say you handled acquisitions?
A Yes.
Q You worked on development projects; yes?
A Yes.
Q You worked on the operation side of the business?
A Correct.
Q I heard you just say you worked on financing; correct?
A At times, yes.
Q And you've worked on the leasing side of the business; yes?

A Yes.
Q You've worked on the branding side of the business; correct?
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3170
1 A Yes.
2 Q And that was generally the types of responsibilities you had between this time period 2011 through 2017?
4 A Correct.
5 Q Is that still current today?
6 A Yes.
7 Q Focusing after January of 2017, you've said you did not 8 have a title change, but the responsibilities changed insofar as 9 you did not have to report in to anyone above you; correct?
10 A Correct. I became a trustee of the trust. My title 11 stayed the same, but I functioned as a trustee as well.
12 Q Since January 2017, who has the ultimate authority over 13 decisions made at the Trump Organization?
14 A Then it would have been again Allen Weisselberg, myself 15 and my brother.
16 Q And by your brother, you're referencing Eric, not 17 Barron; correct?
18 A Correct.
19 Q Does Allen Weisselberg still retain that same authority
20 that it transitioned to in January 2017?
21 A No, he does not.
22 Q Why did that change?
23 A Because some legal issues he got himself into, so that switched and I became the trustee.

Q Does Allen Weisselberg still work at the Trump

Page 3171

\section*{Organization?}

A No.
Q When did Allen Weisselberg stop working for the Trump Organization?

A I don't know the exact date.
6 Q Can you approximate the year in which Allen Weisselberg stopped working for the Trump Organization?
A Probably within the last two years. I'm not sure exactly what the date was, so.

Q Was there a specific event that occurred that marked the basis for Mr. Weisselberg's termination from the Trump Organization?
A The specific event could be his indictment.
Q So your testimony as you sit here today is because
Mr. Weisselberg was indicted at that time his position at the Trump Organization was terminated?

A His position wasn't terminated, but that role as trustee was.

Q And just so that I'm clear, you're referring to a role of trustee. Was that a job assignment or was that something else?
A I'm not sure I understand the difference.
Q You don't understand the difference between serving the Trump Organization in an employment role and serving as a trustee over a trust?

\section*{Page 3172}

A Well, our obligations as trustee were to serve the beneficiary of the trust. That was my father. That was similar perhaps to our jobs before. I imagine there is difference in nuance to that

Q Okay. You said that Mr. Weisselberg was not terminated. What is your understanding of how Mr. Weisselberg ended his employment relationship with the Trump Organization?

A I don't know the exact details.
Transcript continues on the following page...

Q What is your general knowledge?
A He is no longer working at the Trump Organization.
MS. HABBA: I'm just going to object. I think she mischaracterized his testimony, first of all. Secondly, we are now going down a rabbit hole of the same question asked seven different ways.

THE COURT: Sustained. Let's move on. MS. FAHERTY: Okay.
Q Did Donald J. Trump have any role in decision making at the Trump Organization between January 20, 2017 and January 20, 2021?

A No.
Q How about since January 20, 2021?
A Since January, I'm sure he made some decisions, yes.

Q When did his ability -- when did he resume making decisions at the Trump Organization after the January 20, 2021 date?

A I don't specifically recall.
Q Sometime shortly thereafter or was it just yesterday? A I don't know.

MS. FAHERTY: 1330.
Your Honor, I'm handing to the witness -- I've marked as PX-1330. I'm going to ask the witness to take a look at it and then I'll ask a few questions before I move to admit this exhibit.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning. (Witness reviewing document.)
A Okay.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Trump?
A I don't.
Q I'1l ask you a few questions.
Did you receive power of attorney over certain of Mr. Donald J. Trump's affairs in or about March of 2017?

A Yes.
Q The document in front of you, you can see on page one, it says, "This is a Power of Attorney New York Statutory Short Form," right?
A Yes.
Q You could see the front page, there are some cautions
. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)

1 issued to the principal.
Do you have any understanding as to what a principal would be in a power of attorney short form?

A None that I recall at this time. Though, I may have been briefed.

Q Fair to say that the principal -- if we turn to the -- page 6 of 8, looking at the signature block where there's a signature and acknowledgment section --
A Yes.
Q -- there's the word "PRINCIPAL" in capital letters. You see that there?
A Yes.
Q Do you recognize the signature that is beside that?
A I do.
Q Whose signature do you recognize that to be?
A It's my father's.
Q So fair to say that this document, if you don't have a specific understanding, but this document reflects that the principal would be Donald J. Trump, yes?
A Yes.
Q Okay. So on the front page, we have some warnings to the principal, your father, correct?

A Yes.
Q Page two, there is a Subsection B, drawing your attention to that there. "Designation of agents," do you see

\section*{revocable?}

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, its's a good question that I actually don't have the answer for, so it is -- I actually used both and I'm not sure actually which is correct.

THE COURT: Ms. Faherty has sort of started us off on revocable, right? Is that how you pronounce it? THE WITNESS: Revocable is easier, it seems. THE COURT: That's what we'll do. MS. FAHERTY: Riveting.
Q And you are, in fact, a trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
A I'm not sure what this is. I only understand revocable. Yes. Yes, I am.

Q Do you recall when you first became appointed a trustee of the trust? If I say "the trust," would you understand that to mean the trust that we're talking about?
A Yes, ma'am.
Q Thank you.
Do you recall when you became a trustee of that trust?
A Not specifically, no.
Q In or around the time period that you can recall?
A Probably before my father assumed the presidency.
Q In or around January of 2017, does that seem fair?
A Sounds about right.
D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)

Page 3181
Q We'll get some documents. Maybe that'll help.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, PX 769 is already in evidence. We have it on the screen here.

THE COURT: Okay.
Q Mr. Trump, taking a look at this document, you can see at the top it is the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust and it states as a subheading, "Acceptance of Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust."

Do you see that there?
A I do.
Q And do you recognize the signature at the bottom of this page?

A I believe it's mine.
Q And the date, do you recognize that that date,
January 19, 2017, to be in or about the time at which you became the trustee of the trust?

A Yes.
Q Are you familiar with the Attorney General's complaint in this case?

A Vaguely, yes.
Q Do you recall filing an answer and then an amended answer to the complaint filed by the Attorney General in this case?

A I recall my attorneys filing it, but generally speaking, yes.

Q You are aware that an answer was filed on your behalf, yes?
A Yes, I am.
Q And no -- you believe that that answer contains truthful representations of your actual position in responding to the Attorney General's pleadings in this case, yes?

A I do.
Q I'll represent to you that paragraph 38 at the complaint states that "Donald Trump, Jr. and Allen Weisselberg were trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust until Mr.
Weisselberg resigned in June of 2021. On information and belief Donald Trump, Jr. is now the sole trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust. Donald Trump, Jr. is named in both his personal capacity and as the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust." That was the allegation.

And your answer submitted, as you've just stated by your attorneys, is that as to paragraph 38, "Defendant denies the allegations therein except admits only that he is the sole trustee and was named in this action in his personal capacity and that Mr. Weisselberg was removed as a trustee in 2021."

Did you review any documents in order to prepare that answer to the complaint?

A I don't recall.
Q Do you have any basis to deny that answer?
A I don't know.
D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)

Page 3183
THE COURT: You mean to deny the answer or deny the question?

MS. FAHERTY: To rebut the answer that he filed in response.

THE COURT: To rebut, okay.
A You have to ask the attorneys. I don't know.
Q I'm asking you do you have any basis to rebut that answer?

A Not that I recall.
Q Any reason to believe that the answer your attorneys filed in regards to the Attorney General's pleadings -- any reason to believe that it contains false or incorrect responses?

A No.
Q Can you explain the basis for that answer to me?
A You'd have to ask them.
Q You have no basis as to who the trustees were and Mr.
Weisselberg's resignation in June of 2021?
A I'm not sure I understand the question.
Q Okay. Let's look at a document.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, our next document is PX 1016. It is already in evidence. I'm putting it on the screen here. It is a multi-page document. There are one, two, three pages of this document.
Q This document, can you see at the very top there, it 5 says -- it is a reference to the trust again, yes?

1 A Yes.
2 Q And then the subheading on that particular document is "Appointment and Acceptance of Trustee." Do you see that at the top there?
5 A Yes.
6 Q And do you see in the middle of the page, there is language -- I'll just draw your attention to the very first
"whereas" clause. It states, "On April 7, 2014, Donald J.
Trump," that's your father, correct?
A Yes.
Q It identifies him as the settlor and trustee. You see that there?

A Yes.
Q Okay. So "Mr. Trump as settlor and trustee entered into an agreement of trust and by amendments," those dates are there, and then there are a number of "whereas" clauses. Do you see those?

A Yes.
Q If we go further down on the page, you'll see that there's a "whereas" clause that, "Through the trust appointment, Mr. Trump or the settlor appoints himself as trustee under the assignment of trust and accepts such appointment effective as of 12:00 p.m. eastern standard time, January 20, 2021."

Do you see that in the very last "therefore" clause?
A Ido.

\section*{D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)}

Page 3185
Q Did you have an understanding that in or about January 20, 2021, your father appointed himself as trustee of the trust?

A I'm sorry. What was the date?
Q January 20, 2021.
A I believe I'm aware of that, yes.
Q How did you become aware of that?
A Conversations with counsel.
MR. ROBERT: I'm just going to object to the witness talking about any conversation with counsel as it is privileged.

MS. HABBA: I instruct the witness not to discuss privileged conversations.

THE COURT: Okay. Can we let the answer stand, but from now on, we will be very vigilant.

So I assume you are aware of the attorney-client privilege.

THE WITNESS: I am, sir.
THE COURT: So keep that in mind.
Q Just turning to the next page of this document, recognize that signature there?
A Yes.
Q Whose signature is that?
A That's my father's.
Q And does this indicate to you that between -- at some point in 2 -- January of 2021, specifically on the 20th of January 2021, Donald J. Trump restored himself as trustee of the trust?
A It would appear that way, but I'm not all that well versed.
Q What was your role as trustee, if at all, at that time?
A I don't recall.
Q Did you have a continuous time period serving as the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust from January 2017 until present?
A I'm not sure. I don't remember.
Q No understanding as it relates to this document whether at this particular time in January of 2021 you were still serving as a trustee; is that fair?
A I think so.
Q Other than the fact that Mr. Trump restored his rights to serve as trustee in January of 2021, what else do you know?
Don't tell me about conversations with counsel, but other than that, what do you know about Donald Trump serving as trustee over the trust in January of 2021 and going forward?
A Anything to that matter would have been done with counsel, so I don't know. I can't talk about it.
Q Other than conversations with counsel, no independent knowledge of Mr. Trump serving as trustee over the trust in January of 2021?

\section*{RUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)}

Page 3187
A Right. I would rely on counsel for that kind of stuff. MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I handed forward an exhibit marked for identification as PX-1015. It is not in evidence. I am going to ask a few questions before I move to admit.
Q Looking at this cover e-mail and I'll just represent to you that this is how the documents attached to this e-mail were produced from the records of the Trump Organization by counsel, so this is from the files of the Trump Organization.

Any understanding as to whom Adam Rosen is at the Trump Organization?
A He is a lawyer.
Q How about Alan Garten? Do you recognize that name?
A I do.
Q Who is he?
A He is our general counsel.
Q Are Adam Rosen and Alan Garten both attorneys at the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q Are they still currently employed by the Trump Organization?
A They are.
Q And this is dated February 22, 2022. You see that there is a subject "trustee documents"?
A Yes.

1 Q And then there are a series of attachments. Do you see those listed there?
A Ido.
Q And I'll represent to you the body of the e-mail which says, "see attached." There are a number of bullets, one, two, three, four, five, six. You see them?
A Ido.
Q I'll represent to you those six bullets seem to correspond with the attachments to this message and you'll see that the first bullet is the resignation of DJT as trustee, yes?

A Yes.
Q And then there's an acceptance of Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee. That's you, correct?
A Yes.
Q Then there is an acceptance of Allen Weisselberg as business trustee. You see that?

A Ido.
Q Do you have any understanding as to what that's a reference to, a business trustee?

A Idon't.
Q Did you have an understanding that after January 20,
2017, Allen Weisselberg's role as a trustee of the trust was to serve as a business trustee?

A Not that I recall specifically.
Q And then you see that the next bullet is the amendment to the trust?

Page 3189
A Yes.
Q It states that it is removing AW and Don as trustee.
Do you see that there?
A Yes.
Q Any understanding as to who AW would be?
A Off the top of my head, would probably be Allen Weisselberg.
Q And any understanding as to who Don is?
A Me.
Q Any understanding that there were trustees other than you and Allen Weisselberg serving as trustees to the trust?

A Not that I recall.
Q And then there is a document that says, "removal of DJT as trustee." You see that?

A Ido.
Q And then there's lastly an acceptance of Donald J.
Trump, Jr. as trustee. Again, you see that there?
A Yes.
Q Again, that's a reference to you. You're Jr.?
A Yes.
Q Let's turn to page 13 of this document. You'll see in the bottom there are numbers. It says -- page -- we'll look at 13 of 18 . Tell me when you got there or otherwise, we have it projected on the screen for you.

A I'm here.
Q I will represent to you this corresponds with bullet five of that cover e-mail, okay. Do you see the very last "whereas" clause?

A I do.
Q It says, "Pursuant to Sub Article A of Article
Thirteenth of the agreement of the trust, little romanette one, settlor." Remember that's a reference to Donald J. Trump, right?
A Yes.
Q "Hereby appoints Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee under the agreement of trust and little romanette two, Donald J.
Trump, Jr. hereby accepts such appointment effective as of 2:30 p.m. eastern standard time, July 7, 2021."

Did you, in fact, restore your position as trustee on July 7th of 2021 over the trust?
A It would appear so.
Q Turning to the next page, you'll see a signature, a witness thereof, July 7, 2021. Do you recognize that signature?
A Ido.
Q Whose signature is that?
A My father's.
Q If we turn to the next page, recognize that signature?
A That is my signature.
Q That's your signature. So fair to say that as of
D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)

Page 3191
July 7, 2021, you were restored as trustee, correct?
A I believe so.
Q Any understanding as to what occurred in January 2021 and July 7, 2021 during which Donald J. Trump had assumed rights as trustee for that time period?
A Not outside of conversations with counsel.
Q As you sit here today, are you aware of whether there has been any revocation of the January 20, 2021 appointment of Donald J. Trump as trustee?

A I'm not sure.
Q As you sit here today, are you aware of whether Donald J. Trump is, in fact, still serving as a trustee of the trust?

A I don't recall.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit PX-1015 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1015.)
Q I have marked for identification another exhibit. It is marked as PX-865. It is an e-mail. Take a quick look at that, Mr. Trump, and I'll just ask you a few questions when you are ready.
A I can't read it because of that box. Is there anything that can tell me what's -- what's behind the "per discussion with" box?

1 Q Let's look at the underlying document. Do you recognize the name Christopher Schreiber?

A No.
Q Do you recognize the name Sheri Dillon?
A Yes.
Q Who do you recognize the name Sheri Dillon to be?
A She is tax counsel with Morgan Lewis and was also trustee counsel and generally speaking worked as a lawyer, outside counsel for us.

Q When you say she was trustee counsel, is she one of the attorneys who provided you advice? Don't give me any substance of conversations, but she provided you advice as to the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?

A I believe she set it up.
Q Other than setting it up, did you understand her to be one of the outside counsel that provided legal advice as to the trust?
A Yes.
Q Do you recognize the name Donald Bender?
A Ido.
Q Who do you recognize the name Donald Bender to be?
A Donald Bender was a CPA. He worked as Mazars, LP.
Prior to that, I guess Weiser. He was our accountant at the Trump Organization, outside accountant for decades handling -- I mean everything, practically everything. They did the audits accountant that we relied heavily on for all of your accounting needs.

Q Your name is not included in this e-mail, right?
A It is not.
Q Okay.
A I got off of this one.
\(Q\) This is a 2017 e-mail between Sheri Dillon -- from Sheri Dillon to Donald Bender with the subject "confirmation of trust facts." You see the date on that e-mail as March 7, 2017 ?

A Yes, ma'am.
Q And let me just clarify. You have no understanding that Christopher Schreiber was another accountant who worked at WeiserMazars, do you?

A I don't know that. I've never heard the name, no.
Q But Donald Bender was at Mazars? That's what you testified to?

A Correct. Donald Bender would have been a point person for just about anything we did accounting wise.

Q And I heard you to reference that there is a box, the red box in the upper right-hand comer of this document, yes?

A Yes.
Q That document says, "Per discussion with Sheri Dillon on 1/8/21 and Adam Rosen, assistant general counsel of the Trump Organization, on January 9, 2021-no amendments to the trust."

You see that there?
A I do.
Q So does this -- would you agree with me this appears to be a stamp relating to a 2021 conversation on top of a 2017 e-mail?

A Perhaps it appears that way, but I don't want to speculate as to something I had nothing to do with.
Q Okay. Do you have any understanding as to a conversation Sheri Dillon had on January 8, 2021 with Adam Rosen, counsel of the Trump Organization, on January 9, 2021 regarding no amendments to the trust?
A I have no knowledge of it.
Q Okay. We can put that to the side. Don't tell me the substance of the conversation, but did you have any conversations with Ms. Dillon on or about January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
A Not to my knowledge, no.
Q Did you have any conversation -- do not tell me the substance of it -- with Adam Rosen on or about January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
A Not that I'm aware of or can recall, no.
Q Okay. And did you have any conversations with anyone at Mazars on January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
A Not that I know of.

THE COURT: Try not to say "okay" after each answer.

MS. FAHERTY: I did it as a whisper, Your Honor, but I will do it. I'm sorry.

THE COURT: That was quiet. Other times, it is more audible.
Q What is your understanding as to the responsibilities of the trustees over the trust?

A I have an obligation as a fiduciary to function in the best interest of the beneficiary of the trust.

Q What does that mean?
A Do what's in the best interest of the beneficiary of the trust.

Q Do you manage the assets of the trust?
A Yes.
Q What are the types of decisions you make as a trustee of the trust?
A Any of the business decisions related to the ongoing operating businesses of the trust. If we were working on new deals, that would fall in there, but we are very limited in terms of what new deals we were going to do because when my father assumed presidency, we stopped doing all of the international deals that was -- it -- primary part of my role in the organization, but anything and everything.
Q And who do you consult with with regards to the decisions of the trust as a trustee?
A Well, I could have consulted with any number of people in the organization. I mean, you have individual deals that have point people. You're going to talk with them. Many cases, you're talking with counsel. Many cases, you're talking obviously with accounting. So I mean, it could be dozens of people that we're dealing with on a daily basis to make an informed decision about an individual asset.
Q I believe you testified that you and Allen Weisselberg for a period of time were both trustees of the trust at the same time, right?

A That's correct.
Q Until he was removed from serving as a trustee, correct?

A That's correct.
Q You don't have a specific recollection as to the time, but it was within about one to two years from today, right?

A Correct.
Q Any other persons serving as a trustee over the trust with you other than the exception we discussed with Mr. Trump appointing himself as a trustee in January of 2021 until July 2021?
A Not that I recall.
Q How about Eric Trump? Was he ever a trustee over the trust?
D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)

Page 3197
A I don't believe he was.
Q Did you ever have to consult with Eric Trump in your decisions with regards to the trust?
A I would obviously consult with Eric. He was a key point person on many, many deals and operating entities and I trust him explicitly and if I needed to consult with him on issues that he was more well-versed than I would have been.
Q And did Eric Trump have any authority to make decisions on behalf of the trust?
A He would have had authority to do things within the Trump Organization. I don't know if that gives him authority specifically within the trust, but if he said something that he wanted to do on a project that he was in charge of, I'd have no issue with that and I understand that he would do the appropriate diligence to make that decision and that's how I would base my decision.

Q Do you need me to have the court reporter read the question again? I don't think that was responsive.

A Please ask it again.
MS. FAHERTY: Can I have a readback?
MS. HABBA: I think that was perfectly responsive.
THE COURT: I thought it was responsive, too, but let's have a readback of the question and the answer, right.
MS. FAHERTY: Sure.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was
```

read back.)
read back.)

```

THE COURT: Are you still objecting on grounds of nonresponsiveness?

MS. FAHERTY: Confirm for me your understanding Eric Trump did not have any authority to make decisions on behalf the trust?

THE COURT: Is that a different question?
MS. FAHERTY: A different question. I'm going to let the answer stand.

THE COURT: Okay.
A That's correct, I guess, ma'am.
Q So focusing on the time period from 2011 to 2020, I heard you just say earlier that you worked on licensing deals?

A Yes.
Q For the Trump Organization; yes?
A Yes.
Q How about management deals?
A Yes.
Q Are those similar to each other?
A They can be. They can often overlap, but sometimes a licensing deal may involve licensing the brand to put a Trump building somewhere in the world. That may or may not come with a management deal. A management deal may be if it was a hotel entity. If it was in the United States or if it was in New York, it would likely come with a management deal to operate the building afterwards because we do that. That may not make the most sense somewhere else in another part of the world where we don't have that level of expertise, so there is not a fixed rule.
Q And what is your role with regard to the management deals? Again, focusing on the time period 2011 to 2020.
A Just depends on which deals you're talking about.
Q Generally speaking.
A If you're talking about hotel management deals, I would have been, you know, a point person on getting a lot of those done.

Q What does that mean?
A I would have been likely the guy in charge of a lot of those deals, certainly internationally where we were doing a lot of that kind of, you know, hotel management deals and setting that up. That would have been something that fell into my court.
Q Is it a fair characterization that the management deals would be putting Trump Organization personnel to assist in the management of a hotel operation even if it wasn't necessarily a Trump Organization hotel?
A Yes.
Q But it could also include Trump Organization hotels; yes?

A That's correct. We owned and operated as well as managed for others.
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3201
Q On licensing agreements what is your role with regards to licensing agreements?

A Again, I was probably the primary point person for a lot of our international licensing deals.
\(Q\) And what is a licensing deal?
A Developer wants to build a building, they want to know how to do that better, they want to put the Trump brand on it, they want to learn to build to that standard, they want to learn how to value, engineer and create luxury perhaps in a market where that's not as common. So, you know, again, anything and everything to take, you know, a building and make it something befitting our brand.

Q Would it be permitting a third party to use the Trump name in the course of its business?
A Yes.
THE COURT: I'll ask the interrogator and interrogatee to talk a bit slower. The report is having a lot of difficulty keeping up with the rapid fire.

THE WITNESS: I apologize, Your Honor. I moved to Florida, but I kept the New York pace.
THE COURT: We've noticed.
Q I heard you just say that this could be worldwide.
23 Fair to say that between these management deals and licensing
24 deals. Would that be domestic deals; yes?
25 A Yes.

25 A It's been awhile.

The first is an entity column. You see it on there?
A Yes.
Q So DT Marks & Baku LLC?
A Yes.
Q And then DT Dubai Wealth Manager LLC?
A Yes.
Q It goes down THC. Is that Trump Hotel Collection?
A Which one is that?
Q THC, is that a reference to Trump Hotel Collection?
A Well, specifically to Vancouver Management, but yes, that was likely Trump Hotel Collection.

THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: This is a very interesting sojourn into a decade old TTT document, but I just have to object on this entire line of questioning. It's completely irrelevant to this case. Is there any connection that's going to happen at any point?

THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, what is the relevance?
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, there are licensing deals and management deals. First, the entities that are identified here in this column are the entities for which receive licensing fees and management fees which feed into the Statement of Financial Condition. It is a category within the Statement of Financial Condition and the three children or adult children Eric Trump, Mr. Trump, Jr. on the spreadsheet of the fees, saw them, approved of them.
MS. HABBA: Now you're testifying, Colleen.
MS. FAHERTY: I am not. I got him to testify as to the signature on this page. You know you don't like it when good evidence comes in, but please, allow me to continue.

MR. ROBERT: There is no reason to raise your voice, Ms. Faherty. There is no way compensation paid or whatever is here showing to Mr. Trump on the stand his brother or his sister flows into the Statement of Financial Condition. It's apples and oranges. It's completely irrelevant and I agree that this line of questioning should end.

THE COURT: Well, let me go back to Ms. Faherty.
I understand you're saying these figures feed into this the Statement of Financial Condition. So what. Not everything -- am I correct not everything that fed into the any Statement of Financial Condition is relevant or am I missing something?

MS. FAHERTY: No, Your Honor. You're not missing anything. You've appropriately heard me to say that this was one aspect of financial information contained on the Statement of Financial Condition. I'm going to continue asking, if you'll allow it, about the foreign deals, several of those are listed on here, the foreign deals that were represented to have ceased to exist. We have testimony from 1 stand right now, and Ms. Ivanka Trump, who we will appear here later next week, all were members of TTT Consulting LLC that received the benefits for the deals they secured abroad that fed in the Statement of Financial Condition.

THE COURT: And the relevance of that?
MR. KISE: Right.
MS. FAHERTY: It all feeds into the statement of financial condition. It's a category of the Statement of Financial Condition, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Not everything in the statements of financial condition is relevant or at issue.

MS. FAHERTY: It's the transactions of third parties. I mean, it has been apart of our case, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: I think everything has been apart of their case.

MS. FAHERTY: You don't think anything has been apart of our case as well as everything has been apart of our case. I know you don't like it when certain questions come in, but I'd move faster if I would be permitted to ask my questions.

MR. KISE: If you would stick to relevant topics, certainly but this is ten years ago a distribution sheet for consulting deals with no plausible connectivity to anything that's at issue here.

MS. FAHERTY: For which Donald Trump reviewed the
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3211
1 other witnesses that have already come in as to whether those foreign deals were actually reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition. I think I'm allowed a little bit of room, Your Honor, to continue.

And also, just noting again this was reviewed by and approved by Donald J. Trump with the numbers and figures on this particular document.

MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm just going to state one objection as the President's attorney. He will be here on Monday. We have Donald Trump, Jr. on the stand.

THE COURT: Objection overruled without prejudice. I see possible relevance at this point. I hope it will be clearer later on.

MS. FAHERTY: I have two more questions on this document and we'll move along.
Q So in this document I was starting to ask there is a column for entities; right?
A Yes.
Q And then the categorization of where that deal location is in that second column. You see that there?
A Correct.
Q And there is a third column, a fee received for those particular transactions; yes? That's included in there?
A Correct.
Q Those are redacted line for "fees paid to Daewoo." Any

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3213
1 A I don't specifically recall, ma'am.
2 Q Would there have been a contract that was signed with 3 whatever the third party was?
4 A Of course.
5 Q Any other way in which you may have reflected that there were confirmed deals whether they were management or licensing?

A Conversations, but obviously everything would have been contractual, right. You're not doing a deal on a handshake anymore.

Q All right. Let's look at the Statement of Financial Condition for June 30, 2017.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, this is already in evidence as PX 755.
Q Mr. Trump, a court officer will hand it to you, but I'll also represent to you it's on the screen. You can follow along at either. Do you recognize this document, sir?
A No.
Q Did you ever perform work on --
MS. FAHERTY: Excuse me, Your Honor.
Q Did you ever perform work on the Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition for any year?
A Not that I recall, no.
Q No specific knowledge, sir?
A No.

THE COURT: That was a negative question with an ambiguous answer.

THE WITNESS: I have no specific knowledge, no.
THE COURT: That answer is not ambiguous.
Q Can we turn to the second page of this document?
A Yes.
Q The second page is an "Independent Accounts' Compilation Report." In the opening paragraph it states:
"The trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated April 7th 2014 as amended on behalf of Donald J. Trump are responsible for the accompanying Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017 and the related notes to the financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America."

If we go down to the bottom of the page you'll see it as dated October 30, 2017. Do you see that?

A I do.
Q It's signed by WeiserMazars. This is WeiserMazars' representation that this Statement of Financial Condition was prepared at the responsibility of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust trustees. Is it your testimony that this statement contained in the Statement of Financial Condition does not include you, Donald Trump, Jr.?

A I don't know. I signed off on a document that Mazars prepared with intimate knowledge and as a trustee I have an obligation to listen to those who are expert -- who have an expertise of these things. So I trust in Allen Weisselberg who is an accountant. I trust Mazars who is a CPA and a Big 5 accounting firm to put together a document of this nature.

\section*{rump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)}

So if they put something in, I wasn't working on the document, but if they tell me it's accurate based on their accounting assessment of all of the material -- and, again, Mazars, you know, when you look at Trump Park Avenue they did the tax return for the condominium that we no longer necessarily even own. We may have a couple units left, but these people had an incredible intimate knowledge and I rely on them.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to strike that response.

THE COURT: Can you read the question back, please?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: I'll strike the answer because it goes all over the place. I don't think the question is that clear.

MS. FAHERTY: Okay.
I won't re-read this first.
Can you move up, Ashley, to the first sentence?
Q "WeiserMazars have made a representation as to whom is responsible for this Statement of Financial Condition." You see that statement there?

A Yes.
Q Is it your -- is it your testimony that you are not involved --

THE COURT: It's a negative. Can't you just ask him if he was responsible?

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I did ask him if he was involved in the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition. I'm now asking a question as to this statement if he understands if he is not included in this statement.
A I'm not included in this statement or I am included in the statement?
Q Are you a trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
A Iam.
Q As of October 30, 2017?
A October 30, 2017? I believe by then I would have been, yes.

Q Did you work on the Statement of Financial Condition for June 30, 2017 for Donald J. Trump?
A I did not. The accountants worked on it. That's what we pay them to do.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
Q I'll draw your attention to page 21 of 24 of this document, footnote five, "Real Estate Licensing Developments." A Yes.
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3217
\(1 \quad Q\) Turning your attention to the second paragraph. The second sentence states that "the estimated current value of \($ 246\) million was based on an assessment made by the trustees in conjunction with their associates and outside professionals of the cash flow that is expected to be derived from these associations as their potential is realized."

You did not provide this estimated current value of \($ 246\) million as is represented in this paragraph here; correct?
A I didn't give them a value of \($ 246\) million, but I could have sat there and gone through each one of the deals individually with Allen Weisselberg, with Jeff McConney, with Donald Bender and given them an idea of what I believe the cash flow coming from those deals would be worth not even knowing that it was for the purpose of this. So I could have certainly partaken and I probably would have had the most intimate knowledge about those deals, but it doesn't mean that I used that to put this together. They did that and so I could have very well been involved in inferring that number but not specifically know that I was working for that purpose.

They could have asked me on any given day what some deal was going to produce and, you know, again, for a lot of the deals on that list I would have been the primary point person and had the most intimate knowledge and I could have given them that answer but not known it was used to compile in this, but, correct. Meaning, I could have discussed the details of a deal
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

1 which they would then infer is going to generate X number of 2 revenue. They may have done that a hundred times with me to get 3 a number but I may not have known that it was going to be used 4 in aggregate for the Statement of Financial Condition so that -5 I mean --

Q I know you said you could have. What is your specific recollection as to this paragraph valuing the \($ 246\) million figure under sub point five, "real estate licensing developments" contained in the 2107 Statement of Financial Condition?

MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. THE COURT: Overruled.

\section*{A I don't recall. I don't remember.}

MR. KISE: Your Honor.
THE COURT: One or two minutes.
MR. KISE: So I just want to understand something. PX 1259 which was the document we spent so much time debating, the 2013 TTT Consulting document, is this now the connection that's being drawn between -- this was admitted subject to connection based on your prior statements that the relevance wasn't completely clear, but you think it was going to become clear. So I --

THE COURT: Well, I think it became clear, so.
MR. KISE: Well, this is 2013 and this is 2017. So I'm just wondering is this is what Ms. Faherty is drawing is the connection. She said she was going to connect this up, so I'm just trying to figure out whether it's this line of questioning or there is some line of questioning that relates to the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition.
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

Page 3219

THE COURT: Can you answer that?
MS. FAHERTY: I also think his very long extended answer provided plenty of a connection as to that particular document. I understand if they want to object to statute of limitations, but I have proved it up, Your Honor. I still stand by the admission.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, we've gone completely through the looking glass, completely, fully. This is a 2013 document. 1259 is a 2013 document and this is a 2017 Statement of Financial Condition. What the two have to do with one of another other than in the most general sense I'm not sure, but I would very much object to the fact that there's been a connection.

THE COURT: Well, is there a connection and if so, what is the connection?

MS. FAHERTY: The connection is as it relates to the work he performed for TTT.
Q At any point did you stop providing work for TTT Consulting LLC?
A Well, we stopped doing a lot of our international 25 deals when my father assumed the presidency because we weren't
-- we voluntarily chose not to do that so as not to create a conflict.
Q TTT Consulting LLC?
4 A We wouldn't do any new deals, so those deals would have fallen under the purview of TTT.
Q And your father assumed the presidency in 2017; yes?
A Correct.
\(8 \quad\) Q And you still maintained domestic deals; yes?
9 A We maintained existing deals that you couldn't just 10 back out of if you had contractual obligations to.
11 Q Do you still receive payment from TTT Consulting LLC?
12 A I don't actually know.
13 Q You have no knowledge as you sit here today what, if 14 any, distributions you receive from TTT Consulting LLC?
15 MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.
16 A Not really no.

document which --

Page 3221
THE COURT: Objection overruled. I see the connection. We'll see you all tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I'll order the witness again don't discuss this case or your testimony or anything related to it while you're still a witness which will continue until tomorrow.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge Arthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: There is no photography allowed in the courtroom, but we're going to let in the photographers now.
(Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)
THE COURT: I understand we have at least one housekeeping matter about three witnesses.

MR. WALLACE: Certainly, Your Honor. We just noted our objection to defendant's plan to call three witnesses, former and current Deutsche Bank employee, by videotaped deposition because the witnesses are amenable to subpoena in New York.

THE COURT: What is the defendant's current position and intention?

MR. ROBERT: We will be talking to their lawyers as we were informed. As we've been talking to their lawyers in the past, they said the witnesses will be unavailable, but we'll continue to speak with them and report back what we learn.

THE COURT: Okay. There's unavailable and there's unavailable. So they can testify in person like --
MR. ROBERT: Two of them are definitely out of state. The third is, as I understand it, a resident of New York State, but we had been told previously may be unavailable, but we'll confirm all that.

THE COURT: All right. Just let us know.
MR. ROBERT: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.
MR. WALLACE: I would just note that we agree, as we note in our letter, that two witnesses are out of state. One is still a current Deutsche Bank employee and to our view is amenable to subpoena through the bank and the other one is employed in New York and so is regularly appearing in Manhattan to work at Morgan Stanley.

MR. ROBERT: Our view, and we don't need to belabor the issue, we argued this last Friday with the deal with Ms. Trump's subpoena. We're dealing with the lawyers for the parties. They'll let us know their position. If they want to get involved at some point, they will, but we will report back in due course.

THE COURT: Perfect. Shall we resume the testimony?

MS. FAHERTY: Yes, Your Honor.
We recall Mr. Donald J. Trump, Jr., please.
(Witness resumes the stand.)
THE COURT: Let's continue.

A No, I didn't.
MS. FAHERTY: All right. I'm going to hand up to the witness a document that has already been admitted into evidence. It is identified as PX-756.
Q Mr. Trump, it will also be on the screen. The court officer will hand it over to you. I'll represent that this is the June 30, 2016 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump.

Do you have that in front of you, sir?
A Ido.
Q Are you familiar with this document?
A No.
Q Did you help prepare this document?
A I did not.
Q Did you review this document?
A I may have seen this document in preparation for either my testimony here or in my -- at my prior deposition, but document is "Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016."

Fair to say you're not familiar with a support data spreadsheet prepared in connection with the Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition?

A I don't know. If that is this, then I'm not familiar with it. I'm not familiar with a document of that nature, no.
\(Q\) And specifically referencing this document on this screen, you have no specific familiarity with this document, correct?

A Correct. I don't believe I've seen this document.
Q Did you specifically prepare -- withdrawn.
MS. FAHERTY: I'm going to hand up to the witness a document that is not yet in evidence. It is marked for identification as PX-1344. Take a moment to look at it and I will ask you a few questions, sir.
(Witness reviewing document.)
A Okay.
\(Q\) Do you see in the underlying e-mail, there is a message from Noah K-I-R-S-C-H at forbes.com e-mailing Alan Garten on Friday, March 3, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. a message with the subject "urgent, fact checking inquiry from Forbes."

Do you see that underlying e-mail?
A I do.
Q And contained within that e-mail, do you see that there

\section*{PROCEEDINGS}

Page 3227 valuations contained within in document?

A That's correct.
Q And just turning to the second page of this document, do you see under the independent accountant's compilation report dated March 10, 2017 ?

A I do.
Q And at the very top, the opening paragraph says, "That the trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust are responsible for this Statement of Financial Condition"?

A Yes.
Q Okay. You can put that down.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'd like to put on the screen Plaintiffs Exhibit PX 742. It has already been admitted into evidence.

Q Mr. Trump, it's a spreadsheet, so it will only be on the screen because it is a pretty large document.

A Fair enough.
Q Are you familiar with this document on the screen?
A Not to my knowledge.
Q Fair to say you did not help prepare this document?
A I don't know anything about the document, so I imagine so, yes.

Q And I'll represent to you that the title on this \section*{EEEDINGS}

are a number of emboldened headings. The first one on the cover page of this e-mail, it says, "Trump Organization."

Do you see that there?
A I do.
Q If you turn to the next page of this e-mail, do you see in the middle of that page there is an e-mail with a heading "Trump Tower penthouse"?
A I do.
Q And you see that there are a series of questions related to that heading "Trump Tower penthouse, one through ten"?

A Yes.
Q And in the first sentence, it references, "President Trump has told Forbes in the past that his penthouse occupies 30,000 square feet comprising the entirety of floors 66-68 of Trump Tower "--

THE COURT: It says 33,000 , not 30,000 .
Q 33,000.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you for the correction, Your Honor.
Q Do you see that first line there?
A Yes.
Q And then it subsequently says, "It shows President Trump's apartment is \(10,996.39\) square feet' referencing the property records in the prior sentence. Do you see that?

1 A Ido.
2 Q Okay. And then on that very same day, if we go back to 3 the cover page, Alan Garten, he works at the Trump Organization We discussed him yesterday?
5 A Correct.
6 Q Alan Garten forwards this message to you, correct?
7 A It would appear so, yes.
8 Q And then Allen Weisselberg and Eric Trump, right?
9 A Correct.
10 Q As well as Amanda Miller?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Who's Amanda Miller?
13 A She was running our marketing department at the time.
14 Q Another employee of the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q And then the very top e-mail, that's your e-mail address responding at 12:46 p.m., yes?

A Correct.
Q And you write "insane amount of stuff there," yes?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall receiving this message?
A No.
Q Aside from this specific message, what, if any, fact checking did you do to follow up on the message contained in Mr.
25 Kirsch's e-mail?

PROCEEDINGS
Page 3231
1 A I don't know that I did any. I don't know that I would spend hundreds of questions worth of time on answering Forbes Magazine.
4 Q So no specific recollection as to what you did, yes? You don't have that recollection?
6 A I have no specific recollection of doing anything with 7 it.
\(8 \quad\) Q What conversations did you have about this e-mail?
9 A I don't know that I had any.
10 Q So no specific recollection about conversations?
11 A No.
12 Q Okay.
13 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit 14 Plaintiffs Exhibit P X-1344.

24 Q And this is on Trump Organization letterhead, yes?
25 A Correct.

16 Q And this is one such representation letter, correct?
17 A I believe that's correct.
Q I'll turn your attention to page three of this letter.
Do you recognize that signature on the bottom right-hand corner of page three?
A That's my signature.
Q Okay. Turning back to the front page, this letter is dated March 10, 2017, correct?
A That is correct.
Q This is one week after your e-mail in which you stated
"insane amount of stuff here" with regards to the Forbes inquiry?

A Presumably, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, in connection with the work Mazars performed on the Statement of Financial Condition, the Trump Organization presented Mazars with a signed representation letter, correct?
A I believe so.

Q Okay. Turning your attention to the first page, the third paragraph states, "We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of March 10, 2017, the following representations made to you during your compilation."
Do you see that language there?
A I do.
Q And then following that confirmation, there is a subparagraph number one. Do you see it?

A Ido.
Q And then if you turn to the next two and three pages, you'll see there are numbered paragraphs going up to paragraph 16. Do you see those?

A I do.
Q And we'll just talk about a couple of the representations that the Trump Organization confirmed in this letter.

Do you see point two, the representation is, "We have made available to you all financial records and related data, and any additional information you requested from us for the purpose of the compilation. We have not knowingly withheld from you any financial records or related data that in our judgment would be relevant to your compilation."

You see that that was a representation in this letter? A Ido.
Q And in paragraph four, there's another representation. "We acknowledge and have fulfilled our responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the personal financial statement that is free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error."

Do you see that representation?
A Ido, yes.
Q And at point five, there's another representation, "We acknowledge our responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control to prevent and detect fraud."

A I do.
Q One more representation just to draw your attention to it. Make sure that you see it is there. Number 15, "We have responded fully and truthfully to all inquiries made to us by you during your compilation."

Do you see that representation on behalf of the Trump Organization there?

A I do.
Q Do you agree with those representations in this letter?
A I do. Every decision I made was based on all of the information that I would have gotten from Mazars who ironically is also the one we're writing this letter to, but they were intimately involved in every aspect of that. And again, for purposes of accounting, I rely on the accountants and so while I make these representations to them, they have frankly as much, if not more, information in the details of all of this than I ever would have had.
Q So you relied on Mazars to make these representations to Mazars?

A I relied on Mazars and our accounting team to tell me what is accurate within the confines of accounting. That's why we have accountants.

Q So in addition to Mazars, you make a reference to "our question, maybe at great length, but --
MS. FAHERTY: Okay.
THE WITNESS: I'm just trying to give the details, sir. Sometimes things aren't, unfortunately, yes or no when it comes to the complex transactions.

THE COURT: Okay.
THE WITNESS: I'll try to hone it down.
Q As it relates to this representation letter, did you specifically rely on Jeffrey McConney to assure yourself of the representations contained in this letter?
A Specifically as it relates to this letter, I don't recall who I relied on.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, Im putting before the witness a document that is not yet in evidence. We have marked it for identification as PX-391.
Q Mr. Trump, I'll turn your attention to the second page of this document. Do you recognize that signature on the second page of this document?
A That is my signature.
Q And it is signed as "attorney in fact"?
A Correct.
Q Do you have any understanding as to what "attorney in fact" is a reference to?
A Well, I guess I'm functioning as an attorney for my father as per, I guess, whatever the lawyers structured for me

Page 3235
accounting team."
Who is that accounting team you're referencing as you're sitting here today?
A That would have been Allen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney and their team.
Q And in specifically as it relates to this 2016 representation letter, were you relying on Allen Weisselberg to make the representations in this rep letter?

A I'd have to see what the backup is. I don't recall ever being involved in any of that. But yes, I would imagine -- I'll try to slow it down. Yes, I would have relied on them, but again, I would have also relied knowing that they're working intimately with Mazars and I understand, you know, the world around this time is changing and this could be, let's call it, a cover your butt, but Mazars for 30 years is intimately involved in literally every aspect, every transaction, every LLC. They would have been a key point in compiling anything as it related to accounting and they would have been well aware of that.

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I would move to strike that answer and I can ask my question again.

THE COURT: I remember the question. Overruled.
That's his response.
MS. FAHERTY: Okay.
THE COURT: And I think it responded to the

Page 3237
at the time.
Q Okay. Turn your attention back to the first page of this document.

MS. FAHERTY: Oh, Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 391.)

MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
Q Turning to the first page, do you see that this is on letterhead "Donald J. Trump 725 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10022"?
A Yes.
Q That's the address of the Trump Organization?
A Yes.
Q The date on this certification, this is dated March 13, 2017, yes?
A Correct.
Q Okay. I'll draw your attention to point one in this certification. Sorry. I'll just frame your reference, the very, very top, it says, "There is a lender Deutsche Bank Trust Company of Americas." You're familiar with Deutsche Bank Trust Company as a lender to the Trump Organization?

A Yes.
25 Q You'll see that there is an entry for a guarantor.
```

    That's Donald J. Trump, yes?
    A Correct.
    Q And the borrower identified in the certification is Trump Endeavor 12, LLC. You see that there?
    A Ido.
    Q And you're familiar with Trump Endeavor 12, LLC,
    correct?
    A I believe so, yes.
    Q Sorry?
    A I believe so, yes.
    Q Turning to point one, "financial information," it says,
    "The underlined guarantor hereby certifies to lender as of the date hereof that as of June 30, 2016 (the "reporting date") one, financial information. As applicable (please check the applicable box below and insert the applicable date below)."
    You'll see the very first bullet is "X"-ed. "Attached hereto is guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016 (Section 11(A) of the guaranty)" and then there are two other bullets of financial information checked, right?
        A Yes.
        Q Then it states, "The foregoing presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of the guarantor at the period presented," right?
        A Yes.
        Q Did you take any steps to assure yourself of this
    ```
            Page 3239
    certification?
        A As with all of the certifications, as I think we discussed yesterday, I would have sat with the relevant parties; namely, in accounting, whether that's the Trump team and/or Donald Bender. I would have asked them if everything that is in here is correct. I would have likely also checked with our legal department to make sure that the conditions are met as it relates to anything I would sign for Deutsche Bank and if they assured me in their expert opinion that these things were fine,
    I would have been fine with that and signed off accordingly.
        Q Is that specific to this particular certification, sir?
        A Well, I think I probably would save us some time and say that's probably specific to all of these certifications because I'm sure I've signed dozens of these in my time as a trustee.
        Q So no specific recollection as to this particular certification, right?
    A Correct.
    Q You're providing me your general recollection as to what you would do, correct?
    A Correct. I'm providing you the process I would have gone through. I would have relied on the people who are the experts in compiling all of this who deal with these things down to the very granular levels. If they're telling me it is okay and then legal tells me, it goes through the appropriate

1 Q If I asked you the same question as I did about 2016, we can turn to page two confirming that it is, in fact, the trustees responsible for the Statements of Financial Condition in 2017, it states that there, correct?
A Correct.
Q And this independent accountant's report was finalized, at the bottom of this letter you can see, October 30, 2017. You see that?

A Ido.
Q You were a trustee, correct?
A Yes.
Q And if I asked you the same questions I asked before about what you specifically did to prepare this document, you have no specific knowledge about that, right?

A Correct. It would be the same for all of the Statements of Financial Condition.
Q So if I showed you the 2018 Statement of Financial Condition, same answer?
A I think we could save each other a lot of time and effort and yes, it would be the same thing.
Q If I showed you the 2019 Statement of Financial Condition, it would be the same answer?
A Yes, ma'am.
24 Q And if I showed you the 2020 Statement of Financial 25 Condition, it would be the same answer?

Page 3243

A If I did, it would have been in the same manner that I would have with Mazars.

Q No specific knowledge as to the work you performed on the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition with Whitley Penn; is that true?

A That's accurate, yes.
MS. FAHERTY: And I'll just put it on the screen. We can expedite, your Honor. I'm putting up a document already in evidence.
Q Again, Mr. Trump, it is a spreadsheet, so it is rather large. Nothing to hand up. It is PX 758.

The title on this document is, "The Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017." This is the supporting data spreadsheet.

Similar to 2016, no specific knowledge as to the 1 supporting data spreadsheet created for the 2017 Statement of Financial Condition, correct?

A Correct.
Q And if I asked you questions about the specific work you did on this particular spreadsheet, no specific knowledge of that work, correct?

A Correct.
Q And if I asked you the same question if I put up the 2018 supporting data spreadsheet for the 2018 Statement of Financial Condition, would your answer still be the same?

A I believe it would, yes.
Q No specific knowledge as to the spreadsheet, correct?
A Correct.
Q No specific knowledge as to work you performed on the supporting data spreadsheet, correct?

A Correct.
Q And if I asked those same questions for 2019, would your answers remain the same?

A Rinse and repeat, yes.
Q If I asked you the same questions for 2020, would your answers remain the same?

A I believe they would, yes.
Q And in 2021, if I asked you those same questions for work you performed on supporting data spreadsheet for the 2021
Statement of Financial Condition, would your answer still be the same?

Page 3245
A I believe so.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to show to the witness a document that I don't know has formally been moved into evidence, but may have been and not recorded. It is Plaintiff's Exhibit P X-754. We've discussed it before. I believe Tommy has it, but in case it has not been formally moved into evidence, I would so move.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 754.)

MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
Q And Mr. Trump, I'll turn your attention to the third page of this document. You recognize that is your signature, correct?

A I do.
Q You recognize this as the 2017 representation letter to Mazars?
A Yes, it would appear so.
Q Dated October 30, 2017?
A Yes.
Q And before, I asked you a series of questions on the 2016 representation letter to Mazars.

Do you recall those questions that I asked you?
A Yes.
\begin{tabular}{|c|c|}
\hline & D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) \\
\hline \begin{tabular}{l}
Q And you gave me answers as to the assurances that the Trump Organization made to Mazars contained in this representation letter. \\
Do you recall that testimony you provided? \\
A I do, yes. \\
Q And we went over a series of the representations \\ contained in the representation letter and the numbered \\ paragraphs contained within the rep letter. \\
Do you recall those questions about those numbered \\ paragraphs? \\
A Ido. \\
Q And if I went through a similar exercise to ask you \\ those same questions about those same representations, would you \\ still give me the same answer? \\
A I can't think of anything off the top of my head that would change that, so yes. \\
\end{tabular} & \begin{tabular}{l}
A Yes. \\
Q Dated October 31, 2017? \\
A Correct. \\
Q And, again, this has similar language to what we saw \\ earlier in the prior certification that "the undersigned \\ guarantor certifies to the lender as of the date hereof that as \\ of June 30,2017 the reporting date, point one, that you are \\ providing certain financial information;" right? \\
A Correct. \\
Q And attached there is a guarantor's Statement of \\ Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017. You see that there? \\
A Ido. \\
Q And the certification states "the foregoing presents \\ fairly in all material respects the financial condition of \\ guarantor at the period presented;" correct? \\
A Correct. \\
Q And if we turn to page three of 230 . \\
On this document you recognize that as your signature; \\ right? \\
A I do. \\
Q And if I asked you the same questions I asked you about \\ the earlier certification about what steps you took to assure \\ 23 yourself of this certification your answer would remain the same \\
24 as it relates to this specific document; correct? \\
25 A It would.

Q So no specific testimony you could provide that would distinguish the assurances you made for yourself to sign the 2017 representation letter to Mazars; correct? \\
A Correct. Not that I can recall anything different, yes. \\
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to put up a document that's already been admitted into evidence. It is a big document, PX 1386. It's a family that Mr. Solomon moved in earlier in the trial. \\
A This may take me a few weeks to read. \\
Q Mr. Trump, I've handed you a document. It's a family compilation document. I'll draw your attention on the screen, which may be easier, but the first page I'll draw your attention to is at -- you'll see at the very bottom there is a page two of number, so page 2 of 230 . It's also on the screen. You'll see that -- \\
A Page one. \\
Q Page two? \\
A Yes, okay. \\
Q See at the very bottom? \\
A Yes, exactly. \\
Q Okay. This is another certification to Deutsche Bank; correct? \\
A It would appear so, yes. \\
Q On behalf of the borrower Trump Old Post Office LLC?

Q Okay. If you turn to page five of 230. \\
A Yes. \\
Q Dated October 31, 2017, another certification to \\ Deutsche Bank on behalf of Trump Endeavor 12 LLC. You see that there? \\
A I do. \\
Q Again, another certification for the financial \\ information; right? \\
A Yes, ma'am. \\
Q Attaching the Statement of Financial Condition; \\ correct? \\
A Yes. \\
Q If you turn to the following page. \\
Again, that is your certification -- your signature for \\ this certification; correct? \\
A Correct. \\
Q If I asked you those same questions your answer would still be the same specifically as it relates to this document? \\
A I believe so, yes. \\
Q Correct that you signed this certification with the intent that the bank would rely on it? \\
A I don't know that they rely on it. I don't -- I know a \\
23 lot of bankers and they do their own due diligence, but I was \\ 24 fine signing this based on everything I had been told as per \\ 25 everything we've discussed today, yes.
\end{tabular} \\

\end{tabular} would rely on it; correct?
A I'm fine with the bank relying on it, yes.
Q And the prior certification I did not ask that question, but same question. You signed that prior certification with the intent that the bank would rely on it?
A Again, I would be fine with them relying on it. I don't know what their intent is.
Q Did you intend for the bank to rely on that certification that you signed?
A I don't know. Again, I think -- I know -- like I said, I know a lot of bankers that do their own due diligence. If they looked at it and that was their -- and if they relied on it, I would be fine with all of the material information that's in those documents.

THE COURT: That doesn't answer the question and the intent isn't the banker's. It's your intent that she is asking about; correct?

MS. FAHERTY: Correct.
A Then I'm not sure I understand. I'm fine with the bank relying on that information.
Q So is that a question you intended for the bank to rely on your certification?
A I don't know that I intended for them to do anything.

Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)
Page 3251
I'm fine signing off on it. It's not as simple as yes or no to me.

THE COURT: I'm not going to insist on a yes-or-no answer.

MS. FAHERTY: I think that's as best as he's going to give.

All right. Your Honor, I'm going to put on the screen a document that's already in evidence. It is identified as PX 3285.
Q Mr. Trump, keep that exhibit near you. I'm going to ask questions about it again.

A Sure.
Q Okay. I'll turn your attention to the second page, but I'll just draw your attention to the first page.

The subject of this e-mail, which has an attachment, is "Ferry Point 2018 No MAC change letter."
You're familiar with Ferry Point; right?
A Iam.
Q And the attachment is a 2017 No MAC letter. Do you know what a No MAC letter is?
A I don't.
Q Let's turn to the second page and see if we can figure that out. Do you see the date on this document, April 22, 2017?
A Ido.
25 Q Addressed to the City of New York Department of Parks
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

A Yes.
Q When the "re:" lines says "President Donald J. Trump?" A Yes.
Q Turning to the bottom of this letter do you recognize your name included as the cc?
A Ido.
8 Q And this letter was sent by Mazars; correct?
A It would appear so.
Q Okay. Drawing your attention to the second paragraph, it states: "While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2016 financial statement, based on discussions with trustees of Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended and their advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date."

You see that language there?
A Ido.
Q What discussions did you have regarding the substance of this paragraph?

A I don't recall any.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to move faster.
I'm going to hand up to the witness a document identified -marked for identification as PX 393.
Q This is another bank certification on Trump
D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty)

A Correct.
Q Turning to the second page of this document, do you recognize that as your signature?

A I do.
Q And then if you turn to the fourth page of this document, do you recognize your signature again on another certification?
A I do.
Q And then if you turn to the sixth page of this document, do you recognize your signature again?
A I do.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this packet of certifications into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in or they're in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 393 in evidence.)
Q And Mr. Trump, you see that this packet is a very similar packet of certifications sent to Deutsche Bank. The first is on behalf of Trump Old Post that's on page one of six. Do you see that there?

A Yes, ma'am.
Q And it -- this document contains similar language about the certification that we've seen in the prior bank

A Yes.
Q Okay. And again, the rest of the questions that I asked as to statements of financial condition as it pertains to this particular Statement of Financial Condition, no specific response that is different than any of your other responses related to the statements of financial condition?
A This was Whitley Penn, but no. Other than that, I can't think of anything different.
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: "Thank you" is okay. It's polite. Not "great," not, you know, "terrific." "Okay" I rather you some sort of confirmation.

MS. FAHERTY: I'm confirming for myself, Judge. I got it. Thank you, Your Honor.

            THE COURT: Thank you is okay.
        Q All right. I'm going to put up the JSD, Plaintiff's
    Exhibit 1501. It is a spreadsheet in support of the 2021
    Statement of Financial Condition.
        No specific recollection of this particular document;
    right, Mr. Trump?
    A Not that I recall, correct.
    Q And if I asked you the same questions that I asked you about the other prior supporting data spreadsheets for the Statement of Financial Condition as it specifically pertains to the 2021 supporting data spreadsheet, same response?
        A I believe so, yes.
            MS. FAHERTY: Tommy, if we could get PX 1502.
        Q Turn your attention to the third page of this document.
        You recognize that signature as your signature?
            A Yes, ma'am.
            Q As the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?

    letter this time addressed to Whitley Penn LLP; correct?
        A Correct.
        Q Dated October 29, 2021?
        A Correct.

THE COURT: Thank you is okay.
Q All right. I'm going to put up the JSD, Plaintiff's
Exhibit 1501. It is a spreadsheet in support of the 2021
Statement of Financial Condition.
No specific recollection of this particular document; right, Mr. Trump?

A Not that I recall, correct.
Q And if I asked you the same questions that I asked you about the other prior supporting data spreadsheets for the
the 2021 supporting data spreadsheet, same response?
A I believe so, yes.
MS. FAHERTY: Tommy, if we could get PX 1502.
Q Turn your attention to the third page of this document.

A Correct.
Q Turning to the first page, this is a representation letter this time addressed to Whitley Penn LLP; correct?
A Correct.
Q Dated October 29, 2021?
A Correct.

Q You'll see that similar to the Mazars representation letter there are certain assurances contained within this representation letter; yes?
A Yes.
Q And, again, similar to the Mazars letter you'll see that there are assurances in numbered paragraphs. You'll see that there is number one at the top of your screen and it numbers two through five fill out the bottom of this first page. Do you see those assurances?
A I do.
Q And then it continues on to page two. There are a total of 22 numbered paragraphs of assurances provided to Whitley Penn; correct?
A Yes.
Q And if I asked you the same questions I did -- as I previously did as to the assurances you made to be able to sign this representation letter to Whitley Penn would your answer remain the same as it specifically relates to Whitley Penn, this document in front of you?
A I believe so. I can't think of anything that changed off the top of my head.
Q Okay. Mr. Trump, I'm going to put a document on the screen already in evidence. It is identified as PX 134, and I will draw your attention to page six of eight.
A Yes.

Q Are you familiar with this particular representation letter -- engagement letter with Cushman & Wakefield?

A No, not to my recollection.
Q Are you familiar with Cushman & Wakefield, though; right?

A I am, yes.
Q Are you aware of the purpose of the appraisal identified in this engagement letter?
A I'd have to read it, but I don't recall seeing this one before, so not off the top of my head, no.

Q I'll draw your attention to the first page. It is dated June 3, 2015 addressed to Mr. Eric Trump, your brother; correct?
A Correct.
Q At Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC; right?
A Correct.
Q Are you familiar with Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC?
A Generally speaking, yes.
Q And it says, "re: conservation easement on parcel owned by Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC." Do you see that?
        A I recall it vaguely now, but I don't remember the specifics.
        Q Then why are you signing this document?
        A Because I signed it as an EVP of the organization. I imagine my brother could have signed it as well if it came to me, but it was his project. He would work on it and he would know the details.

MS. FAHERTY: This is a big one. It is not yet in evidence, Your Honor.

Your Honor, I've handed to the witness a document that's been marked for identification as PX-3306.
Q Mr. Trump, I'm not going to ask you to go through the whole thing.

Q Plenty of reading for the week.

Q Your title is the president?
A Correct.
Q And this is the agreement of purchase and sale and escrow instructions with regards to the Trump Golf Links at Ferry Point Park?

A Correct.
Q There was a transaction to sell this to Bally's; correct?

A Correct.
Q This transaction did in fact close; right?
A Yes.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3306 into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Ground.
MR. ROBERT: Relevance of a 2023 transaction.
There is no allegation of anything improper about a 2023 transaction. It's not part of their case.

THE COURT: And what would the relevance be, if any?

MS. FAHERTY: I believe Ferry Point is relevant to the disgorgement allegations we have here, Your Honor. That sale is available for disgorgement.

MR. ROBERT: The procurement of this contract was well before the statute of limitations even started and now we have a transaction that closed a few months ago. It's completely and utterly irrelevant, Your Honor.

THE COURT: How would that fit into the disgorgement claim?

MS. FAHERTY: The sale -- as we've already seen and as this witness in particular testified, there were No MAC letters relying upon the statements of financial condition sent into the Ferry Point -- to the Parks Department. That information was --

THE COURT: Hold it. The objection overruled and there is no jury, so no prejudice. Even if it becomes irrelevant, even if it turns out it's irrelevant. It's in evidence.

MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiffs Exhibit Number 3306 in evidence.)
Q Did I hand up to you the next exhibit, PX 3304, sir?
A Yes.
Q So this is a document on Trump Ferry Point LLC

Do you see that there?

A I do.
Q And turning to page three of four, do you recognize that as your signature, sir?

MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this document into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Same objection, Your Honor, and a continuing objection to this line of questioning.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, let me just see if I understand. I'm little lost as to how this relates to disgorgement. A I don't recall that, but if I said it, I imagine that's accurate.
Q Okay. And do you recall that this information you previously testified or a similar memo to, it was provided also while Ivanka was still employed at the organization?
A I believe so, yes.
Q You don't have any specific recollection as to when you began receiving this information, correct?
A No.
Q Am I reading this correctly? The subject of this memo is "re: 2017 corporate modified cash flow projection versus actual."

A Yes.
Q And contained in this document are a few categories, for example, there is a box in the middle of the screen or if you're just looking at the page, it is at the top third of the page. That first box says, "business entities"?
A Yes.
Q And there's information related to that box "business entities," correct.

A Correct.
Q And then if you scroll a little further down, there's 24 another box, this one is a white box, and it says, "non-business 25 entities," right?

THE COURT: Your microphone is not working.
MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, it is dead.
THE COURT: Bring it back to life. All right. Let's -- we'll take our break now because it may take a while to fix.

MS. FAHERTY: I move to admit it.
THE COURT: Granted. I could hear that.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
THE COURT: It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1454.)

THE COURT: Let's all come back in 15 minutes.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you.
(Witness exits the stand.)
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: For an administrative reason, we are going to break at 12:45. Let's continue with the direct examination.

MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Mr. Trump, when did you learn about the Attorney General's investigation in the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?

1 A I don't specifically recall.
2 Q You did at some point learn about the investigation?
3 A I imagine so, yes.
4 Q When you learned about the investigation, did you in particular undertake any internal inquiry into the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?

MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. To the extent that this would call upon the witness to discuss anything that was discussed with myself or any other counsel for him individually, a co-defendant or the Trump Organization, I'm going to instruct him not to answer that.

THE COURT: All right. We'll see what the individual questions are.

MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Your Honor.
MS. FAHERTY: There is still a question pending, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Oh.
A I imagine I would have spoken with counsel, correct.
THE COURT: Did you speak with any non-counsel?
Q Other than speaking with counsel, did you speak with anyone?

A I don't even recall necessarily speaking with counsel. Though, I'm sure I would have.

Q Did you direct others at the company to undertake -- do not tell me about any specific discussions with counsel. I'll give you that as my preface.

Page 3275
Did you direct others at the company to undertake any inquiry into the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?
A Again, anything would have been done through counsel.
Q Is that a no?
A I don't recall specifically, but anything would have been done through counsel, therefore, privileged.
Q Did anyone, to your knowledge, review the work performed by Allen Weisselberg on the Statements of Financial Condition?

MR. ROBERT: At what point in time?
Q After you learned about the New York Attorney General's investigation.

MR. ROBERT: Outside of any involvement with counsel, I presume.

THE COURT: Yes. Yes, but at any point in time.
A I don't specifically recall.
Q Still focusing on the same time frame, did anyone review the work performed by Jeffrey McConney on the Statements of Financial Condition?
A Same answer.
Q Have you, Mr. Trump, formed any view about whether Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney performed their work on the Statements of Financial Condition in an appropriate manner from 2014 through 2021?

3

A I actually think the things are materially correct.
Q So is it fair to say that they performed their work as you expected and the "they" I'm referring to are Mr.'s McConney and Weisselberg?
A What's the timeframe?
Q Same timeframe.
A Can you give me the dates again?
Q 2014 to 2021.
A Yes, I believe so. And, you know, again, they worked in conjunction with Donald Bender who candidly during that period of time since I was doing a lot of international deals probably spent more time in our offices than I did and so between them, I do believe that's still, again, materially accurate.
Q Are you aware of any instances between 2014 and 2021 where either Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney failed to follow any instructions from you in their work on the Statements of Financial Condition?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. The witness said he was not involved in the Statement of Financial Condition, so he wouldn't have been giving them instructions on the Statement of Financial Condition.

THE COURT: Can I get a readback of the question?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was

\section*{D. TRUMP, JR. - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MS. FAHERTY)}

\section*{read back.)}

THE COURT: And the objection is what, that he testified he had nothing to do with the Statements of Financial Condition?

MR. ROBERT: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Mr. Trump, did you have anything to do with the Statements of Financial Condition?

THE WITNESS: No, I did not, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
Q Have you undertaken any changes to the policies and procedures of the Trump Organization as a result of the Attorney General's investigation? And please do not provide me any discussions with counsel.

MR. KISE: Objection. It would also go to, in addition to attorney-client privilege, which I know she's not asking, to the subsequent remedial measures discussion we had previously. I don't remember with which witness.

THE COURT: We're familiar with the subsequent remedial measures point. Is there a way around that or not?

THE WITNESS: I think I can thread the needle. There have been policy changes that have been made. Those have been done through counsel, so I can't get into the details of that. But yes, there are, you know, prior policies and methodologies have certainly been bolstered. Q Sorry. Which specific policies?

1

A Again, I don't want to get into the details because these things and structures were done with counsel, but Mark Hawthorn who is now in the similar CFO position is an actual CPA, et cetera, et cetera. So there are things I just -- I got to be careful where I go without getting into things that have been structured by legal counsel.

MR. WALLACE: I think to the extent there are changes in how they perform, that is not advice of counsel. You cannot change from a CPA to -- from a non-CPA to a CPA/CFO and claim "I can't talk about that because this is privileged." So if there are changes to policies, he's free to talk about that, not about conversations he had with counsel that led to the changes.

MR. ROBERT: That would still go to a subsequent remedial measure taken in light of a governmental investigation. It would be something the witness would not be required to have to testify about.

MR. WALLACE: I would just make two points on the subsequent remedial measures. A subsequent remedial measure undertaken as an obligation of law is actually admissible as to liability. The second point is that this inquiry can go to something more than just liability. It is still relevant to any injunctive relief the Court may choose to fashion in order to if there are policies or procedures at the Trump Organization that need to be changed as a result of this relevant to any relief --
THE COURT: Remedy.
MR. ROBERT: I would respectfully disagree with that. The concept of a subsequent remedial measure is to encourage parties to change their practices in light of when something comes to light without fear that the changing of those processes are then going to be used in any way and the witness be required to testify about it.

To Mr. Wallace's second point, that's why there is a monitor there right now. So this is something I would respectfully suggest to the Court the witness not be required to have to answer. Certainly, we can all agree the issues that we dealt with with counsel are off limits. Now, we are talking to the second bucket which may be what, if any, subsequent remedial measures were taken without the assistance of counsel, but my objection still stands.

MR. KISE: One other thing I just want to recite. The Dominos case which was the case that involved this very circumstance and what the court said there about actions taken in response to a government investigation. That's the only case we could find. I believe I cited that case to Your Honor the last time we had this issue arise on subsequent remedial measures.

So actions taken in response to an investigation by

1 the Attorney General or response to an investigation by law 2 enforcement would fall squarely within the subsequent 3 remedial measures category even though most of the time it 4 comes up as -- I believe we had this colloquy before. It 5 comes up in the context of personal injury actions and medical/malpractice actions and things like that, but the rule would, nonetheless, apply here.

MR. WALLACE: I would add it is not a privilege. It merely prohibits the changes in procedures and being used as evidence of negligence or liability, but it is a fact that the Court can consider as it is fashioning a remedy as to what might happen in the future and who needs to be responsible for those changes.

MR. KISE: If the inquiry -- two things on that. First of all, there are no Statements of Financial Condition being prepared anymore. So that dispenses with a large measure of the issue about subsequent remedial measures because it is not happening.

But separately from that, what Mr. Wallace is talking about is if in response to the inquiry we take a specific action, that's one thing. If the government intends to ask questions about what exactly it is we're doing now, just not in response to any particular inquiry, but they had Mark Hawthorn on the stand. Mr. Hawthorn is a CPA. If they ask, "How do you do \(X, Y, Z\) accounting? "How

1 do you that?" That's a matter entirely different than 2 something done in response to the government's investigation, something done subsequent as a remedial measure.

If they're going to inquire of witnesses, maybe not this witness, because I don't know that he would know they can ask, but if they're going to inquire about what practices are taking place today, so that the Court can ensure itself that going forward, for example, there aren't going to be any Statements of Financial Condition, or there won't be any issues associated with Statements of Financial Condition, then that's a different line of questioning altogether and that doesn't relate to the question that was asked.

MR. WALLACE: I'll just say if they want to call in Mr. Hawthorn on their case and explain how the processes are working there, they are free to do that. This is the executive vice-president of the company. He and his brother run the company. It is perfectly appropriate for us to ask the persons running the company what they are doing to oversee the financial function of this firm and what they did when they found out that there were allegations of fraud from a government agency.

I don't think what weight Your Honor decides to afford it and how Your Honor decides to use it is not a named Mark Hawthorn.

A Yes.
Q What is Mr. Hawthorn's title?
A Now CFO of the Trump Organization.
Q When did that occur?
A I don't remember the exact date.
Q Since 2021?
A I imagine so, yes.
Q Why is 2021 the date that you would recall --
A It's not. You asked me since 2021. I believe that's the case.

Q Was it before 2021?
A Not that I recall.
Q Is there a specific event that you recall occurred in connection with the change of title from Mark Hawthorn to becoming the CFO of the Trump Organization?
A I guess Allen Weisselberg not being in that position anymore.

MS. FAHERTY: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Will there be any cross-examination at this time?

MR. ROBERT: Not at this time, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Witness is excused.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Mr. Trump.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
(Witness excused.)
MR. ROBERT: For logistical reasons, a couple-minutes break while we bring in the next witness.

THE COURT: Sure. Approximately how long are you thinking?

MR. ROBERT: Two or three minutes. I didn't want you to wait in silence.

THE COURT: You get five.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Judge. We'll take five then.
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE COURT: Plaintiff, would you like it call your next witness?

MR. AMER: Yes, Your Honor. The People call Eric Trump. If I could make a quick request as the witness is taking the stand.

THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.
MR. AMER: This is for Mr. Kise. Given the witness, if we are going to have a lengthy evidentiary objection, and I know the Court is prepared to allow that, I would ask that we excuse the witness if that happens.

THE COURT: Okay. I'll keep that in mind. ERICTRUMP, a witness called by the Plaintiff, after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court, took the

THE COURT OFFICER: State your name and either home or business address for the record.

\section*{DIRECT EXAMINATION}

BY MR. AMER:
Q Good morning, Mr. Trump. Am I correct that you graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in business finance in \(2006 ?\)

A Yes.
Q And you started to work for your family business a couple of months after graduating from college, right?
A I did.
Q And are you fine to refer to the family business in a very general sense as the Trump Organization?

A Yes, I am.
Q And the Trump Organization is used as a kind of general high level idea as to what the collection of the Trump-related entities are called; is that right?
A That's correct.
Q And that collection of companies likely consists of hundreds of entities, right?

\section*{A That's right.}

Q When you began at the Trump Organization, am I correct that your job title was something along the lines of project manager?
A That's correct.
Q And at some later point in time you became the executive vice-president or EVP, right?
A Yes, that's correct.
Q Do you recall that's sometime before 2014?
A That sounds correct.
Q And during the period of time from when you became an executive vice-president until January of 2017 just prior to your father's inauguration, is it fair to view the Trump Organization hierarchy as a pyramid that had your father at the top?

A My father was the owner of the business, yes.
THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to speak very close to the microphone. They're very temperamental. Speak close, directly and loudly.
Q I know you just said your father is the owner of the business, yes. That wasn't my question. My question was is it fair to say that we could view the Trump Organization during that period, the hierarchy at the company as a pyramid with your father on the top?

A Yes.

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3287
Q And during this period that you were EVP up through January 2017, did you report to your father?
A Yes.
Q Did you report to anyone else during that period of time other than your father?
A I worked with many people, but ultimately reported to my father.

Q And just again, did you report to anyone else other than your father? I'm not asking whether you worked with them, but just whether you reported to them.
A My father would have been my direct report.
Q And your only direct report, correct?
A Yes, that sounds right.
Q And during this period up again through January 2017, were Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump also vie-presidents?

A Yes.
Q Were they at the same level in the company hierarchy as you during that period?

A Yes.
Q During this period, again, up through January 2017, where in the hierarchy was Allen Weisselberg?

A He was executive vice-president.
Q So he would have been at the same level as you and your brother and sister, correct?

A Yes.

Q And where in the hierarchy during this period was Jeffrey McConney?

A Jeffrey McConney would have been directly under Allen Weisselberg.
Q I know you mentioned Mr. Weisselberg was an executive vice-president. He also had the title of chief financial officer, correct?
A That's correct.
Q And Mr. McConney had the title of controller, right?
A That sounds correct, yes.
Q Now, moving to the period from January 2017 to January -- the period between January 2017 and January 2021, during that period when your father had assumed the office of the presidency, is it correct that he no longer sat at the top of the pyramid?
A That is correct.
Q And during the same time period, is it fair to say that you ran the day-to-day operations of the Trump Organization along with Donald J. Trump, Jr. and Allen Weisselberg, correct?
A Yes, I ran the operations of the Trump Organization.
Q With those two individuals, correct?
A That's correct.
Q And those two individuals, Donald Trump, Jr. and Allen Weisselberg, were both trustees of your father's revocable trust during that time period?

Page 3289
A They were the two trustees, yes.
Q During this period, did you have anyone who you reported to?
A I did not, no.
Q Subsequent to your father's term ending in January 2021, is it fair to say that he largely relies on you and your brother Donald Trump, Jr. and the other executives of the company to run the business?
A Yes, my father relied on me.
Q My question is a little differently.
A Let me repeat. My father relied on me and the two trustees to run the business, yes.
Q And during this post-January 2021 period, is it fair to say that if your father directed you to take some course of action with respect to the Trump Organization, you would follow his directive, right?
A I wouldn't sell Mar-A-Lago without asking my father, no.
Q I would like my question to be broader if you wouldn't mind.
A If my father directed me to take an action post him leaving the presidency, he's the owner of the company, yes, I'd follow his directive.
Q Thank you.

Q And in fact, you lived there during the summers in high school working on the property and learning a lot about life during that time, right?
A Some of the best years of my life.
Q Yes.
A Yes.
Q And you had certain responsibilities for the property, correct?
A Many years later, yes.
Q Fair to say that starting in 2012, you had some involvement with the property from an operational standpoint?
A Starting in 2012, I started to be involved in the property, yes.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2013 Jeff Supporting Data, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 708 in evidence.
Q We're going to go to Row 633. You'll see that that is the row in this supporting data spreadsheet where Seven Springs starts. Do you see that?
A I do. Can you be clear as to what the spreadsheet is?
Q Sure. We've had testimony from Mr. McConney that this is his supporting data spreadsheet that he used to compute values for the Statement of Financial Condition.

Page 3291
A Okay.
Q And Mr. McConney notes in Row 638, you'll see, he says, "6/30/2012, per telephone conversation with Eric Trump September 24, 2012."

Mr. Trump, do you have any recollection of that phone call?
A No, I don't.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that Mr. McConney ould reference a conversation with you if it didn't happen?
A Absolutely not.
Q In fact, people in the company have conversations with provide them with answers when you can, correct?

A Almost every single day.

Q Now, Row 640, Mr. McConney notes a second telephone conversation with you on August 20th of 2013.

Do you have any recollection of having a call with him on that date about Seven Springs?
A I don't have specific recollection as to a telephone conversation on that date, no.
Q And again, do you have any reason to believe that
Mr. McConney would reference a conversation with you as noted here if it didn't happen?
A I do not.
Q Is it the case, Mr. Trump, that as of the dates of these two telephone calls with Mr. McConney that he indicates he had with you, you understood in this time frame that he needed from you information to assist him in valuing Seven Springs for your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
A That's incorrect. I never had anything to do with the Statement of Financial Condition.
Q Just to be clear then, is it your testimony that in the time frame of the two calls he notes he had with you you had no knowledge of your father's Statement of Financial Condition. Is that your testimony?
A People ask me questions all the time, but I never worked on the Statement of Financial Condition, correct.

Q Well, let's be clear because my question was different than the one you answered.

MR. AMER: Can I have a read back?
THE COURT: We can have a read back, but I'll direct the witness like I very often do, if there is a yes-or-no question and you can answer it yes or no, please do so. If you need to explain an answer, then you can and we can go from there.

And a read back now.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A I don't believe I ever saw or worked on a Statement of Financial Condition. I don't believe I would have had knowledge of \(i t\).
Q Is it your testimony then that you had no knowledge in this time frame, that is by September 2012, that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition valuing his assets and showing his net worth?
A It's not what I did do for the company, so --
THE COURT: That was classic yes or no and you're not answering yes or no.

You wand a read back?
MR. AMER: I'd like a read back, please.
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A Not to the best of my understanding.

1 Q And I just want to nail this down because I appreciate memories fade. Could this be a situation where you were in fact aware back in this time frame that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition and just now don't recall or are you telling us with certainty that in this time frame you were not aware that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition?

A I think I was 26 years old at the time. I don't recall what I knew at the time, but as I said, I am unaware of the Statement of Financial Condition. I never worked on it at the time and I didn't know anything about it really until this case came into fruition.
Q And are you telling us then that in the time frame of these two calls with Mr. McConney in September of 2012 and August of 2013 that you had no understanding that Mr. McConney needed information to assist him in valuing Seven Springs for the purpose of your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

A I believe that would be correct, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, you're familiar with the golf club owned by the trust in Charlotte, North Carolina; right?

A Yes, I am.
Q And do you recall that the club was purchased in the first half of 2012 by the Trump Organization?
A Yes, very familiar.
Q I'm going to hand to you what we're marking as Plaintiffs Exhibit 3329.

\section*{E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)}

1
\(4 \quad\) Q Do you recall who Mr. Grove is?
5 A Very vaguely, possibly a board member at the club at the time.

Q If you look at the second page of the exhibit you'll see at the very bottom it says "board of directors" and
Mr. Grove is listed as one of them, so your recollection is correct. He was a board member, right?

A That appears to be correct, yes.
Q And he's a board member of the Point Lake and Golf Club if you look at the first page which is the memo that's in this e-mail. Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.
Q And do you recall that the Point Lake and Golf Club was the name of the Charlotte club prior to being purchased by the Trump Organization?

A I believe that's correct, yes.
Q And he's forwarding to you an e-mail that he says was sent to members the prior day; right?

A I presume that's correct.
Q Well, that's what it says. He says, "Eric, I wanted to confirm that the following e-mail was sent to our members yesterday. Dick;" right?
member-owned club as referenced in the first indented point?
A Yes, I do.
Q And the second option is the sale of the club assets to the Trump Organization. Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.
Q And do you remember that those were the two options? A Yes.
Q And the last sentence in the paragraph says Trump drafted a few and approved all statements relating to their offer. Do you see that? You can see it on the screen. I've highlighted it.

A Yes, I do.
Q You were involved in putting together that offer, isn't that right?

A I was involved in negotiation of this deal, yes.
Q Just to be precise because my question asked about putting together the offer. You were involved in putting together the offer that's being referenced here; right?

A I don't remember. I was involved in the negotiating of several business points of the deal and some of this vote, but I don't remember if it I was the one that put together the materials for our offer.
Q Would you have been one of the people to have approved all of the statements relating to the offer that was provided by the company to the members of the club?

1 A It's possible that I would have been one of the people who would have seen them, sure.
Q I didn't say "see." I said "approved."
A I guess it depends on what the actual item in the offer was. I imagine there could have been hundreds of developments that went into that, but I mean, if you could be a little more specific I think it would be easier for me to answer the question.
Q Were you one of the key people negotiating this deal on behalf of the Trump Organization?

A Yes, I was.
Q Okay. Let's go to the second page of the exhibit and the paragraph beginning in bold, "the straw vote." Do you see that?

A Ido.
Q Okay. It says that "if the members vote in favor of the Trump plans, the fully negotiated final terms and conditions will be brought back to the members for consideration and a binding vote in February and March. If members vote for a member-owned club, negotiations with Trump will end." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q And that was your understanding at the time; right?
A Yes, we had to get a vote of the members.
25 Q And the negotiations did in fact move forward based on
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3299
how the straw poll vote turned out; right?
2 A It was overwhelmingly positive for us, yes.
3 Q So the negotiations went forward based on how the straw poll vote turned out; correct?
A Yes.
6 Q And one of the other board members is Philip Delk. Do you see his name in the bottom?

A Yes, I do.
Q Do you recall communicating with Mr. Delk about moving forward with the member vote after the straw poll?
A I don't, but it's very possible.
Q Do you recall that he was the board member tasked with conducting due diligence on the Trump Organization for purposes of reporting to the club members in advance of the members' vote?
A Yes, I believe he was that person.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark as exhibit Plaintiffs 3333.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, just for the record I object to the whole line of questioning and have a continuing objection on the statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: I understand that, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, do you see that this is an e-mail to Allen Weisselberg cc'd to you and others from Mr. Delk?
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

first paragraph of this. Says, "On February 13, 2012, Phil Delk reviewed a financial statement prepared by a CPA firm reflecting Donald Trump's net worth. Can we agree that's a reference to your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

A I really don't want to speculate. I could assume, because I don't -- I prefer not to speculate.

Q Well, you were one of the principal people involved in the negotiation of the purchase of this club; right?
A Yes.
Q And you recall Mr. Delk was the board member who was doing the due diligence on the deal; right?
A Yes.
Q And this says he reviewed a financial statement prepared by a CPA firm reflecting Donald Trump's net worth. Are you telling us that you are not in a position to understand that this was your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

A I'm just saying I don't want to speculate there is a lot of financial statements that are prepared by CPAs. It's addressed to clearly not me. It's addressed to somebody else and clearly this is Phil Delk's recollection. I just -- I don't want to confirm or deny either way. I just don't want to speculate.
Q And I don't want you to speculate either. So that's why my question is very simple.

Are you telling us you are not in a position to recognize the document described here as your father's Statement of Financial Condition? Is that your --
A I am not in that position. This is 12 years ago. I have no idea.

Q It continues on. It says the statement was not signed by the CPA firm giving an opinion that it accurately reflected Donald Trump's net worth, but that it showed the assets, liabilities for Donald Trump and noted any material omissions. The financial statement reflected that the Trump Organization has eliminated significant amounts of debt over the past years.

Having looked at that paragraph, are you still telling us that you are not in a position to recognize that the document referred to here is your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
A It's possible, sir. I just don't want to speculate.
Q I am going to ask you to answer my question yes or no because I think --

MS. HABBA: Objection. Asked and answered.
MR. AMER: I think it was a yes-or-no question asked. Can I have a read back?

THE COURT: Well, let's compromise. Let's try one more time. I believe it was asked and answered, but just ask -- a read back or a rephrasing or repetition, whatever you want, Mr. Amer.

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
MR. AMER: Sure.
Q I've just now read that first paragraph. Is it your testimony, sir, that you are not able to confirm in your own mind that what's being referred to here is your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
A I cannot confirm because it doesn't sound like I was physically there and I don't want to speculate.

Q The next paragraph indicates "the cash and cash equivalents were in the hundreds of millions, the assets in the billions -- billion of dollars were more than ten times the liabilities on the financial statement." You see that?

A I do.
Q Okay. And you're still unclear about whether this is referring to your father's financial statement?

MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm going to object.
THE COURT: Overruled. He did introduce further -- MS. HABBA: Okay, but he's testified that he doesn't -- this letter wasn't to him. He doesn't know.
He's going to try and get him to obviously authenticate it, but I think his testimony still stands. I'm just stating my objection for the record.

MR. AMER: It's already in evidence, Your Honor.
MS. HABBA: Then I'm not really sure what we're doing.

MR. AMER: It will become clear very soon.

THE COURT: Objection overruled.
A It is very possible that it was the statement. I just don't know because this wasn't directed at me.

Q You, in fact, worked with Mr. Weisselberg to arrange to have Mr. Delk review your father's Statement of Financial Condition as part of his due diligence efforts for the sale of the club, isn't that right?
A I absolutely probably would have been the person who made the introduction to Allen Weisselberg, yes.

Q Not my question.
A I think it was.
MR. AMER: Can I have a read back, Your Honor? Because that wasn't my question.

THE COURT: It didn't answer the question.
Let's just read it back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A I have no recollection at this time.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 1092.
Q Mr. Trump, you'll see this is an e-mail chain where Mr. Delk e-mails Mr. Weisselberg copied to you on February 13, 2012 and Mr. Weisselberg asks you a question that you then respond to in the top e-mail. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.

\section*{Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)}

Page 3305
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move that this be admitted into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1092 in evidence.)
Q Now, the bottom e-mail from Mr. Delk to Mr. Weisselberg that you're copied on, the first paragraph says, "thank you again for taking the time to meet with me today and answer my questions. I was on the way to LaGuardia, two additional questions occurred to me," and then he asks those questions.

Do you recall that Mr. Delk in doing his due diligence traveled to the Trump Organization offices to review information for that effort?
A I do not.
Q Mr. Weisselberg -- well, before I get there. You would agree with me that based on his e-mail to you and Mr. Weisselberg that is in fact the case?
A Yes, it looks like that.
Q And Mr. Weisselberg writes to you "before I respond I want to make sure you and your dad are still going forward with this deal. Your dad did not sound very upbeat about the deal. He spoke about how little we would make and that he did not see himself going to NC, etc."
You see that e-mail from Mr. Weisselberg to you; right?
A Yes, I do.
Q And then you respond confirming that in fact the deal is going to go forward; right?
A Yes, that's what I responded.
Q And is it fair to say as you indicate in your response to Mr. Weisselberg that you consider the deal to purchase the club to be close at hand and that you wanted to get it done?

A Well, my exact words "because we had bigger fish to fry, but we have it on the one yard line."

Q And I wasn't trying to use your exact words. I was just asking you if you would agree that what you're saying here is that the deal is close at hand and you wanted to get it done; right?

A Yes.
Q Just going back, we had looked at the draft, due diligence summary that was attached to the prior exhibit. You recall that?
A Yes, I do.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 1091.
Q You'll see these are a series of e-mail exchanges among you, Mr. Delk and Mr. Weisselberg; right?
A Yes, I do.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3307
evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Same objection, Your Honor. THE COURT: Overruled. It's in. (Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1091 in evidence.)
Q If you'll look at page two of this document, the bottom e-mail, this is the same e-mail we had just looked at before that attached the due diligence summary; correct?

A That's correct.
Q Then you actually on the bottom of page one respond to that e-mail directly to Mr. Delk; right?

A Yes, I did.
Q And you did at the time review Mr. Delk's due diligence summary as indicated in your response to him about it; right?

A It sounds like it if it was attached to that e-mail.
Q Not my question.
Based on your response to him at the bottom of this page?

A Yes, it looks like that.
Q You received and read Mr. Delk's due diligence summary that he attached to his e-mail; right?
A Yes, it appears that way.
Q The one that referenced the Statement of Financial Condition; right?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. It did not reference a Statement of Financial Condition.
A The one that reference the financials, yes.
THE COURT: Well, he seems to think it did.
MR. ROBERT: I want to make sure it is a distinction. It doesn't talk about a Statement of Financial Condition. Fair enough.
Q And here's what you write to Mr. Delk:
"Phil, sorry to be brash, but it was not the intent that a summary would be circulated to the members. The point of the exercise and the intent of our conversation was to give you and the board comfort that our personal financials have been reviewed on behalf of the members. This exercise was bound by confidentiality which is why we did it in person and was intended for you to be able to convey that you have reviewed our financials and mention that without question we have the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate and operate this asset. I trust you understand and would appreciate you giving me your assurance that this will not be distributed."

That was your response to Mr. Delk after reviewing his draft due diligence report for the members; right?

A Yes.
Q And Mr. Delk responds in the e-mail above telling you you do not come across as being brash. He understands your concerns and he will not distribute the summary; that he will limit any communication to the fact that you do not -- that you do have the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate and operate the club; right?

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3309
A Yes.
Q And you thank him in the e-mail above; right?
A Yes, I do.
Q Can we agree that the due diligence exercise involved Mr. Delk coming to New York to review personal financials in person?

A It sounds like he came to New York to review financials, yes.

Q And you say the exercise was bound by confidentiality. Does this mean you required Mr. Delk to sign a non-disclosure agreement before he reviewed the personal financials?
A I wouldn't know.
Q Well, it's your words in the response to him to say the exercise was bound by confidentiality. Are you telling us you don't know what you meant by that?
A I don't know if confidentiality was signed. Oftentimes when you get into a deal transaction at the beginning of the deal, both sides sign confidentiality agreements. It's very possible that one was executed. I just don't remember 12 years later.
Q At any rate it was your intent that he be bound by confidentiality with respect to his review of personal financials during this due diligence exercise; right?
A Yes, I think we would want to keep financials confidential. No different than any other private company in the world.
Q You were concerned about the personal financials that he was going to be reviewing being distributed to club members; correct?
A Possibly. I think you wouldn't want 1,200 people to see personal financials. Yes, I think that would be accurate.

Q Having looked at this document, including your reply to Mr. Delk, can we agree that by February 2012 you were aware that your father had a personal financial statement that was being used by the Trump Organization to demonstrate to a third party the company's financial wherewithal?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. He keeps referencing a personal financial statement. All we're seeing in these e-mails are personal financials being provided. That's a huge distinction.

MR. AMER: Your Honor.
THE COURT: It's definitely a distinction. I don't know how huge or small it is. Mr. Amer, go ahead.

MR. AMER: I think the witness can answer the question yes or no. If he doesn't agree with the way I phrased the question he can answer no.

THE COURT: Overruled. Do you need a read back or \section*{a restatement?}

THE WITNESS: Can I have a read back. Thank you. THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A I don't want to nitpick this. Clearly the board member came in to review financials and he did so with Allen Weisselberg and not with me. Do I have an understanding that financials were reviewed, yes. Do I have any understanding or had I ever seen my father's Statement of Financial Condition, no. It's just not what I did for the company, sir.

Q You read the due diligence summary that we put up on the screen?
A Yes, I did.
Q At the time; correct?
A It appears so.
Q And in response to seeing that you then told Mr. Delk that you were concerned about releasing that summary to the members; correct?
A I wouldn't want financial information to be released to 1,200 people no matter who they were.

Q That wasn't my question.
MR. AMER: Can I get a read back, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Sure. And I agree that did not answer the question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
A Correct.
Q Are you telling us that when you sent your response to Mr. Delk telling him he -- telling him he was bound by confidentiality and he shouldn't release the summary to his members that you had no idea what personal financials he was looking at as part of his due diligence exercise? Is that your testimony?
A It would be my testimony that he was looking at financials. As to what financials he was looking at, I do not know.

Transcript continues on the following page....

Q So that's your testimony? You had no idea what the financials were that Mr. Delk was looking at as part of his due diligence exercise when you wrote this e-mail to him, right?

A That's correct.
Q Can we agree that your involvement in this due diligence exercise with Mr. Delk was to allow him to determine if the Trump Organization had the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate, and operate the club?
A Absolutely.
Q And can we agree that your involvement in this due diligence exercise was just seven months before Mr. McConney indicated that he had his first call with you about Seven Springs which just to remind you was in September of 2012?
A Sounds correct from a date standpoint, yes.
Q Can we at least agree that by 2012 you were aware that the company had personal financials available to share with third parties for them to understand whether the company had financial wherewithal?

THE COURT: Hold on. You said "personal financials." Can you be more specific?

MR. AMER: I think that's the phrase from the due diligence summary, Your Honor, so I think it's a fair question.

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, that's the same thing I'm battling as well.

THE COURT: I'm not saying it is a fair question. I'm just not sure that's what you really want to know.

THE WITNESS: I understood we had financials as a company and we had an accounting department that would often refer or would sometimes work with outside entities such as this. They go through them. I was not personally aware of the Statement of Financial Condition. I didn't work on the Statement of Financial Condition. I've been very, very clear about that.

MR. AMER: Let's go to the 2013 Jeff Supporting Data. It is native 708.
Q Let's go to Row 640 and you'll see this references a call with you on August 20, 2013, right?
A Yes, it does.
Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that in connection with that call, Mr. McConney told you that he needed information from you to value Seven Springs expressly for your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
A Not to the best of my recollection.
MR. AMER: Why don't we split the screen and put up along with this Plaintiff's 1075.
Q This is an easement from Mr. McConney to you dated August 20, 2013, the same date as the call Mr. McConney references in his supporting spreadsheet, right?
A Yes.

Q Mr. McConney writes to you, sir, "Hi, Eric. I'm working on your dad's annual financial statement. I need to value Seven Springs. Attached, please find how we valued it last year. Can you let me know when you have time to talk about this year's valuation." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q So you were told by Mr. McConney expressly in connection with this call that he notes in the supporting data spreadsheet that he's working on your dad's annual financial statement, right?

A Okay.
Q Well, not okay. Right?
A Yes. People come to me all the time to ask me questions about various projects I'm involved with, absolutely.
Q And on this date, August 20, 2013, in an e-mail, he told you that he was working on your dad's annual financial statement, correct?
A It's absolutely what it says, yes.
Q So you did know about your father's annual financial statement as of August 20, 2013, didn't you?
A It appears that way, yes.
Q And he told you that he needed to value Seven Springs for that annual financial statement, right?

A That's what it says, yes.
Q And he attached to this e-mail on the second page an excerpt from his supporting data spreadsheet, didn't he?

A Yes, he did.
Q So you've actually seen portions of Mr. McConney's spreadsheet at the time that he was working on it, right?

A Yes. I see some blank cells and some cells that were already filled out before this e-mail on Excel spreadsheet, yes.

Q If we go back to his cover e-mail, he says, "Attached, please find how we valued it last year."

So he's showing you how it was valued in 2012 and he's asking for your assistance in valuing it for 2013, right?

A Yes. It appears that it was already valued in 2012 and he is asking for my assistance in valuing it for 2013, yes.

Q And that's the topic of his telephone conversation with you on August 20, 2013, the same date as this e-mail --

A Well, I want to --
Q -- Exhibit 1075, right?
A I just want to clarify. If I'm looking at the footnote, it says, "Per telephone conversation with Eric Trump,
New Castle land to be donated, North Castle to be used as part of the main mansion." Those are absolutely facts that I could have given Jeffrey McConney. That's definitely something he could have come to me to ask. It seems like the values had already been established in the spreadsheet from the year before, meaning prior to my involvement in the project.

Q Do you now have some recollection of this call that you didn't have before?
A No, I don't. I think I'm pointing out the footnote that you say references numbers and it seems like the footnote -- it seems like the footnote is referencing New Castle land to be donated which was our intent at the time and North Castle land to be used as the part of the main mansion.

Q Just to be clear, when you say "footnote," this is Row 640. It is a note, right? It is not a footnote. It is not a footnote noted anywhere on this page. It is just a note on Row 640, right?
A I'm referencing the two notes directly below that mention of my name which would have been consistent with something I would have given Jeffrey McConney, the current status of an active development project, yes.

Q Okay. And what you received, which was the second page of the e-mail, was an excerpt from the supporting data spreadsheet that had information on Bedford seven Mansions approved with a selling price, a cost, a profit, number of homes, and a value, right?

1 A That's correct and it looks accurate, yes.
2 Q That's also information you knew at the time, right?
3 A That we were going to develop at the time seven homes on that property?
\(5 \quad\) Q Yes.
6 A Yes, I would have known that.
7 Q You would have had information relating to the selling price, the cost, the profit, the number of homes, right?

A No. I think it is established that this pre-dated me.
He's asking this in 2013. It seems like he's updating numbers that were already there pre my involvement. At least that's how I'm reading this.

Q I'm not asking you to read this. I'm simply asking you to confirm that that information, the details about the seven mansions would have been information that you would have known about at the time of this call, right?

A Yes, I was working on the zoning at that time.
Q So just to confirm where we are, on the same day as the call Mr. McConney references he had with you in his supporting data spreadsheet, he tells you in an e-mail that he needs to value Seven Springs for your father's annual financial statement and needs to speak to you about the 2013 valuation, correct?
A Yes.
Q And he shares with you the basis for the prior year's valuation lifted from his spreadsheet, right?

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3319

A Yes, it looks to be correct.
Q Mr. Trump, it is an undeniable fact, is it not, that as of September 24, 2012, the date McConney noted he had his call with you about Seven Springs, you did know that your father had an annual financial statement?

You knew it was shared with third parties to demonstrate the company's financial wherewithal and you knew Mr.
McConney was going to use the information that you provided to him to value Seven Springs for your father's statement; isn't that right?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
A It's just incorrect.
THE COURT: Compound question.
MR. ROBERT: Compound and stating facts the witness didn't testify to, but the witness just answered.
A It is just incorrect.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that you were aware that your father's Statement of Financial Condition was being provided to a bank for review in connection with a banking transaction even before February 2012?
A Not to the best of my knowledge sitting here right now. MR. AMER: Why don't we go ahead and mark
Exhibit 1265.
Q You see, Mr. Trump, that there's a bottom e-mail from a woman named Elena Sita at FNBLI, which I represent to you is First National Bank of Long Island, to Mr. Weisselberg that he then forwards to you and others at the Trump Organization. Do you see that?
A Yes, I see that.
Q And you'll see there is an attachment which is a confidentiality agreement which is the second - starts on the second page of this exhibit?
A Yes, Ido.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move that this be admitted into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1265.)

THE COURT: Overruled on statute of limitations. Relevance, we will see where we are going with it.
Q You will see that the attachment is a document entitled, "Confidentiality between the First National Bank of Long Island and Trump Acquisition, LLC," right?
A Yes.
Q And you'll see from the last page of the document that it is executed by someone from the bank, right?
A I don't know what this document is, but that appears that it is executed by somebody from the bank.

Page 3321
Q It is a document that was forwarded to you by Mr. Weisselberg, right?

A Apparently, yes. It's 2010. I think I was 26 at the time, 24.

Q And if you look at the confidentiality agreement that's attached, the second paragraph says, "Whereas before on and/or after the date hereof disclosing party may furnish recipient" -- the disclosing party is the Trump entity, right? If you look at the top paragraph, you see that?

A Yes.
Q And the recipient is the First National Bank of Long Island, right?
A That looks to be correct, yes.
Q "Whereas before on and/or after the date hereof, disclosing party may furnish recipient with or cause recipient to be furnished with certain documents and information prepared by or for or belonging to disclosing party including without limitation a Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2010 and/or other financial documents and information." Do you see that?
A I do.
Q Can we agree that is clearly a reference to your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
A The chances of me reading a confidentiality agreement that I didn't execute I would say is zero percent, but yes, we can agree that it says it in that paragraph.
Q And Mr. Weisselberg and in his cover e-mail says, "CONFI received, F/S going to bank overnight." Do you see that?

A I do.
THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
Q We can agree that F/S is an abbreviation for financial statement, right?
A Yes, I would assume that's what our CFO would send to a third party.
Q So in 2010, you received from Mr. Weisselberg an e-mail forwarding a confidentiality agreement that clearly references your father's Statement of Financial Condition, right?

A That clearly references a financial statement, yes.
Q Not a financial statement. Your father's Statement of Financial Condition. Do we need to go back to it? It says Donald J. Trump, right?
A As I said, the chances that I read a confidentiality that I didn't sign would be very small, but yes, it certainly referenced that at that time.
Q And he not only attaches it, but he says in the cover e-mail "financial statement going to bank overnight," right?

A That's correct.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark as the next exhibit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3332.

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Q This is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you dated August 23, 2013, correct?

A That's correct.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3332.)
Q The subject of this e-mail in August of 2013 is "DJT F/S," right?

A Yes.
Q You understood at the time that you received this e-mail that DJT was Donald J. Trump and F/S was financial statement, right?

A Yes.
Q And Mr. McConney says to you, "I'm working on the notes to Mr. Trump's annual financial statement and I'd like to include any major construction work that was started, completed, calculated at our golf courses during the last year (i.e., July 2012-now)." He says, "Example, Doral, we're doing a corporate overhaul of the Blue Monster at a cost of \(X\) million of dollars. Something short and sweet is all I need. Thanks in advance for your help, Jeff."

Mr. Trump, isn't it a fact that Mr. McConney is reaching out to you for information specifically to assist him in working on the notes to your father's annual financial statement?
A That's the exact kind of information I would give Mr. McConney, yes.
Q In his e-mail, he is specifically identifying the fact that he needs the information to work on your father's financial statement, right?
A Yes, he's absolutely asking what we're doing on the ground at various projects, what's underway, and that's the kind of information I would -- I'm asked about every single day, but certainly I would have given Mr. McConney.

Q To be specific, though, when he asks you for the information, he tells you exactly why he needs it and he tells you that he needs it for your father's annual financial statement, right?

A Yes. I know Jeffrey McConney does financial statements for my father. There's no hiding that.

Q So you would have understood at the time that you received this e-mail in August of 2013 that your father had an annual financial statement, right?

A We're a major organization, a massive real estate organization. Yes, I'm fairly certain I understand that we have financial statements, absolutely.

Q Not my question. You've testified here quite adamantly that you had no idea that there was something called your father's annual financial statement. So I'm being very specific in my questions, sir.

MS. HABBA: Objection. You're mischaracterizing the witness' testimony. He didn't say he didn't know there's something called it. He didn't testify to that.
A I said I had no involvement nor ever worked on my father's personal Statement of Financial Condition.

MR. AMER: I'm not going to go back. We know what the testimony was, Your Honor. I'm just going to go forward and ask my question again. And I ask that if the witness can answer yes or no, that he, please, do so.

THE COURT: I'll direct him to do that.
Q It is correct that when you received this e-mail in August of 2013, you understood that your father had an annual financial statement and you understood that Mr. McConney was asking you for information specifically to assist him in working on the notes to that annual financial statement; isn't that correct?

A Yes.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break. I'll direct the witness, as I always do, not to discuss this case or your testimony or anything related during the break or until you're no longer a witness.

THE WITNESS: Okay. (Witness exits the stand.)

Mr. Weisselberg dated April of 2015; yes?
A Yes.
Q And the subject is Seven Springs; right?
A Yes.
Q And you understood at the time of this e-mail that there was an outstanding mortgage on the property; right?
A Yes, I think I would have known that.
Q And the borrower on the mortgage was Seven Springs LLC; correct?

A It appears that way, yes.
Q Were you president of Seven Springs LLC at this point in time?

A I do not know.
Q At some point you did become president of that entity; right?
A Yes, I did.
Q And the first sentence of the e-mail says "if we have to pay off the loan I would like to do it post June 30th as that is the date of your dad's annual financial statement and where I to keep his cash balance as high as possible."

There is a grammatical error in that, but do we agree that what Mr. Weisselberg is telling you is that he wants to hold off paying off the loan if it's going to be paid off until after June 30th because that way he can keep the cash balance on your dad's annual financial statement as high as possible?

A I understand that there is plenty of financial statements in our company, absolutely, and I also understand the fact that if you pay off debt with cash you're still in the same net neutral space. That's just basic finance 101. Absolutely.
Q Okay. My question is very specific about your knowledge based on this e-mail.

When you got this e-mail and read it, you understood that your father had a financial statement as of June 30th that included both liquidity and his net worth; right?
A Yes.
Q And you knew that as of April 2015; correct?
A Yes. This e-mail was sent to me as of April of 2015. MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 1113.
Q Mr. Trump, this is an e-mail exchange between you and Mr. Weisselberg concerning a line of credit for the Las Vegas property; right?
A If you don't mind, just give me a second to read it. I'm not familiar with this.
Q Sure.
A Yes, I understand this now.
Q This is an e-mail exchange between you and
Mr. Weisselberg concerning a line of credit for Las Vegas; right?
A Yes.
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3331
A Yes. Mr. Weisselberg would make decisions like that, absolutely.
Q Well, that's what he's saying in this e-mail?
A I agree with you. Absolutely.
Q So as of the date of this e-mail you understood that your dad's annual financial statement was as of June 30th; right?

A One of my father's financial statements was June 30th, yes.

Q And that it had a cash balance figure in the statement; right?
A I think any financial statement would have a cash balance figure, but yes.

Q And the second sentence says, "I realize this will only have an effect on his liquidity and not on net worth." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q So you understood as of this date that your father had an annual financial statement that was as of June 30th that reflected his liquidity and his net worth; right?
A I see the words on the piece of paper. I'm not sure if I would have paid a whole lot of attention to that, but yes, I absolutely see the words on the paper.
Q But you got this e-mail, so as of this date you understood those things; right?

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3333
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1113 in evidence.)
Q Now, Mr. Weisselberg's e-mail, which is the bottom e-mail says "I was speaking with Bender this morning and he happened to mention to me that Drew needed you" -- should be "your dad's financial statement as well as Phil's in order to secure a line of credit with B of A." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q So you understood Mr. Weisselberg was looking to use your dad's financial statement to secure a line of credit from the bank; correct?

A Presumably. I don't think I would have focused that much on that, but yes, according to this e-mail, yes.

Q Well, you read this e-mail because you responded to it in the e-mail above it; right?
A Yes, I told him we didn't need to take out a line of credit and the renovations were to be very small.
Q But the fact that you responded to it confirms that you read it; right?

A Yes, I clearly read it at the time.

Q So you were aware from this e-mail that as of July 2015 your father had a financial statement that the company was intending to use to secure a line of credit with the bank; right?
A Yes, as I've testified to I know our company has plenty of sets of financial statements.

Q The answer to my question is yes?
A Yes.
MR. AMER: Okay. Let's go ahead and mark as Exhibit 1079 another exhibit.

Q Mr. Trump, this is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you dated February 23, 2017; correct?
A Yes.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this exhibit into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1079 in evidence.)
Q And you'll see there is a subject, it says "footnotes."
Do you see that?
A I do.
Q And it has a PDF attachment. That's the second and third pages of this exhibit?

A Yes.
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3335
Q And Mr. McConney writes to you, "Eric, we're working on your dad's financial statement. I've attached the footnotes relating to the three European clubs with all of the renovations that were done since the last statement in June 2015. I wanted to ask you if there is anything you wanted to add to or expand on in the footnotes. Thanks, Jeff." See that?
A Absolutely. That would definitely be consistent with my job in the company.

Q And if you look at the attachment, it's the footnotes from the Statement of Financial Condition for your father; right?

A Yes, I would have focused on two of these three projects because I was actively building them at the time.

Q So Mr. McConney is asking for your input on footnotes that are part of your father's annual financial statement; correct?
A These are property descriptions, but yes, that sounds right. I was building Turnberry at the time and I was building Trump Doondeg.

Q And Mr. McConney is sharing with you a draft excerpt from the Statement of Financial Statement asking for your input on those -- that draft; correct?
A Yes, he would have been asking for my input on the property descriptions.

Q And he tells you in his e-mail that what he's attaching

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3336
1 are footnotes to your dad's financial statement; correct?
A I think we can agree and with your -- Judge, Your Honor, I know my father has financial statements. Again, I think I've testified to this pretty extensively. Yes, my father has financial statements. These are property descriptions that Jeff asked me to confirm. Absolutely.

Q So the answer to my question is yes?
A Yes, I confirm property descriptions that Jeff sent or at least received the property descriptions that Jeff sent.

Q Well, but my question was different. My question was based on the e-mail you understood that what Mr. McConney was sending you was -- were -- was a draft of a portion of your dad's financial statement. You understood that at the time you got this e-mail in 2017?
A I understood it as somebody from accounting was asking me for descriptions of property that I was actively working on building at the time.
Q He says "we're working on your dad's financial statement" and he's attaching footnotes. Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Okay. So you understood when you got this that what he was attaching was a draft portion of your dad's financial statement; yes or no?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall giving a deposition in this case at the

Page 3337
Attorney General's offices earlier this year; yes?
A I do.
Q And your testimony during that deposition was under oath, just like your testimony is here today; correct?

A It is.
Q I'm going to play video excerpt -- actually, a few excerpts from your deposition and in between each excerpt I'm going to ask you some questions. The first clip is page 259, line 10 to page 262 , line 17 .
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
Q That was your sworn testimony at your deposition; correct?
A Yes, and I think it's very accurate with what I'm saying right now.

MR. AMER: Can we put up 1075, please?
Q Having reviewed the e-mails we've been discussing during the course of the past couple hour - couple of hours, including this e-mail, will you now concede that in fact you were very familiar with your father's Statement of Financial Condition at least since 2013; yes or no?
A Saying your dad's annual financial statement that reads to me very differently than the personal Statement of Financial Condition. Irrespective, I just don't think it would have registered if somebody from accounting is asking me a question about a property description or how many lots could be built on a property, I don't really care where it's being used. I care about providing them the information from the department that I'm running.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'll move to strike the answer and ask that the witness be instructed to answer my question yes or no.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I submit the question was a little bit of a loaded question because it started out with "very aware." I mean, he was trying to make a point and Mr. Trump answered it appropriately.

THE COURT: Why don't we do this, another compromise. You can call it -- I won't strike what he said. He said what he said and I think it wasn't totally divorced from your question, but why don't we get a read back or ask him the question as simply as you can and if it's a yes or no, I'll direct him to answer yes or no.

MR. AMER: That's fine. I will say other witnesses have been directed not to give speeches after the yes or no and that's what I'm asking that you direct him not to do.

THE COURT: Yes. If it's a yes-or-no question and you answer yes or no, unless you absolutely need -- well, no. No exception. No speech. You can be cross examined, but if it's yes or no and you can answer yes or no, then we don't want a speech.

THE WITNESS: I'm just trying to be very clear for Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3339
everybody, Your Honor. Absolutely.
THE COURT: But there is a system going on here, question, answer. Yes or no, answer yes or no. No speech.

Do we need a read back or can you just restate or reformulate the question or just -- I can't remember did he answer it yes and then give his speech or no and then give his speech?
Q I'll repeat my question and ask you to please answer it yes or no.

Having reviewed the e-mails we've been discussing during the course of the past couple of hours, will you now concede that in fact you were very familiar with your father's Statement of Financial Condition at least since 2013; yes or no? A No, I was not very familiar with my father's financial statement, no.

Q Will you concede that in fact -- that you did in fact know as of August 20, 2013 that Mr. McConney was intending to use the information you provided to him to value the property for the Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?
A Yes, it appears that way from the e-mails.
Q Let's play another clip. It's page 273, lines nine to 20.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
Q That was your sworn testimony at your deposition; yes? A Yes.

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3340
Q And will you now agree that you did in fact know about the backup for the Statement of the Financial Condition because Mr. McConney had forwarded you an excerpt from his supporting spreadsheet when requesting information from you for that property; yes?
A I will agree that it didn't register. I certainly provided Jeff material for whatever exercise he was undertaking, but yes, I would agree.
Q Let's play another clip. This one is page 274, lines 15 to 25 .
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
Q Will you now concede that you did in fact have an understanding when speaking to Mr. McConney about Seven Springs that he was seeking the information from you for the expressed purpose of valuing the properties for your father's Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?
A Same answer as before. It just didn't register, so yes -- does it appear he ultimately was, yes. It didn't register to me and I provide him the exact same information as I provided him at the time all over again absolutely.

MR. AMER: I think we may need a reminder about no speeches after answering yes or no, Your Honor, please.

MR. ROBERT: I think it was an appropriate answer.
THE COURT: I think it was a speech. These are yes-or-no questions.
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3341
Q I'll take the yes, but please if I ask you a yes-or-no question, then just --

A Just trying to be very clear.

Q Your lawyers will have an opportunity to question you.
A I understand.
Q They may not take it, but they have it.
MR. AMER: Last clip and then we'll move on. This is page 276 , line 18 to 277 , line 13.
Q Mr. Trump, will you now concede that despite being confident at your deposition that you didn't know the conversations you had with Mr. McConney were ever used as part of the work product for the Statement of Financial Condition you did in fact understand at the time of your conversations with him that the very purpose of his requests to you for Seven Springs information was to use that information for the Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
A No.
THE COURT: I'm sorry, what was the answer?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) Q I'd like to ask you some questions about the conservation easement donation for Seven Springs.
A Absolutely.
Q You were aware that there was a conservation easement

19 Q If we put up 2013 Jeff Supporting Data PX 708 in 20 evidence, and if we go to Row 638 and 640, we can agree that the 21 contact that Mr. Leonard indicated you had with Mr. Heffernan is individual other than who she was the agent for, I would say is improper, so tell us who it is you say they are the agent for.

THE COURT: Mr. Amer, you want to answer that?
MR. AMER: Sure. Exhibit 908, the engagement letter indicates that the client is Donald J. Trump. I'll take that.

MR. ROBERT: Can I see the exhibit, please?
MR. AMER: It's 908.
MR. ROBERT: Fair enough.
THE COURT: Objection overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 908.)
Q We saw that Mr. Leonard's e-mail indicated his understanding that you had contacted Mr. Heffernan by mid December of 2012, correct?
A I appear so. about six or seven months prior -- actually would be about eight months prior to the August 20, 2013 call that you had with Mr. McConney, right?
A It appears that way, yes.

Q Can we agree that there's nothing in this spreadsheet that reflects information from Mr. Heffernan; yes or no?
A I wouldn't know. I know nothing about this spreadsheet and I didn't create this spreadsheet, so that's a question for somebody else. I wouldn't be able to accurately tell you not knowing the document.
Q Well, you're the one who purportedly had contact with Mr. Heffernan, so do you recognize any of the figures on this spreadsheet as being figures that you might have obtained through conversations with Mr. Heffernan?

MR. ROBERT: I think the disconnect, Your Honor, is Mr. Amer may be referring to this one entry on the spreadsheet, not the entire spreadsheet, which is much greater in detail. That may be where the confusion is here because he's asking him is it anywhere in the spreadsheet. The spreadsheet, as my understanding, is pretty thick.

MR. AMER: I'll limit my question to the document that's up on the screen. That's the excerpt from the spreadsheet.

THE COURT: All right. So we are just talking about the excerpt?

MR. AMER: Yes.
MR. ROBERT: That's fine.
A You have to repeat the question because there's many disconnects here, but, please, go ahead and --

\section*{TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3349
Q Do you recognize any of the information on this page, the excerpt from the spreadsheet as being information based on a contact with Mr. Heffernan?
A I don't, but I think they are two distinctly different exercises.

Q So the answer is no?
A No.
THE COURT: See.
Q You would agree with me that your answer is no, correct?

A It couldn't be because they are two totally different subject matters and --

THE COURT: The document speaks -- it doesn't speak for itself. It doesn't say Heffernan. Do you want to --
Q The question is whether you recognize any of these figures as figures that would have come from Mr. Heffernan? Do you, yes or no?

A I don't recognize those figures to begin with, so I would not be able to answer that question.

THE COURT: We'll take that to be a no.
MR. AMER: Yes.
Q Do you recall that about a year and-a-half later, so in mid 2014, you reached out to David McArdle of Cushman & Wakefield to start the ball rolling on getting a preliminary value from him for an easement donation on Seven Springs?
A I do. I remember David McArdle slightly better. It is a vague recollection, but I remember that David was with Cushman, yes.

MR. AMER: Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3330
for identification.
Q This is your e-mail to Mr. McArdle in June of 2014.
The subject is "Seven Springs" and you indicate it was great speaking to him earlier. So you had a conversation with Mr. McArdle?

A It appears so, yes.
Q And you're making arrangements in this e-mail to have him come and inspect the property; is that right?

A Yes. I was setting him up with your general manager to inspect the property. I believe Sheri retained him just prior to this.

Q And the reason for setting up an inspection of the property was for him to move forward with an appraisal for an easement donation, correct?

A That's my understanding, yes.
MR. AMER: I move to admit this document.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3330.)

A Debbie, yes. I passed Mr. McArdle off to Debbie who I'm sure gave him a property tour.
Q This was for the purpose of having him come up with a preliminary value; is that right?
A You would have to ask Sheri Dillon. She's definitely closer to the details of this than me, but that would be my assumption, yes.

Q I realize we could ask questions to a lot of people, but I'm asking them to you. I just want your best recollection.

A It would be my best recollection, yes.
Q Thank you.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3331 for identification.
Q And this is a series of e-mail exchanges beginning with the one we looked at before between you and Mr. McArdle, right? A Yes.

MR. AMER: I move to admit this into evidence, Your Honor.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3331.)
Q Mr. McArdle, in the middle e-mail responds by asking if we could target -- if you could target June 17th for his inspection and you in the top e-mail forward that on to Debbie and you say -- you ask her if this would work for an hour or so and then you say, "I'll call to give you the details." Let me just stop right there.

Can we agree, then, that you had details with respect to what needed to happen with the inspection?

A Yes. I would have had to tell the person who is running our property generally the purpose for the visit.

Q And you knew the details as of this point in time, correct?

A This was probably very preliminary at the point, but yes, I would have said that he's an appraiser coming up to the property, please tour the person around.

Q You go on to say that you'll do your best to make it to the inspection as well, correct?

A That's correct.
Q So we can agree that you deemed it sufficiently important for you to take time out of your schedule to do your best to attend the inspection that Mr. McArdle was going to conduct, right?

A If it was extremely important, I would have said I will make it as opposed to do my best to make it; but yes, if I was free and was able to attend, I would have. I would have joined. Q Well, not if you were free, but you'll do your best to try and make yourself free to attend the inspection, right?

A We'll agree. If I was free, I would have done my best to make it.

Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 169 in evidence. This document is an -- we had testimony from Mr. McArdle, this was an internal e-mail and he says -- this is September 8, 2014 -- in the second sentence, "I have completed the research and all verbal consulting."

Do you see that?
A Yes, I see that.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't mean -- if they're struggling, I can see it right there.

THE COURT: Tommy and Mike, I have it on the screen. It is already in evidence.

THE WITNESS: Guys, don't worry about it.
THE COURT: Thanks. The screen version is better because you get all the highlights sometimes. By the way, my favorite words in this trial are "already in evidence," so we don't have to fight about whether something is admissible or not.

MR. ROBERT: I think mine, too.
Q So we can agree that by September 8, 2014, Mr. McArdle had completed his consulting on this engagement, right?
A I have no reason to doubt Mr. McArdle.
Q And so by that date, you would have received verbally from Mr. McArdle his preliminary value for the potential easement donation, right?

A I don't remember.
Q Well, if he completed his consulting, you would have received verbally his assessment by that date because that was part of the consulting engagement, wasn't it?
A I don't know if it would have been done with me at the end -- Sheri really ran the engagement with Mr. McArdle, so I couldn't tell you.
Q So either you or your agent Ms. Dillon had received verbally from Mr. McArdle his preliminary value as of September 8, 2014 according to this e-mail, yes?
A Yes.
Q And am I correct that shortly after September 8, 2014, you decided to have Mr. McArdle proceed with a formal written appraisal for the potential easement donation; is that right?

A I truthfully don't remember.
Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3188 in evidence.
You'll see that this is a series of e-mails among you, Mr.
McArdle and Ms. Dillon. I'm just going to walk you through some of them.

The first e-mail in the chain, which is on the bottom of page two, is from you to Mr. McArdle and Ms. Dillon asking about their schedule to set up a call and this is on August 11, 2014. Do you see that?
E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

Page 3355
A Ido.
Q And then the top of the page is Ms. Dillon's e-mail back to you and Mr. McArdle with her date preference, right?
A Yes.
Q And on the first page of the exhibit, the bottom e-mail is from Mr. McArdle with his date preference. Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q And then finally, the top e-mail is from you setting a meeting for the following Monday which based on the fact that you're sending this Monday, August 11th, would be August 18th, right?

A Presumably.
Q I think the Court can take judicial notice that --
A I'll take your word for it.
Q -- the next Monday --
A I'll take your word for it. It sounds right.
Q -- is August 18th. You indicate you will -- "I will send around a calendar invite"?
A Yes.
Q In the second sentence of your e-mail, "Sheri, by that point, ideally, you will have seen the draft appraisal."

Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q So your expectation was that sometime between August 11th and August 18th, Ms. Dillon would have received the draft appraisal report from Mr. McArdle, correct?
A That sounds correct, yes.
Q And we can agree, then, that after the verbal consulting, you had decided to move forward with having Mr.
McArdle actually draft a formal appraisal, right?
A I believe that's the case, yes.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark for identification Exhibit 3327. We just need to get the right exhibit up.
Q So this is a calendar invite that you send back in July setting a date for the Seven Springs appraisal being due of 8/15/2014, correct?
A It is very consistent with my OCD personality, yes.
Q So that's why you expected that Sheri Dillon would have received the report by the 18 th because you had already calendared it for the 15th of August, correct?
A I would assume that's a milestone that she set out and we calendared the date, yes.
Q Then if you look at the second page of this exhibit, this is Mr. McArdle accepting that calendar invite, right?
A It appears to be, yes.
Q And so that's why you had an expectation that by the time of your call on August 18th, the appraisal would be in hand, the draft appraisal, right?
A Presumably, yes.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3206 in evidence.
Q This is the calendar invite for the call on the 18th that we previously saw had been scheduled the week before, right?
A I don't remember much about this, but it looks to be correct.

Q That's a calendar invite you sent, yes?
A It looks to be, yes.
Q Okay. And you titled the subject "Seven Springs valuation call," right?
A I did.
Q So we can agree that the purpose of the call was to discuss the Seven Springs valuation that Mr. McArdle was coming up with, right?
A That seems to make sense. I don't remember much about any of these details, but I presume that's correct, yes.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I'm not sure if I moved in evidence 3327, so I'll do that now. That was the prior document.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3327.)
Q And do you recall that in this time frame, you signed a formal engagement letter with Cushman for Mr. McArdle to provide a written appraisal for the potential conservation easement over Seven Springs?

A It sounds like that's something that we would have done, yes.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 133 in evidence.
Q You will see that this is an engagement letter addressed to you dated September 15, 2014 and you -- if you turn to page 6 of 8, is that your signature agreeing to this engagement letter?
A Yes, it is.
Q And you sign it on September 18, 2014, correct?
A That's correct, yes.
Q And on page one of the engagement letter, the type of opinion and rights appraised says "fair market value of a conservation easement," correct?
A Yes, that was the exercise at hand.
Q Let's go ahead and mark for identification Plaintiff's Exhibit 3189. You'll see these are e-mail exchanges between you, Mr. McArdle and Ms. Dillon, and I'll represent to you that all of the exchanges are ones we've seen before in the prior exhibits except for the one at the very top, which is from you to Mr. McArdle dated August 18, 2014, the date of the valuation call.
E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

Page 3359
Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q And you can just look, the prior e-mails have just the back and forth setting up the date preference for the call. Do you recognize those?
A Yes.
Q And in the top e-mail from you to Mr. McArdle is forwarding along a Zillow listing; is that right?
A Yes, that appears to be a Zillow listing.
Q And you're sending Mr. McArdle a comp for him to consider in connection with the appraisal engagement; is that right?
A I don't have this at this point, but it was some data point that I thought was maybe relevant to whatever the exercise at hand ultimately was.

Q Well, let me just make sure we're on the same page. Do you agree that what you're forwarding is a comp for Mr. McArdle to consider in connection with his appraisal engagement on Seven Springs, yes or no?

A Yes.
MR. AMER: I move to admit this, Your Honor.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3189.)

Q The comp is 168 Hook Road, Bedford, New York. Let's ahead and put up Exhibit 3190 for identification.

3190, same e-mail string except for a different e-mail at the very top. You're forwarding to Mr. McArdle now a Zillow listing for a 72 Guard Hill Road, Bedford Corners, New York. Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q Same day, a second comp that you're forwarding to Mr. McArdle for his consideration, correct?
A Clearly, I was trying to show them some data point that I thought they would think was relevant, yes.

MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in, and five-minute warning.
(Whereupon, the Plaintiff was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3190.)

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up Exhibit 3207 for identification.
Q Mr. Trump, this is another calendar invite you send to Ms. Dillon and Mr. McArdle with the subject "call Seven Springs."

Do you see that?
A I do.

Q And this was a call that you scheduled for August 25, 2014?
A Yes.
Q Do you recall a few weeks after the scheduled date of this call you decided to terminate the engagement with Mr. McArdle without getting a final appraisal report?
A That could be accurate. I, again, have very little recollection of all of this maybe because it was terminated, but I'll take your word for it.
Q Well, let's confirm the date. So let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 185 in evidence, and this is an e-mail from Ms. Dillon to Mr. McArdle dated Monday, October 6, 2014.

Do you see that?
A I do.
Q And Ms. Dillon confirms that there's been a mutual agreement to terminate the engagement as of that date, right?
A That's what this says, yes.
Q That would have been something that you would have authorized her to do, right?
A I see no reason to believe that Sheri and I wouldn't have had a conversation about that.
Q Well, more than that you had a conversation, but that you actually authorized her as your attorney to terminate the engagement as of this date?

1 A Presumably she was much closer to this than me. I just don't have a recollection of this sitting here today.

Q Well, would you agree with me that Ms. Dillon would not have the authority to terminate the engagement without the approval to do so from her client?
A I imagine she told somebody. Again, I just don't have a recollection.

Q Okay. Let me try again because that wasn't my question. I'm just trying to confirm that Ms. Dillon would not have had the authority to terminate the engagement without getting authority to do so from her client; is that right?

A Yes. If she made a recommendation, we would follow it; but yes, I think that's right.

Q Well, she's the one who has to follow your direction, not the other way around, because she's the lawyer and you're the client, right?

A She was the one running this process, but yes, fair enough. I think you and I are --

THE COURT: By the --
A -- in agreement.
THE COURT: By the way, that was another speech. The question was very simple. Would Sheri Dillon have terminated the engagement without authority from the client, yes or no? You said she would not have. Of course, we all know she would not have. You don't have to give a speech after that.

Q Mr. Trump, just to close the loop, based on your testimony earlier that a donation was made in 2015, do you recall that Cushman was re-engaged to complete the appraisal report the following year?

A Yes, I believe that's the case.
MR. AMER: I'm going to try and see if I can get one more document in before we have to go. Actually, let me move to admit Exhibit 3207, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3207.)
Q Let's quickly look at Exhibit 3328. Mr. Trump, you'll see that this is an e-mail -- the top e-mail is from you to a number of people within the Trump Organization as well as Ms. Dillon, right?
A That's correct.
Q And this is dated May 29, 2015, yes?
A Yes, it is.
Q And you have some follow-up items that you list in your e-mail to this team, correct?

A Yes.
Q The item you list for Ms. Dillon is finalized Seven Springs appraisal, correct?

A Yes.
Q So does this refresh your recollection that sometime in 2015, you re-engaged Mr. McArdle to -- or Cushman & Wakefield to finalize the appraisal report for the easement donation?
A Yes, it does.
MR. AMER: I move to admit this exhibit in evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. If you want another five minutes, okay, or you want to break right now?

MR. AMER: I think I have a little more on this, but let's take our break.

THE COURT: Back at 3:35, everyone.
(Witness exits the stand.)
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)

THE COURT OFFICER: All rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Right on time. I like to run a tight ship. Okay. Let's continue with the questions.

MR. AMER: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 which is the supporting data spreadsheet and I'd like to focus you on Row 660 and this is just to close the loop on the Seven Springs easement donation time frame in relation to the calls that Mr. McConney was discussing was indicating in his note.

If you look at 660, that's the note that refers to his conversation with you on September 12, 2014. Do you see that? A Ido, yes.
Q And we can agree that that is in the time frame of when you were working with Ms. Dillon and Mr. McArdle to get a valuation for Seven Springs for the easement donation; correct?
A It appears to be, yes.
Q And this -- and it's after your August 18th valuation call; correct?
A I've already told you I didn't provide values. I see nothing wrong with the values, but I didn't provide values. I've testified pretty extensive to that.
Q That was not my question at all. My question was the note about Mr. McConney's conversation with you in September of 2014, that was after the August 18, 2014 valuation call that we looked at you had scheduled; correct?

A It appears the dates were kept that way, yes.
Q Can we agree that Mr. McArdle's valuation was disregarded for purposes of valuing the Seven Springs property in 2014; yes or no?
A I'm very confused to that question. I think you need to be much more specific. Is this the 2014 valuation that was never concluded? Is this the valuation that was concluded?

Q The Statement of Financial Condition valuation in 2014 that comes to a value of \($ 291\) million, can we agree that Mr. McArdle's valuation in connection with the easement donation engagement that he was doing was disregarded for purposes of coming up with that \($ 291\) million; yes or no?
A No. The exercises are apples and oranges. They have nothing to do with one another.

Q That seems to be a yes to me because the question was whether Mr. McArdle's work was being disregarded for purposes of this value. You're telling me that it was apples and oranges. Is that your testimony?

MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. He's asking whether it was disregarded which presupposes it should have been regarded. If he wants to say is that the same number, that's a simple question that can be answered yes or no, but to suggest it's discarded meant it should have been used.

THE COURT: Disregarded, not discarded.
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3367

MR. ROBERT: Disregarded.
MR. AMER: Either they took it into account or they disregarded it. Those seem to me to be the two obvious choices, so my question is whether he agrees that the McArdle valuation was disregarded for purposes of coming up with the \($ 291\) million figure in the Statement of Financial Condition. That's the question I'd like answered.

THE COURT: Objection sustained.
Q Mr. Trump, to your knowledge, did you ever forward to Mr. McConney or tell Mr. McConney anything about Mr. McArdle's valuation?

A I would have never have thought to, no.
Q So the answer is you did not?
A I didn't -- no, I did not. I would have never thought to because I didn't work on this document.

THE COURT: The short answer is no, you didn't do it. You don't have to explain why.
Q I'd like to turn now to Briarcliff. You're familiar with Trump National Golf Club in Briarcliff Manor, yes?
A Yes.
Q Can we refer to that for short as Briarcliff?
A Absolutely.
Q Let's go ahead and keep up 719, which is the 2014 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet and look at Row 267.

And this begins the section on Briarcliff. Do you see
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3368

1 that?
2
3

9 A Iam.
10 Q And you had some involvement in developing those plans; 1 is that right?

A No. Those plans predated me, but I am aware of them.
Q Well, did you have involvement in working on the project to develop the 71 mid rise units?

A They were zoned before I came into the company.
Q And as of 2014 it was put on hold; right?
A Yes. We retained the zoning, but it was put on hold.
Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 157, which is in evidence already. If you look at page three of this exhibit you'll see there is an e-mail from Mr. McArdle to you on August 6, 2013. See that?

A Yes, I do.
Q And he's referencing a revised appraisal proposal and says "hope this works for you and we can move forward." Do you see that?

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3369

\section*{A Ido.}

Q And this was to move forward with an appraisal to estimate the value of the 71 units we were just talking about; right?
A It appears so, yes.
Q And the bottom of page two of this exhibit is your response to him; right?

\section*{A Yes.}

9 Q And you write, "good morning, David. Attached please
10 find the assigned proposal. I'm in the process of sending you 11 the retainer of 6,250 by separate cover. I will send you all

25 Q And he writes to Mr. McArdle -- well, let me backup.

1 Bingham was again acting as counsel for the Trump Organization in connection with engaging Mr. McArdle to do the valuation for the 71 units; is that right?
A Yes, Sheri Dillon at Bingham was counsel.
Q And he writes to Mr. McArdle in August -- I'm sorry, September of 2013 -- I'm sorry. This is the other way around. It's from Mr. McArdle to Mr. Leonard and he says, "Bob, I spoke with Eric yesterday and agreed to perform a discounted cash flow analysis reflecting a build-out scenario."

Do you recall discussing with Mr. McArdle the need to perform a discounted flow -- discounted cash flow analysis reflecting a build-out/sellout scenario for the 71 units?

A Not off the top of my head, no.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that Mr. McArdle is inaccurately describing his discussion with you the day before he sends this e-mail?

A Absolutely not.
Q Do you agree that estimating the current value for the profit to be realized from selling the 71 units requires performing a discounted cash flow analysis?
A I wouldn't be familiar with the methodology.
Q Wasn't my question.
A Meaning so I think the answer is no to your question. I wouldn't be familiar with the methodology, so not necessarily.

Q Well, do you have an understanding -- well, you had an understanding at the time that Mr. McArdle was going to do a discounted cash flow analysis reflecting the build-out/sellout scenario; right?
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3371
A Yes.
Q And is it your testimony sitting here today that you don't know one way or the other whether it was necessary to do such an analysis for this project that was currently on hold and would generate cash flow in the future?

A I would not know, no.
Q Would you agree at least that you understood that that was something that Mr. McArdle thought was necessary at the time?

A I would have left that to Mr. McArdle. He's from Cushman and clearly knows that field very well.

Q Okay. But you understood based on your conversation with him that that was something that he was going to do; correct?
A It looks like it from the e-mail, yes.
Q Okay. Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3204 in evidence. This is an e-mail dated September 13, 2013 from Mr. McArdle to you relating to the Briarcliff 71 units; right?
A Yes, it appears that way.
Q And he writes: "This is a follow up to confirm that you will be providing support from your brokers for the potential pricing of the 71 residential units."
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

1

Do you recall that you were going to get comps to pass along to Mr. McArdle to help with the pricing of the 71 residential units?
A I don't. Cushman & Wakefield would certainly have more brokers than we do.
Q Well, when you -- when he indicates that you will be providing support from your brokers, meaning you --
A Support. That's possible, yes.
Q Okay. He's talking about your brokers, not his brokers; right?
A Yes. We didn't have any brokers on the project at that point, so I'm a little bit confused by what he's saying there, but --
Q Well, you had an in-house realty group called Trump International Realty, didn't you?
A We did with main presence here in New York, but fair enough. I'm not discounting your point.
Q Do you recall that you had that group look for comps in the area to provide to Mr. McArdle?
A I do not off the top of my head.
Q And in the next sentence he says that - actually, two sentences down, he says he's going to move forward with the discounted cash flow analysis and looks forward to the pricing and cost estimates from your team. Do you see that?
A Yes.
ump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3373
Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3202, which is already in evidence.

Now, the bottom e-mail is from Kathy Kaye to you dated September 24, 2013. Ms. Kaye was in the Trump International Realty Group; correct?
A That's correct.
Q And she says "please see the attached for your review and comments." And then if you flip the page you'll see she is attaching some listings from West -- from Westchester closings. Do you see that?
A I do.
Q Does it appear then that you had Ms. Kaye from the Trump International Realty Group pull together some comps for you to then pass along to Mr. McArdle?
A Yes, it does.
Q And you do, in fact, forward the comps to Mr. McArdle in the e-mail above; right?
A Yes.
Q Let's look at Exhibit 3201 already in evidence.
You'll see the bottom of page one is an e-mail from
Mr. McArdle to you dated September 30, 2013, yes?
A Yes.
Q And he says to you "I'm prepared to share my valuation and conclusions with you. Are you available to talk this afternoon or tomorrow morning." And then you can respond you can do 3:30. He says "perfect, I will call you."
And so do you recall that you had a conversation in this time frame with Mr. McArdle where he shared with you his valuation conclusions for the 71 units at Briarcliff?
A I do not recall.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that that call happened as indicated in the e-mail exchange?
A I don't want to speculate. It very well could have -I just don't know sitting here ten years later.

Q Well, do you have any recollection of anything that happened that to your knowledge would have prevented that call from going forward?

A I have very little recollection on this whole subject, so no.

Q Then the top e-mail is from Mr. McArdle to you on October 16, 2013 confirming his conversations with Ms. Dillon to finish but hold off sending the appraisal until further notice; right?
A Yes.
Q Okay. Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 1465, which is already in evidence. Page two of this e-mail, the top is an e-mail from Ms. Dillon to you -- to Mr. McArdle. Sorry. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q And she says in her e-mail to Mr. McArdle, "I spoke to

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3375
Eric and he is aware that the more supportable value at this point is around 45 million." Do you see that?
A Ido.
Q And then at the very end of that paragraph she says
"Eric was pleased with the number." Do you see that?
A I see that, yes.
Q Do you recall learning by October 16, 2013 of Mr. McArdle's value of 45 million understanding that that was the more supportable value in being pleased with that number; yes or no?

A I don't recall.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that what Ms. Dillon reports in this e-mail is accurate?

A No, I don't. I don't Ms. Dillon.
Q Okay. The decision in mid October to have Mr. McArdle hold off on sending the appraisal, was that your decision?

A It could have been.
Q Let's put up 719, the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet for 2014 and let's look at Row 284.

Mr. McConney notes here, 9/25/2013 per telephone conversation with Eric Trump "sellout is based on comps in the area." Do you see that?

A Ido.
MR. AMER: And if we could split the screen with Plaintiff's Exhibit 3202? And you'll see -- that's the bottom e-mail is the one from Ms. Kaye sending the comps. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q And her e-mail to you is dated September 24, 2013. So that's the day before the call noted by Mr. McConney with you about the sellout being based on comps in the area. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q So can we agree that that information was information that you provided to Mr. McConney based on what you had received from Ms. Kate and passed along to Mr. McArdle?
A Not necessarily the dates.
Q The dates do line up, though, that the day before you had this call with Mr. McConney, you got the comps from Ms. Kaye; right?
A Yes, it seems like these are again totally --
THE WITNESS: I want to respect Your Honor. I think this one needs just --

THE COURT: Go ahead. THE WITNESS: I'll respect --
A These are two totally different exercises, one of which I wasn't involved in clearly. It says asterisk 9/25/2013 per telephone conversation with Eric Trump sale of 71 mid rise units with that asterisk. And yes I think those numbers are very well supportable, but this is totally different exercise. This has rump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3377
to do with a conservation easement and that has to do with saleable square footage in incredibly luxurious units that would be built on a golf course. I'm trying to draw a parallel for you because I think you're conflating two very different topics and --
Q Are you done? I just don't want to interrupt you.
THE COURT: He meant that seriously. It wasn't a dig at all.
A I'm just trying to be as transparent as I possibly can that two completely different things, but yes.
Q Okay. The note by Mr. McConney involved the conversation with you, yes?
A The asterisk is next to the asterisk, but yes, I'll concede.
Q And that same note says "sellout is based on comps in the area." Yes?
A It says "sellout is based on comps in the area."
Q And the day before you received an e-mail from Ms. Kaye of the Trump International Realty Group providing comps which you then forwarded on to Mr. McArdle in connection with the 71 unit easement donation engagement; yes or no?
A Yes.
Q And we just looked at the fact that you -- that there was a decision to have Mr. McArdle hold off on sending the appraisal and that was as of October 19th or 16th of 2013.

Page 3379
Mr. McArdle's $45 million valuation for his appraisal engagement; yes or no?
A No.
Q So are you saying that as of November 17, 2015 -- well, we've established that as of November 17, 2015 you did know that Mr. McArdle had come up with a value of 45 million; right? Yes?

A Yes.
Q Okay. And that was knowledge you had when you told Mr. McConney in this call to leave the value as is; yes or no?

A No.
Q Well, you had the knowledge then you had the call. Isn't that right?

A I've testified pretty extensively to the fact that I've never seen this document. And second of all, they're totally different exercises.

Q It's really not my question, Mr. Trump. I'm trying just to establish that you had a particular piece of knowledge prior to the date of this call. I think we've agreed that prior to November 17, 2015 you were aware of Mr. McArdle's \($ 45\) million value; yes?

A Yes.
Q Let's leave it at that because I think the dates are things that the Court can take judicial notice of.

THE COURT: The dates will speak for themselves.
MR. AMER: We could put up 3201 just to confirm the date and let's keep up -- sorry -- the spreadsheet. Right.
Q So October of 2013 there is a decision to have Mr. McArdle hold off sending the appraisal; right?
A Yes.
Q Was the decision to have Mr. McArdle hold off on ending the appraisal an effort to delay the creation of that locument until after the 2013 statement was issued?

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and pull up the 2017 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Plaintiff's
Exhibit 742 in evidence and let's go to note 295.
Q And this note says "November 17, 2015. Per telephone conversation with Eric Trump, leave value as is." Do you see hat?

A Ido.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt the accuracy of Mr. McConney's note about this telephone conversation with you?
A Not at all.
Q So you instructed Mr. McConney to leave the value as is in this call; correct?

A Very likely nothing had changed on the project between those two years.
Q And you gave this instruction to leave the value as is at a point in time where you were already made aware of reviewing, would you agree that you conferred on multiple occasions with Mr. McArdle in connection with appraisal engagements for Seven Springs and Briarcliff; yes or no?

\section*{E.}

A Yes.
Q I'm going to play you some testimony from your deposition and then ask you some questions about it. It's page 198, line 10 to 199 , line 20.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
MR. AMER: Can we put up the text of that video clip, please? Let's go to page 199.
Q So this is from what we just played and I want to focus on your testimony starting at line six on this page that you really hadn't been involved in appraisal work on the Seven Springs property.

Mr. Trump, will you concede that your testimony was incorrect; yes or no?
A I really hadn't been involved in the appraisal work on that property. No. I think that's an accurate statement.
Sheri Dillon handled the vast majority of the appraisal work. Clearly, I made an introduction to our property manager.
Clearly, I was on a few phone calls, but that was a six-month long process and you've pointed out four interactions that I had. I would stand by the statement that I don't remember McArdle well and certainly I was aware of it, but I don't think I was the main person involved or even considered very involved.

Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)
Page 3381
MR. KISE: So, Your Honor --
Q I didn't ask about main person.
MR. AMER: What's your objection because I --
MR. KISE: Can I say it first?
MR. AMER: No because I think we may need to excuse the witness and we can hash it out.

MR. KISE: Are you running the courtroom or is the judge? I don't know why you're talking to me. I think the judge is running the courtroom.

MR. AMER: I'm asking the judge to excuse the witness if we're going to have an objection.

MR. KISE: Or any objection standing objection.
THE COURT: Or a standing objection.
MR. KISE: All I'm going to ask --
THE COURT: Are you going to ask? It's not going to influence --

MR. KISE: I don't see how it could influence the witness. I don't see how any of this could influence the witness. And they make speeches all the time, but at all events we've now -- Mr. Amer's concerned about disruptions. We've now wasted a minute or two and I haven't even said what I'm objecting about.

THE COURT: Well, I think it's fair -- it's always fair to make sure what is about to be spoken or asked won't influence the witness because we can always take the witness out, but I'll accept your representation that what you're about to say or ask will not influence the witness.

MR. KISE: I don't see how it could. All I'm going to say is you're constantly on this side of the table about time. I'm not sure what the purpose of all this back and forth is. The witness has testified -- he's testified about what he remembers right now today. Whether he remembered it in his deposition or not seems immaterial to the process at this point because Mr. Amer's already gotten the answers that he wants and so now he's going to go back and play this again and go over the same answer. So it's a waste of time. It's asked and answered and asked and answered and asked and answered and we've been doing this all afternoon, so at some point it just needs to end. I don't see how that influences the witness. It should just influence the proceeding.

Transcript continues on the following page....

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for sharing that. Let's continue.

MR. AMER: Thank you, your Honor.
Q I wasn't asking about whether I had -- whether principal or main person involved. I'm asking a very simple question based on all of the e-mails that we've been looking at, the calendar invites, the contacts you've had with Mr. McArdle, the comps you were sending him, will you concede that your testimony on line six and seven, that you really haven't been involved in appraisal work on this property was incorrect, yes or no?

A No.
Q So you stand by your testimony at your deposition that you really haven't been involved in appraisal work on the Seven Springs property, yes?

A To a -- to a small -- to a -- I was clearly involved, but to a very small point and I think I was very clear that I had very limited memory of Mr. McArdle. I testified -- and yes, I see your e-mails. 100 percent I made a couple of calls.
Q You say here you really haven't been involved and I'm trying to understand if you're standing by that testimony or if you're willing to acknowledge that you did have involvement --

MR. KISE: Objection. This is borderline harassment.

THE COURT: Asked and answered. He said he stands by it. You can make of that what you will.

MR. AMER: Well, Your Honor, he said "I was clearly involved." He didn't stand by his testimony. That's in the transcript.

MR. ROBERT: You asked him directly if he stands by it and you asked him directly if he stands by it and he said yes.

MR. AMER: And then he said on line 16, "I was clearly involved."

THE COURT: I thought he said no.
MR. ROBERT: "I really hadn't been involved." You're now -- Mr. Amer is now conflating what limited involvement Mr. Trump had which is consistent with he hadn't really been involved. He just said he had a few e-mails.

THE WITNESS: I really haven't --
THE COURT: When I said he said no, I was talking about a different --

MR. ROBERT: Sorry.
THE COURT: It was my confusion. All right.
MR. ROBERT: Sorry, Your Honor.
THE COURT: If the question is do you stand by it, the earlier testimony on the screen, the answer is yes; am I correct?

THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. I stand by --

Page 3385
THE COURT: You stand by it, okay.
Q Let's look at line 16 when you testified at your deposition starting at line 16, that you don't focus on appraisals between a law firm and Cushman.

Will you concede that your testimony was incorrect based on all of the e-mails we've been looking at; yes or no?

A I don't focus on appraisals between law firms and Cushman, no, I don't. That's not a focus of my day. I'm an operator. I am a construction guy. I build projects. I don't focus on appraisals, no.

Q And let's look at page 198, line 12. When you testified at your deposition, starting at line 12, that you recognized David McArdle's name only very vaguely, would you concede that you had significant communications back and forth and interactions with Mr. McArdle on the appraisal engagement for both Seven Springs and Briarcliff; yes or no?

MR. KISE: Objection; "significant."
A No, there's a handful of e-mails from well over ten years ago and I don't remember the person's name. I hardly remember the person's name. I stick by that 100 percent.

THE COURT: The language doesn't have to be the exact same. Objection overruled and he answered it anyway.
Q I want to fastforward to 2021. Were you on a video conference call in the fall of 2021 to discuss the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition that was in the process then of included your brother Donald Trump, Jr., Patrick Birney, Jeffrey
McConney and Ray Flores, does that refresh your recollection?
    A It's possible. I -- I'm on a thousand calls a day. I just don't remember.
    Q Let me show you some testimony from Mr. Birney, Patrick
    Birney to see if it can further refresh your recollection. Page 1390, line 8 to 1391, line 12:
    "QUESTION: The meeting that I asked you about, how many participants were in the meeting?
"ANSWER: I worked remote for 2021, so there were a lot of these calls. So can you be more specific about which meeting you're referring to?
"QUESTION: Sure. Specifically a meeting over Google Meet about the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition.
"ANSWER: There were multiple meetings in 2021 as I was remote.
"QUESTION: Were there any meetings about the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition in which Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump participated?
"ANSWER: Yes.
"QUESTION: So about -- speaking about the meeting, how many other participants were there other than

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3388

\section*{on it?}

A It does not.
Q One more clip from Mr. Birney on this meeting. It's page 1406:1 to 1407:4:
"QUESTION: So would it refresh your recollection if we pulled up some of your prior testimony, pages 1194 to 1195 ?
"ANSWER: Sure.
"QUESTION: Starting at line 17. So I'm trying to understand the change is discussed about golf club valuation method. You described it as a consensus decision among you, Mr. Garten and Mr. Flores, correct?
"ANSWER: Yes.
"QUESTION: Does this decision need to be approved by someone else at the company who is superior to the three of you after it's made in your group consensus?
"ANSWER: I don't know if there was an official approval. I think that's why it brought up the change in methodology in that call with Don and Eric."

And I just said, "okay, continue your answer."
"So that they were at least aware."
"Does that refresh your recollection as to whether you wanted to advise Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump about the change in golf course methodology that occurred in 2021?"
those two people?
"ANSWER: Myself, Alan Garten, Ray Flores, Jeffrey McConney.
"QUESTION: Allen Weisselberg was not in the meeting?
"ANSWER: I don't think Allen Weisselberg was in that meeting.
"QUESTION: Approximately when did this Google Meeting occur?
"ANSWER: Probably in October of 2021.
"QUESTION: During the Google Meeting that we are talking about now, did you share any information with the other participants?

THE WITNESS: Yes.
"QUESTION: What did you share?
"ANSWER: I shared documents on the screen.
"QUESTION: And what were those documents?
"ANSWER: I believe I toggled between a few documents during the call. One I think was a Statement of Financial Condition summary. One was the supporting data street and we may have seen the Word document which would have been the -- a draft of the final Statement of Financial Condition."

Does seeing that testimony from Mr. Birney jog your memory about this Google Meeting call and whether you were

Page 3389
"ANSWER: I discussed it. I don't know if I wanted to discuss it. Can you ask the question in a different way maybe?
"QUESTION: Sure. We can look at your testimony. It says, "I think that's why it brought up the change in methodology in that call with Don and Eric, so that they were at least aware." Why did you want to make them at least aware of that change?
"ANSWER: Because it was a, as you put it, significant change to the year before."

Does that additional testimony from Mr. Birney about needing to discuss with you and your brother the significant change to the golf course methodology that occurred in 2021 jog your recollection of this video conference call?
A It doesn't. I would have left that to the finance team.
Q You considered Patrick Birney to be a solid guy, didn't you?

A I like Patrick Birney very much.
Q And you considered him to be a solid guy, right?
THE COURT: I think that's what he just said, right?

MR. AMER: Well, he didn't adopt those exact words.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I was looking for help on \section*{that one.}

A Yes, I do.
THE COURT: You have to look up, not sideways for help.
the purpose of the call was to advise you and your brother of the change in methodology for the golf courses in 2021, right?

A It seems like that's possible, yes.
MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2021 Jeff Supporting Data which is Exhibit 1352 in evidence. Let's go to Row 289.

MR. ROBERT: Just a point of clarification. This would be Birney's supporting data if it is 2021, not Jeff's.

MR. AMER: I'll take that correction. Why don't we just call it the supporting data.

MR. ROBERT: Fair enough.
MR. AMER: It is in evidence, so it is what it is.
Q Let's look at Row 289. That's where the section for Briarcliff begins. Do you see that?

A Yes, I do.
Q If you look at Row 306, there's a note in that row and it's - it says, "Upon the advice and guidance of Marcus and Millichap, golf course industry experts, a normal golf course with a negative EBITDA trades at two to three times gross revenue. We took an average of three times gross revenue and net fixed assets."

Do you see that?
A I see that, yes.
Q And we've had testimony from Mr. Flores, others that there was a change in methodology for 2021 based on the advice

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3392
1 and guidance that's referenced in this note. So can you accept that?

A I mean, if you tell me that's true. I don't know.
This is very foreign to me, but if you tell me that's the testimony, I'll believe you.

THE COURT: I may have to swear him in first if he's going to testify.
Q And does seeing this note about the advice from Marcus & Millichap and this being the basis for a change in the way the golf courses were valued, does that trigger a recollection for you about being on a call where that change in methodology was discussed; yes or no?
A It does not.
Q And if we look at Row 363, which is Colts Neck, it refers to "advice and guidance from Marcus & Millichap for a course with a consistently positive EBITDA trading at six to eight times EBITDA, but the last few purchases have been nine to ten times based on the quality of Trump courses could sell at ten times EBITDA."

Again, we've had testimony that this is the basis for a change in methodology for those courses that consistently had positive EBITDA. Does that trigger any recollection of being involved in a call in fall of 2021 where the change -- this change in methodology was discussed?
A It does not.

Q Now, just to orient us in time with respect to the October 2021 video call that Mr. Birney testified about, as of October 2021, you certainly knew about the Attorney General's investigation that led to this enforcement action, right?

A Yes, I did.
Q In fact, a year earlier, you sat for an investigative interview with attorneys from the Attorney General's office where you provided testimony under oath, right?

A Yes, I did.
Q And on dozens of occasions during that interview, you invoked your --

MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
MR. ROBERT: Mr. Amer is about to get into something that is completely irrelevant and immaterial in an attempt to sensationalize something that's not really sensational. Maybe you want to excuse the witness and we deal with it, but he is about to get into the fact that two years ago when Mr. Trump was interviewed he invoked his Fifth Amendment rights and then two years later sat for a deposition. It's totally improper.

THE COURT: Is that what you were about to do?
MR. AMER: I'm happy to explain why it is relevant.
THE COURT: Should we excuse the witness?
MR. ROBERT: It's absolutely irrelevant.

MR. ROBERT: I don't believe so.
MR. AMER: I don't think it is irrelevant.
MR. ROBERT: If you want to --
THE COURT: So do you want to explain the relevance?

MR. AMER: Sure. I think it's relevant to this witness' recollection or lack of recollection of a phone call that's discussing the subject of something he knows is an ongoing Attorney General investigation where the call is about the very subject of that investigation where he sat for an interview under oath and even invoked his right against self-incrimination.

I think it goes to his credibility as to whether or not he recalls this -- this Google Meeting call that was less than three years ago, Your Honor. So yes, it is relevant to his credibility.

MR. ROBERT: It is absolutely not. Mr. Trump availed himself of a constitutional right that he has because at that point, it was the appropriate thing to do. The Attorney General then noticed him for a deposition in this case. He sat literally for seven hours on the nose because I remember at seven hours on the nose, we ended it. He answered every question. He did not invoke his

\section*{1 THE COURT: If it is irrelevant, do we have to excuse the witness?}

1 constitutional right, which he could have, and this line of questioning is improper; but it was dealt with just so that at the end of the day, the stories would be that the issue that Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment right two years ago is what's going to be the news tonight. It is completely irrelevant. It's completely prejudicial and this line of questioning needs to stop.

MR. KISE: One other issue --
THE COURT: I'll let --
MR. KISE: - just to Mr. Amer only has to respond once. It is funny he's not interested in the witness being excused even though we asked three times. Here is the thing. So all of these conversations that we're talking about center around a privileged communication. We've been through this before. Mr. Garten was on the call, so the substance of what was discussed would have been privileged anyway and they've continued to invade that privilege.

Second, anything that was done or decided as a result of that ruling they did as part of the subsequent remedial measures as a result of the investigation. So again, none of this should be really coming in at all. Any decision that was made as a result of the awareness of an investigation would be subsequent remedial measures and it shouldn't be admitted at all.

The witness has said he has no reason to doubt that

1 he was on the call, but he doesn't remember the call. He testified about the call. The fact that he testified before is established. The fact that he was subpoenaed and testified in the special proceeding in the investigation is established. So I don't know what else other than sensationalizing is the issue here other than either invading the attorney-client privilege, getting into subsequent remedial measures, or just harassing the witness. I'll wait again to get the note that you have from Ms. Greenfield. You may have a question for me. Maybe it is about dinner.

MR. AMER: Can I mention one thing, Your Honor?
THE COURT: In a second.
MR. AMER: Okay.
THE COURT: Mr. Kise, all joking aside, and even I like to leaven the proceedings, do not refer to my staff again. A person sitting alongside of me is my principal law clerk. She's a civil servant. She's doing what I ask her to do, which is help me process cases and decide them correctly.

Sometimes I think there may be a bit of misogyny the fact that you keep referring to my female principal law clerk. If there is any further reference to anyone on my staff, and I don't have a big staff, I have about three people, I will consider expanding the gag order to include the attorneys including yourself. That being said, why don't we just break for the day because it is almost 4:30. I promised Mr. Amer --

MR. KISE: May I respond to that on the record briefly?

THE COURT: Respond to that and then we will get to Mr. Amer.

MR. KISE: Briefly. I just want to be clear. I have my own constitutional First Amendment rights. I have the right to represent my client in a courtroom. I have the right to observe -- make points in the record about observations that I make if there is bias in the proceeding that my client perceives, I have to advance that. If there is reason for that bias, then that's an issue in the proceeding.

I do often feel -- frequently, I do feel like truly that I'm fighting two adversaries and I'm not trying to impugn anyone. I'm trying to point out as a lawyer and I think it is fair comment as a lawyer. I understand what your ruling is, but I have to respond to this because this is important.

So I feel like I'm sitting here and I have to respond to Mr. Amer or their arguments. I hear what those arguments are and I get to see what those arguments are and we get to have our engagement, but then there is someone

1 else who is sending you information on a very, very frequent basis. I think yesterday we counted maybe 30 times, 40 times and so I don't get to understand what this is and those -- and I'm not --

THE COURT: That's right. You don't --
MR. KISE: I'm not trying to invade it. All I'm trying to say is that gives off -- respectfully that gives off the appearance of impropriety and I'm entitled to at least make a record about that. It is not impugning anyone. It does give off the appearance of impropriety particularly if it is an individual or individuals that have a different view of the case than we do, have a different political background or political view than we do. And so those are relevant issues for Your Honor's consideration.

Again, this is why I brought up on the constitutional -- I asked you to reconsider the gag order on the constitutional basis because I think it raises much more serious issues and I don't really want to go there and I'm trying not to; but at some level, I have to at least have fair comment on what I think is biased. I made my record and I understand Your Honor's ruling.

MS. HABBA: By the way, I'm happy to make the record for Mr. Kise, so that none of my team members are accused of misogyny. I assure you that's not the issue. I have the same, frankly, issues with the person sitting on conference happened and then asking him if he remembers it and he's going to say, "No, I don't remember it." He's not disagreeing with Mr. Birney, but he doesn't remember it.

We need to move on. We've been here now all day and gotten, frankly, not very far because the questions are repetitive, asked and answered, asked and answered. He's trying to elicit a response that's not accurate and Mr. Trump is not going to give him a response that's not accurate. He doesn't remember, he doesn't remember. We need to move on. We will be here well into next week if we do not move on.

MR. ROBERT: May I simply say that I join in my colleagues' comments.

MR. AMER: Can I make a few points, Your Honor?
THE COURT: After me.
MR. AMER: Okay.
THE COURT: Mr. Kise and the rest of the team, I have an absolute right, absolute, unfettered right to get advice from my principal law clerk. It actually goes a little broader than that, but at the very least from my principal law clerk. There is no First Amendment value that I can see referring to her particularly when making things up and that's not you, that's somebody else. So weighing the First Amendment right against the safety of my staff, we know what's going on out there in the world, I think your

1 the bench and I've made that clear on the record. And frankly, it is not only distracting, but it is insulting.

Your Honor, I respect your position, but I do feel like Mr. Kise that your position is often what you are given in notes and we don't have a clue what is going on; but we do know that there is a nod of the head by you when those notes are received and then decisions are made.

We have to make a record of it because, frankly, it's become part, and as I have said for three years for me personally, a part of the record and I'm not going to stand by and allow it to happen. I'm not going to let someone who's my teammate be called a misogynist because he is pointing out something, frankly, that I can do myself. So I will make my own record. It is inappropriate.

And I do have to say one other thing to Mr. Amer on the record and again, I'm happy to let Mr. Trump off the stand, but I do think it is inappropriate that he's trying to use something and make it appear as impeachment evidence and it is not. Mr. Trump has been very consistent. He doesn't like his answers, so he keeps trying to impeach my witness here and all he's doing is showing things that, frankly, show that he is consistent.

He doesn't have a recollection. If he has a recollection now, he'll tell you; but by showing him somebody else's transcript and telling him that a video 1 points are not well-taken about that.

In terms of the further -- on the merits here, some research has shown that subsequent remedial measures is only appropriate in personal injury cases. I will refer to Rule 4.19. I believe that's of the -- might be out of the benchbook, whatever. talk, have a few words. witness' -- the credibility of the witness' claim that he doesn't recall this video conference meeting that took place two years ago. I'm entitled to question that. I don't have to accept it and I can elicit evidence that puts in doubt his claimed lack of recollection. testimony is great and I'm very happy with it, and so this is not about not liking his testimony. I think his testimony is extremely favorable to our case and I welcome it.

And third, this witness' investigative interview and his invocation of his Fifth Amendment right has been in the news for years. If you want to Google it, you'll see that there are many articles that count the number of times he invoked his right against self-incrimination at that interview. So this is not about bringing to light something

And now, let's let Mr. Amer, who is very anxious to MR. AMER: Number one, I'm entitled to question the Second, as to Ms. Habba's comment, this witness'

1 that has, heretofore, never been shared with the public.

Those are my comments. I would like to continue tomorrow morning and I will just use this point to question the credibility of a claim that a call two years ago involving an ongoing investigation where he sat for an interview is simply not something that is plausible and that's my right, and the Court can do with it what it will.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, then, just briefly on your initial point, I do disagree, respectfully. I have to on behalf of my client comment on what I see going on in the courtroom that I think could prejudice or bias the proceeding. I don't -- I don't see what is being passed to you, so it is not possible for me to know.

THE COURT: That's right. You don't see it. That's -- I'm going to pound the table -- confidential communications from my principal law clerk. Absolute right to it and you don't have any right to see it or question it.

MR. KISE: I certainly have a right to question what is perceived by my client as bias. I do have that. I have to make that record. I do have that. That's just what lawyers do. I mean, I have to make the record. I don't think, respectfully, there is any security concern. We're talking about observations of what's happening in open court.

Everyone in this room can see what I'm seeing, so bias. There have been public commentaries about political persuasions of people involved in the proceeding. I don't know. So I think it is fair for me to at least make the record and comment. It's -- this is the real point.

When they're speaking, notes don't get passed. That's really the issue, is that when the Attorney General is making arguments, there aren't notes being passed for you to consider. They -- 95 percent. So with us, whenever I'm speaking or -- yesterday, I saw it the best because I stepped out to go to that hearing beforehand. I'm watching on the closed circuit TV and there, you can see what's happening differently than you can see here.

And so every time Mr. Suarez was making a point and there was a dialog, there would be notes passed to you. When the Attorney General was speaking, there would be no notes passed to you. So that's the perception of bias. Whether it is real or not, I have to make my record. So that's all I'm doing. I'm making my record. I'm doing it respectfully. I haven't made any comments outside this courtroom about anyone and I don't intend to. So all I'm doing is just making a record.

I understand Your Honor's point and I will abide by Your Honor's ruling, but you can't keep lawyers from being advocates. I think that that's over the line, respectfully.

THE COURT: I guess it is time to go. Ten o'clock inappropriately. I'm directing my comments to you and only to you, but I have to make a record if I perceive that there is potential bias.

THE COURT: How do you perceive there is potential bias by notes being passed back and forth? Don't you and Mr. Robert talk to each other?

MR. KISE: Of course, we talk to each other and we're advocates, so we are -- yes, we are biased, so it is the same principle. It's the same principle. Ongoing interaction, you can receive advice, of course, from a law secretary. I mean, you are a judge, but ongoing interaction in the course of the proceeding where it appears as though it is almost co-judging taking place, that's the perception from out here.

That may not be what you're doing. I can't tell what you're doing, but that's what the perception is, so we have to at least make our record to comment on it and again, I understand your ruling. No one is trying to impugn anyone.

I'm not a misogynist. I have -- I'm very happily married and I have a 17-year-old daughter, so I really have no issues there and so I reject that squarely. My point is and I think -- look, all I want to say is what I've said, which is we have to make our record. We perceive there is tomorrow morning.
I direct the witness, witness, please don't talk to anybody about your testimony, about this case, or anything related to it because you'll still be a witness tomorrow.

Thank you, everyone.
(Witness excused.)

1 Court propose we make our record about things that we 2 observe in open court happening?

THE COURT: Well, I let you do that the other day, yesterday, whenever it was.

MR. KISE: You did, right. I just want to make sure we're allowed to do that. I don't need to reference names or specifics, but to the extent there are issues that arise based on observations that we have, we have to make that record because, as you know, all that is left in the record is the written transcript. There is no video, there is no recordings and all that probably fortunately for all of us.

THE COURT: Right. Well, let me ask you this: Do you feel the need to make a further record as things stand now?

MR. KISE: I believe so, Your Honor. I mean, to the extent that there are perceptions of bias there are things that we as lawyers -- and I don't want to speak for my colleagues, but to the extent there are things that we observe that are taking place that create either the appearance of bias or the appearance of impropriety in our minds, then I think we have to take that up. I think it's our obligation as lawyers to make mention of these things even if it's just a brief mention.

We all -- it's like any other issue in the case if as political. I don't. To me, it's just a case about Executive Law Section 6312 and now about those other statutes. So I said enough.

You want to make a record, but please be careful.
MR. KISE: I always am.
I think we're treading in a dangerous area here because what we perceive as counsel to be bias we're certainly entitled to raise those concerns. I think we have to raise those concerns as lawyers.

The Rules of Judicial Conduct which I know you're well aware of maintain that the Court is to act in a way that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the system. And so impartiality, I believe in the rules is defined as denoting the absence of bias or prejudice, the absence of it.

So to the extent there is the potential for bias, that's certainly something that's relevant. I mean, the entire country, if not the world, is watching this proceeding and they are looking at this. The United States heretofore has been a model for the integrity and impartiality of the system since its founding. Nothing we do here should create any appearance that the adherence to those principles has wavered and so to the extent that there is even the perception of bias that's something that needs to be addressed and addressed in the record because we have \(\mathbf{1}\) & I have a legal issue. We were respectful to the Court and 3411 \\

2 & we don't belabor the issues, but we have to at least mark \\
3 & it, otherwise it's waived. \\
4 & THE COURT: Well, I promise not to pound the table \\
5 & again and the bench. I have an absolute unrestricted, \\
6 & unfettered right to get advice from my principal law clerk \\
7 & or assistant law clerk. How that shows bias somehow, I \\
8 & don't see it. I mean, but if you want to say something now, \\
9 & say it. But I don't -- I don't want to endanger the safety \\
10 & of my staff. Maybe I'm being overly sensitive or overheated \\

12 & And notice you could say whatever you want about \\

no other way to address it other than in the record.
Yes, as a judge you're entitled to receive input, but if you're receiving input from someone who has potentially demonstrable bias or at least there is a question about that and the manner in which that's taking place we have to at least make that record. That is our right.

Now, in the view of President Trump, and I think to some extent the view of counsel here, if not to a large extent, our observations are what we say. You're free to disagree as you've done, but I think the record -- and this is the importance of making this record, demonstrates that we're getting hurried up, we're getting told to move on, we're getting put on the clock, we're -- the rulings are frequently, if not inordinately, against us on almost every major issue. And so we're also, as I said yesterday, I certainly am often thinking I'm arguing against two adversaries, not one. I'm debating with the government and then I'm debating with someone who is providing input to you on a regular, immediate basis.

THE COURT: Hold on. You say you need to make a record. You've said all this. Those exact words basically.

MR. KISE: I'm not adding words.
So as I understand it this morning, there is a new story out about particular political partisan contributions
\begin{tabular}{|rl|}

1 & that have been made by certain members of your staff; that \\
2 & there was a complaint made. It's public and on the web. \\
3 & There was a complaint made about this. It was addressed to \\
4 & Your Honor's attention on October 3rd, the very same day the \\
5 & gag order was entered and it raises questions of \\
6 & impartiality. At least from what I see this morning it \\
7 & raises questions of impartiality. \\
8 & \multicolumn{1}{c}{ And there are specific judicial cannons that } \\
9 & prohibit campaign contributions and I don't know anything \\
10 & other than I saw this story this morning, let me be clear on \\ 11 & that. But there are specific provisions that the Court is \\
12 & to make sure that the Court and -- I'll define the Court \\
13 & broadly to include the staff so I'm not making that \\ 14 & interchangeably because I know Your Honor doesn't want me to \\ 15 & be specific about any individual or persons, but that \\
16 & prohibit contributions, that prohibit certain partisan \\
17 & political activity by members of the Court. And this \\ 18 & complaint that was filed and the news coverage of it at \\ 19 & least calls into question that particular cannon. I believe \\
20 & it's Section 100.5 C2 of the rules governing judicial \\ 21 & conduct. \\
22 & There are several judicial ethics opinions, 10-76, \\
23 & 07-11 and 97-103, all of which address this particular \\

\section*{Proceedings}

1 to the Court what is being reported and what has been 2 reported as being presented to this Court on October 3rd, the same day as the gag order was entered. I don't know whether that's been considered or whether it's been ignored, but certainly it forms at least in my mind a basis for raising a question of potential bias. I think it's a legitimate question that needs to be addressed.

The fact that we found out about it -- that I found out about it reading it on, you know, in the news, raises additional questions about the appearance of impropriety. Whether or not sustainable, it certainly raises the issue.

President Trump, as you know, was here and purportedly made a statement about the same sort of bias outside. I won't get into the back and forth that took place about who he was speaking about, but he's purportedly making statements about someone who, by your own definition, is alongside of you having bias and now there is some allegation that maybe there is merit to that.

And to the extent there is merit to that, then it's something that needs to be addressed. And it is a fair conclusion that warnings to Counsel, gag orders on parties -- we're not allowed to even mention these subjects. It's a fair conclusion to be drawn that the purpose of that is to silence any allegation of bias. It's to silence any challenge to any notion of impartiality and in a case that 1 is this highly watched, I don't think that the systemically we can survive with those kinds of - those kinds of issues. I mean, the constitutional rights and protections that are preserved to all in this country are at their peak when you're dealing with someone who might not be popular, might be someone who is controversial. And so in a case like this it's essential that we take real care to adhere as closely as possible to those cannons and I think it's incumbent upon the lawyers to raise these issues.

I think the security concerns as you've heard me say I understand you're concerned, but I think given what just happened that photographers come into the Court and they take pictures of the open bench, all we're commenting on -- by the way, as I understand it, I never knew this before. As you know, I'm from Florida. Where we had open courts for 40, 50 years, TV cameras. Here, apparently, it's a crime to allow photographers into the courtroom and take pictures in a proceeding like this. I'm not an expert on this, I just know that -- so if the security concerns are that heightened, I'm straining to find the rationale that squares both.

I think that if the allegations that have been out in the media have any substance to them and I'm not commenting on whether they do or not, but if they do then I think -- and we'll know more I guess in the coming days. If 1 Your Honor was aware of this on October 3rd when this random individual apparently filed some complaint and sent it to the Court and no action was taken and no notice was given to Counsel and nothing was addressed, then I think the defense will have to give serious consideration to seeking a mistrial because of the -- as you say, the continuous input if there is someone that's biased.

Again, I'm not the prejudging outcome here and I want to be very careful to note that, but since you've raised the issue of how we make our record, I mean, perhaps we make our record by just saying the Court has done \(X\) or the Court has done Y, the Court has accepted a note without any mention of any individual, without any mention of staff, but unfortunately, given the clarity of the rules of judicial conduct, the gravity of what has been reported and the significance of these proceedings to our American democracy it's incumbent upon us as lawyers and I will say respectfully to the Court to take this seriously. And I'm not suggesting that you don't. Let me be clear, but I think we all need to take this very seriously because the entire world is watching and none of us can afford to misstep.

I have always and will continue to address my comments to you, the Court, but I have to be allowed as a lawyer to raise issues that are obvious in open court that everyone in this room can watch and see.
\begin{tabular}{|cc|}
\hline Proceedings & Page 3418 \\
1 & And I notice that the closed circuit camera now -- \\
2 & after my mention has now been adjusted so that it's much \\
3 & more difficult to see if notes are being passed. It may \\
4 & just be that somebody bumped the camera on the TV screen. I \\
5 & do that at home frequently nudging things, but we need to \\
6 & take care here, respectfully, to avoid any appearance. \\
7 & The allegations that I looked at in the news this \\
8 & morning gave me some concern and certainly gave me some \\ 9 & thought that there is at least a plausible basis to have to \\
10 & raise considerations of bias, particularly when you're \\ 11 & getting input on an ongoing basis. And I feel, as I have \\ 12 & said, that I'm often debating with two adversaries. \\
13 & THE COURT: Yes, you've already said that. \\
14 & MR. KISE: That's it. But I'll leave it there, \\

17 & MR. AMER: Your Honor, I just have very four very \\

19 & THE COURT: Sure. \\
20 & MR. AMER: The first is -- \\
21 & THE COURT: You expect me to let you make a record? \\

recusal or a motion for a mistrial, make a motion on notice with papers and put in your evidence and let's not waste time during the trial with long speeches. There is a process to follow. It's making a motion on notice and that's what should happen and we're just wasting a lot of time with speeches when if they really have a basis, put it in motion papers. They can appeal it, they can do whatever they want with it, but this is just a waste of time, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, just very briefly because Mr. Amer has now mentioned more specifically what I was referring to. Perhaps I was not transparent.

The news this morning does in fact relate to extrajudicial conduct specifically and it makes specific allegations about specific extrajudicial conduct that violates Section 100.5 C2 of the rules governing judicial conduct with respect to contributions to partisan political activity.

I -- since I don't know other than the news report, I haven't investigated, I haven't looked into anything other than what I'm saying, I'm not prepared to make a motion, but I did tell the Court just now that on Monday we may if this develops further, but I think it's incumbent to make the record. This information about extrajudicial conduct --

THE COURT: It's not information. It's an
\begin{tabular}{|ll}

1 & notes being passed between a clerk and a judge and whether \\
2 & there are more notes being passed when one side's witness is \\
3 & on the stand versus another is a position I've never heard \\
4 & of and I think is completely frivolous. That's our \\ 5 & position. I've never heard that and I don't think it has \\ 6 & any merit. \\
7 & Bias. It's clear from the case law can only be \\
8 & established by extrajudicial conduct. You can not establish \\ 9 & bias based on decisions that a judge makes or rulings on \\
10 & evidence that a judge makes during the course of a trial. \\
11 & If that were the case, Your Honor, every time a judge issues \\
12 & a partial summary judgment decision against one side then \\ 13 & the judge would have to recuse himself or herself. That's \\ 14 & not the law. Clearly it's not. \\
15 & And this Court has already issued a summary \\
16 & judgment decision that makes certain rulings and you cannot \\ 17 & base a -- an argument or bias on rulings during the course \\
18 & of the case. \\
19 & No party, no party has the right to be privy to the \\ 20 & internal deliberations of a chambers. That's absolutely \\
21 & clear and that includes knowing when and how many notes are \\ 22 & being passed one way or the other. \\
23 & And finally, and I would implore you to please, you \\
24 & know, compel that if the other side has evidence of \\ 25 & extrajudicial conduct that they believe is a basis for \\ allegation. I don't even know what you're talking about, but I'll respond later.

MR. KISE: The allegation --
THE COURT: Thank you.
MR. KISE: -- was made and apparently delivered to the Court and that's something that has been brought to our attention so we have to raise it.

MR. WALLACE: I'm sorry to interrupt. Mr. Wallace. Can I just ask what is the report you're discussing? Where does it appear?

MR. KISE: I'm not the Internet person. I want to say it's on -- hold on. I want to say it's on Breitbart maybe, but I don't know. I don't know. I think it's on Breitbart. It's on a news outlet. We get pummeled with news information.

In all events, I've made the record and I appreciate you allowing me to make the record. I do take the matter seriously and we're not just wasting time as Mr. Amer just said. These are important matters and they deserve at least to be heard and you have allowed that. Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Well, I agree with Mr. Amer's points.
As to Mr. Kise, I'll respond, not to everything. If I don't respond to something, doesn't mean I accept it or agree with it. You covered a lot of ground.

First of all, this idea that somebody had notified me, what was that, on October 3rd or --

MR. KISE: What I understand, yes.
THE COURT: Absolutely untrue, okay. Absolutely untrue. I don't remember and my memory is good enough to remember whether I would have received such an allegation, so that's that.

Secondly, I have no idea until you said Breitbart what this news allegation is. I'll let everybody in the room decide what they think of Breitbart.

Third, having gotten myself elected twice -actually, three times, I'm not an expert on political fundraising campaign contributions. When a non-judge or a judge is running for office there are window periods -- I won't make a whole lecture because I couldn't. I think it's nine months before and six months after you're allowed to spend money. Okay, neither of us is an expert.

So I'm sorry we've descended to this level where an allegation that the first part I know is untrue or at least I'm 99 percent sure is untrue and the second part what I didn't report today, I don't know. I can't comment.

It's a shame we've descended to this level. I totally agree the world is watching. I've gotten, you know, a sense that it's not just the country. It's the world.

As for the camera being moved, I was vaguely aware
```

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

```

A \(\quad \mathrm{I}\) do.
\(Q\) And you'll recall he testified that he remembered that you and your brother, Donald Trump, Jx., were on the call and that the purpose of the call was to make the two of you aware of the change in mathodology for valuing the golf olubs in the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition. Do you recall that?
A Yes, I do.

9 So 1 just want to ask you a few questions about matters that you were aware of at the point in time when this call happened.

In October of 2021, you did know about the Attorney General's investigation that led to this enforcement action; correct?

A Yes. I would have been working with legal coungel.
\(Q\) And you knew that the investigation focused on the way assets were being valued in your father's statenent of Financial Condition; yes?

A Absolutely, yes.
0 And a year before that call took place you sat for an interview in connection with the Attorney General's investigation where you provided testimony under oath in response to questions; right?

A That's correct.
9 And those questions were about the statement of Financial Condition as well as other matters; correct?
that Rob, the tech person, was switching the angle of the camera. Never occurred to me that it could have anything to do with what we're discussing today or why it was.

So I just want to move forward with the trial. I just want to do the best job I can do. I want to be straight down the middle. I don't regard this as political. It's a trial about Executive Law 6312 and the other second through seventh cause of action provisions.

So I hope we've all said what we feel like we need to say. Anything else?

Okay. Mr. Amer, would you like to continue your examination?

MR. AMER: I would. We would like to recall back to the stand Eric Trump.
(Whereupon, the witness approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: Morning. I'll remind the witness that he's still under oath, as I always do.

And let's proceed.
20 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION
21 BY MR. AMER:
Q Thank you.
Mr. Trump before breaking for the day yesterday, we were discussing the October 2021 video conference call that Mr. Birney had testified about. Do you recall that? JCL

Page 3425
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

A Yes.
Q So I'm just going to ask you is it your testimony here today that you have no recollection of participating in a video call that occurred two years ago involving the same subject matter as the ongoing Attorney General investigation that you were aware of at the time; is that right?

A I'm testifying that I don't recall a specific oall out of thousands of calls on every single day. There isn't a question there were conversations in the organization about the Statement of Financial Condition after this action started.

9 But your testimony is that you have no recollection of this specific call that Mr. Birney testified about at trial; is that right?

A Mr. Amer, 1 --
\(Q\) Yes or no?
A I pick up my phone at 5 o'clock in the morning and \(I\) put it down at midnight. I don't remenber a specific call. There are thousands of conversations about the Statement of Financial Condition after this exercise commenced.
\(Q\) Just to be clear, you do not remember the call that Mr. Birney testified about?

A I don't remember it.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Asked and answered.
A I don't remember a specific call three years ago, no. THE COURT: Iet's move on.

\section*{E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)}

Q We're good.
Let me ask you a couple follow-up questions that you gave toward the end of the day about a distinction you were drawing between the appraisals for easement donations and the erercise of valuing the assets for the Statenent of Financial Condition.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and pull up the testimony. It's page 3376, line 13 to 3377, 5.
Q And I'll just sort of paraphrase your answer, but please feel free if you need to read the whole thing. The gist of your testimony yesterday was that the erercise conducting an appraisal for an easenent donation and the exercise of valuing the assets for the Statement of Financial Condition were, as you say on line 21, "two totally different exercises;" is that right?

A Yes.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q And if you go down to the next page and you again emphasize that they are two very different topics; is that right?
A For the reason I noted above, yes.
Q Okay. Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3196 which is already in evidence. This is an e-mail exchange from David -- this is an e-mail from David McArdle to a consultant that he testified he reached out to on September 13, 2013 related to Briarcliff and you are not on this e-mail, but it does reference you.

So I want to just ask you about the second to last sentence of that first paragraph. Mr. McArdle said to his consultant, "of Course, Eric has lofty ideas on value and assumes \($ 1,000\) plus price PSF, per square-foot, is no problem." Do you see that?

A I do, and I think the market today would show that that would be --

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. The question was just do you see that. One step at a time.
A Yes.
Q And do you have any reason to doubt that Mr. McArdle is accurately reflecting what you told him about your ideas on value?
A I think $1,000 a square-foot would absolutely be achievable, yes.

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Q And based on this e-mail, it appears that that's what you told Mr. McArdle, correct?

A It looks like that I say \($ 1,000\) a square-foot would absolutely be achievable for the product that we were going to build, yes.

MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and pull up the 2013 supporting data spreadsheet which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 708 in native. Let's look at Rows 253 to 267.
Q This is the section that discusses the valuation of the 71 mid rise units. That was the subject of Mr. McArdle's engagement, correct?
A Correct.
Q And line 264, what is the price per square-foot that Mr. McConney is using?

A A thousand dollars a square-foot.
Q The same number that you provided to Mr. McArdle, correct?

A Yes. I told you yesterday that those numbers look like they would be very accurate for the project that we had in mind.

Q Okay. And let's put up some other testimony on the same subject matter from yesterday. This is at line 3367. Sorry. Page 3367 , line 9 to 15 and this is a quick Q&A, so I'll just read it.
"QUESTION: Mr. Trump, to your knowledge, did you ever forward to Mr. McConney or tell Mr. McConney anything about Mr. McArdle's valuation?
"ANSWER: I would have never thought to, no.
"QUESTION: So the answer is you did not?
"ANSWER: I didn't -- no, I did not. I would have never thought to because I didn't work on this document.

THE COURT: Wait a minute. Wait a minute. You said, "I didn't know." It sounds like "I'm not aware of." I would read that, "I didn't, no."

THE WITNESS: Exactly, Your Honor. Anything in life is possible. I sent thousands of e-mails every day. Anything is possible.
Q I didn't ask you a question.
THE COURT: There's no question.
MR. AMER: Apologize, Your Honor. I do recall reading it, so I may not have used the inflexion that I should have, but I appreciate your point.
Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1074. This is an e-mail exchange that you have with Mr. McConney in September of 2013, correct?
A Looks to be, yes.
MR. AMER: I move to admit into evidence, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as \section*{Plaintiff's Exhibit 1074.)}

2 Q I'm just going to look at the e-mails from the bottom up. The first e-mail is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you where he says, "Eric, did the appraisal come in yet. Thanks, Jeff." Do you see that?

A I do.
Q And then the middle e-mail is from you back to Mr.
McConney. "I have a call with David tomorrow at 1:30. Would you like to join." That's a reference to David McArdle, correct?

A Yes.
Q You were inviting him to join the call that you're going to have with Mr. McArdle the next day at \(1: 30\), correct?

A It's very diligent of me. I'm very proud of myself.
Yes, I am inviting my controller to join a call that apparently I had with David McArdle.
Q So you thought it was appropriate to have Mr. McConney join the call that you were going to have with Mr. McArdle; yes or no?
A I asked him if he wanted to join, yes.
Q In the top e-mail, Mr. McConney says in response to you, "I don't need to be on the call. I'd just like to know the value, so I can use it for your dad's F/S." That's what he wrote back to you, correct?

A Correct.
E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)

Page 3431
Q And you understood "F/S" to mean financial statement, right?
A A financial statement of my father's yes.
Q So at least on this one occasion, you did think it was appropriate to share Mr. McArdle's valuation with Mr. McConney; yes or no?
A Yes, clearly, I was very diligent. I asked him if he would like to join our call.

Q Now, you testified you were aware that there was a conservation easement donation over the Seven Springs property in 2015, right?

A Correct.
Q And you are aware that that easement donation was based on an appraisal done by Cushman & Wakefield, yes?

A Yes, I am.
Q Are you aware that the final appraisal for the Seven Springs easement donation was a kind of appraisal known as a before and after appraisal?
A I wouldn't get into these details. I would leave something like that to Sheri Dillon.

Q My question wasn't about who you would leave the details to.
A I don't know the appraisal methodology of exactly what happened behind the scenes, no.
Q Do you know that it was a before and after appraisal;

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3432

\section*{yes or no?}

A Sitting here today, ten years later, I would have zero recollection of that.

MR. AMER: Okay. Let's go ahead and put up the 2016
Jeff Supporting Data which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 742 in evidence and I'd like to take us to Row 927.
Q You'll see Row 927 is the row that relates to Seven Springs and has the valuation. If we just go up to check the dates, there's the value in Column G. Just go up until we hit a date for Column G. Column G is 2015, June 30, 2015 and Column H is June 30, 2016. Let's now go back to Row 927. And you see that Mr. McConney's note says, "even Springs per appraisal for easement."

And I'll represent to you, and we can put up the testimony if you'd like to see it, but I'll represent to you that Mr. McConney testified at trial that because the donation was made after June 30, 2015, he used the before value from the appraisal of 56 million for the 2015 value and he used the after value from the appraisal of 35.4 million for the value in 2016.

Mr. Trump, were you aware that Jeffrey McConney used the Cushman appraisal for the easement donation on Seven Springs as the basis for the value of the asset in both 2015 and 2016; yes or no?

A Not to the best of my knowledge, no.
Q I'd like to talk to you now about some certifications you signed. Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1330 in evidence.

Page 3433
This is a document entitled, "power of attorney." I'll wait until we get you a copy. If you turn to page 6 of 8 of this document, you'll see that -- do you recognize that as your father's signature under the principal line?
A It is very distinctive. I do.
Q And he signs it on March 9th of 2017, correct?
A Correct.
Q And on page seven, it lists both you and your brother Donald Trump, Jr. as the agents, correct?
A That's correct.
Q And is that your signature on the second line?
A Yes, it is.
Q And you and your brother both signed this document on March 13th of 2017, correct?
A Yes, we did.
Q And page three of the document shows the grant of authority. Do you see that?
A I do.
Q And to just to go through this quickly, your father initials item \(P\), which indicates a grant of authority for items A and D above. A is real estate transactions. D is banking transactions. Do you see that?

A That's correct.
Q And then under G, modifications, there is an underlying paragraph. I'm just going to read it. "The authority granted hereunder is solely with respect to the execution and delivery of certifications and similar documentation (including without limitation compliance certificates) in connection with existing financings in which Donald J. Trump is a guarantor."

Do you see that?
A Absolutely.
Q Can we agree that this is the document that authorized you to sign certifications as attorney in fact for your father in connection with loans?
A That looks to be accurate, yes.
Q Let's go ahead and look at some certifications for 2020. We are going to look at Exhibit 518. You'll see that the first page is an e-mail from Adam Rosen to an individual at db.com, which is Deutsche Bank.

Do you see that?
A I do.
Q His attachment lists a number of compliance certificates -- sorry. The e-mail lists as attachments a number of compliance certificates. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q Do you recall that you were the person who signed these 2020 certificates?
A Yes, I do.
Q If we could just quickly look at them and identify your

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)}

Page 3435
signature the on these. Page three, if you'd look at that first, that's your signature, correct?
A Yes, it is.
Q And page five, that's your signature, correct?
A Yes, it is.
Q And page seven, that's your signature, correct?
A That's my signature, yes.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: It's in. Granted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 518.)

MR. AMER: Thank you.
Q Let's go back to page two of the exhibit. This is the compliance certificate for the Chicago loan, correct?

A That's correct.
Q And under the first numbered paragraph, "financial information," I'm correct that there's no "X" mark next to the first bullet that indicates the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition as attached, correct?
A That looks to be correct, yes.
Q And the paragraph underneath the three bullets indicates in the second sentence,"As agreed by lender and without prejudice to lender's reliance on the certifications herein, guarantor hereby certifies that the guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2020 shall be submitted to the lender no later than December 31, 2020."

Do you see that?
A That's what it says, yes.
Q So it appears that that statement was not ready yet to be included in the certification as of the date the certification was signed, right?

A I wouldn't know the answer to that question. That's a legal or accounting question. I would have no idea sitting here today.

Q It is a question about whether the Statement of Financial Condition was available as of this date.
A I just -- I don't know the date of this document so it is a little bit hard for me to say.

Q Let's scroll down. The other way. Sorry. It is dated October 28, 2020?
A Scroll back down, please.
Understood. It looks like it wasn't due until December 31, 2020.

Q Do you know why it wasn't ready yet by the date of this certification? Just yes or no.
A I would have no idea.
Q And there's the same statement in absence of an " X " in the box for the other two compliance certificates, so can we agree your response would be the same for those as well?

Page 3437
A If it saves this Court time, absolutely. THE COURT: It does. MR. AMER: It does.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, there we go.
Q And if you look -- if we go down in the document, there are certain facts being stated in paragraph four about the net worth of the guarantor. Do you see that?

A I do.
Q Can we agree that by executing -- by the way, there are - there's a net worth of guaranty section in the other two certificates as well. Can we agree that by that executing each of the three certifications as Donald J. Trump's attorney in fact, you were certifying to Deutsche Bank the facts set forth in the net worth of guaranty section in each of the certifications, yes?
A Absolutely.
Q And when you executed these three certifications, you intended the bank to rely on the certifications; isn't that right?
A I don't know what the bank does with the certifications. I certified something that I believe was accurate and my lawyers told me that it was accurate and our financial people told me it was accurate and that's absolutely accurate. As to what Deutsche Bank does with a piece of paper like this, I have no idea.
\(1 \quad\) Q Let me just be clear because I don't think that was my question. I'm not asking you about what you think the bank did or didn't do with the certification. I'm asking you about your own intention when you sign this.

Is it correct that when you signed this, it was your intent that the bank rely on these certifications to satisfy obligations under the loan agreements; yes or no?

A No.
Q Your answer is no, you didn't have that intent?
A I don't choose what somebody relies on. What the bank wants to rely on, they can rely on. I believe everything I put in this statement was absolutely accurate and I stand by it 100 percent. As to what Deutsche Bank Deutsche Bank does with, it is their purview, their own company.

Q Let me ask it this way. Was it your purpose and intent of signing the certification to satisfy the obligations of the borrower under the loan agreements that these certifications relate to; yes or no?
A I don't know.
Q You did intend for this to be accurate, though, correct?
A Yes. I think my father's net worth is far higher than that number, yes.

Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 517.
This is now October 28, 2021 and this is a certification

Page 3439

\section*{E. TRUMP - PLAINTIFF - DIRECT(MR. AMER)} relating to Trump Endeavor 12, LLC. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q Is that the Doral loan?
A That is Trump Doral.
Q And it's your signature on the second page of this document, yes?

A Yes, it is.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 517.)
Q If we go to the first page and for this certification, the box is -- got an " X " mark in the first bullet that says, "Attached hereto is the guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2021," correct?
A That's correct.
Q So in 2021, the Statement of Financial Condition was available to be attached to this certification, correct?
A It certainly appears that way, yes.
Q And by signing this document, you certified as attorney in fact for your father that Donald J. Trump's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

Q And let's go ahead and mark as Plaintiff's Exhibit 516 the next certification. And this is a 2021 certification for the Chicago loan, correct?

A Yes, it is.
Q And that's your signature on the second page of the document, right?

A Yes, it is.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 516.)
Q By signing this document -- if we look at the first page again, by signing this document, you certified as attorney in fact for your father that Donald J. Trump's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

A That's certainly what it says, yes.
Q You intended this to be an accurate representation when

Page 3441

\section*{you signed it, correct?}

A I would not sign something that was not accurate.
MR. AMER: And the next document is Plaintiff's Exhibit 515.
A Mr. Amer, I could probably save you some time. I think my answers are going to be the exact same to every one of them.

Q It's going to be very quick, but I just need to do it. These are important documents.

THE WITNESS: Just to save Your Honor some time.
THE COURT: I appreciate the witness' desire to save time. Let Mr. Amer do what he needs to do ASAP, quickly.

MR. AMER: I think I've been doing that, Your Honor.
Q This is the certification for the Old Post Office loan, correct?

A Yes, that's correct.
Q That's your signature on the second page, correct?
A Yes, it is.
MR. AMER: I move to admit this into evidence. THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 515.)
Q And by signing this document, you certified on behalf of your father as his attorney in fact that Donald J. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition present the fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

A Correct.
Q And you intended this to be accurate when you signed it, correct?
A I would not sign something that wasn't accurate.
Q Now, we've just looked at three certifications you signed stating that your father's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021.

Can you tell us what, if anything, you did to ascertain that the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition in fact presents fairly all material -- in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30,2021 ?
A I relied on a very big accounting office. I relied on one of the biggest accounting firms in the country. And I relied on a great legal team and when they gave me comfort that the statement was perfect, I was more than happy to execute it.
Q Did you personally review any of the methodologies used to value any of the assets in the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition, yes or no?
A No.
Q Did you personally review any of the supporting data prepared by Patrick Birney in connection with the preparation of the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition yes or no?

Page 3443
A Not that I can remember.
Q One more certification. It's Plaintiffs Exhibit 76.
Actually, let me rephrase that. This is a loan modification, not a certification.

Do you recognize this as the July 9, 2019 loan modification relating to the Seven Springs mortgage?
A Yes, I do.
Q And am I correct that you executed this document on behalf of Seven Springs, LLC as its president?
MR. AMER: If we go to the signature page.
A It looks like that I did it as attorney in fact for my father.

Q Were you at this time the president of Seven Springs, LLC?

A I likely was, yes, July 9th of 2019.
MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this document.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 76.)
Q Let's go to paragraph 8 H . You'll see 8 H says, "All of the representations and warranties of borrower under the loan documents are hereby restated and reaffirmed as true and correct by borrower as of the date thereof and hereof and are incorporated herein by their "-. "herein in their entirety by this reference." Do you see that?
A I do.
Q And you understood when you signed this loan modification that you were confirming that representation and warranty, correct?
A That's what it says.
Q And you intended that representation to be accurate when you signed this document, right?
A I wouldn't sign something that I thought was inaccurate.
Q Let's go ahead and move to Mar-A-Lago. Let me show you Exhibit 1382 in evidence. It is already in evidence. Mr. Trump, you'll see that there are two e-mails here. The first is -- the bottom e-mail is from a gentleman, Mr. Corbiciero who was a tax advisor to the company and his e-mail is dated November 17, 2021 and he's sending it to Ray Flores. Mr. Flores reported to you, correct?
A Yes, Mr. Flores worked in our office.
Q Not my question, though.
He reported to you, correct?
A He had several different reports.
Q Were you one of them?
A Oh, absolutely. Yes, I was.
Q And the subject matter of the e-mail is Mar-A-Lago homestead exemption. Do you see that?

Page 3445
A I do.
Q Then if you look at the top e-mail, Mr. Flores is passing this along to both you and Mr. Weisselberg. Do you see that?

A I do.
Q And he passes it along for your information and asks you to let him know if you'd like to discuss this homestead exemption further. Do you see that?
A I do.
Q Do you recall receiving this e-mail and reviewing it?
A I recall some details about this issue, yes.
Q And if we look at the second sentence of Mr.
Corbiciero's e-mail, he writes, "Last year, we briefly discussed the possibility of filing for a homestead exemption on the Mar-A-Lago property since President Donald Trump had really declared Palm Beach and the Mar-A-Lago property as his permanent residency." You were certainly aware of that fact, right?
A Absolutely.

1 Q And then the second paragraph I'm going to walk you through and ask you some questions about -- he begins by saying, "in order to do this and this being filing for a homestead exemption, Mr. Trump would have to meet certain requirements to establish residency."

Did you understand when you got this e-mail and reviewed it that there were certain requirements that would need to be met in order for your father to file for a homestead exemption now that he was legally declaring Palm Beach to be his legal residence?
A It's certainly what it says.
Q My question is different.
A Do I understand it? Yes, I understand.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Mr. Amer, try not to say "okay." MR. AMER: I will try not to.
Q Skipping two sentences down, he says "since the private club is currently owned by a corporation, the property ownership would need to be changed/transferred into his name as an individual and not under a corporation."

First of all, at this point in time you and your brother were running the company; right?
A Yes, I would have been the head of the company at this time.
Q Were you aware that Mar-A-Lago was owned by a corporation as of this time?

A I don't think we have a single asset that wouldn't be owned in an entity structure. It's just not how you own real estate. Yes, I would be aware of that it's owned in form of entity.

Q And you were also aware it was being operated as a private club; right?

A As a club, yes.
Q He goes on to say "if he was to meet all these requirements then the part of the property that he uses as a residence would be eligible for homestead. The property appraiser would need to come out and do a property inspection and measure the residential area and that portion of the assessment would receive the homestead exemption."

Did you read and understand what Mr. Corbiciero was saying would have to happen to the property in order for your father to file for homestead exemption?
A That's what it said. I, again, don't remember much about this, but sure, I certainly trust the words on this piece of paper.

Q Let's look at the next paragraph.
Mr. Corbiciero says "currently, this property is assessed as a private club with the current assessed value at $359 per square foot."

Did you understand in November of 2019 that Mar-A-Lago

Page 3448

1 was being assessed as a private club at a rate that applied to a 2 commercial property?

A Certainly says that.
Q My question is a little different.
Were you aware of that fact in this time frame?
A I don't think I'd be so nitty-gritty that I focused on details like this. This is just not what an executive at my level focuses on. I certainly see it says that in words.

Q And when you reviewed this you would have understood it at the time; right?

A Presumably. I'm not sure how much attention I paid to this to tell you the truth.
Q Goes on to say "the surrounding residential properties are assessed on average of over 2,000 per square foot with a recent sale just over \($ 3,000\) per square foot."

Mr. Trump, did you understand that there was a different rate that applied to residential properties versus commercial properties in Florida?
A As a real estate guy do I think that residential properties are taxed differently than commercial properties? Yes, absolutely. 100 percent.

Q I want to be more specific. Did you understand that in the state of Florida residential properties were assessed at a higher rate per square foot than commercial properties; yes or no?

Q And he goes on to say "if the property appraiser were to separately assess the residential portion of Mar-A-Lago in order for it to qualify for homestead, we believe this would result in a much higher assessment and therefore outweigh the potential tax savings from the \($ 50,000\) homestead exemption in the immediate future." Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q So did you understand from reviewing this e-mail that by categorizing a portion of Mar-A-Lago as residential it would increase the tax assessment because the rate that applies to residential properties is much higher than the rate that applies to commercial properties?
A Potentially. Again, as I said, I probably didn't focus too much on an e-mail like this.

Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1352, which is the 2021 supporting data that's in evidence.

I'm going to ask to look at Rows 184 and 185 relating to Mar-A-Lago. Do you see in Row 185 it says "value if sold to individual?"

\section*{A Yes, I do.}
\(2 \quad Q\) Did you understand at the time that you certified the 2021 statement of financial -- sorry -- withdrawn.

Did you understand when you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021 that Mar-A-Lago was being valued as if it were a private residence that could be sold to an individual; yes or no?

A Well, I think I testified very extensively I haven't seen the backup, but Mar-A-Lago is a residence that could be sold to a private individual and we have that absolute zoning right to do so, so that doesn't surprise me at all that you value it that way.

Q And you're saying that was your understanding at the time that you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 statement presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father; correct?

A It's very clear that Mar-A-Lago is not a club. It's a private residence and yes -- so I see nothing wrong with that a hundred percent.

Q And did you understand at the time that you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 statement presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father that at that time Mar-A-Lago was being valued for purposes of tax assessment as though it were a commercial property used as a private club; yes or no?

A It is being used as a private club.
MR. AMER: Your Honor --
A Yes.
THE COURT: We'll take "yes" to be the answer.
A It's used as a private club.
Q And you understood that at the time you signed the certification; yes?

A That Mar-A-Lago is a private club, yes. Mar-A-Lago is a private club.

Q And more to the point that it was being assessed for property tax purposes as a private club; yes?

A Sure. I think that's how you would assess it. Q Okay.

THE COURT: Try not to say "okay". Even softly. THE WITNESS: If you're worried about me, it doesn't bother me.
MR. AMER: The Judge has to be even handed. I take his point.
THE WITNESS: I've got thick skin, Your Honor. THE COURT: Good. You'll need it.
Q You'd be happy to hear I have one more document and the Judge will be happy to hear that it's already in evidence.

And this is Exhibit 1751. I'm just waiting for the extra copy.
A And I'm happy to read off the screen. I don't need the formalities.

Q This is a Separation Agreement between the Trump Corporation and its various related entities and Allen Weisselberg. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q And I just want to confirm on page seven of eight that you are the person who signed this agreement on behalf of the company?
A On page six?
\(Q\) Yes. I'm using the page numbers at the very bottom next to the plaintiff's exhibit number. So it says page seven of eight?

A Don't worry about it. I clearly signed this agreement.
Q I just want the record to be clear we're looking at the right page?
A Understood.
Q Okay. And you signed this on January 12, 2023; correct?

A It looks that way, yes.
Q And we've had testimony from Mr. Weisselberg just so we have the timeline correct that he had pled guilty to 15 counts of tax fraud on August 18th of 2022, so several months before you signed this agreement. You were aware of his guilty plea when you signed this document; correct?

A I don't know what I was aware of when I signed this document. Presumably if this document would be after, yes; if it was before, clearly not. I don't --
Q Well, I just said that he testified at trial that he pled guilty on August 18th of 2022, so that's --
A Yes, I would have been aware if that's the case.
Q And if you look at page two of the document under -- at the bottom of the "benefits" paragraph.

MR. AMER: If we could blow that up.
Q It says "the company agrees to make severance payments to the employee," that's Mr. Weisselberg, "in installments of 250,000." I'm just paraphrasing pursuant to a schedule. Do you see that?
A Yes, I do.
Q And let's just quickly look at the schedule, which is the last page of the document.

According to the payment dates Mr. Weisselberg has received only the first three of his eight installments; correct?

A I presume that to be the case, yes.
\(Q\) And if we go back to page two of the document under paragraph three there is a list of employee promises. Do you see that?

A I do.
\(1 \quad Q\) And it says "in exchange for the benefits provided in paragraph two, that would include the installment payments;" right?
A Yes, I assume that's what it's referring to.
Q Mr. Weisselberg promises certain things. I just want to highlight two of them. One of the things he promises is Paragraph B, not to verbally or in writing disparage, criticize or denigrate the company or any of its current or former entities, officers, directors, managers, employees, owners or representatives. Do you see that?
A Absolutely.
Q So one of the things he was promising not to do in exchange for getting his payments was to not disparage, criticize or denigrate you; correct?

A Certainly not a lawyer, but it seems like that's pretty standard language for any severance agreement, yes.

Q So the answer is yes?
A I don't know what it's intended for, but it probably means that he can't openly in the press disparage me, yes. I would never disparage him.
Q But at any rate you are not getting installment payments from him. He's getting installment payments from the Trump Company; correct -- Trump Corporation?

A He's a man that worked at the company for 50 years. I was -- ten years before I was born he was working at the

Page 3455
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

\section*{company, yes.}

Q Okay. And in exchange for getting these installment payments he's agreeing not to verbally or in writing disparage, criticize or denigrate certain entities and individuals? And I'm just asking you simply to confirm that those entities and individuals would include you; correct? Yes or no?
A Well, I'm certainly an officer of the company, so, yes.
Q Okay. And it would also include your brother Donald Trump, Jr.; correct?
A Very much sounds like it, yes.
Q And it would include your father Donald Trump; yes?
A Presumably.
Q And because it includes former officers it would include your sister Ivanka Trump; correct?

A She would be a former officer, yes.
Q Okay. And then if we look at Paragraph D, another one of the promises that Mr. Weisselberg makes in exchange for getting his payments is "except for acts or testimony directly compelled by subpoena or other lawful process issued by a Court of competent jurisdiction," he will not, "one, communicate with, provide information to or otherwise cooperate in any way with any other person or entity, including his counsel or other agents having or claiming to have any adverse claims against the company or any person or entity released by this agreement with regard to the adverse claim."

Let me just stop there. Can we agree that one such entity with adverse claims against the company at the point you signed this is the Attorney General's Office of the State of New York; yes?
A I don't know. This looks like pretty boilerplate language for me in an agreement like this, but are you adverse to us, yes. I think the whole world knows you're adverse to us, so I will say yes.
Q "Or two, take any action to induce, encourage, instigate, aid, abet or otherwise cause any other persons or entity to bring or file a complaint, charge, lawsuit or other proceeding of any kind against the company or any person or entity released by this agreement." That was the second part of that promise; correct?
A That's correct.
Q Okay.
MR. AMER: Sorry, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Mr. Amer, how much longer with the witness, with this topic, etc.?

MR. AMER: Just a couple questions both with the witness and with the document and I'm done.

THE COURT: Roughly how long?
MR. AMER: Two minutes.
THE COURT: Go right ahead.
Q Mr. Trump, did you participate in the business decision to enter into this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg; yes or no?
E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (Amer)

Page 3457
A Yes.
Q And was entering into this agreement a business decision that you approved; yes or no?
A I signed it. I clearly approved it.
Q And you testified at the very beginning of our session yesterday that if your father directed you to take an action post his leaving the presidency you would follow his direction.
Do you recall that?
A I do.
Q Did your father direct you to enter into this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg?

A No, he did not.
Q Did he approve of it to your knowledge?
A I did this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg. He's a person that worked with our organization for 50 years. I was the person who did this, I was the person who signed it, I was the person who negotiated it.

Q That doesn't really answer my question, which is whether your area approved it; yes or no?

A He did not.
MR. AMER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Give me a moment or two.
MR. AMER: We have some housekeeping. We don't need do with the witness on the stand.

THE COURT: All right. We'll excuse the witness. Thank you.

THE COURT OFFICER: Members of the audience, remain seated.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I'd like to go back to where we were this morning after our various statements on the record. I'll consider defendants' objection to by consulting with or receiving notes from my law clerk to be a continuing objection and I will continue to consult with the staff that I'm ethically allowed to consult with, that being my two law clerks and I will continue to do that for the trial.

Mr. Kise and your colleagues, your record is preserved and going forward I don't want any other comments about my staff or how I communicate with them.

Would you like to respond?
MR. KISE: Again, just to be clear, Mr. Robert may have something as well.

So then we are not permitted to note for the record just the observation? That's it? Without comment, without any argument? Just simply make a note on the record so that it's clear in the record what's taking place in the courtroom? Because otherwise there is no way to -- there is no other way to do it. I don't have another way to do it.
end of the case and so there has to be a complete record. I may have made a record to this point, but --

THE COURT: But I'm giving you an opportunity to make a record going forward. I will continue to do it. If you want me to say every week or every day yes, I can communicate with my law clerk today or yesterday, I'll do that because I am absolutely certain that I have the right to do that and you can make whatever record you want, but let's not belabor this point.

MR. KISE: I'm not trying to, but I just want to be clear the contemporaneous nature of it is relevant for purposes of the record. So, in other words, the fact that there are notes being passed in the abstract I might agree with you may not give rise to any issue, but if notes are being passed at certain specific times or if they're being passed in a way that might indicate some bias -- and I'm not going over that record again. It's there. That's a record that needs to be made contemporaneously. There is no other way to do it contemporaneously.

To say at the end of the day yes, you received notes, okay, that may be fine. As you yourself indicated, you may receive notes about lunch. It's possible, so it's the contemporaneous nature of it and I'm not trying to burden the proceeding and we can even come up with a shorthand for it if you want me to note an objection or some

1 There is no recording, there is no video. So the only way the record will reflect what's actually taking place is to have some reference.

MR. WALLACE: Mr. Kise can note the number of notes passed and submit an affidavit if he chooses to make a motion at some point.

MR. KISE: I don't know that we need to do that, but if something is taking place it could just be simple as making reference that the Court paused or the Court received a note. I mean, it doesn't have to reference anyone specific or any way. It's just we have to be able to make some record.

THE COURT: Okay. You've made considerable record and I am stating on the record that I will continue to receive notes, consultations of any sort at anytime with my staff. So now you have as much as you need. If you want to appeal or move to recuse or whatever you want to do, you have plenty of ammunition. The problem is it's totally useless and meaningless because I have an unfettered, absolute right to consult with my law clerks anytime, anyplace about any matter. Go ahead.

MR. KISE: All I'm saying is from here forward the record isn't complete so between now and the end of the trial, there may be other things we have to note.

Appeals, as you know, generally take place at the 1 statement like that just so it's in the record. If that's what that means we're happy to do that. We're not trying to disrupt. It's just in order to have a complete record for appellate purposes. And what we do with that record will have to be decided at the time by maybe the appellate lawyers. We just have to be able to make the record on a contemporaneous basis. That's all I'm saying.

Mr. Robert.
THE COURT: You've had, what is it, four weeks now? And you've made a record continuously and I completely agree with the Attorney General's position. If you want to make a motion at this point, go ahead and do it.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I think we may --
THE COURT: There is no more need to make a record. You have such a complete record. You've made speeches, you made observations. I've said yes, it's being done and yes, I'll continue to do it. What more record do you want?

MR. KISE: It's like -- well, it's no different from now until the end of trial you're going to make other evidentiary rulings, I presume, or you're going to make other rulings about other aspects of the case. It's the same record. I mean, just because I've objected before to some particular thing, we still have to object going forward. I mean, that's just the nature of the appellate record. We just have to have some basis for it.

MR. WALLACE: It's not relevant to what is going on. We are trying to put on a trial and we are putting in witnesses making evidence. This sideshow of talking about the clerk passing notes to the Court is interrupting -- is seems, to me, largely designed -- I don't know. I guess you're making a record trying to blow up the trial, but also designed to interrupt our ability to put in evidence.

We've been doing this for five weeks. If you think this has been prejudice that has disrupted this trial, please make your motion now. Don't let us go on for another four weeks. But if there is something improper about the judge and the clerk passing notes, you should make your motion now instead of continuing to interrupt this trial.

The difference between making an objection about evidence and making an objection about something that is not relevant to an appeal, I think should be obvious at this point.

MR. KISE: So I appreciate the fact that to
Mr. Wallace it appears obvious. Maybe I'm slow. It's not obvious to me. The record is the record. I've only handled, I don't know, 200 appellate cases in my career. I've only handled four cases in the Supreme Court of the United States. I don't know much about appellate records.

MR. WALLACE: And how many of those cases involved an overturned decision based on notes passed from a judge to said, that's something that we will determine, but that's very different than an appellate record that needs to be complete for appellate purposes. So it would be no different than if I'm not allowed to object to some evidentiary ruling or some other issue. It's the same sort of thing. It's just really no difference to it at all.

THE COURT: What do you propose to do when you see a note or ten notes or a day's worth of notes to make a record every day hey, the principal law clerk is passing

MR. KISE: Your Honor, as we have done before, to the extent there is something that gives rise to in our minds the appearance of impropriety or bias then I think we have to flag that in the record. Otherwise, it's waived. We're going to get to the First Department and the First Department will look at us and say why didn't you raise that on the record? Why is it not there? If you're talking about a specific ruling at a specific time, why did you not raise it. That's all I'm saying. It goes back to what I was saying before in the past. I have certainly felt truly that I'm debating with two adversaries. I've got one in one place and one in another and that's a record that needs to respectfully, relevant for appellate purposes.

\section*{a clerk?}

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, one at a time.
MR. KISE: The answer to the question is none. That's why it's a significant record to be made. But no one is obstructing the trial. No one is doing anything to obstruct the trial. We are proceeding forward. They have been allowed to put in ample evidence and so, therefore -and over objection, sometimes the objections are sustained. But the point is we have to make our record. That's our -that is our role and right as attorneys.

So I -- and we haven't made it repeatedly. I have to disagree with that characterization. It's not been like every minute of every day that this issue has been brought to the forefront if it is impeded or proceeded in any way but there has so be some way if we believe that there is an issue that it be raised. That's all and we will be, as we have before, we will be direct, appropriate and measure. We're not making extra judicial statements about this. I certainly have not made any and don't intend to as you have probably observed over the last year is my general practice.

So the point is as a lawyer, though, I have to make a record and while I appreciate the advice and direction from the he Attorney General, those sorts of things are decided on this side of the table, just like what motions they bring and how they proceed is decided by them.

And Mr. Robert I know had one other thing.
MR. ROBERT: I just wanted some clarity because, Your Honor, are you directing us not to object or that we're not allowed to object to the conduct we observe in the courtroom? That's all I want to know.

THE COURT: I'll issue a written decision later today and you'll know.

All right. Anybody else? I understand we have housekeeping matters or matter?

MR. AMER: Yes, Your Honor. It goes to the point that we played some video clips of testimony and I realize the court reporter does not transcribe the video clips, so what we have are reports that contain the testimony that we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit so that we can get those admitted into evidence since there needs to be a record of what we all heard when we played the video clips and I've just --

MR. KISE: A record? Really? There needs to be a record? Wow. That's interesting.

MR. AMER: Yes, there needs to be a record.
So I'm going to hand out the plaintiff's exhibits. They're all a stack. So that's one stack, this is another stack.

Transcript continues on the following page...

MR. AMER: I'm going to go through them individually. Mr. Kise, I already discussed with your colleague Mr. Robert, so we agreed on this process. The first one is a clip of Mr. Weisselberg's testimony and -MR. KISE: If it is confirmed that they're correct, Your Honor, then we don't have a problem with it. I mean, he doesn't have to go through each line by line.

MR. AMER: I'm not. I'm going to say the exhibit number and I'm going to ask that they be admitted into evidence.

MR. KISE: We can do it by agreement.
MR. AMER: Plaintiff's Exhibit 3334 is a clip from Mr. Weisselberg. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3335 is the clip we played from Mr. McArdle's direct testimony. We did that both with Mr. Trump on the stand. I'm sorry. This is from Mr. Trump's -- Eric Trump's testimony. We played that for Mr. McArdle. That's 3335. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3339, that was Eric Trump's testimony that we played. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3338, also Mr. Trump's testimony we played. Plaintiff's 3337, another clip from Eric Trump. And finally, Plaintiffs 3336, another clip from Mr. Eric Trump's deposition testimony. So we ask that all of these exhibits be admitted into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: No objection.
THE COURT: Okay. Granted. They're in evidence.5
(Whereupon, the Clips were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3334-3339.)

THE COURT: Any other housekeeping matters? MS. FAHERTY: Yes, Your Honor. During the examination of Mr. Orowitz, there were two exhibits that were discussed. There was testimony on them, but counsel did not move them in for admission. So I'm putting it on the record we'd like to move these into evidence.

First is plaintiff's Exhibit P X 3111 and the second is PX 3332. Mr. Orowitz identified both of these exhibits as e-mail chains to which he was a sender and recipient as well. Although, they weren't formally moved in, we would ask the Court do so now.
(Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibits 3111&3332.)

MR. KISE: Your Honor.
THE COURT: Yes.
MR. KISE: For good measure on a Friday, statute of limitations and relevance objection.

THE COURT: Overruled. Any other housekeeping matters or any other matters? Just give me one second. Okay. We will reconvene on Monday at ten o'clock and the first witness will be?

MR. AMER: The only witness will be Donald J. Trump.

THE COURT: The only witness will be Donald J. Trump. Thanks, everybody. Good weekend.
(Whereupon the trial was adjourned to Monday, November 6, 2023.)
